

2008 CHARLES REDMAN STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIPS APPLICATION

Awards:

- One $525 undergraduate scholarship will be awarded.
- Awards will be based on academic merit, date of submission of completed application, essay submission, and residency as outlined below.
- Recipients will be selected by the Study Abroad Scholarship Committee on the basis of the criteria outlined below.
- Awards will be announced by February 26, 2008

Requirements:

Eligible applicants must:

1. Be a US citizen and resident of one of the following parishes:

East Feliciana	West Feliciana	East Baton Rouge	St. Helena
Livingston	Tangipahoa	Washington	St. Tammany

Students must submit a photocopy of their driver's license, utility bill, voter's registration, or other document establishing residency in one of the parishes listed above.

2. Be enrolled at Southeastern at the time of application.
3. Have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher at the end of Fall 2007 semester. Both GPA and hours taken during the Fall 2007 semester will be considered in the final determination of awards.
4. Be returning to Southeastern for at least one semester after participating in the study abroad program.
5. Have been approved to participate in Study Abroad by the International Initiatives Office (this requires completion of the Application to Participate in Study Abroad, submission of two letters of recommendation to participate in study abroad, payment of $100 non-refundable deposit, and interview with the appropriate Study Abroad Faculty Program Coordinator). Applications for 2008 Study Abroad programs can be found at www.selu.edu/studyabroad.
6. Students must submit their completed scholarship application and a photocopy of their driver's license, utility bill, voter's registration, or other document establishing residency in one of the parishes listed above to the International Initiatives Office. Students are also required to turn in a short essay (no longer than one typewritten, double-spaced page) explaining why they want to study abroad.
7. Application Deadline: February 12, 2008.
