

Minor in Adapted Physical Education
Department of Kinesiology and Health Studies
Southeastern Louisiana University

---

The Kinesiology and Health Studies Department at Southeastern is one of few programs in Louisiana offering courses leading to add-on teacher certification in Adapted Physical Education. Certification in Adapted Physical Education also requires certification in Health and Physical Education.

Courses required are:

KIN 321: Motor Learning

KIN 431: Measurement and Evaluation in Physical Education

*KIN 491: Introduction to Physical Education for Individuals with Disabilities

*KIN 492: Perceptual Motor Development of Individuals with Disabilities

*KIN 493: Physical Education for Individuals with Physical Disabilities and Other Impairments

*KIN 494: Curriculum Development for Adapted Physical Education

*SPED 200: Characteristics of Individuals with Exceptionalities

---

*These courses are offered on a rotating basis as evening courses and/or during the summer.

For more information, contact:

Dr Ed Walkwitz

Email: ewalkwitz@selu.edu

Phone: 985-549-2877