(e) Unless otherwise specified above, if fewer than all of the Bonds shall be called for redemption, the Bonds to be redeemed shall be in inverse order of their maturity, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Bond shall be called for redemption, a new Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof shall be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

(f) At least thirty (30) days before the redemption date of any Bonds, other than by mandatory sinking fund redemption, the Trustee shall cause a notice of any such redemption, signed by an authorized officer of the Trustee to be mailed, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders of record owning Bonds to be redeemed in whole or in part, at their addresses as they appear on the Bond Register, but any defect in such mailing of any such notice shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for such redemption. Each such notice shall set forth the date fixed for redemption, the redemption price to be paid and, if fewer than all of the Bonds then Outstanding shall be called for redemption, the numbers of such Bonds to be redeemed and, in the case of Bonds to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. In case any Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state also that on or after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Bond, a new Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Bond will be issued.

(g) Any notice of redemption may, at the direction of the Authority upon the written request of the Board, state that the redemption to be effected is conditioned upon the receipt by the Trustee on or prior to the redemption date of sufficient and legally available funds to pay the redemption price of the Bonds to be redeemed and that if such funds are not so received or are not so legally available such notice shall be of no force or effect and such Bonds shall not be required to be redeemed. In the event that such notice contains such a condition and sufficient funds to pay the redemption price of such Bonds shall not be received by the Trustee on or prior to the redemption date, the redemption shall not be made and the Trustee shall within a reasonable time thereafter give notice, in the manner in which the notice of redemption shall have been given, that such funds were not so received.

(h) On the date so designated for redemption, notice having been given in the manner and under the conditions hereinabove provided and money for payment of the redemption price being held in the applicable Debt Service Fund in trust for the owners of the Bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed, the Bonds or portions of Bonds so called for redemption shall become and be due and payable at the redemption price provided for redemption of such Bonds or portions of Bonds on such date, interest on the Bonds or portions of Bonds so called for redemption shall cease to accrue, such Bonds or portions of Bonds shall cease to be entitled to any benefit or security under this Indenture, and the owners of such Bonds or portions of Bonds shall not have rights in respect thereof except to receive payment of the redemption price thereof and, to the extent provided in the next paragraph, to receive Bonds for any unredeemed portions of Bonds.

(i) In case part, but not all, of an Outstanding Bond shall be selected for redemption, the registered owner thereof or his legal representative shall present and surrender such Bond to the Trustee for payment of the principal amount thereof so called for redemption, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to or upon the order of such registered owner or his legal representative, without charge therefor, for the unredeemed portion of the principal amount of the Bond so surrendered, a new Bond.

(j) Bonds and portions of Bonds that have been duly called for redemption under the provisions of this Article, or with respect to which irrevocable instructions to call for redemption have been given to the Trustee in form satisfactory to it, and for the payment of the redemption price for which moneys, or Defeasance Obligations, shall be held by the Trustee in a segregated account in trust for the owners of the Bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed, shall not thereafter be deemed to be outstanding under the provisions of this Indenture and shall cease to be entitled to any security or benefit under this Indenture other than the right to receive payment from such moneys.

Section 3.5 Execution; Limitation of Liability. The Bonds shall be executed on behalf of the Authority with the manual or facsimile signatures of the Chairman, Vice Chairman, or Executive Director and the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Authority, and shall have impressed or imprinted thereon the official seal of the Authority or a facsimile thereof. The Bonds, together with interest and premium, if any, thereon, shall not constitute a debt of the State or any political subdivision thereof. The Bonds, together with interest thereon, shall be limited and special obligations of the Authority and shall be secured by and payable solely out of revenues derived from the Payments made pursuant to the Agreement and Trust Estate pledged hereunder. The Authority shall not be obligated to pay the principal of the Bonds or the interest or premium, if any, thereon or other costs incidental thereto except from payments made pursuant to the Agreement. In case any officer of the Authority whose signature or whose facsimile signature shall appear on the Bonds shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such Bonds, such signature or the facsimile signature thereof shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if he had remained in office until delivery. THE BONDS ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE AUTHORITY PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE PAYMENTS RECEIVED BY THE AUTHORITY FROM THE CORPORATION PURSUANT TO THE AGREEMENT. THE BONDS DO NOT CONSTITUTE A PLEDGE OF THE GENERAL CREDIT OF THE AUTHORITY OR THE CORPORATION AND DO NOT CONSTITUTE AN INDEBTEDNESS OR PLEDGE OF THE GENERAL CREDIT OF THE STATE, THE BOARD, THE UNIVERSITY, OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION OF THE STATE (OTHER THAN THE AUTHORITY). THE BOARD HAS AGREED, PURSUANT TO THE FACILITIES LEASE, TO MAKE PAYMENTS OF BASE RENTAL TO THE CORPORATION ON BEHALF OF THE UNIVERSITY. THE PAYMENTS TO BE RECEIVED BY THE AUTHORITY FROM THE CORPORATION UNDER THE AGREEMENT ARE LIMITED TO THE AMOUNT OF BASE RENTAL RECEIVED BY THE CORPORATION FROM THE BOARD. THE AUTHORITY HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

Section 3.6 Authentication. No Series 2013 Bond, Series 2017 Bond, or Series 2019 Bond shall be valid or obligatory for any purpose or be entitled to any security or benefit under this Indenture unless and until a certificate of authentication substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A-1, Exhibit A-2, or Exhibit A-3, respectively, attached hereto and made a part hereof shall have been duly executed by a duly authorized representative of the Trustee, and such executed certificate of the Trustee upon any such Bond shall be conclusive evidence that such Bond has been authenticated and delivered under this Indenture. The Trustee's certificate of authentication on any Bond shall be deemed to have been executed by it if signed by an authorized representative of the Trustee, but it shall not be necessary that the same representative sign the certificate of authentication on all of the Bonds issued hereunder.

Section 3.7 Mutilated, Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Bonds. In the event any outstanding Bond, whether temporary or definitive, is mutilated, lost, stolen, or destroyed, the Authority may execute and, upon its request, the Trustee may authenticate a new Bond of the same principal amount and of like tenor as the mutilated, lost, or stolen or destroyed Bond; provided that, in the case of any mutilated Bond, such mutilated Bond shall first be surrendered to the Trustee, and in the case of any lost, stolen, or destroyed Bond, there shall be first furnished to the Authority and the Trustee evidence of such loss, theft, or destruction in form satisfactory to the Authority and the Trustee, together with indemnity satisfactory to them. In the event any such Bond shall have matured, instead of issuing a substitute Bond the Authority may authorize the payment of the same. The Authority and the Trustee may charge the owner of such Bond with their reasonable fees and expenses in this connection. Any Bond issued under the provisions of this Section 3.7 in lieu of any Bond alleged to be destroyed, lost, or stolen shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation on the part of the Authority, whether or not the Bond so alleged to be destroyed, lost, or stolen be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be equally and proportionately entitled to the benefits of this Indenture together with all other Bonds in substitution for which such Bonds were issued.

Section 3.8 Registration of Bonds.

(a) The Trustee shall be the bond registrar for the Bonds. So long as any of the Bonds shall remain outstanding, there shall be maintained and kept for the Authority, at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, the Bond Register for the registration and transfer of the Bonds and, upon presentation thereof for such purpose at said office, the Trustee shall register or cause to be registered therein, and permit to be transferred thereon, under such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, any Bond.

(b) Each Bond shall be transferable only upon the Bond Register at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee at the written request of the registered owner thereof or his legal representative duly authorized in writing upon surrender thereof, together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing. Upon the transfer of any such Bond, the Trustee shall issue in the name of the transferee, in authorized denominations, one or more Bonds of the same aggregate principal amount as the surrendered Bonds.

Section 3.9 Persons Treated as Owners.

(a) The Authority and the Trustee may, for the purpose of receiving payment of, or on account of, the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on any Bond and for all other purposes, deem and treat the person in whose name such Bond shall be registered upon the Bond Register as the absolute owner of such Bond, whether or not such Bond is overdue, and neither the Authority nor the Trustee shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

(b) Payment made to the person deemed to be the owner of any Bond for the purpose of such payment in accordance with the provisions of this Section 3.9 shall be valid and effectual, to the extent of the sum or sums so paid, to satisfy and discharge the liability upon such Bond in respect of which such payment was made.

Section 3.10 Exchange and Transfer of Bonds.

(a) As long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Bond or Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee, duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing, may, at the option of the registered owner thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of other Bonds in Authorized Denominations.

(b) For every such exchange or transfer of Bonds, the Authority or the Trustee may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee, or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer, which sum or sums shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer.

(c) The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (i) any Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Bonds selected for redemption, or (ii) any Bonds selected, called, or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

Section 3.11 Cancellation and Destruction of Surrendered Bonds. Upon the surrender to the Trustee of any temporary or mutilated Bonds, or Bonds transferred or exchanged for other Bonds, or Bonds paid at maturity by the Authority, the same shall forthwith be canceled and destroyed by the Trustee, and the Trustee, upon the request of the Authority, shall deliver its certificate of such destruction to the Authority.

Section 3.12 Delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds.

(a) Upon the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Authority shall execute and deliver to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall authenticate the Series 2019 Bonds and deliver them to the purchasers thereof as shall be directed by the Authority as hereinafter in this Section provided. The Authority shall execute and deliver to the Trustee and the Trustee shall authenticate the Series 2019 Bonds and deliver them to the purchasers thereof as shall be directed by the Authority as hereinafter in this Section provided.

(b) Prior to or simultaneously with the delivery by the Trustee of the Series 2019 Bonds there shall be filed with the Trustee:

(i) A copy, duly certified by the Secretary, Executive Director, or an Assistant Secretary of the Authority, of the resolution or resolutions adopted by the Authority authorizing the execution and delivery of this Indenture and the Agreement and all other instruments contemplated thereby and the authorization, issuance, sale, and delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds;

(ii) A copy, duly certified by an Authorized Corporation Representative, of the resolution or resolutions of the Corporation authorizing the execution and delivery of the Agreement, and all other instruments contemplated thereby and approving this Indenture and the authorization, issuance, sale, and delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds;

(iii) Original executed counterparts of this Indenture, the Agreement, the Facilities Lease, and the Ground Lease;

(iv) Signed copies of all opinions of counsel required in connection with the issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds and the transactions contemplated thereby;

(v) A request and authorization to the Trustee on behalf of the Authority and signed by its Chairman, Vice Chairman, Executive Director, Secretary, or an Assistant Secretary to authenticate and deliver the Series 2019 Bonds to the purchasers thereof and specifying the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2019 Cost of Issuance Account and the Series 2019 Current Refunding Fund; and

(vi) A signed copy of the legal opinion of Jones Walker LLP, addressed to the Trustee, to the effect that (i) the Series 2019 Bonds are exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and this Indenture is exempt from qualification under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended; and (ii) authorizing the Trustee to rely upon Bond Counsel's approving opinion as if it were addressed to the Trustee.

(c) The Authority hereby authorizes and directs the Trustee to execute and deliver the Series 2019 Tax Regulatory Agreement dated the Closing Date.

Section 3.13 Book-Entry Registration of Bonds.

(a) The Bonds shall be initially issued in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee for DTC, as registered owner of the Bonds, and held in the custody of DTC (or the Trustee as the agent of DTC under the F.A.S.T. delivery system). The Authority and the Trustee acknowledge that the Authority has executed and delivered a Blanket Letter of Representations with DTC and that the terms and provisions of said Letter of Representations shall govern in the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Indenture and said Letter of Representations. A single bond certificate for each maturity of Bonds will be issued and delivered to DTC. The Beneficial Owners will not receive physical delivery of Bond certificates except as provided herein. Beneficial Owners are expected to receive a written confirmation of their purchase providing details of each Bond acquired. For so long as DTC shall continue to serve as securities depository for the Bonds as provided herein, all transfers of beneficial ownership interest will be made by book-entry only, and no investor or other party purchasing, selling or otherwise transferring beneficial ownership of Bonds is to receive, hold or deliver any Bond certificate.

(b) For every transfer and exchange of the Bonds, the Beneficial Owner may be charged a sum sufficient to cover such Beneficial Owner's allocable share of any tax, fee or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto.

(c) The Authority, the Corporation and the Trustee will recognize DTC or its nominee as the Bondholder for all purposes, including notices and voting.

(d) Neither the Authority, the Trustee, the Corporation nor the Board is responsible for the performance by DTC of any of its obligations, including, without limitation, the payment of moneys received by DTC, the forwarding of notices received by DTC or the giving of any consent or proxy in lieu of consent.

(e) Whenever during the term of the Bonds the beneficial ownership thereof is determined by a book entry at DTC, the requirements of this Indenture of holding, delivering or transferring Bonds shall be deemed modified to require the appropriate person to meet the requirements of DTC as to registering or transferring the book entry to produce the same effect.

(f) DTC may determine to discontinue providing its services with respect to the Bonds at any time by giving notice to the Authority and the Trustee and discharging its responsibilities with respect thereto under applicable law.

(g) The Authority, in its sole discretion and without the consent of any other person, may terminate the services of DTC with respect to the Bonds if the Authority determines that (i) DTC is unable to discharge its responsibilities with respect to the Bonds, or (ii) a continuation of the requirement that all of the outstanding Bonds be registered on the registration books kept by the Trustee in the name of Cede & Co., or any other nominee of DTC, is not in the best interest of the beneficial owners of the Bonds.

(h) Upon the termination of the services of DTC with respect to the Bonds pursuant to the above two paragraphs, after which no substitute securities depository willing to undertake the functions of DTC hereunder can be found which, in the opinion of the Authority is willing and able to undertake such functions upon reasonable and customary terms, the Authority is obligated to deliver Bonds to the owner, at the expense of the said owner as described in this Indenture, and the Bonds shall no longer be restricted to being registered in the registration books kept by the Trustee in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC, but may be registered in whatever name or names holders transferring or exchanging Bonds shall designate in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture to the contrary, so long as any Bond is registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC, all payments with respect to principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Bond and all notices with respect to such Bond shall be made and given, respectively, in the manner provided in the Blanket Letter of Representations of the Authority dated November 17, 1998 and delivered to DTC.

(j) If at any time DTC ceases to hold the Bonds, all references herein to DTC shall be of no further force or effect.

Section 3.14 Provisions Related to Series 2017 Bond Insurance Policy and the Series 2019 Bond Insurance Policy. As long as any Series 2017 Bonds or any Series 2019 Bonds (for purposes of this section, collectively, the “Insured Bonds”) are insured by the Series 2017 Bond Insurer and the Series 2019 Bond Insurer (for purposes of this section, collectively, the “Bond Insurer”), are outstanding and Bond Insurer is not then in default under the Series 2017 Bond Insurance Policy or the Series 2019 Bond Insurance Policy (for purposes of this section, collectively, the “Bond Insurance Policy”), then notwithstanding any provisions of the Indenture to the contrary, the provisions of this Section shall apply; provided, however, to the extent the Bond Insurer has made any payments under the Bond Insurance Policy it shall retain its rights of subrogation:

(a) The prior written consent of the Bond Insurer shall be a condition precedent to the deposit of any credit instrument provided in lieu of a cash deposit into the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Indenture, amounts on deposit in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be applied solely to the payment of debt service due on the Series 2017 Bonds or the Series 2019 Bonds, as applicable.

(b) Further to the rights granted to Bond Insurer under Article VIII of this Indenture and as a term of this Indenture and each Insured Bond, the Trustee and each owner of the Insured Bonds appoint the Bond Insurer as their agent and attorney-in-fact with respect to the Insured Bonds and agree that the Bond Insurer may at any time during the continuation of any proceeding by or against the Authority, the Board, the Corporation or the University under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, rehabilitation or similar law (an “Insolvency Proceeding”) direct all matters relating to such Insolvency Proceeding, including without limitation, (A) all matters relating to any claim or enforcement proceeding in connection with an Insolvency Proceeding (a “Claim”), (B) the direction of any appeal of any order relating to any Claim, (C) the posting of any surety, supersedeas or performance bond pending any such appeal, and (D) the right to vote to accept or reject any plan of adjustment. In addition, the Trustee and each owner of the Insured Bonds delegate and assign to the Bond Insurer, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the rights of the Trustee and each owner of the Insured Bonds with respect to the Insured Bonds in the conduct of any Insolvency Proceeding, including, without limitation, all rights of any party to an adversary proceeding or action with respect to any court order issued in connection with any such Insolvency Proceeding. Remedies granted to the Bondholders shall expressly include mandamus.

(c) The maturity of Insured Bonds insured by the Bond Insurer shall not be accelerated without the consent of the Bond Insurer and in the event the maturity of the Insured Bonds is accelerated, the Bond Insurer may elect, in its sole discretion, to pay accelerated principal and interest accrued, on such principal to the date of acceleration (to the extent unpaid by the Authority) and the Trustee shall be required to accept such amounts. Upon payment of such accelerated principal and interest accrued to the acceleration date as provided above, the Bond Insurer's obligations under the Bond Insurance Policy with respect to such Insured Bonds shall be fully discharged.

(d) The Bond Insurer is a third party beneficiary of this Indenture.

(e) The exercise of any provision of this Indenture which permits the purchase of Insured Bonds in lieu of redemption shall require the prior written approval of the Bond Insurer if any Insured Bond so purchased is not cancelled upon purchase.

(f) Unless the Bond Insurer otherwise directs, upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default or an event which with notice or lapse of time would constitute an Event of Default, amounts on deposit in the Series 2017 Project Fund shall not be disbursed, but shall instead be applied to the payment of debt service or redemption price of the Series 2017 Bonds.

(g) The rights granted to the Bond Insurer under this Indenture or any other Bond Document to request, consent to or direct any action are rights granted to the Bond Insurer in consideration of its issuance of the Bond Insurance Policy. Any exercise by the Bond Insurer of such rights is merely an exercise of the Bond Insurer's contractual rights and, except as otherwise provided in the Bond Documents, shall not be construed or deemed to be taken for the benefit, or on behalf, of the Bondholders and such action does not evidence any position of the Bond Insurer, affirmative or negative, as to whether the consent of the Bondowners or any other person is required in addition to the consent of the Bond Insurer.

(h) To accomplish defeasance of the Insured Bonds, the Authority shall cause to be delivered (i) a report of an independent firm of nationally recognized certified public accountants or such other accountant as shall be acceptable to the Bond Insurer ("Accountant") verifying the sufficiency of the escrow established to pay the Insured Bonds in full on the maturity or redemption date ("Verification"), (ii) an escrow deposit agreement (which shall be acceptable in form and substance to the Bond Insurer), (iii) an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel to the effect that Insured Bonds are no longer "Outstanding" under the Indenture and (iv) a certificate of discharge of the Trustee with respect to the Insured Bonds; each Verification and defeasance opinion shall be acceptable in form and substance, and addressed, to the Authority, Trustee and Bond Insurer. The Bond Insurer shall be provided with final drafts of the above-referenced documentation not less than five business days prior to the funding of the escrow. Insured Bonds shall be deemed "Outstanding" under the Indenture unless and until they are in fact paid and retired or the above criteria are met.

(i) Amounts paid by the Bond Insurer under the Bond Insurance Policy shall not be deemed paid for purposes of the Indenture and the Insured Bonds relating to such payments shall remain Outstanding and continue to be due and owing until paid by the Authority in accordance with this Indenture. This Indenture shall not be discharged unless all amounts due or to become due to the Bond Insurer have been paid in full or duly provided for.

(j) Claims Upon Bond Insurance Policy and Payments by and to Bond Insurer.

If, on the third Business Day prior to the related scheduled interest payment date or principal payment date (“Payment Date”) there is not on deposit with the Trustee, after making all transfers and deposits required under this Indenture, moneys sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the Insured Bonds due on such Payment Date, the Trustee shall give notice to the Bond Insurer and to its designated agent (if any) (the “Insurer’s Fiscal Agent”) by telephone or telecopy of the amount of such deficiency by 12:00 noon, New York City time, on such Business Day. If, on the second Business Day prior to the related Payment Date, there continues to be a deficiency in the amount available to pay the principal of and interest on the Insured Bonds due on such Payment Date, the Trustee shall make a claim under the Bond Insurance Policy and give notice to the Bond Insurer and the Insurer’s Fiscal Agent (if any) by telephone of the amount of such deficiency, and the allocation of such deficiency between the amount required to pay interest on the Insured Bonds and the amount required to pay principal of the Series 2017 Bonds, confirmed in writing to the Bond Insurer and the Insurer’s Fiscal Agent by 12:00 noon, New York City time, on such second Business Day by filling in the form of Notice of Claim and Certificate delivered with the Bond Insurance Policy.

The Trustee shall designate any portion of payment of principal on Insured Bonds paid by the Bond Insurer, whether by virtue of mandatory sinking fund redemption, maturity or other advancement of maturity, on its books as a reduction in the principal amount of Insured Bonds registered to the then current Bondholder, whether DTC or its nominee or otherwise, and shall issue a replacement Insured Bond to the Bond Insurer, registered in the name of Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp., in a principal amount equal to the amount of principal so paid (without regard to authorized denominations); provided that the Trustee’s failure to so designate any payment or issue any replacement Insured Bond shall have no effect on the amount of principal or interest payable by the Authority on any Insured Bond or the subrogation rights of the Bond Insurer.

The Trustee shall keep a complete and accurate record of all funds deposited by the Bond Insurer into the Policy Payments Account (defined below) and the allocation of such funds to payment of interest on and principal of any Insured Bond. The Bond Insurer shall have the right to inspect such records at reasonable times upon reasonable notice to the Trustee.

Upon payment of a claim under the Bond Insurance Policy, the Trustee shall establish a separate special purpose trust account for the benefit of owners of the Insured Bonds referred to herein as the “Policy Payments Account” and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and sole right of withdrawal. The Trustee shall receive any amount paid under the Bond Insurance Policy in trust on behalf of owners of the Insured Bonds and shall deposit any such amount in the Policy Payments Account and distribute such amount only for purposes of making the payments for which a claim was made. Such amounts shall be disbursed by the Trustee to owners of the Insured Bonds in the same manner as principal and interest payments are to be made with respect to the Insured Bonds under the sections hereof regarding payment of Insured Bonds. It shall not be necessary for such payments to be made by checks or wire transfers separate from the check or wire transfer used to pay debt service with other funds available to make such payments. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Authority agrees to pay to the Bond Insurer, solely from the Trust Estate, (i) a sum equal to the total of all amounts paid by the Bond Insurer under the Bond Insurance Policy (the “Insurer Advances”); and (ii) to the extent permitted by law, interest on such Insurer Advances from the date paid by the Bond Insurer until payment thereof in full, payable to the Bond Insurer at the Late Payment Rate per annum (collectively, the “Insurer Reimbursement Amounts”). “Late Payment Rate” means the lesser of (a) the greater of (i) the per annum rate of interest, publicly announced from time to time by JPMorgan Chase Bank at its principal office in The City of New York, as its prime or base lending rate (any change in such rate of interest to be effective on the date such change is announced by JPMorgan Chase Bank) plus 3%, and (ii) the then applicable highest rate of interest on the Insured Bonds and (b) the maximum rate permissible under applicable usury or similar laws limiting interest rates. The Late Payment Rate shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a year of 360 days. The Authority hereby covenants and agrees that the Insurer Reimbursement Amounts are secured by a lien on and pledge of the Trust Estate and payable from such Trust Estate on a parity with debt service due on the Insured Bonds.

Funds held in the Policy Payments Account shall not be invested by the Trustee and may not be applied to satisfy any costs, expenses or liabilities of the Trustee. Any funds remaining in the Policy Payments Account following a Payment Date shall promptly be remitted to the Bond Insurer.

(k) The Bond Insurer shall, to the extent it makes any payment of principal of or interest on the Insured Bonds, become subrogated to the rights of the recipients of such payments in accordance with the terms of the Bond Insurance Policy (which subrogation rights shall also include the rights of any such recipients in connection with any Insolvency Proceeding). Each obligation of the Authority to the Bond Insurer under the Bond Documents shall survive discharge or termination of such Bond Documents.

(l) The Authority shall pay or reimburse the Bond Insurer, solely from amounts paid by the Corporation from Additional Rentals paid by the Board pursuant to the Facilities Lease and to the extent permitted by law, any and all charges, fees, costs and expenses that the Bond Insurer may reasonably pay or incur in connection with (i) the administration, enforcement, defense or preservation of any rights or security in any Bond Document; (ii) the pursuit of any remedies under the Indenture or any other Bond Document or otherwise afforded by law or equity, (iii) any amendment, waiver or other action with respect to, or related to, the Indenture or any other Bond Document whether or not executed or completed, or (iv) any litigation or other dispute in connection with the Indenture or any other Bond Document or the transactions contemplated thereby, other than costs resulting from the failure of the Bond Insurer to honor its obligations under the Bond Insurance Policy. The Bond Insurer reserves the right to charge a reasonable fee as a condition to executing any amendment, waiver or consent proposed in respect of the Indenture or any other Bond Document.

(m) After payment of reasonable expenses of the Trustee, the application of funds realized upon default shall be applied to the payment of expenses of the Authority or rebate only after the payment of past due and current debt service on the Bonds and amounts required to restore each Debt Service Reserve Fund to its respective Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement.

(n) The Bond Insurer shall be entitled to pay principal or interest on the Insured Bonds that shall become Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Authority (as such terms are defined in the Bond Insurance Policy) and any amounts due on the Insured Bonds as a result of acceleration of the maturity thereof in accordance with the Indenture, whether or not the Bond Insurer has received a Notice of Nonpayment (as such terms are defined in the Bond Insurance Policy) or a claim upon the Bond Insurance Policy.

(o) The notice address of the Bond Insurer is: Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp., 1633 Broadway, New York, New York 10019, Attention: Managing Director – Surveillance, Re: Policy No. 218242-N (2017) and Policy No. 219207-N (2019), Telephone: (212) 974-0100; Telecopier: (212) 339-3556. In each case in which notice or other communication refers to an Event of Default, then a copy of such notice or other communication shall also be sent to the attention of the General Counsel and shall be marked to indicate “URGENT MATERIAL ENCLOSED.”

(p) The Bond Insurer shall be provided with the following information by the Authority, the Corporation or the Trustee, as the case may be:

- (i) The fiscal year budget of the Board within thirty (30) days after adoption of such budget;
- (ii) Annual audits prepared by the Legislative Auditor of the State of Louisiana, within two hundred and ten (210) days of the completion of the Board's fiscal year or such later date as may be extended with the approval of the Legislative Auditor of the State of Louisiana and the Bond Insurer, together with a certification of the Board stating that no Event of Default has occurred or is continuing under the Bond Documents);
- (iii) Notice of any draw upon the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund within two Business Days after knowledge thereof other than (i) withdrawals of amounts in excess of the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement or the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund and (ii) withdrawals in connection with a refunding of Insured Bonds;
- (iv) Notice of any default known to the Trustee, the Board or the Authority within five Business Days after knowledge thereof;
- (v) Prior notice of the advance refunding or redemption of any of the Series 2017 Bonds, including the principal amount, maturities and CUSIP numbers thereof;
- (vi) Notice of the resignation or removal of the Trustee and Bond Registrar and the appointment of, and acceptance of duties by, any successor thereto;
- (vii) Notice of the commencement of any Insolvency Proceeding;
- (viii) Notice of the making of any claim in connection with any Insolvency Proceeding seeking the avoidance as a preferential transfer of any payment of principal of, or interest on, the Insured Bonds;
- (ix) A full original transcript of all proceedings relating to the execution of any amendment, supplement, or waiver to the Bond Documents;
- (x) All reports, notices and correspondence to be delivered to Bondholders under the terms of the Bond Documents; and
- (xi) Within thirty (30) days following any litigation or investigation that may have a material adverse effect on the Trust Estate, notice of such litigation or investigation.

In addition, to the extent that the Authority or the Corporation has entered into a continuing disclosure agreement, covenant or undertaking with respect to the Insured Bonds, all information furnished pursuant to such agreements shall also be provided to the Insurer, simultaneously with the furnishing of such information.

(q) The Bond Insurer shall have the right to receive such additional information as it may reasonably request.

(r) The Authority and the Corporation will permit the Bond Insurer to discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Authority and the Corporation or any information the Bond Insurer may reasonably request regarding the security for the Insured Bonds with appropriate officers of the Authority and the Corporation and will use commercially reasonable efforts to enable the Bond Insurer to have access to the facilities, books and records of the Authority and the Corporation on any business day upon reasonable prior notice.

(s) The Trustee shall notify the Bond Insurer of any known failure of the Authority, the Corporation and the Board to provide notices, certificates and other information under the Bond Documents.

(t) Notwithstanding satisfaction of the other conditions to the issuance of Additional Bonds set forth in Article V of the Indenture, no such issuance may occur unless each Debt Service Reserve Fund is fully funded at the respective Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement (including the proposed issue) upon the issuance of such Additional Bonds, in either case unless otherwise permitted by the Bond Insurer.

(d) In the event that the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund contains both cash and a surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit and a disbursement from the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund is required hereunder, the Trustee shall draw such disbursement first from cash on hand in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund until the cash is completely drawn down before making any draw on the surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit.

(e) In the event that the Trustee makes a disbursement from any surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Authority shall use any available funds first to reimburse the Authority of such surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit prior to using such funds to replenish the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund with any cash necessary to meet the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Requirement.

(f) In the event of the refunding of any Series 2019 Bonds, the Trustee shall, if the Authority so directs, withdraw from the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund all, or any portion of, the amounts accumulated therein with respect to the Series 2019 Bonds being refunded and deposit such amounts to be held for the payment of the principal or redemption premium, if applicable, and interest on the Series 2019 Bonds being refunded; provided that such withdrawal shall not be made unless (i) immediately thereafter the Series 2019 Bonds being refunded shall be deemed to have been paid pursuant to Article XII and (ii) the amount remaining in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund, after giving effect to the issuance of the refunding bonds and the disposition of the proceeds thereof, shall not be less than the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement.

Section 4.16 Series 2017 and Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy Provisions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Indenture, the following provisions shall apply as long as the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy or the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy (for purposes of this section, collectively, the “Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy”) is in effect:

(a) The Authority shall repay, or cause the Corporation to repay, any draws under the Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy and pay all related reasonable expenses incurred by the Bond Insurer (as such term is defined in Section 3.14 hereof) and shall pay interest thereon from the date of payment by the Bond Insurer at the Late Payment Rate. “Late Payment Rate” means the lesser of (x) the greater of (i) the per annum rate of interest, publicly announced from time to time by JPMorgan Chase Bank at its principal office in the City of New York, as its prime or base lending rate (“Prime Rate”) (any change in such Prime Rate to be effective on the date such change is announced by JPMorgan Chase Bank) plus 3%, and (ii) the then applicable highest rate of interest on the Insured Bonds (as such term is defined in Section 3.14 hereof), as applicable, and (y) the maximum rate permissible under applicable usury or similar laws limiting interest rates. The Late Payment Rate shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a year of 360 days. In the event JPMorgan Chase Bank ceases to announce its Prime Rate publicly, Prime Rate shall be the publicly announced prime or base lending rate of such national bank as the Bond Insurer shall specify. If the interest provisions of this subparagraph (a) shall result in an effective rate of interest which, for any period, exceeds the limit of the usury or any other laws applicable to the indebtedness created herein, then all sums in excess of those lawfully collectible as interest for the period in question shall, without further agreement or notice between or by any party hereto, be applied as additional interest for any later periods of time when amounts are outstanding hereunder to the extent that interest otherwise due hereunder for such periods plus such additional interest would not exceed the limit of the usury or such other laws, and any excess shall be applied upon principal immediately upon receipt of such moneys by the Bond Insurer, with the same force and effect as if the Authority or the Corporation had specifically designated such extra sums to be so applied and the Bond Insurer had agreed to accept such extra payment(s) as additional interest for such later periods. In no event shall any agreed-to or actual exaction as consideration for the indebtedness created herein exceed the limits imposed or provided by the law applicable to this transaction for the use or detention of money or for forbearance in seeking its collection.

Repayment of draws and payment of expenses and accrued interest thereon at the Late Payment Rate (collectively, “Policy Costs”) shall commence in the first month following each draw, and each such monthly payment shall be in an amount at least equal to 1/12 of the aggregate of Policy Costs related to such draw.

Amounts in respect of Policy Costs paid to the Bond Insurer shall be credited first to interest due, then to the expenses due and then to principal due. As and to the extent that payments are made to the Bond Insurer on account of principal due, the coverage under the Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy will be increased by a like amount, subject to the terms of the Reserve Policy. The obligation to pay Policy Costs shall be secured by a valid lien on all revenues and other collateral pledged as security for the Insured Bonds (subject only to the priority of payment provisions set forth under this Indenture).

All cash and investments in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Debt Service Fund for payment of debt service on the Series 2017 Bonds and the Series 2019 Bonds, as applicable, before any drawing may be made on the applicable Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy or any other credit facility credited to the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund in lieu of cash (“Credit Facility”). Payment of any Policy Costs shall be made prior to replenishment of any such cash amounts. Draws on all Credit Facilities (including the applicable Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy) on which there is available coverage shall be made on a pro-rata basis (calculated by reference to the coverage then available thereunder) after applying all available cash and investments in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund. Payment of Policy Costs and reimbursement of amounts with respect to other Credit Facilities shall be made on a pro-rata basis prior to replenishment of any cash drawn from the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund. For the avoidance of doubt, “available coverage” means the coverage then available for disbursement pursuant to the terms of the applicable alternative credit instrument without regard to the legal or financial ability or willingness of the provider of such instrument to honor a claim or draw thereon or the failure of such provider to honor any such claim or draw.

(b) If either the Authority or the Corporation shall fail to pay any Policy Costs in accordance with the requirements of subparagraph (a) hereof, the Bond Insurer shall be entitled to exercise any and all legal and equitable remedies available to it, including those provided under the Indenture other than (i) acceleration of the maturity of the Bonds or (ii) remedies which would adversely affect owners of the Bonds.

(c) The Indenture shall not be discharged until all Policy Costs owing to the Bond Insurer shall have been paid in full. The Authority’s obligation to pay such amounts shall expressly survive payment in full of the Insured Bonds.

(d) The Authority shall include any Policy Costs then due and owing the Bond Insurer in the calculation of the additional bonds test and the rate covenant in the Bond Documents.

(e) The Trustee shall ascertain the necessity for a claim upon the Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (a) hereof and provide notice to the Bond

Insurer in accordance with the terms of the Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy at least three (3) Business Days prior to each date upon which interest or principal is due on the Insured Bonds.

Nothing in this Section 4.16 is intended to require or obligate nor shall anything herein be interpreted to require or obligate the Authority for any purpose or at any time whatsoever, to provide, apply or expend any funds coming into the hands of the Authority other than from the Trust Estate, which Trust Estate shall include without limitation payments under Section 6 of the Facilities Lease.

Section 4.17 Reserved.

Section 4.18 Surplus Fund. The Surplus Fund will continue to be maintained with the Trustee. Upon satisfaction of certain performance covenants contained in the Indenture, funds on deposit in the Surplus Fund at the end of any Fiscal Year may be transferred to the University. Until such transfer, moneys in the Surplus Fund will be available to be transferred to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in such Accounts is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Bonds.

Section 4.19 Series 2019 Current Refunding Fund. The Series 2019 Current Refunding Fund shall be maintained by the Trustee in trust and shall be used to receive the immediate transfer from the proceeds of the Series 2019 Bonds as provided in Section 4.2 hereof. Moneys in the Current Refunding Fund shall be used by the Trustee to redeem the Series 2004B Bonds on February 8, 2019. Any amounts remaining in the Series 2019 Current Refunding Fund following redemption of the Series 2004B Bonds on February 8, 2019 shall be deposited into the Interest Account of the Series 2019 Debt Service Fund.

Section 4.20 Investments.

(a) Moneys contained in the funds and accounts held by the Trustee under Section 4.1 of this Indenture shall be continuously invested and reinvested by the Trustee at the direction of the Corporation in Permitted Investments, to the extent practicable, that shall mature (or be readily convertible to cash) not later than the respective dates, as estimated by the Corporation, when the moneys in said Funds and Accounts shall be required for the purposes intended, and:

(i) No such investment shall be required to be made unless the cash at the time available therefor is at least equal to $1,000;

(ii) The Trustee shall be authorized, to the extent necessary to enable the Trustee to discharge or perform its obligations hereunder, at any one or more times to sell any part or all of the investments whenever it may, for any reason or purpose whatsoever, deem any such sale to be desirable;

(iii) Any income derived from and any profit or loss on any such investment of moneys on deposit in any such fund or account shall be credited or debited, as the case may be, to the respective fund or account in which earned except that if the balance of the Debt Service Reserve Fund is equal to or greater than the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, earnings in the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Interest Account of the appropriate Debt Service Fund;

(iv) No Permitted Investments in any fund or account may mature beyond the latest maturity date of any Bonds outstanding at the time such Permitted Investments are deposited. For the purposes of this section, the maturity date of repurchase agreements for obligations is the maturity date of such repurchase agreements and not the maturity date of the underlying obligation;

(v) Moneys in the Debt Service Reserve Fund may be invested only in Permitted Investments maturing or redeemable at the option of the holder not later than two (2) years from the date of purchase thereof; provided, however, if moneys in the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be invested in a guaranteed investment contract the Value of which is equal to the amount available to be withdrawn therefrom, such guaranteed investment contract may have a term of up to ten (10) years; and

(vi) No float forward or forward purchase agreement or other arrangement, agreement or financial product may be utilized in connection with the Debt Service Fund the Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Replacement Fund unless the Bond Insurer so permits and the terms thereof (including, without limitation, the parties thereto) are satisfactory to the Bond Insurer and, if satisfactory to the Bond Insurer, such agreements will constitute Permitted Investments.

(b) An Authorized Corporation Representative shall give to the Trustee directions respecting the investment of any money required to be invested hereunder, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article and Article V of the Agreement, and the Trustee shall then invest such money under this Section as so directed. The Trustee shall in no event have any liability for any loss resulting from the investment of moneys in accordance with the directions of the Authorized Corporation Representative. The Trustee shall furnish the Authority annually with a written copy and the Corporation with a written copy for the Board, on at least a monthly basis, of the types, amounts, yield and maturities of all such investments.

(c) All cash investments shall be valued by the Trustee as frequently as deemed necessary by the Trustee, but not less often than annually, at the market value thereof. Deficiencies in the amount on deposit in any fund or account resulting from a decline in market value shall be restored no later than the succeeding valuation date.

Section 4.21 Depository of Moneys and Security for Deposits. All of the funds and accounts established hereunder (except for the Rebate Fund) shall be special trust accounts held by the Trustee in trust for the benefit of the owners of the Bonds and shall not be subject to lien or attachment by any creditors of the Trustee, the Authority, the Corporation, or the Board. Uninvested sums in these funds and accounts shall be continually secured as are deposits of uninvested sinking funds of political subdivisions of the State or in the manner prescribed by Federal law for securing any Federal trust funds as may be prescribed from time to time by the Comptroller of the Currency.

Section 4.22 Arbitrage. Notwithstanding all the provisions hereof, the Authority or the Corporation shall not direct the investment of moneys in the various funds and accounts created hereunder in a manner that would result in the loss of exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for Federal income tax purposes or in such manner which would result in the Bonds becoming “arbitrage bonds” within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code.

Section 4.23 Payments from the Series 2017 Project Fund.

(a) Payment of the Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities shall be made from the proceeds of the Series 2017 Bonds deposited into the Series 2017 Project Fund; provided, however that interest earnings on the amounts deposited into the Series 2017 Project Fund shall be transferred semi-annually fifteen (15) days prior to each Interest Payment Date, to the corresponding account of the Series 2017 Debt Service Fund and used to make the next payment of interest on the Series 2017 Bonds. All payments from the Series 2017 Project Fund shall be subject to the provisions and restrictions set forth in this Article, and the Authority covenants that it will not cause or permit to be paid from the Series 2017 Project Fund any sums except in accordance with such provisions and restrictions.

(b) Moneys in the Series 2017 Project Fund shall be used to pay the Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities; provided that if an Event of Default under the Agreement or this Indenture has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall transfer moneys in the Series 2017 Project Fund to the appropriate account of the Series 2017 Debt Service Fund for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the Series 2017 Bonds.

Section 4.24 Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities. For the purpose of this Indenture, the Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities shall embrace such costs as are eligible costs within the purview of the Act and, with respect to the Series 2017 Bonds, the Code and, without intending thereby to limit or restrict any proper definition of such costs, shall include the following:

(a) obligations incurred by the Corporation for the benefit of the Board with respect to the lease of the Land and the design, acquisition, construction, demolition, and installation of the Series 2017 Facilities, for labor, materials, and services provided by contractors, builders, and others in connection with the demolition, construction, and equipping of the Series 2017 Facilities, machinery and equipment, necessary water and sewer lines and connections, utilities and landscaping, the restoration or relocation of any property damaged or destroyed in connection with such construction, the removal, demolition or relocation of any structures, and the clearing of lands and the reasonably allocable expenses of the Corporation with respect to the Series 2017 Facilities; the cost of acquiring by purchase, if deemed expedient, or leasing such Land, rights, rights of way, servitudes, easements, franchises, and other interests as may be deemed necessary or convenient by the Authorized Corporation Representative for the construction and equipping of the Series 2017 Facilities, the cost of options and partial payments thereon, the cost of demolishing or removing any buildings or structures on land so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved and the amount of any damages incident to or consequent upon the construction of the Series 2017 Facilities;

(c) interest on the Series 2017 Bonds prior to the establishment of the completion date of the Series 2017 Facilities pursuant to Section 3.7 of the Agreement, and the reasonable fees and expenses, including counsel fees, of the Trustee for its services prior to and during construction, and premiums on insurance, if any, in connection with the Series 2017 Facilities;

(d) the cost of borings and other preliminary investigations, if any, to determine foundation or other conditions, expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of constructing the Series 2017 Facilities and fees and expenses of engineers, architects, management consultants for making studies, surveys and estimates of cost and of revenues and other estimates, costs of environmental surveys, reports and remediation, and fees and expenses of engineers and architects for preparing plans and specifications and supervising construction as well as for the performance of all other duties of engineers and architects set forth herein in relation to the acquisition and construction of the Series 2017 Facilities and the issuance of the Series 2017 Bonds therefor;

(e) other items of expense not elsewhere in this Section specified incident to the lease of the Land and the demolition, design, construction, and equipping of the Series 2017 Facilities and the financing thereof, including professional fees, moving expenses, the acquisition of lands, property, rights, rights of way, easements, franchises, and interest in or relating to lands, including title insurance, cost of demand surveys, other surveys, and other expenses in connection with such acquisition, legal fees and expenses, and expenses of administration and overhead, all properly chargeable, in the opinion of the Authorized Corporation Representative, to the acquisition, demolition, construction, and equipping of the Series 2017 Facilities; and

(f) any obligation or expense heretofore or hereafter incurred or paid by the Corporation for or in connection with any of the foregoing purposes, including general legal fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Series 2017 Facilities.

Section 4.25 Requisitions from the Series 2017 Project Fund.

(a) Payments from the Series 2017 Project Fund shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this Section. In connection with a payment from the Series 2017 Project Fund, there shall be filed with the Trustee a requisition, substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto and made a part hereof, signed by an Authorized Corporation Representative, stating:

- (i) the item number of each such payment;
- (ii) the name of the person, firm, or corporation to whom each such payment is due, or, if such payment has been made by the Corporation, that the Trustee is to reimburse the Corporation directly for such payment;
- (iii) the respective amounts to be paid;
- (iv) the purpose by general classification for which each obligation to be paid was incurred;
- (v) that obligations in the stated amounts have been incurred by the Corporation and are either (A) presently due and payable or (B) have been paid by the Corporation and that each item thereof is a proper charge against the Series 2017 Project Fund and has not been the subject of any prior requisition;
- (vi) that such requisition contains no item representing payment on account of any retainage to which the Corporation is entitled at the date of such requisition; and
- (vii) a certification that all work, materials, supplies, and equipment that are the subject of such requisition have been performed or delivered and are in accordance with the description of the Series 2017 Facilities referred to above.

(b) Upon receipt of each requisition, the Trustee shall pay the obligations set forth in such requisition out of the money in the Series 2017 Project Fund, and each such obligation shall be paid by check signed by one or more officers or employees of the Trustee designated for such purpose by the Trustee or by wire transfer or credit to an account of the Corporation held by the Trustee or in such other manner as may be agreed on by the Corporation and the Trustee. In making such payments the Trustee may rely upon such requisitions. If for any reason the Corporation should decide prior to the payment of any item in a requisition not to pay such item, it shall give written notice of such decision to the Trustee and thereupon the Trustee shall not make such payment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided in this Section, prior to payment of the first requisition, the Bondholders shall have received or shall have had an opportunity to review copies of a Memorandum of Ground Lease, a Memorandum of Facilities Lease, the Mortgage, and a UCC-1, each with stamped recordation information indicating that each document has been recorded in the mortgage, conveyance or clerk of court records of Tangipahoa Parish, as appropriate.

(c) The Trustee agrees to accept and act upon instructions or directions pursuant to this Indenture sent by unsecured e-mail, facsimile transmission or other similar unsecured or electronic methods, provided however, that (i) such originally executed instructions or directions shall be signed by a person as may be designated and authorized to sign for the Corporation or in the name of the Corporation, by an authorized representative of the Corporation, and (ii) the Corporation shall provide to the Trustee an incumbency certificate listing such designated persons, which incumbency certificate shall be amended whenever a person is to be added or deleted from the listing. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses, costs or expenses arising directly or indirectly from the Trustee's reliance upon and compliance with such instructions notwithstanding such instructions conflict with or are inconsistent with a subsequent written instruction.

Section 4.26 Reliance upon Requisitions. All requisitions and opinions received by the Trustee as conditions of payment from the Series 2017 Project Fund may be relied upon by the Trustee and shall be retained by the Trustee, subject at all reasonable times to examination by the Authority, the Board, and the Corporation.

Section 4.27 Completion of the Series 2017 Facilities and Disposition of the Series 2017 Project Fund Balance. When the construction and renovation of the Series 2017 Facilities shall have been completed, which fact shall be evidenced to the Trustee by a certificate of an Authorized Corporation Representative delivered to the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.7 of the Agreement, the balance in the Series 2017 Project Fund shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Series 2017 Debt Service Fund (subject to the provisions of Section 4.4 hereof) and applied to redeem the Series 2017 Bonds in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.4 hereof, or as a credit towards the next debt service payment on the Series 2017 Bonds, all in accordance with the written direction of an Authorized Corporation Representative.

Section 4.28 Amounts Remaining in Funds; Releases. It is agreed by the parties hereto that any amounts remaining in the Funds and Accounts existing pursuant to this Indenture upon the expiration or sooner cancellation or termination of the Agreement, as provided therein, after payment in full of all Bonds then outstanding under this Indenture (or provisions for the payment thereof having been made in accordance with Article XII of this Indenture), and the fees, charges, and expenses of the Authority, the Bond Insurer, and the Trustee and all other amounts required to be paid under the Agreement and under this Indenture, other than amounts payable as arbitrage rebate under Section 148(f) of the Code, shall belong to and be paid to the Board.

Section 4.29 Application of Insurance Proceeds; Condemnation Award.

(a) If all or any portion of the Facilities is damaged or destroyed by a Casualty (as defined in the Facilities Lease), or is taken by Expropriation (as defined in the Facilities Lease) proceedings, the Board shall instruct the Corporation, as expeditiously as possible, to continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof; provided however, that the Corporation shall in no way be liable for any costs of the repair, restoration, or replacement of the Facilities in excess of the proceeds of any insurance or of any Expropriation award received because of such Casualty or Expropriation. The proceeds of any insurance, including the proceeds of any self-insurance through ORM, or of any Expropriation award or payment in lieu of Expropriation, received on account of any damage, destruction, or taking of all or any portion of the Facilities shall be delivered to the Trustee and held by the Trustee in a special account to be established upon receipt of any such funds and held by the Trustee in trust or in the case of self-insurance through ORM, as set forth in paragraph (b) below; and shall be made available for, and to the extent necessary be applied to, such restoration, repair, and replacement. Any amounts so held by the Trustee shall be disbursed to pay the costs of restoration, replacement, and repair of the Facilities with respect to which they are held, in each case promptly after receipt of a written request of the Corporation as advised by the Board stating that the amount to be disbursed pursuant to such request will be used to pay costs of replacing or repairing or restoring the Facilities and that no amount previously has been disbursed by the Trustee for payment of the costs to be so paid. In making such payments, the Trustee may conclusively rely upon such written requests and shall have no liability or responsibility to investigate any matter stated therein, or for any inaccuracy or misstatement therein. In no event shall the Trustee be responsible for the adequacy of the plans and specifications or construction contract relating to the replacement, restoration, or repair of the Facilities, or for the improper use of moneys properly disbursed pursuant to request made under this Section. Any proceeds remaining on deposit with Trustee following completion of the repairs, restoration, or replacement of the Facilities shall be paid by Trustee to the Corporation for the Board.

(b) In the event the University decides not to repair, restore or replace the Series 2004 Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation and including any portion of such payments attributable to the Board's interest) shall be paid to the Trustee and applied to the prepayment of the Series 2013 Bonds and the Series 2019 Bonds in accordance with the terms of this Indenture. In the event the University decides not to repair, restore, or replace the Series 2017 Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation) shall be paid to the Trustee and applied to the redemption of the Series 2017 Bonds on a pro rata basis in accordance with this Indenture.

(c) In the event that ORM insures the Facilities, the Board shall cause the Corporation to use the insurance proceeds received from ORM in accordance with Policy and Procedure Memorandum Number 10 (requiring invoices to be submitted to ORM for payment to vendors, or alternatively, production of invoices paid by the Board to ORM for reimbursement of vendor payments) to effect the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities.

Section 4.30 Application of Money in the Replacement Fund.

(a) The Trustee shall, in accordance with Section 4.12 hereof, deposit an amount equal to the Replacement Fund Annual Funding Requirement into the Replacement Fund, annually on each August 1. Alternatively and with respect to the Series 2017 Bonds only, this requirement shall be deemed to have been satisfied and no annual deposits shall be required under Section 4.12 hereof if the Board shall cause to be deposited with the Trustee a one-time deposit to the Replacement Fund in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the hard construction costs of the Series 2017 Facilities (not including professional services and fees) on August 1 of the first full Fiscal Year of operation of the Series 2017 Facilities. The amounts required to be deposited to the Replacement Fund hereunder may be reduced with the approval of the staff of the Board of Regents of the State of Louisiana, the Board and the Bond Insurer.

(b) All moneys in the Replacement Fund shall be held for the benefit of the Board through the Corporation, are not pledged under this Indenture and may be drawn on and used by the Corporation or the Board to (i) replace any worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable, or undesirable property, furniture, equipment, fixtures, and other property owned by the Board or the Corporation and located on the Facilities and (ii) maintain the Facilities and to make all alterations, repairs, restorations, and replacements to the Facilities as and when needed to preserve the Facilities in good working order, condition, and repair, each as required by the Facilities Lease. Withdrawals from the Replacement Fund for the purposes set forth above shall be made by the Trustee upon its receipt of a requisition from the Board or the Corporation substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C to this Indenture. Moneys in the Replacement Fund may also be drawn by the Trustee and transferred to the Debt Service Fund if amounts on deposit therein, together with amounts available therefor in the Surplus Fund, are insufficient to pay debt service on the Bonds on any Interest Payment Date or Principal Payment Date.

(c) Any moneys remaining in the Replacement Fund immediately prior to the time all of the Bonds are paid, or provision for their payment is made in accordance with Article XII of the Indenture, shall, at the option of the University, be used, together with amounts held in the Debt Service Reserve Fund to pay in full all outstanding Bonds in accordance with their terms or shall be paid to the University.

Section 4.31 Application of Money in the Surplus Fund.

(a) Funds on deposit in the Surplus Fund at the end of any Fiscal Year may be transferred to the University on the date described below if (i) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities was 1.10:1.00 or greater for such Fiscal Year as evidenced by the audited financial statements for such Fiscal Year and (ii) neither the Corporation or the Board are in default under the financing documents on the date of transfer to the University. Upon receipt of the audited financial statements for such Fiscal Year, provided that the above described conditions have been met, then at the written instruction of the Board Representative, the Trustee shall transfer all of the amounts in the Surplus Fund on the last day of the immediately preceding Fiscal Year to the University.

(b) To the extent that there are insufficient funds in the Receipts Fund to make any of the transfers to the various funds and accounts required under Section 4.8(a) through (j) hereof on the dates such transfers are required to be made, any amounts contained in the Surplus Fund shall be transferred to such funds and accounts, in the priority set forth in Section 4.8 hereof, to make up for such deficiency.

Section 4.32 Application of Moneys in the Rebate Fund. Moneys in the Rebate Fund shall be used to make any rebate payments required to be made to the United States under the Code. The Rebate Fund shall be held for the sole benefit of the United States of America and is not pledged under this Indenture. Moneys required to be paid to the United States shall be deposited in the Rebate Fund, as applicable, by the Board as Base Rental under the Facilities Lease as required thereby and by this Indenture.

ARTICLE V
ADDITIONAL BONDS

Section 5.1 Additional Bonds.

(a) Additional Bonds may be issued in one or more series by the Authority at the request of the Corporation as advised by the Board under a supplement to this Indenture to pay all or part of the additional cost of the Facilities, so long as:

(i) No Event of Default under this Indenture has occurred and is then continuing and the Authority shall have approved the issuance of such additional bonds; and

(ii) There shall have been filed with the Trustee an opinion of an attorney or firm of attorneys generally recognized as having expertise in matters relating to municipal bonds to the effect that the exclusion from “gross income” for federal income tax purposes of the interest on the Bonds then outstanding under this Indenture shall not be adversely affected.

Such series of Additional Bonds shall be appropriately designated, shall be dated, shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding the maximum rate then permitted by law, shall be numbered, shall have such paying agents and shall have such maturities and redemption provisions, all as may be provided in the supplement to this Indenture or the separate indenture authorizing the issuance of such series of Additional Bonds. It is anticipated that Additional Bonds will be issued hereunder to finance phase three of the Facilities.

The written consent of the Bond Insurer shall not be required in connection with the issuance of such Additional Bonds, but the Bond Insurer shall have the right to review and approve the documentation prepared in connection with the issuance of such Additional Bonds to ensure that such documentation is as contemplated by this Indenture and does not adversely affect the rights of the Bond Insurer under this Indenture in a manner not contemplated hereby.

(b) Additional Bonds may be issued under this Indenture for any other purpose with the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer.

Section 5.2 Refunding. Refunding Bonds may be issued under and secured by a supplement to this Indenture for the purpose of providing funds for the refunding of the Bonds and Additional Bonds; provided that if Refunding Bonds are issued other than for the purpose of realizing interest savings, the Bond Insurer's consent in writing must be obtained prior to the issuance of such Additional Bonds and the execution of a Supplemental Indenture in accordance with Section 10.1(d) hereof.

Section 5.3 Additional Bonds and Refunding Bonds. The Bond Insurer shall receive copies of any disclosure documents circulated with respect to such Additional Bonds and Refunding Bonds.

ARTICLE VI COSTS OF ISSUANCE

Section 6.1 Payment of Costs of Issuance from Series 2019 Bond Proceeds Fund. There shall be paid into the Series 2019 Costs of Issuance Account in the Series 2019 Bond Proceeds Fund the amounts required to be so paid from Series 2019 Bond proceeds pursuant to Section 4.2 of this Indenture; and such amounts shall be applied to the payment of all items of expense, directly or indirectly payable or reimbursable and related to the authorization, sale and issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds including, but not limited to, publication costs, printing costs, costs of preparation and reproduction of documents, filing and recording fees, initial fees and charges of the Trustee, the Authority, or any other fiduciary, legal fees and charges, fees and disbursements of consultants and professionals and any other cost, charge or fee in connection with the original sale and issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds. Any additional costs of issuance shall be paid solely by the Corporation. The Trustee shall make payments from the Series 2019 Costs of Issuance Account upon receipt of statements from the parties entitled to be paid therefrom accompanied by a written request of the Authority directing the Trustee to pay such statements. Any amounts remaining in the Series 2019 Costs of Issuance Account after payment in full of all of the expenses and costs of issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds shall be transferred to the Interest Account of the Series 2019 Debt Service Fund.

ARTICLE VII ENFORCEMENT OF AGREEMENT AND FACILITIES LEASE

Section 7.1 Assignment of Agreement and Facilities Lease. The Authority has assigned all of its right, title, and interest in, to, and under the Agreement (except for rights relating to exculpation, indemnification, and payment of expenses thereunder), including the interest of the Authority in and to the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease assigned by the Corporation to the Authority thereunder (except for payments of Additional Rentals made under the Facilities Lease), to the Trustee as security for the Bonds and hereby agrees that the Agreement and the Facilities Lease may be enforced by the Trustee and/or the owners of the Bonds in accordance with the terms of the Facilities Lease and this Indenture. Notwithstanding such assignment, the Authority agrees to cause the Corporation to comply with the terms contained in the Agreement and the Facilities Lease and the rights of the Bondholders and the Trustee shall be governed by the provisions of this Indenture, the Agreement, and the Facilities Lease.

Section 7.2 Trustee or Bondholders to Enforce Agreement, Facilities Lease and Mortgage. The Trustee may, and upon request of the Bond Insurer or a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding shall, subject to the provisions of Section 8.11 and Article IX hereof, strictly and promptly enforce the provisions of the Agreement, the Facilities Lease, and the Mortgage so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding under this Indenture. All rights of action (including the right to file proof of claims) to enforce the Agreement, the Facilities Lease, and the Mortgage under this Indenture or under any of the Bonds may be enforced by the Trustee without the possession of the Bonds and without their production in any trial or other proceeding relating thereto. Any such suit or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name as Trustee for the Bondholders without the necessity of joining as plaintiffs or defendants any of the Bondholders.

ARTICLE VIII EVENTS OF DEFAULT; REMEDIES

Section 8.1 No Extension of Time for Payment of Principal, Premium, or Interest. The Trustee shall not be authorized to extend the time for any payment of principal, premium or interest without the prior written consent of or authorization by the owner of the Bonds so affected.

(vi) Default by the Authority in the due and punctual performance of any other of the covenants, conditions, agreements, and provisions contained in the Bonds or in this Indenture on the part of the Authority to be performed, if such default shall continue for thirty (30) days after written notice specifying such default and requiring the same to be remedied shall have been given to the Authority, the Board, the Bond Insurer and the Corporation by the Trustee, which may give such notice in its discretion and shall give such notice at the written request of the owners of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding. Such default shall not become an Event of Default if said default be of the nature that (A) it cannot be corrected within the thirty (30) day period after receipt of notice, but the Authority (or the Corporation pursuant to the provisions of Section 8.14 of this Indenture) promptly shall institute and diligently pursue corrective action until such default is cured, (B) the Trustee shall determine that such default is not curable but such default does not affect the validity or enforceability of the Bonds, this Indenture, or the Agreement, an event of nonperformance shall not have occurred under the Agreement (other than as a result of the cross-default provisions), and such default does not impair the security or the obligations provided for or under the Bonds, this Indenture, or the Agreement and (C) the Bond Insurer shall have consented to such event not being an Event of Default.

(b) The word “default” as used herein means failure of performance when due, exclusive of any period of grace, if any, allowed to correct any such failure.

(c) For all purposes of this Article VIII (other than Section 8.13 hereof), the Bond Insurer shall be deemed to be the sole owner of the Bonds it has insured for so long as it has not failed to comply with its payment obligations under the Bond Insurance Policies, and the Bond Insurer shall be entitled to (i) notify the Trustee of the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder, (ii) request that the Trustee intervene in judicial proceedings that affect the Bonds or the security therefor, (iii) direct all remedies in the Event of Default, (iv) be recognized as the owner of each Bond which it insures for the purposes of exercising all rights and privileges available to Bondholders, (v) have the right to institute any suit, action, or proceeding at law or in equity under the same terms as a Bondholder in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture or each Bond for which it insures.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any acceleration of principal payments must be subject to the Bond Insurer’s prior written consent.

Section 8.3 Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Authority, the Trustee, and, subject to Sections 8.10 and 8.11, and all rights granted to the Bond Insurer under Article VIII of the Indenture, the Bondholders shall have all the rights and remedies as may be allowed by law, the Indenture, the Mortgage, or pursuant to the provisions of the Agreement and/or the Facilities Lease by virtue of their assignment hereunder, including but not limited to, acceleration of the maturity of all Bonds, or suit at law or in equity to enforce or enjoin the action or inaction of parties under the provisions of the Indenture, the Mortgage, the Agreement or the Facilities Lease.

Section 8.4 Acceleration; Annulment of Acceleration.

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default described in Section 8.2 of the Indenture, the Trustee may, and upon the written request of the Bond Insurer or the owners of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds shall, by notice in writing to the Authority, the Board, and the Corporation, declare the Bonds then outstanding immediately due and payable, and such Bonds shall become and be immediately due and payable, anything in such Bonds or in the Agreement or this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, and, subject to Article IX, the Trustee may exercise any remedies granted to it therein. In such event, there shall be due and payable on the Bonds an amount equal to the principal amount of all the Bonds then outstanding plus all interest accrued thereon and which will accrue thereon to the date of payment; and with respect to the Bonds if (i) moneys shall have been deposited in the Debt Service Fund sufficient to pay all matured installments of principal (other than principal due solely because of acceleration) and interest; (ii) moneys shall be available sufficient to pay the charges, compensation, expenses, disbursements, advances, and liabilities of the Authority and the Trustee; (iii) all other amounts then payable by the Authority or the Corporation the Indenture or the Agreement shall have been paid or a sum sufficient to pay the same shall have been deposited with the Trustee; and (iv) every Event of Default known to the Authority or the Trustee (other than a default in the payment of the principal of the Bonds due only because of such declaration) shall have been remedied to the satisfaction of the Authority and the Trustee. No such annulment shall extend to or affect any subsequent Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

(b) At any time after the principal of the Bonds shall have been so declared to be due and payable and before the entry of final judgment or decree in any suit, action, or proceeding instituted on account of such default, or before the completion of the enforcement of any other remedy under the Indenture, the Mortgage, the Agreement, or the Facilities Lease, the Trustee may annul such declaration and its consequences

(c) No waiver of any Event of Default shall be effective without the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer.

Section 8.5 Insufficiency in the Debt Service Fund; Application of Moneys.

(a) Anything in this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, if at any time the moneys in the Debt Service Fund shall not be sufficient to pay the interest on, premium, if any, or the principal of the Bonds, as applicable, as the same shall become due and payable (either by their terms or by acceleration of maturities), such moneys, together with any other moneys then available or thereafter becoming available for such purpose, whether through the exercise of the remedies provided for in this Article or otherwise, including, without limitation, moneys paid by the Corporation pursuant to the Mortgage, shall, subject to the provisions of Sections 9.2 and 9.4 hereof, be applied as follows:

(i) Unless the principal of all the Bonds shall have become or shall have been declared due and payable, all such moneys shall be applied:

FIRST, to the payment to the persons entitled thereto of all installments of interest then due and payable in the order in which such installments became due and payable and, if the amount available shall not be sufficient to pay any particular installment, then to the payment thereof, ratably, according to the amounts due on such installment, to the persons entitled thereto, without any discrimination or preference except as to any difference in the respective rates of interest specified in the Bonds, as applicable; then

SECOND, to the payment to the persons entitled thereto of the unpaid principal of any of the Bonds which shall have become due and payable (other than Bonds called for redemption for the payment of which moneys are held pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture) in the order of their due dates, with interest on the principal amount of such Bonds due and payable, and, if the amount available shall not be sufficient to pay in full the principal of the Bonds and their interest thereon, then to the payment thereof ratably, according to the amount of the interest due on such date, and next to the payment of the principal, ratably, according to the amount of such principal due on such date, to the persons entitled thereto without any discrimination or preference; and then

THIRD, to the payment of the interest on and the principal of the Bonds, to the purchase and retirement of Bonds and to the redemption of Bonds, all in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture.

(ii) If the principal of all the Bonds shall have become or shall have been declared due and payable, all such moneys shall be applied to the payment of the principal and interest then due and unpaid upon the Bonds, without preference or priority of principal over interest or of interest over principal, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, or of any Bond over any other Bond, ratably, according to the amounts due respectively for principal and interest, to the persons entitled thereto without any discrimination or preference; and

(iii) If the principal of all the Bonds shall have been declared due and payable and if such declaration shall thereafter have been rescinded and annulled, then, subject to the provisions of Section 8.4(b) above, in the event that the principal of all the Bonds shall later become or be declared due and payable, then all such moneys shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.4(a) above.

(b) Whenever money is to be applied by the Trustee pursuant to the provisions of this Section, such money shall be applied by the Trustee at such times and from time to time as the Trustee in its sole discretion shall determine, having due regard to the amount of such money available for application and the likelihood of additional money becoming available for application in the future; the deposit of such money or otherwise setting aside such money in trust for the proper purpose shall constitute proper application by the Trustee; and the Trustee shall incur no liability whatsoever to the Authority, to any Bondholder or to any other person for any delay in applying any such money, so long as the Trustee acts with reasonable diligence, having due regard to the circumstances, and ultimately applies the same in accordance with such provisions of this Indenture as may be applicable at the time of application by the Trustee. Whenever the Trustee shall exercise such discretion in applying such money, it shall fix the date (which shall be an Interest Payment Date unless the Trustee shall deem another date more suitable) upon which such application is to be made and upon such date interest on the amounts of principal to be paid on such date shall cease to accrue. The Trustee shall give such notice as it may deem appropriate of the fixing of any such date and shall not be required to make payment to the owner of any Bond shall be surrendered to the Trustee for appropriate endorsement or for cancellation if fully paid.

Section 8.6 Discontinuance of Proceedings. In case any proceeding taken by the Trustee on account of any Event of Default shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, then and in every such case the Authority, the Trustee and the Bondholders shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder, respectively, and all rights, remedies, powers and duties of the Trustee shall continue as though no proceeding had been taken.

Section 8.7 Appointment of Receiver. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, and upon filing of a suit or other commencement of judicial proceedings to enforce the rights of the Trustee and of the Bondholders under this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to the appointment of a receiver or keeper pending such proceedings, with such powers as the court making such appointment shall confer. Any expenses incurred in connection with such appointment shall be paid by the Corporation but only from the Trust Estate.

Section 8.8 Remedies Not Exclusive. No remedy by the terms of this Indenture conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or the Bondholders is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, but each and every remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given under this Indenture or existing at law or in equity on or after the date of adoption of this Indenture.

Section 8.9 Remedies Vested in Trustee. All rights of action under this Indenture, the Loan Agreement, the Mortgage, or under any of the Bonds may be enforced by the Trustee without possession of the Bonds and without their production in any trial or other proceeding relating thereto. Any suit or proceeding instituted by the Trustee may be brought in its name as Trustee without the necessity of joining as plaintiffs or defendants any owners of the Bonds.

Section 8.10 Majority of Bondholders Control Proceedings. Subject to Section 8.6, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, but subject to all rights granted to the Bond Insurer in this Indenture, the owners of at least a majority of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Bonds then outstanding shall have the right, at any time by an instrument or instruments in writing executed and delivered to the Trustee, to direct the method and place of conducting any proceeding to be taken in connection with the enforcement of the terms and conditions of this Indenture, provided the direction is in accordance with law and the provisions of this Indenture and, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, is not unduly prejudicial to the interest of Bondholders not joining in such direction, and provided further, that nothing in this Section shall impair the right of the Trustee in its discretion to take any other action under this Indenture which it may deem proper and which is not inconsistent with the direction by Bondholders.

Section 8.11 Individual Bondholder Action Restricted.

(a) No owner of any Bond shall have any right to institute any suit, action, or proceeding for the enforcement of this Indenture or for the execution of any trust hereunder or for any remedy under this Indenture unless an Event of Default has occurred (other than under Sections 8.2(a)(i) or 8.2(a)(ii)) hereof as to which the Trustee has actual notice, or as to which the Trustee has been notified in writing; and

(b) No one or more owners of Bonds shall have any right in any manner whatsoever to disturb or prejudice the security of this Indenture or to enforce any right hereunder except in the manner herein provided and then only for the equal benefit of the owners of all outstanding Bonds.

Section 8.12 Waiver and Non-Waiver of Event of Default. No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any owner of Bonds to exercise any right or power accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair the right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver of an Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every power and remedy given by this Article to the Trustee and to the owners of the Bonds, respectively, may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient.

Section 8.13 Notice of Defaults.

(a) Within thirty (30) days after the receipt of notice of an Event of Default or the occurrence of an Event of Default of which the Trustee is deemed to have notice, the Trustee shall (unless the Event of Default has already been cured) give written notice of the Event of Default to the owners of all Series 2013 Bonds, Series 2017 Bonds, and Series 2019 Bonds then outstanding in the manner provided in Section 13.8 of this Indenture, provided that, except in the case of a default in the payment of principal, redemption price, or interest on any of the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds, and the Series 2019 Bonds, the Trustee may withhold the notice to the Bondholders if, in its sole judgment, it determines that the withholding of notice is not detrimental to the best interest of the Bondholders.

(b) The Trustee shall immediately notify, in writing, the Authority, the Board, the Bond Insurer, and the Corporation of any Event of Default known to the Trustee.

Section 8.14 Opportunity of Corporation to Cure Certain Defaults. The Authority and the Trustee hereby grant the Corporation full authority on the account of the Board and/or the Authority to perform any covenant or obligation and to otherwise fulfill any condition the failure or non-performance of which is or is alleged to be a default under Section 8.2(a)(vi) of this Indenture, and the Trustee agrees that performance by the Corporation shall be deemed to be performance by the Board and/or the Authority.

ARTICLE IX CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 9.1 Acceptance of Trusts. The Trustee hereby represents and warrants to the Authority (for the benefit of the Board, the Corporation and the Bondholders as well as the Authority) that it is a state banking corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Alabama and that it is duly authorized under such laws to accept and execute trusts of the character herein set out. The Trustee accepts and agrees to execute the trusts imposed upon it by this Indenture, but only upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Article and subject to the provisions of this Indenture including the following express terms and conditions, to all of which the parties hereto and the respective Owners of the Bonds agree:

(a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default within the purview of Section 8.2, the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and the Trustee shall not be responsible for (x) the legality or enforceability of this Indenture (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Agreement (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Facilities Lease (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Tax Regulatory Agreement (except with respect to performance of its obligations thereunder), and any supplement thereto, the Bonds (except as to the authentication of the Bonds), or any instruments or documents related thereto (collectively, the “Transaction Documents”) or (y) the legality, perfection, sufficiency or priority of the Trust Estate or any lien purported to be granted thereon under any of the aforesaid documents or otherwise. No implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee.

(b) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its negligence or willful misconduct, except that:

(i) in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Trustee, the Trustee may rely upon the authenticity of, and the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed in, and shall be protected fully from liability in relying or acting upon, any resolution, opinion of counsel, certificate, request, notice, consent, waiver, order, signature guaranty, notarial seal, stamp, acknowledgment, verification, appraisal, report or other paper or document believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed, affixed or presented by the proper party or parties; but in the case of any such certificates or opinions that by any provision hereby are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, as the case may be, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform to requirements of this Indenture;

(ii) in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Trustee, whenever the Trustee, or any of its agents, representatives, experts or counsel, shall consider it necessary or desirable that any matter be proved or established, such matter shall be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by a certificate executed by an Authorized Authority Representative or an Authorized Corporation Representative; provided, however, that the Trustee, or such agent, representative, expert or counsel may require, but is not obligated to require, such further and additional evidence and make such further investigation as it or they may consider reasonable;

(iii) the Trustee may consult with counsel and the advice or opinion of such counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or opinion of counsel;

(iv) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith and in accordance with any direction or request of the Bondholders;

(v) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by an officer or employee of the Trustee unless the Trustee is negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(vi) the Trustee shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Event of Default, except for the failure of the Corporation to make or cause to be made scheduled payments to the Trustee provided for in the Agreement, unless and until an officer of the Trustee who customarily handles corporate trusts and is assigned to supervise this Indenture shall have actual knowledge thereof or the Trustee shall have received written advice thereof from any Bondholder;

(vii) anything in any of the Transaction Documents to the contrary notwithstanding, whether or not an Event of Default shall have occurred, the Trustee shall not be under any obligation to take any action under this Indenture that may involve it in any expense or liability, the payment of which within a reasonable time is not, in its opinion, assured to it by the security afforded to it by the terms of this Indenture, unless it is requested in writing to do so by one or more owners of the Bonds outstanding hereunder and furnished, from time to time as it may require, with security and indemnity satisfactory to it;

(viii) the Trustee need not take any action or follow any direction from any one or more Bondholders if the Trustee shall be advised by counsel that the action or proceedings so directed may not lawfully be taken or would be prejudicial to Bondholders not parties to such direction, or the Trustee in good faith believes following such direction would involve the Trustee in personal liability;

(ix) in no event shall the Trustee be liable to any person for special, indirect, punitive, exemplary or consequential damages, lost profits or loss of business arising under or in connection with this Indenture, even if previously informed of the possibility of such damages and regardless of the form of action; and

(x) anything to the contrary in the Transaction Documents notwithstanding, the permissive right of the Trustee to do anything enumerated or set forth in any of the Transaction Documents shall not be construed as a duty, and the Trustee shall not be held responsible or liable for other than its negligence or willful misconduct.

(c) In case an Event of Default within the purview of Section 8.2 hereof has occurred and is continuing and the Trustee has or is deemed to have knowledge of the Event of Default pursuant to (b)(vi) above, subject to the provisions of this Article IX, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent man would exercise under the circumstances.

(d) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee, including without limitation Sections 9.3 and 9.4 hereof, shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 9.1. The Trustee also accepts, and agrees to do and perform, the duties and obligations imposed upon it by and under the Agreement, and the Facilities Lease, but only upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, the Facilities

Lease, and this Indenture. The rights of the Trustee to do things enumerated in this Indenture shall not be construed as a duty.

Section 9.2 Trustee Entitled to Indemnity. The Trustee shall be under no obligation to institute any suit, or to take any remedial proceeding under this Indenture or under the Agreement, or to enter any appearance in or in any way defend against any suit, in which it may be made a defendant (except in the case of the Trustee's own negligence), or to take any steps in the execution of the trusts hereby created or in the enforcement of any rights and powers hereunder or under the Agreement or the Facilities Lease, until it shall be indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all costs and expenses, outlays and counsel fees and other reasonable disbursements, and against all liability; the Trustee may, nevertheless, begin suit, or appear in and defend suit, or do anything else in its judgment proper to be done by it as such Trustee, without indemnity, and in such case the Authority shall reimburse the Trustee from funds available therefor under the Agreement for all costs and expenses, outlays and counsel fees and other reasonable disbursements properly incurred in connection therewith. If the Authority shall fail to make reimbursement, the Trustee may reimburse itself from any moneys in its possession under the provisions of this Indenture and shall be entitled to a preference over any of the Bonds.

Section 9.3 Trustee Not Responsible for Insurance, Taxes, Execution of Indenture, Acts of the Authority or Application of Moneys Applied in Accordance with this Indenture.

(a) The Trustee shall not be under any obligation to effect or maintain insurance or to renew any policies of insurance or to inquire as to the sufficiency of any policies of insurance carried by the Board or to report, or make or file claims or proof of loss for, any loss or damage insured against or which may occur, or to keep itself informed or advised as to the payment of any taxes or assessments, or to require any such payment to be made. The Trustee shall have no responsibility in respect of the validity, sufficiency, due execution or acknowledgment of this Indenture or the validity or sufficiency of the security provided hereunder or in respect of the validity of the Bonds or the due execution or issuance thereof, except as to the authentication thereof.

(b) The Trustee shall not be under any obligation to see that any duties herein imposed upon any party other than itself, or any covenants herein contained on the part of any party other than itself to be performed, shall be done or performed, and the Trustee shall be under no obligation for failure to see that any such duties or covenants are so done or performed.

(c) The Trustee shall not be liable or responsible because of the failure of the Authority or of any of its employees or agents to make any collections or deposits or to perform any act herein required of the Authority or because of the loss of any moneys arising through the insolvency or the act or default or omission of any other depository in which such moneys shall have been deposited under the provisions of this Indenture. The Trustee shall not be responsible for the application of any of the proceeds of the Bonds or any other moneys deposited with it and paid out, withdrawn or transferred hereunder if such application, payment, withdrawal or transfer shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture.

(d) The immunities and exemptions from liability of the Trustee hereunder shall extend to its directors, officers, employees and agents.

Section 9.4 Compensation. The Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for its ordinary services hereunder consistent with the results of the process by which the Trustee was selected and any extraordinary services rendered hereunder and to reimbursement for all expenses incurred in good faith hereunder, including the compensation, expenses and disbursements of such agents, representatives, experts and counsel as the Trustee may employ in connection with the exercise and performance of its powers and duties hereunder. Subject to the provisions of any contract relating to the compensation of the Trustee, the Authority shall cause the Board to pay to the Trustee as administrative expenses its reasonable fees and charges as Additional Rent in accordance with the Facilities Lease upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Authority shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Authority in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. If the Board shall fail to make any payment required by this Section, the Trustee may, but shall be under no obligation to, make such payment from any moneys in its possession under the provisions of this Indenture, and the Trustee shall be entitled to a preference therefor over any of the Bonds Outstanding hereunder.

Section 9.5 Trustee to Preserve Records. All records and files pertaining to the Corporation in the custody of the Trustee shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of the Authority, the Board, the Corporation and their agents and representatives.

Section 9.6 Trustee May be Bondholder. The Trustee and its directors, officers, employees, or agents may in good faith buy, sell, own, hold and deal in any of the Bonds issued under and secured by this Indenture, and may join in the capacity of a Bondholder in any action which any Bondholder may be entitled to take with like effect as if such institution were not the Trustee under this Indenture.

Section 9.7 Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals. The recitals, statements and representations contained herein and in the Bonds shall be taken and construed as made by and on the part of the Authority and not by the Trustee, and the Trustee shall not be under any responsibility for the correctness of the same.

Section 9.8 Trustee Responsible for Reinscription. The Trustee, as set forth in the Agreement, is required to reinscribe the Mortgage at such times as shall be necessary to preserve the lien thereof. Under the Loan Agreement, the Corporation has covenanted to cooperate with the Trustee with regard to the foregoing. The Trustee shall notify the Authority in the event that any continuation statement shall be required to be filed in order to keep current any financing statements or other filings with respect to security interests securing the Bonds.

Section 9.9 Trustee May Rely on Certificates. Subject to the provisions of Section 9.1(b), the Trustee shall be protected and shall incur no liability in acting or proceeding, or in not acting or not proceeding, in good faith, reasonably and in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, upon any resolution, order, notice, request, consent, waiver, certificate, statement, affidavit, requisition, bond or other paper or document which it shall in good faith reasonably believe to be genuine and to have been adopted or signed by the proper board or person or to have been prepared and furnished pursuant to any of the provisions of the Agreement or this Indenture, or upon the written opinion of any attorney, engineer, accountant or other expert believed by it to be qualified in relation to the subject matter, and the Trustee shall not be under any duty to make any investigation or inquiry as to any statements contained or matters referred to in any such instrument.

Section 9.10 Qualification of the Trustee. There shall at all times be a trustee hereunder which shall be a bank or trust company in good standing, duly authorized to exercise trust powers, subject to examination by federal or state authority, which is either (a) a bank or trust company, (b) a wholly-owned subsidiary of a bank or trust company, or (c) a wholly-owned subsidiary of a bank or holding company which has as a wholly-owned subsidiary a bank or trust company, in any case the holding company, bank or trust company having a combined capital, surplus and undivided profits of at least $30,000,000, or assets under management of at least $250,000,000, if there be such an institution willing, able and legally qualified to perform the duties of the Trustee hereunder on reasonable or customary terms. If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in this Article.

Section 9.11 Resignation and Removal of Trustee.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee, acceptable to the Bond Insurer, and otherwise appointed under Section 9.12 hereof and until notice of resignation or removal and appointment, as the case may be, shall have been provided to the Bond Insurer. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the appointment of any successor Trustee must be approved in writing by the Bond Insurer.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Authority, the Bond Insurer, the Board, the Corporation, and the Bondholders. If an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within thirty (30) days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the retiring Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) The Trustee may be removed for cause at any time by an instrument or instruments in writing to the Trustee, with copies to the Authority, the Bond Insurer, the Board, and the Corporation, signed by the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding, or by their attorneys, legal representatives, or agents and delivered to the Trustee, the Authority, the Board, and the Corporation (such instruments to be effective only when received by the Trustee). The Authority, at the direction of the Corporation, may also remove the Trustee, provided there is no event of default, at any time in the manner set forth in this Section 9.11(c). The Trustee may be removed for cause at any time at the request of the Bond Insurer.

(d) If at any time,

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 9.10 hereof and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Corporation for the Board or by any Bondholder, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then, in any such case, (1) the Authority, in its discretion and without obligation, may or the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, may remove the Trustee, or (2) any Bondholder may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor, but only, in each case, with the prior written approval of the Bond Insurer.

(e) If the Trustee shall be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Trustee for any cause other than resignation (it being understood that no vacancy may occur as a result of resignation since the Trustee may not resign unless a successor has been appointed) or if the Trustee tenders its resignation, the Authority with the approval of the Corporation, and the Board (whose consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) and the Bond Insurer shall promptly appoint a successor provided the Authority shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Authority in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. If, within one year after such resignation, removal or incapability, or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing executed by the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding, and delivered to the Corporation for the Board and the retiring Trustee, the successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede the successor Trustee appointed by the Authority. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Authority or the Bondholders and accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided, any Bondholder who has been a bona fide owner of a Bond for at least six (6) months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Authority shall give notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by mailing written notice of such event by first class mail, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Authority shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorney's fees) reasonably incurred by the Authority in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. Each notice shall include the name and address of the principal corporate trust office of the successor Trustee.

Section 9.12 Successor Trustee.

(a) Every successor Trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to its predecessor, and also to the Authority, the Bond Insurer, and the Corporation for the Board, an instrument in writing accepting such appointment hereunder, and thereupon such successor Trustee, without any further act, shall become fully vested with all the rights, immunities, powers, and trusts, and subject to all the duties and obligations, of its predecessors; but such predecessor shall, nevertheless, on the written request of its successor or of the Authority and upon payment of the expenses, charges, and other disbursements of such predecessor which are payable pursuant to the provisions of Section 9.4 hereof, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, immunities, powers, and trusts of such predecessor hereunder; and every predecessor Trustee shall deliver all property and moneys held by it hereunder to its successor, subject, nevertheless, to its preference, if any, provided for in Sections 9.2 and 9.4 hereof. Should any instrument in writing from the Authority be required by any successor Trustee for more fully and certainly vesting in such Trustee the rights, immunities, powers, and trusts hereby vested or intended to be vested in the predecessor Trustee any such instrument in writing shall and will be executed, acknowledged and delivered by the Authority upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Authority shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Authority in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue.

(b) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this Article, any bank or trust company having power to perform the duties and execute the trusts of this Indenture and otherwise qualified to act as Trustee hereunder with or into which the bank or trust company acting as Trustee may be merged or consolidated, or to which the corporate trust assets and corporate trust business of such bank or trust company may be sold, shall be deemed the successor of the Trustee.

Section 9.13 Co-Trustee.

(a) It is the purpose hereof that there shall be no violation of any law of any jurisdiction (including particularly the laws of the State) denying or restricting the right of banks or trust companies to transact business as trustee in such jurisdiction. It is recognized that in case of litigation hereunder and in particular in case of the enforcement of this Indenture upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, it may be necessary that the Trustee appoint an additional individual or institution as a separate Trustee or Co-Trustee. The following provisions of this Section are adapted to these ends.

(b) Upon the incapacity or lack of authority of the Trustee, by reason of any present or future law of any jurisdiction, to exercise any of the rights, powers and trusts herein granted to the Trustee or to hold title to the Trust Estate or to take any other action which may be necessary or desirable in connection therewith, each and every remedy, power, right, claim, demand, cause of action, immunity, estate, title, interest and lien expressed or intended to be exercised by or vested in or conveyed to the Trustee with respect thereto shall be exercisable by and vest in a separate Trustee or Co-Trustee appointed by the Trustee but only to the extent necessary to enable the separate Trustee or Co-Trustee to exercise such rights, powers and trusts, and every agreement and obligation necessary to the exercise thereof by such separate Trustee or Co-Trustee shall run to and be enforceable by either of them.

(c) Should any deed, conveyance or instrument in writing from the Authority be required by the separate Trustee or Co-Trustee so appointed by the Trustee in order to more fully and certainly vest in and confirm to him or it such properties, rights, powers, trusts, duties, and obligations, any and all such deeds, conveyances, and instruments shall, on request, be executed, acknowledged, and delivered by the Authority upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Authority shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Authority in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. In case any separate Trustee or Co-Trustee, or a successor to either, shall die, become incapable of acting, resign or be removed, all the estates, properties, rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations of such separate Trustee or Co-Trustee, so far as permitted by law, shall vest in and be exercised by the Trustee until the appointment of a new Trustee or successor to such separate Trustee or Co-Trustee.

Section 9.14 Disclosure Documents. The Trustee shall have no responsibility with respect to any information, statement, or recital in any official statement, offering memorandum or other disclosure material prepared or distributed with respect to the Bonds, except as provided in Section 13.13 herein.

ARTICLE X SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

Section 10.1 Supplemental Indentures Not Requiring Consent of Bondholders. The Authority and the Trustee may, with the consent of the Bond Insurer but without the consent of, or notice to, any of the Bondholders, enter into an indenture or indentures supplemental to this Indenture as shall not be inconsistent with the terms and provisions hereof and in the opinion of the Trustee shall not materially and adversely affect the interest of the Bondholders for any one or more of the following purposes:

- (a) To cure any ambiguity or formal defect or omission in this Indenture;
- (b) To grant to or confer upon the Trustee for the benefit of the Bondholders any additional rights, remedies, powers or authority that may be lawfully granted to or conferred upon the Bondholders or the Trustee or either of them;
- (c) To subject to the lien and pledge of this Indenture additional revenues, properties or collateral;
- (d) To provide for the issuance of Additional Bonds in conformity with the provisions of Article V of this Indenture and to fix all details with respect thereto or to provide further conditions, limitations or restrictions on the issuance of Additional Bonds;
- (e) To modify, amend or supplement this Indenture or any indenture supplemental hereto in such manner as to permit the qualification hereof or thereof under any federal statute hereafter in effect or under any state Blue Sky Law, and, in connection therewith, if they so determine, to add to this Indenture or any indenture supplemental hereto such other terms, conditions and provisions as may be permitted or required by any said federal statute or Blue Sky Law; provided, that any such indenture supplemental hereto referred to in this Section 10.1(e) shall not, in the judgment of the Trustee, which may rely on an opinion of counsel, be to the prejudice of the owners of the Bonds; or

(f) To provide any other modifications which, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, are not prejudicial to the interests of the Bondholders.

Section 10.2 Supplemental Indentures Requiring Consent of Bondholders. Anything contained in this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, except for indentures supplemental hereto authorized by Section 10.1 of this Indenture and subject to the terms and provisions contained in this Section 10.2, and not otherwise, the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding shall have the right from time to time, with the consent of the Bond Insurer, to consent to and approve the execution by the Authority and the Trustee of such other indenture or indentures supplemental hereto as shall be deemed necessary and desirable by the Authority for the purpose of modifying, altering, amending, adding to or rescinding, in any particular, any of the terms or provisions contained in this Indenture or in any indenture supplemental hereto; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 10.2 shall permit, or be construed as permitting, without the consent of the Bond Insurer and the owners of all the Bonds then outstanding (a) an extension of the stated maturity or scheduled sinking fund redemption or reduction in the principal amount or premium of, or reduction in the rate or extension of the time of payment of interest on, any Bonds, or (b) the creation of any lien on the Trust Estate or any part thereof pledged under this Indenture prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture, or (c) a reduction in the aforesaid aggregate outstanding principal amount of Bonds the owners of which are required to consent to any such indenture supplemental hereto. No such amendment shall modify the rights, duties or immunities of the Trustee without the written consent of the Trustee.

If at any time the Authority shall request the Trustee to enter into any such supplemental indenture for any of the purposes of this Section 10.2, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such supplemental indenture to be given to the Bondholders in the manner provided in Section 13.8 of this Indenture. Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed supplemental indenture and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee for inspection by all Bondholders. If, within ninety (90) days or such longer period as shall be prescribed by the Authority following the giving of such notice, the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds outstanding at the time of the execution of any such supplemental indenture shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as herein provided, no owner of any Bond shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof, or in any manner to question the propriety of the execution thereof, or to enjoin or restrain the Trustee or the Authority from executing the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions thereof. Upon the execution of any such supplemental indenture as in this Section 10.2 permitted and provided, this Indenture shall be and be deemed to be modified and amended in accordance therewith.

So long as no event of nonperformance under the Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

Section 10.3 Filing. Copies of any supplemental indenture shall be filed with the Trustee and delivered to the Authority and the Corporation for the Board.

Section 10.4 Reliance on Counsel.The Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Trustee, who may be counsel for the Authority, as conclusive evidence that any such proposed supplemental indenture complies with the provisions of this Article prior to joining in the execution of such supplemental indenture.

Section 10.5 Supplement Binding.Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to the provisions of this Article, this Indenture shall be deemed to be supplemented, modified and amended in accordance therewith, and the respective rights, duties and obligations under this Indenture of the Trustee, the Authority, the Corporation, the Board and the owners of Bonds then outstanding shall thereafter be determined, exercised and enforced hereunder, subject in all respects to such modification and amendment.

Section 10.6 Supplemental Agreement.The Authority and the Corporation, with the approval of the Board, the Bond Insurer and the Trustee in certain events, may consent to supplemental loan agreements for the purposes and in the manner provided in Article VIII of the Agreement and the Trustee agrees that it shall take the actions required of it as provided thereunder.

Section 10.7 Notice to Rating Agencies and Bond Insurer.No supplemental indenture shall be executed and delivered pursuant to Sections 10.1 or 10.2 hereof without prior written notice having been given by the Trustee, to the Bond Insurer and Standard & Poor's Ratings Group (Attention: Bond Insurance Administration) of the Trustee's intention to execute such supplemental indenture not less than fifteen (15) days in advance of the execution of said supplemental indenture. The Authority shall also furnish to the Bond Insurer a full transcript of all proceedings relative to the supplemental indenture.

ARTICLE XI COVENANTS OF AUTHORITY

Section 11.1 Payment of Principal, Premium, and Interest. The Authority covenants that it will promptly pay, or cause to be paid, the principal of, premium, if any, and the interest on every Bond at the places, on the dates and in the manner provided herein and in said Bonds according to the true intent and meaning thereof but solely from the revenues of the Trust Estate and not from any other fund or source. The Authority further covenants that it will faithfully perform at all times all of its covenants, undertakings and agreements contained in this Indenture, the Agreement or in any Bond executed, authenticated, and delivered hereunder or in any proceedings of the Authority pertaining thereto.

Section 11.2 Additional Security. The Authority covenants, whenever and so often as reasonably required to do so by the Trustee, promptly to execute and deliver or cause to be delivered all such other and further instruments, documents, or assurances, and to promptly do or cause to be done all such other further things, as may be necessary or reasonably required in order to further and more fully vest in the Trustee and the owners of the Bonds all rights, interest, powers, benefits, privileges, and advantages conferred or intended to be conferred upon them by this Indenture.

Section 11.3 Cure Title Defects. The Authority covenants to promptly, upon the request of the Trustee, from time to time, take or cause to be taken such action as may be necessary or proper to remedy or cure any material defect in or cloud upon the title to the Trust Estate or any part thereof, whether now existing or hereafter developing, and to prosecute all such suits, actions, and other proceedings as may be appropriate for such purpose and to indemnify and save the Trustee and every owner of Bonds, solely from the Trust Estate, harmless from all loss, cost, damage, and expense, including attorneys' fees, which they or either of them may ever incur by reason of any such defect, cloud, suit, action, or proceedings.

Section 11.4 Defend Against Actions. The Authority covenants to defend or cause to be defended every suit, action, or proceeding at any time brought against the Trustee or any owner of Bonds upon any claim arising out of the receipt, application or disbursement of any of the revenues of the Trust Estate or involving the Authority's, the Trustee's, or such Bondholders' rights under this Indenture or the Agreement and to indemnify and save harmless, solely from the Trust Estate, the Trustee and Bondholders against any and all liability claimed or asserted by any person whomsoever, arising out of such receipt, application, or disbursement of any such revenues; provided, however, that the Trustee or any owner of Bonds at its or his election may appear in and defend against any such suit, action, or proceeding; and notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof, this covenant shall continue and remain in full force and effect until all indebtedness, liabilities, obligations, and other sums secured hereby have been fully paid and satisfied, and this Indenture has been released of record and the lien hereof discharged.

Section 11.5 Non-Impairment of Security. The Authority covenants that so long as any of the Bonds issued pursuant to this Indenture are outstanding and unpaid, the Authority will not voluntarily consent to any amendment to the Agreement or otherwise take any action which will reduce the amount of moneys made available thereunder to the Trustee, or which will in any manner impair or adversely affect the rights of the Authority or the Trustee or the security provided by this Indenture to the owners from time to time of the Bonds.

Section 11.6 Authority's Obligation Limited.

(a) Nothing in the Agreement or this Indenture is intended to require or obligate nor shall anything therein be interpreted to require or obligate the Authority for any purpose or at any time whatsoever, to provide, apply, or expend any funds coming into the hands of the Authority other than from the Trust Estate.

(b) Any other term or provision in this Indenture or in the Agreement, the Mortgage, the Tax Regulatory Agreement, the Bond Purchase Agreement, the Bonds, or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding:

(i) Any and all obligations (including without limitation, fees, claims, demands, payments, damages, liabilities, penalties, assessments, and the like) of or imposed upon the Authority or its members, officers, agents, employees, representatives, advisors, or assigns, whether under this Indenture or any of the Agreement, the Mortgage, the Tax Regulatory Agreement, the Bond Purchase Agreement, the Bonds or elsewhere and whether arising out of or based upon a claim or claims of tort, contract, misrepresentation, or any other or additional legal theory or theories whatsoever (collectively, the "Obligations"), shall in all events be absolutely limited obligations and liabilities, payable solely out of the following, if any, available at the time the Obligation in question is asserted:

(A) Bond Proceeds and investments therefrom; and

(B) Payments derived from the Bonds, this Indenture (including the Trust Estate to the extent provided in this Indenture), the Mortgage, and the Agreement (except the fees and expenses of the Authority and the Authority's right to indemnification under the Agreement as set forth therein); (the above provisions (A) and (B) being collectively referred to as the "Exclusive Sources of the Obligations").

(c) The Obligations shall not be deemed to constitute a debt or liability of the State or of any political subdivision thereof within the meaning of any State constitutional provision or statutory limitation and shall not constitute a pledge of the faith and credit of the State or of any political subdivision thereof, including the Authority, but shall be payable solely from and out of the Exclusive Sources of the Obligations and shall otherwise impose no liability whatsoever, primary or otherwise, upon the State or any political subdivision thereof, including the Authority, or any charge upon their general credit or taxing power.

(d) In no event shall any member, officer, agent, employee, representative, or advisor of the Authority, or any successor or assign of any such person or entity, be liable, personally or otherwise, for any Obligation.

(e) In no event shall this Indenture be construed as:

(i) depriving the Authority of any right or privilege; or

(ii) requiring the Authority or any member, officer, agent, employee, representative, or advisor of the Authority to take or omit to take, or to permit or suffer the taking of, any action by itself or anyone else; which deprivation or requirement would violate or result in the Authority's being in violation of the Act or any other applicable state or federal law.

Section 11.7 Immunity of Officers, Employees, and Members of the Authority. No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or premium or interest on any of the Bonds or for any claim based thereon or upon any obligation, covenant or agreement contained in this Indenture against any past, present or future officer, director, member, employee or agent of the Authority, and all such liability of any such officers, directors, members, employees, or agents except for criminal or intentional acts as such is hereby expressly waived and released as a condition of and consideration for the execution of this Indenture and the issuance of such Bonds. No covenant or agreement contained in the Bonds or in this Indenture shall be deemed to be the covenant or agreement of any incorporator, director, or officer of the Authority past, present, or future in his or her individual capacity, and neither members of the Authority nor any official executing the Bonds shall be liable personally on the Bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof. No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or premium or interest on any of the Bonds or for any claim based thereon or upon any obligation, covenant, or agreement contained in this Indenture against any past, present or future officer, director, member, employee, or agent of the Authority, and all such liability of any such officers, directors, members, employees, or agents as such is hereby expressly waived and released as a condition of and in consideration for the execution of this Indenture and the issuance of such Bonds.

Section 11.8 Role of the Authority. The Authority shall not be required to take any action not expressly provided for herein. The Authority shall have no obligation to review, control, or oversee the activities of Trustee in collecting any amounts payable pursuant to the Agreement or the Indenture, or the Mortgage, or in making any payments on the Bonds. Furthermore, the Authority shall not be obligated to take any action or execute any documents which might in its reasonable judgment involve it in any expense or liability unless it shall have been furnished with assurance of payment or reimbursement for any expense and with reasonable indemnity for liability of the Authority, its incorporators, directors, officers, and counsel.

Section 11.9 No Superior Pledge. Other than as provided in Article V hereof, the Authority shall grant no security interest or lien of any type in the Payments that is superior to the pledge set forth in Article II and shall issue no debt or obligation that is to be paid from the Payments prior to payment of principal of and interest on the Bonds and the other payments required hereunder. The Authority shall grant no security interest or lien or encumbrance of any type on the Payments that is on a parity with the pledge made by Article II.

ARTICLE XII
DEFEASANCE

Section 12.1 Payment.

(a) When all of the Bonds shall have been paid and discharged, and there shall have been paid all fees and charges of the Trustee due or to become due through the date on which the last of the Bonds is retired, then this Indenture shall cease, terminate, and become null and void, and thereupon the Trustee shall release this Indenture including the cancellation and discharge of the lien hereof, and execute and deliver to the Authority such instruments in writing as shall be requisite to satisfy the lien hereof and, if necessary, to enter on the records such satisfaction and discharge and to re-convey to the Authority any property or interest therein or other rights hereby conveyed and such other instruments to evidence such release and discharge as may be reasonably required by the Authority, and the Trustee shall assign and deliver to the Authority any property at the time subject to the lien of this Indenture which may then be in its possession, except amounts in any Fund otherwise required to be paid by this Indenture and except such cash and investments as are held by the Trustee for the payment of interest and premium, if any, on and retirement of the Bonds.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligation of the Corporation to pay the fees and expenses of the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Indenture shall survive the defeasance of the Bonds, the discharge of this Indenture, and the termination of the Agreement.

Section 12.2 Provision for Payment. Any Bonds shall be deemed to have been paid and discharged within the meaning of Section 12.1, if the Trustee, or an escrow trustee, shall hold, in trust for and irrevocably committed thereto, moneys or Defeasance Obligations of such maturities and interest payment dates and bearing such interest as will, without further investment or reinvestment of either the principal amount thereof or the interest earnings therefrom (likewise to be held in trust and committed, except as hereinafter provided), be sufficient for the payment of such Bonds, at their maturity or redemption date, of the principal thereof, together with the redemption premium, if any, and interest accrued to the date of maturity or redemption, as the case may be, or if default in such payment shall have occurred on such date then to the date of the tender of such payment; provided, that if any Bonds are to be redeemed prior to the maturity thereof, notice of such redemption shall have been duly given or provisions satisfactory to the Trustee shall have been duly made for the giving of such notice. Any moneys held in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall be invested only in Defeasance Obligations the maturities or redemption dates and interest payment dates of which, at the option of the owner, shall coincide as nearly as practicable with, but not later than, the time or times at which said moneys will be required for the aforesaid purposes. Any income or interest earned by the moneys or Defeasance Obligations held under this Section shall, as determined by the Trustee or the escrow trustee, to the extent not required for the purposes of this Section, be paid to the Corporation for the Board as overpayment of Payments.

Section 12.3 Certifications. The Authority and the Corporation covenant and agree that they will furnish to the Trustee:

(a) Certificates or opinions made by officers of the Authority and the Corporation required by this Indenture stating that provisions of this Article relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been fulfilled; and

(b) An opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that the payment of the Bonds has been provided for in the manner set forth in this Indenture and the Agreement and that all obligations of the Authority and the Corporation with respect to the Bonds have been discharged and satisfied; and

(c) In the case of an advance refunding, a mathematical verification prepared by a nationally recognized law firm or firm of independent certified public accountants (or other verification agent satisfactory to the Trustee) that the moneys or Defeasance Obligations are sufficient to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds which are defeased.

In the event of the dissolution of the Authority, all of the covenants, stipulations, obligations, and agreements contained in this Indenture by or on behalf of or for the benefit of the Authority shall bind or inure to the benefit of the successor or successors of the Authority from time to time and any officer, board, commission, authority, agency, or instrumentality to whom or to which any power or duty affecting such covenants, stipulations, obligations, and agreements shall be transferred by or in accordance with law, and the word "Authority" as used in this Indenture shall include such successor or successors.

Section 13.3 Parties Interest Herein. Nothing in this Indenture expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon, or give to, any person or corporation, other than the Authority, the Trustee, the Corporation, the Bond Insurer and the Bondholders, any right, remedy, or claim or by reason of this Indenture or any covenant, agreement, condition, or stipulation therein.

Section 13.4 No Recourse on the Bonds. No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Bonds or for any claim based thereunder or under this Indenture against any trustee, director, officer, employee, or agent of the Authority or of the Trustee.

Section 13.5 Severability. If any clause, provision, or Section of this Indenture be held illegal or invalid by any court, the invalidity of such clause, provision, or Section shall not affect any of the remaining clauses, provisions, or Sections hereof and this Indenture shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal or invalid clause, provision or Section had not been contained herein. In case any agreement or obligation contained in this Indenture is held to be in violation of law, then such agreement or obligation shall be deemed to be the agreement or obligation of the Authority, the Corporation, or the Board, as the case may be, only to the extent permitted by law.

Section 13.6 Consents and Approvals. Whenever the written consent or approval of the Authority, the Trustee, the Corporation, or the Board shall be required under the provisions of this Indenture, such consent or approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Section 13.13 Continuing Disclosure Certificates. The Board has undertaken to comply with continuing disclosure requirements, and the Authority shall have no liability to the holders of the Bonds or any other person with respect to such disclosure matters. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, failure of the Board to comply with the terms of its respective Continuing Disclosure Certificate shall not be considered an Event of Default hereunder; however, the Trustee may (and, at the request of the Underwriter (as defined in the Continuing Disclosure Certificate) or the holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Bonds shall), upon being provided indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee, take such actions as may be necessary and appropriate, including seeking specific performance by court order, to cause the Board to comply with its obligations under this Section 13.13. The Trustee shall have no responsibility for the failure of the Board to report any material event and shall have no responsibility as to any determination by the Board of whether any event would constitute material information for holders of the Bonds; provided, however, that the Trustee hereby agrees to notify the Board in writing on or before November 1 of each year, commencing November 1, 2019, of the Board's obligation to comply with the requirements of Section (b)(5)(i) of Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c2-12.

This Series 2013 Bond shall not be valid or become obligatory for any purpose or be entitled to any security or benefit under the Indenture until the certificate of authentication hereon shall have been signed by a duly authorized representative of the Trustee.

This Series 2013 Bond is one of the duly authorized issue of the Authority’s Revenue Refunding Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2013 (the “Series 2013 Bonds”), issued under and secured by the Indenture (hereinafter defined) pursuant to which the Authority is issuing $40,910,000 aggregate principal amount of said revenue bonds on behalf of University Facilities, Inc., a nonprofit corporation (the “Corporation”) for the purpose of: (i) refunding the Series 2004A Bonds (as hereinafter defined) and (ii) paying the costs of issuance of the Series 2013 Bonds.

Pursuant to the Original Indenture (as hereinafter defined), the Authority issued its $60,985,000 Revenue Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2004A (the “Series 2004A Bonds”) for the purposes of financing the cost of acquiring immovable property and financing the development, design, construction and equipping of new student housing facilities (the “Facilities”) for Southeastern Louisiana University (the “University”) located on immovable property owned by, or subject to the supervision and management of the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System (the “Board”) in the City of Hammond, Parish of Tangipahoa, Louisiana, which Facilities have been leased to the Board on behalf of the University.

The proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds have been loaned to the Corporation pursuant to a Loan and Assignment Agreement dated as of August 1, 2004 (the “Original Loan Agreement”), as supplemented and amended by a First Supplemental Loan and Assignment Agreement dated as of November 1, 2013 (the “Supplemental Loan Agreement” and, together with the Original Loan Agreement, the “Loan Agreement”), each between the Authority and the Corporation, for the foregoing purposes. The Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System (the “Board”), acting on behalf of the University, has leased the land upon which the Facilities are located on the campus of the University (the “Land”) and the Facilities to the Corporation pursuant to a Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of August 1, 2004 (the “Original Ground Lease”), as supplemented and amended by the First Amendment to Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of March 1, 2007 (the “First Amendment to Ground Lease”), as supplemented and amended by a Second Amendment to Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of June 12, 2012 (the “Second Amendment to Ground Lease”), as further supplemented and amended by a Third Supplemental Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of November 1, 2013 (the “Third Supplemental Ground Lease” and, together with the Original Ground Lease, the First Amendment to Ground Lease and the Second Amendment to Ground Lease, the “Ground Lease”) each by and between the Board and the Corporation, and has leased the Facilities from the Corporation pursuant to an Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of August 1, 2004 (the “Original Facilities Lease”), as supplemented and amended by a First Amendment to Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of March 1, 2007 (the “First Amendment to Facilities Lease”), as further supplemented and amended by a Second Amendment to Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of June 12, 2012 (the “Second Amendment to Facilities Lease”), as further supplemented and amended by a Third Supplemental Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of November 1, 2013 (the “Third Supplemental Facilities Lease” and, together with the Original Facilities Lease, the First Amendment to Facilities Lease and the Second Amendment to Facilities Lease, the “Facilities Lease”) each by and between the Corporation and the Board.

The Series 2013 Bonds are issued pursuant to the laws of the State, particularly Chapter 10-D of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended (La. R.S. 33:4548.1 through 4548.16, inclusive) (the “LCDA Act”), Chapters 14 and 14-A of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended (the “Refunding Act” and, together with the LCDA Act, the “Act”) and pursuant to a Trust Indenture dated August 1, 2004 (the “Original Indenture”), as supplemented and amended by a First Supplemental Trust Indenture dated as of November 1, 2013 (the “Supplemental Indenture” and, together with the Original Indenture, the “Indenture”), each between the Authority and the Trustee, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, and to which Indenture reference is hereby made for a more complete description of the assigned revenues constituting the Trust Estate, the nature and extent of the security, the terms and conditions under which the Series 2013 Bonds are issued and secured, the terms and conditions under which Additional Bonds may be issued and secured, the rights, duties and immunities of the Trustee and the rights of the registered owners of the Series 2013 Bonds. The registered owner of this Series 2013 Bond shall have no rights to enforce the provisions of the Indenture or to institute action to enforce the covenants therein, or to take any action with respect to any event of default under the Indenture, or to institute, appear in or defend any suit or other proceeding with respect thereto, except as provided in the Indenture, and by acceptance of this Series 2013 Bond, the owner hereof assents to all of the provisions of the Indenture and the Assignment (hereinafter defined). All terms not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Indenture.

The Series 2013 Bonds have been issued on a parity with the Series 2004B Bonds under the Indenture.

The Series 2013 Bonds are issuable as fully registered bonds without coupons, in Authorized Denominations, and shall be numbered from No. R-1 upwards. The Series 2013 Bonds are limited and special revenue obligations of the Authority and are payable solely from (i) payments received by the Authority from the Corporation pursuant to the Agreement (except however, the Authority’s rights to exculpation, indemnification and payment of expenses by the Corporation under the Agreement) and (ii) all funds held by the Trustee under the Indenture and available for such payment, said payments and funds being herein referred to as the “Trust Estate.” The Agreement, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, provides that the Corporation is unconditionally obligated to make payments, but solely from the Payments (as defined in the Agreement) in an aggregate amount sufficient, for the payment in full of the principal and interest of all Series 2013 Bonds issued and outstanding under the Indenture, to the date of payment thereof, and certain costs, expenses and charges of the Authority and the Trustee. The Agreement imposes upon the Corporation certain obligations respecting the use and operation of its Facilities and the maintenance and repair of said Facilities.

THE SERIES 2013 BONDS AND THE INTEREST THEREON ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE ISSUER PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE TRUST ESTATE. THE SERIES 2013 BONDS SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO CONSTITUTE A DEBT OR LIABILITY OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF WITHIN THE MEANING OF ANY STATE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION OR STATUTORY LIMITATION AND SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A PLEDGE OF THE FAITH AND CREDIT OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF, BUT SHALL BE PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE FUNDS PROVIDED FOR IN THE LOAN AGREEMENT AND THE INDENTURE. THE ISSUANCE OF THE SERIES 2013 BONDS SHALL NOT DIRECTLY, INDIRECTLY OR CONTINGENTLY OBLIGATE THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF TO LEVY ANY TAXES OR TO MAKE ANY APPROPRIATION OF THEIR PAYMENT. THE ISSUER HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

As long as any of the Series 2013 Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Series 2013 Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Series 2013 Bond or Series 2013 Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee, duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing, may, at the option of the registered owner thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of other Bonds in Authorized Denominations.

For every such exchange or transfer of Series 2013 Bonds, the Authority or the Trustee may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer, which sum or sums shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer. The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (a) any Series 2013 Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Series 2013 Bonds selected for redemption, or (b) any Series 2013 Bonds selected, called or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Series 2013 Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

REDEMPTION PROVISIONS

Optional Redemption

The Series 2013 Bonds maturing August 1, 2024 and thereafter are subject to redemption prior to maturity at the option of the Corporation, upon written direction to the Authority, on or after August 1, 2023 as a whole at any time, or in part on any Interest Payment Date, the maturity of said Bonds to be redeemed to be designated by the Corporation and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine, at the redemption price of 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the redemption date.

Mandatory Redemption

(i) If the Board shall purchase the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities pursuant to the Facilities Lease, the Series 2013 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole and shall be redeemed on the later of (a) August 1, 2014, or (b) the earliest practicable date, but not more than sixty (60) days, after such purchase, and in any event, at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, without premium.

(ii) The Series 2013 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole or in part (in Authorized Denominations) on the first Interest Payment Date at least thirty (30) days after the Trustee receives notice that any insurance proceeds or proceeds received as a result of Expropriation proceedings with respect to the Facilities will not be applied to the restoration, repair or reconstruction of the Facilities at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, without premium, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds, or Expropriation proceeds not used for restoration, repair or reconstruction. If the amount of any insurance proceeds or Expropriation proceeds to be applied in redemption of the Series 2013 Bonds is not an Authorized Denomination, the principal amount of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed pursuant to this subsection (b) shall be decreased to the next lower Authorized Denomination. The Series 2004 Bonds will be so redeemed in the following order: first, Auction Rate Bonds; second, Variable Rate Bonds, third, Series 2004C Bonds; fourth, Series 2004B Bonds that bear interest at a Fixed Rate; and fifth, the Series 2013 Bonds.

Mandatory Sinking Fund Redemption.

The Series 2013 Bonds maturing on August 1, 2026 shall be subject to mandatory redemption and payment prior to maturity on August 1 in each of the years set forth below, at 100% of the principal amounts plus accrued interest to the redemption date, without premium, as follows:

Year	Principal Amount
2026*	170,000

*Final Maturity

If on any occasion less than all of the Series 2013 Bonds then outstanding shall be redeemed pursuant to the optional or mandatory redemption provisions described in the Indenture, then the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds so redeemed shall be considered to have satisfied a portion of the mandatory sinking fund redemptions required by the above tables. The principal amounts required by the tables above shall be adjusted downward in the amount of principal redeemed in chronological order beginning on the mandatory sinking fund redemption date immediately succeeding the date of such optional redemption.

Unless otherwise specified above, if less than all of the Series 2013 Bonds shall be called for redemption, the maturity of the Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed shall be designated by the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2013 Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Series 2013 Bond shall be called for redemption, a new Series 2013 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof shall be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

At least thirty (30) days before the redemption date of any Series 2013 Bonds redeemed other than by mandatory sinking fund redemption, the Trustee shall cause a notice of any such redemption, signed by an authorized officer of the Trustee to be mailed, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders of record owning Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed in whole or in part, at their addresses as they appear on the Bond Register, but any defect in such mailing of any such notice shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for such redemption. Each such notice shall set forth the date fixed for redemption, the redemption price to be paid and, if less than all of the Series 2013 Bonds then outstanding shall be called for redemption, the numbers of such Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed and, in the case of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. In case any Series 2013 Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state also that on or after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Series 2013 Bond, a new Series 2013 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Series 2013 Bond will be issued.

Modifications or alterations of the Indenture or any agreement supplemental thereto or of the Agreement or any agreement supplemental thereto may be made only to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the Indenture and the Agreement. So long as no event of nonperformance under the Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by the Constitution and laws of the State to exist, to have happened and to have been performed, precedent to and in the execution and delivery of the Indenture and the issuance of this Series 2013 Bond, do exist, have happened and have been performed in regular and due form as required by law.

The Series 2017 Bonds are issuable as fully registered bonds without coupons, in Authorized Denominations, and shall be numbered from No. R-1 upwards. The Series 2017 Bonds are limited and special revenue obligations of the Authority and are payable solely from (i) payments received by the Authority from the Corporation pursuant to the Second Supplemental Agreement (except however, the Authority's rights to exculpation, indemnification and payment of expenses by the Corporation under the Second Supplemental Agreement) and (ii) all funds held by the Trustee under the Second Supplemental Indenture and available for such payment, said payments and funds being herein referred to as the "Trust Estate." The Second Supplemental Agreement, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, provides that the Corporation is unconditionally obligated to make payments, but solely from the Payments (as defined in the Second Supplemental Agreement) in an aggregate amount sufficient, for the payment in full of the principal and interest of all Series 2017 Bonds issued and outstanding under the Second Supplemental Indenture, to the date of payment thereof, and certain costs, expenses and charges of the Authority and the Trustee. The Second Supplemental Agreement imposes upon the Corporation certain obligations respecting the use and operation of its Facilities and the maintenance and repair of said Facilities.

THE SERIES 2017 BONDS AND THE INTEREST THEREON ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE AUTHORITY PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE TRUST ESTATE. THE SERIES 2017 BONDS SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO CONSTITUTE A DEBT OR LIABILITY OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF WITHIN THE MEANING OF ANY STATE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION OR STATUTORY LIMITATION AND SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A PLEDGE OF THE FAITH AND CREDIT OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF, BUT SHALL BE PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE FUNDS PROVIDED FOR IN THE SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL LOAN AGREEMENT AND THE SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE. THE ISSUANCE OF THE SERIES 2017 BONDS SHALL NOT DIRECTLY, INDIRECTLY OR CONTINGENTLY OBLIGATE THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF TO LEVY ANY TAXES OR TO MAKE ANY APPROPRIATION OF THEIR PAYMENT. THE AUTHORITY HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

As long as any of the Series 2017 Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Series 2017 Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Series 2017 Bond or Series 2017 Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee, duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing, may, at the option of the registered owner thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of other Bonds in Authorized Denominations.

For every such exchange or transfer of Series 2017 Bonds, the Authority or the Trustee may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee, or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer, which sum or sums shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer. The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (a) any Series 2017 Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Series 2017 Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Series 2017 Bonds selected for redemption, or (b) any Series 2017 Bonds selected, called or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Series 2017 Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

Optional Redemption

The Series 2017 Bonds maturing August 1, 2028 and thereafter are subject to redemption prior to maturity at the option of the Corporation, upon written direction to the Authority, on or after August 1, 2027 as a whole at any time, or in part on any Interest Payment Date, the maturity of said Bonds to be redeemed to be designated by the Corporation and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine, at the redemption price of 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the redemption date.

Extraordinary Redemption

The Series 2017 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole or in part (in an integral multiple of $5,000) on the first Interest Payment Date at least thirty (30) days after the Trustee receives notice that any insurance proceeds, condemnation award or payment in lieu of condemnation with respect to the Series 2017 Facilities will not be applied to the restoration, repair, or reconstruction of the Series 2017 Facilities at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2017 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds, condemnation award, or payment in lieu of condemnation not used for restoration, repair, or reconstruction. If in part, the Series 2017 Bonds to be redeemed shall be in the inverse order of their maturity and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine. If the amount of any insurance proceeds, condemnation award, or payment in lieu of condemnation to be applied in redemption of the Series 2017 Bonds is not an integral multiple of $5,000, the principal amount of Series 2017 Bonds to be redeemed pursuant to this subparagraph (b) shall be decreased to the next lower multiple of $5,000.

Mandatory Sinking Fund Redemption.

Those Series 2017 Bonds maturing on August 1, 2042 shall be subject to mandatory sinking fund redemption and payment prior to maturity on August 1 in each of the years set forth below, at 100% of the principal amounts plus accrued interest to the redemption date, without premium, as follows:

Date August 1	Principal Amount
2040	1,025,000
2041	1,080,000

* Final Maturity.

Those Series 2017 Bonds maturing on August 1, 2047 shall be subject to mandatory sinking fund redemption and payment prior to maturity on August 1 in each of the years set forth below, at 100% of the principal amounts plus accrued interest to the redemption date, without premium, as follows:

Date August 1	Principal Amount
2045	1,320,000
2046	1,385,000

* Final Maturity.

If on any occasion less than all of the Series 2017 Bonds then outstanding shall be redeemed pursuant to the optional or mandatory sinking fund redemption provisions described in the Second Supplemental Indenture, then the principal amount of the Series 2017 Bonds so redeemed shall be considered to have satisfied a portion of the mandatory sinking fund redemptions required by the above tables. The principal amounts required by the tables above shall be adjusted downward in the amount of principal redeemed in chronological order beginning on the mandatory sinking fund redemption date immediately succeeding the date of such optional redemption.

Unless otherwise specified above, if less than all of the Series 2017 Bonds shall be called for redemption, the maturity of the Series 2017 Bonds to be redeemed shall be designated by the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2017 Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Series 2017 Bond shall be called for redemption, a new Series 2017 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof shall be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

At least thirty (30) days before the redemption date of any Series 2017 Bonds redeemed other than by mandatory sinking fund redemption, the Trustee shall cause a notice of any such redemption, signed by an authorized officer of the Trustee to be mailed, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders of record owning Series 2017 Bonds to be redeemed in whole or in part, at their addresses as they appear on the Bond Register, but any defect in such mailing of any such notice shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for such redemption. Each such notice shall set forth the date fixed for redemption, the redemption price to be paid and, if less than all of the Series 2017 Bonds then outstanding shall be called for redemption, the numbers of such Series 2017 Bonds to be redeemed and, in the case of Series 2017 Bonds to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. In case any Series 2017 Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state also that on or after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Series 2017 Bond, a new Series 2017 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Series 2017 Bond will be issued.

Modifications or alterations of the Second Supplemental Indenture or any agreement supplemental thereto or of the Second Supplemental Agreement or any agreement supplemental thereto may be made only to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the Second Supplemental Indenture and the Second Supplemental Agreement. So long as no event of nonperformance under the Second Supplemental Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by the Constitution and laws of the State to exist, to have happened and to have been performed, precedent to and in the execution and delivery of the Second Supplemental Indenture and the issuance of this Series 2017 Bond, do exist, have happened, and have been performed in regular and due form as required by law.

The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (a) any Series 2019 Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Series 2019 Bonds selected for redemption, or (b) any Series 2019 Bonds selected, called or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Series 2019 Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

REDEMPTION PROVISIONS

Optional Redemption

The Series 2019 Bonds maturing August 1, 2029 and thereafter are subject to redemption prior to maturity at the option of the Corporation, upon written direction to the Authority, on or after February 1, 2029 as a whole at any time, or in part on any Interest Payment Date, the maturity of said Bonds to be redeemed to be designated by the Corporation and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine, at the redemption price of 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the redemption date.

Extraordinary Redemption

The Series 2019 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole or in part (in an integral multiple of $5,000) on the first Interest Payment Date at least thirty (30) days after the Trustee receives notice that any insurance proceeds, condemnation award or payment in lieu of condemnation with respect to the Series 2004 Facilities will not be applied to the restoration, repair, or reconstruction of the Series 2004 Facilities at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2019 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds, condemnation award, or payment in lieu of condemnation not used for restoration, repair, or reconstruction. If in part, the Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed shall be in the inverse order of their maturity and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine. If the amount of any insurance proceeds, condemnation award, or payment in lieu of condemnation to be applied in redemption of the Series 2019 Bonds is not an integral multiple of $5,000, the principal amount of Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed pursuant to this subparagraph (b) shall be decreased to the next lower multiple of $5,000.

If on any occasion less than all of the Series 2019 Bonds then outstanding shall be redeemed pursuant to the optional or mandatory redemption provisions described in the Indenture, then the principal amount of the Series 2019 Bonds so redeemed shall be considered to have satisfied a portion of the mandatory sinking fund redemptions required by the above tables. Unless otherwise specified above, if less than all of the Series 2019 Bonds shall be called for redemption, the maturity of the Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed shall be designated by the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2019 Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Series 2019 Bond shall be called for redemption, a new Series 2019 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof shall be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

At least thirty (30) days before the redemption date of any Series 2019 Bonds redeemed the Trustee shall cause a notice of any such redemption, signed by an authorized officer of the Trustee, to be mailed, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders of record owning Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed in whole or in part, at their addresses as they appear on the Bond Register, but any defect in such mailing of any such notice shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for such redemption. Each such notice shall set forth the date fixed for redemption, the redemption price to be paid and, if less than all of the Series 2019 Bonds then outstanding shall be called for redemption, the numbers of such Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed and, in the case of Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. In case any Series 2019 Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state also that on or after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Series 2019 Bond, a new Series 2019 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Series 2019 Bond will be issued.

Modifications or alterations of the Indenture or any agreement supplemental thereto or of the Agreement or any agreement supplemental thereto may be made only to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the Indenture and the Agreement. So long as no event of nonperformance under the Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by the Constitution and laws of the State to exist, to have happened and to have been performed, precedent to and in the execution and delivery of the Indenture and the issuance of this Series 2019 Bond, do exist, have happened and have been performed in regular and due form as required by law.

ARTICLE V NON-ARBITRAGE

Section 5.1 Covenants as to Arbitrage.

Any such moneys so held as part of any fund or account shall be invested or reinvested by the Trustee in Permitted Investments as specified in Section 4.12 of the Indenture. The Corporation hereby covenants that it will comply with the terms of the Tax Regulatory Agreement and that it will make such use of the proceeds of the Bonds and all other funds held by the Trustee under the Indenture, regulate the investment of such proceeds and other funds and take such other and further action as may be required so that the Bonds will not constitute arbitrage bonds under Section 148 of the Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder. The Corporation agrees that it will comply with the terms of any letter of instructions provided to it by nationally recognized bond counsel relating to compliance with the provisions of Section 148 of the Code.

(b) If the Corporation determines that it is necessary to restrict or limit the yield on the investment of any money paid to or held by the Trustee hereunder or under the Indenture in order to avoid classification of the Bonds as arbitrage bonds within the meaning of the Code, the Corporation may issue to the Trustee an instrument to such effect (along with appropriate written instructions), in which event the Trustee will take such action as is necessary to restrict or limit the yield on such moneys in accordance with such instrument and instructions.

(c) The Corporation agrees to provide, or to engage qualified attorneys or consultants to provide, instructions to the Authority and the Trustee regarding any actions necessary to insure that such moneys will not be used in a manner which will cause the Bonds to be “arbitrage bonds” within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code. The Corporation shall be responsible for engaging, at its expense, qualified attorneys or consultants to calculate rebate payments required by Section 148 of the Code.

(d) The Corporation has entered into the Tax Regulatory Agreement and agrees to timely comply with the requirements set forth therein. (a) To comply with the terms, covenants, and provisions expressed or implied, of all contracts pertaining to, affecting, or involving the Facilities or the business of the Corporation, the violation or breach of which would materially and adversely affect the ability of the Corporation to fulfill its obligations hereunder;

(b) Whenever and so often as requested so to do by the Trustee or the Authority, promptly to execute and deliver or cause to be executed and delivered all such other and further instruments and documents, and to promptly do or cause to be done all such other and further things, as may be necessary or reasonably required in order to further and more fully vest in the Authority, the Trustee and the owners of the Bonds all rights, interests, powers, benefits, privileges, and advantages conferred upon them by this Loan Agreement and the Indenture;

(c) Promptly, upon the request of the Authority or the Trustee from time to time, to take such action as may be necessary or proper to remedy or cure any material defect in or cloud upon its interest in the Facilities or any part thereof, whether now existing or hereafter developing, to prosecute all such suits, actions and other proceedings as may be appropriate for such purpose and to indemnify and save the Authority and the Trustee harmless from all loss, cost, damage and expense, including attorney's fees, which they or either of them may ever incur by reason of any such defect, cloud, suit, action, or proceeding;

(e) At all times to maintain the Corporation's rights to carry on the business of the Corporation and to duly procure all licenses and other authorizations required for the carrying on of its business and to provide all renewals and replacements and improvements to, and extensions of, the Facilities and to diligently maintain, preserve and renew all the rights, powers, privileges, approvals, licenses and franchises required for the carrying on of its business;

(f) To fulfill its obligations and to perform punctually its duties and obligations under this Loan Agreement and to otherwise carry on its business in accordance with the terms hereof to assure the continued proper operation, management, repair and maintenance of the Facilities;

(g) To cause compliance with all material provisions of applicable Federal, State, and local laws;

(h) To pay, discharge, indemnify, and save the Authority and the Trustee, except in the case of their negligence or willful misconduct, and their respective officers, agents, employees, servants and trustees harmless of, from and against any and all costs, claims, damages, expenses, liabilities, liens, obligations, penalties and taxes of every character and nature, by or on behalf of any person, firm, corporation, entity or governmental authority regardless of by whom advanced, asserted, held, imposed or made, which may be imposed upon, incurred by or asserted against the Authority and the Trustee and their respective officers, agents, employees, servants and trustees arising out of, resulting from or in any way connected with this Loan Agreement, the Bonds or the Indenture excepting willful misconduct and negligence on the part of the Authority or the Trustee or their respective officers, agents, employees, servants and trustees. The Corporation also covenants and agrees, at its expense, to pay and to indemnify and to save the foregoing harmless of, from and against, all costs, reasonable counsel fees, expenses and liabilities incurred in any action or proceeding brought by reason of any such claim or demand; and

(i) That it is an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific and educational purposes, and it shall not perform any act or enter into any agreement that shall adversely affect its ability to obtain such status as set forth in this Section.

Section 6.2 Covenants Regarding Operation and Maintenance by the Corporation of its Properties. The Corporation acknowledges and agrees that it shall pay during the term hereof all Payments and other sums required hereunder and shall cause the Board to pay, as Additional Rental under the Facilities Lease, all Operation and Maintenance Expenses. The Corporation also expressly covenants and agrees:

(a) That it shall cause the Board or the University to maintain or cause to be maintained the Facilities, and each and every portion thereof, including all additions and improvements and all facilities adjoining and/or appurtenant thereto, in good operating order and condition, reasonable and ordinary wear and tear alone excepted, and make all necessary repairs thereto, interior and exterior, structural and non-structural, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen and unforeseen, and otherwise to make all replacements, alterations, improvements and modifications to the Facilities necessary to ensure that the same at all times shall be suitable for the efficient operation thereof for the purpose intended;

(b) That the Authority, the Bond Insurer, the Trustee and their agents shall have the right to inspect the Facilities at any reasonable time in a manner that will not interfere unreasonably with the Corporation's use thereof; however, any right of access to any portion of the Facilities leased to the students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees, as defined in the Facilities Lease, shall be subject to their rights pursuant to the rental agreement and University policy;

(c) That it shall cause the Board to pay, as Additional Rental under the Facilities Lease, as the same respectively become due, all taxes and assessments, whether general or special, and governmental charges of any kind whatsoever that may at any time be lawfully assessed or levied against or with respect to the Facilities. The Corporation shall not allow any part of the Facilities to become and remain subjected to any mechanics', laborer's or materialmen's liens of record. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation may, at its own expense and in its own name, contest any such item of tax, assessment, liens or other governmental charge and, in the event of such contest, may permit the item so contested to remain unpaid during the period of such contest and any appeal therefrom unless the Authority or the Trustee shall notify the Corporation that, in the opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel by nonpayment of any such items the security afforded the Bonds pursuant to the terms of the Indenture or Loan Agreement will be materially endangered, in which event such taxes, assessments or charges shall be paid forthwith. The Authority will cooperate to the extent reasonably necessary with the Corporation in any such claim, defense or contest. In the event the Corporation fails to do so, the Authority or the Trustee may, but shall be under no obligation to, pay any such item and any amounts so advanced therefor by the Authority or the Trustee shall become an additional obligation of the Corporation to the one making the advancement, which amount the Corporation agrees to pay together with interest thereon at the rate of the Trustee's prime lending rate, but solely from the Revenues;

(d) That it shall comply promptly with all material provisions of present and future laws, ordinances, orders, rules, regulations and requirements of every duly constituted governmental authority or agency and all material orders, rules and regulations of any regulatory, licensing, insurance underwriting or rating organization or other body exercising similar functions. (e) That it shall not use or allow the Facilities to be used or occupied for any unlawful purpose or in violation of any private covenant, restriction, condition, easement or agreement covering or affecting the use of the Facilities. The Corporation likewise shall not suffer any act to be done or any condition to exist in the Facilities or any article to be brought therein or thereon which may be dangerous, unless safeguarded as required by law, or which, under law, constitutes a nuisance, public or private, or which may make void or voidable any insurance then in force with respect thereto; and

(f) That it shall take all action, if any, that may be required to obtain such consents, exceptions, exemptions or approvals of governmental authorities as may be necessary to permit it to comply fully with all covenants, stipulations, obligations and agreements of the Corporation contained in this Loan Agreement.

Section 6.3 Covenant as to Encumbrances. The Corporation covenants that, so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding, it shall not hereafter alienate and shall not hereafter create or suffer to be created any assignment, pledge, mortgage, hypothecation or lien on the Facilities, the Land, the Facilities Lease, or any Base Rental under any circumstances, except for Permitted Encumbrances.

Section 6.4 Covenants, Representations, and Warranties Relating to Federal Income Taxation.

(a) The Corporation covenants that it shall make such use of the proceeds of the Bonds, regulate investment of proceeds thereof and take such other and further actions as may be required by the Code and applicable temporary, proposed and final Regulations and procedures, necessary to assure that interest on the Bonds is excludable from gross income for Federal income tax purposes. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing covenant, the Corporation hereby covenants, represents and warrants, as follows:

(i) The Corporation will not take, fail to take or permit the commission of any action within its control necessary to be taken in order that interest on the Bonds will continue to be excludable from gross income for Federal income tax purposes;

(ii) The Corporation will preserve its status as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or corresponding provisions of prior law and to not be determined to be a private foundation as defined in Section 509 of said Code; the Corporation shall not perform any act or enter into any agreement which shall adversely affect its ability to obtain such federal income tax status; the Corporation shall not perform any act, enter into any agreement or use or permit any property of the Corporation to be used in any manner (including any unrelated trade or business) that could adversely affect the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for Federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code; the Corporation shall not carry on or permit to be carried on in any property of the Corporation or permit any property of the Corporation to be used in or for any trade or business to the extent that such use of such property would adversely affect the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for Federal income tax purposes; and the Corporation is duly organized and existing as a non-profit corporation under the laws of the State and it will maintain, extend and renew its corporate existence under the laws of the State and will not do, suffer or permit any act or thing to be done whereby its right to transact its functions might or could be terminated or its activities restricted;

(iii) The Corporation will timely file a statement with the United States of America setting forth the information required pursuant to Section 149(e) of the Code;

(iv) The average term of the Bonds, calculated in proportion to the “issue price” (as defined in Section 1273 of the Code) of the bonds of each stated maturity of such Bonds, will not exceed 120% of the average reasonably expected economic life of the Facilities financed with the proceeds of the Bonds or the investment earnings thereon, weighted in proportion to the respective cost of each item comprising the Facilities financed with the proceeds of such Bonds. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the reasonably expected economic life of property shall be determined as of the later of (i) the date on which the Bonds were issued or (ii) the date on which such property was placed in service (or expected to be placed in service);

(v) The Corporation will not cause the Bonds to be treated as “federally guaranteed” obligations within the meaning of Section 149(b) of the Code (as may be modified in any applicable rules, rulings, policies, procedures, regulations or other official statements promulgated or proposed by the Department of the Treasury or the Internal Revenue Service with respect to “federally guaranteed” obligations described in Section 149(b) of the Code);

(vi) Based upon all facts and estimates now known or reasonably expected to be in existence on the date the Bonds are delivered, the Corporation reasonably expects that the proceeds of the Bonds will not be used in a manner that would cause the Bonds or any portion thereof to be an “arbitrage bond” within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code;

(vii) As provided in Article V hereof, the Corporation will monitor the yield on the investment of the proceeds of the Bonds and moneys pledged to the repayment of the Bonds, other than amounts not subject to yield restriction and will restrict the yield on such investments to the extent required by the Code or the Regulations;

(viii) The Corporation (or any “related person”, within the meaning of the Code) shall not, pursuant to an arrangement, formal or informal, purchase the Bonds in an amount related to the principal amounts advanced to the Corporation pursuant to this Loan Agreement; and

(ix) The Corporation agrees to comply with all the terms and provisions of the Tax Regulatory Agreement executed in connection with the issuance and sale of the Bonds, and to perform the covenants and duties imposed on it contained therein.

(b) All officers, employees and agents of the Corporation are authorized and directed to provide certifications of facts and estimates that are material to the reasonable expectations of the Corporation as of the date the Bonds are delivered. In complying with the foregoing covenants, the Corporation may rely from time to time upon an opinion issued by nationally-recognized bond counsel to the effect that any action by the Corporation or reliance upon any interpretation of the Code or Regulations contained in such opinion will not cause interest on the Bonds to be includable in gross income for Federal income tax purposes under existing law.

Section 6.5 Information. The Corporation agrees, whenever reasonably requested by the Authority or the Trustee, to provide access to inspect, examine and make copies of any and all books, accounts and records of the Corporation and to provide and certify or cause to be provided and certified such information concerning the Properties, the Facilities, the Corporation, its finances, and other topics as the Authority or Trustee, as the case may be, considers necessary to enable counsel to the Authority or the Trustee, as the case may be, to issue its opinions and otherwise advise the Authority or the Trustee, as the case may be, as to the transaction or the legal capacity of the parties to enter into the same, or to enable it to make any reports required by law, governmental regulation or the Indenture. (b) In case of any such Merger and upon any such assumption by the Successor Corporation, the Successor Corporation shall succeed to and be substituted for its predecessor, with the same effect as if it had been named in the Indenture and this Loan Agreement as the Corporation.

Section 6.10 Revenue Transfer to Trustee. The Corporation hereby covenants:

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Loan Agreement, all Rentals pledged as security for the obligations of the Authority and/or the Corporation under the Indenture or Loan Agreement then on hand shall be transferred immediately to the Trustee, and all such revenues received thereafter shall immediately, upon receipt, be transferred to the Trustee, and held for application pursuant to the Indenture or the Loan Agreement solely to the payment obligations of the Authority and/or the Corporation under the Indenture or Loan Agreement and the payment of reasonable and necessary costs of operation of the Facilities.

(a) The Corporation shall and agrees to indemnify and save the Authority, the Trustee, the Bond Insurer, and their respective directors, officers, members, and employees harmless against and from any and all liabilities, losses, damages, costs, penalties, fines, expenses, causes of action, suits, claims, demands, and judgments of any nature arising from, in connection with, or as a result of: (i) the leasing or operation of the Facilities, (ii) any breach or default on the part of the Corporation in the performance of any of its obligations under any of the Bond Documents, (iii) any act or negligence of the Corporation or of any of its agents, contractors, servants, employees, or licensees, (iv) any act or negligence of any assignee or lessee of the Corporation or of any agents, contractors, servants, employees, or licensees of any assignee or borrower of the Corporation, (v) the issuance or sale of the Bonds, (vi) any injury to or death of any person or damage to property in or upon the Facilities or resulting from or connected with the use, non-use, condition, or occupancy of the Facilities or any part of it, (vii) the violation of any agreement or condition of this Loan Agreement except by the Authority, (viii) the violation of any contract, agreement, or restriction by the Corporation relating to the Facilities, (ix) the violation of any law, ordinance, or regulation by the Corporation or its agents, contractors, employees, licensees, or assignees arising out of the ownership, occupancy, or use of the Facilities or any part of it, (x) the construction, acquisition, equipping, and installation of the Facilities or the failure to construct, acquire, equip, or install the Facilities, (xi) any act of the Corporation or any of its agents, contractors, or licensees, (xii) any statement or information concerning the Corporation, its officers and members, or the Facilities contained in any official statement or prospectus furnished to purchasers of any Bonds that is untrue or incorrect in any material respect and any omission from any final official statement or prospectus of any statement or information which should be contained in it for the purpose for which it is to be used or which is necessary to make the statements in it concerning the Corporation, its officers and members, or the Facilities not misleading in any material respect if the final official statement or prospectus is approved in writing by the Corporation, (xiii) failure to properly register or otherwise qualify the sale of the Bonds or failure to comply with any licensing or other law or regulation which would affect the manner in which or to whom the Bonds could be sold, (xiv) the carrying out by the Corporation of any of the transactions contemplated by the Loan Agreement, and (xv) any federal or state tax audit relating to the Facilities, the Corporation, or the application of the proceeds of the Bonds, provided, however, this indemnity shall not apply to any claims or damages arising solely from the willful misconduct, bad faith, or fraud of the Authority or the negligence, willful misconduct, or intentional misconduct of the other parties seeking indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify and save the Authority, the Bond Insurer, and the Trustee harmless from and against all costs and expenses incurred in or in connection with any such claim arising as described in the preceding sentence, or in connection with any action or proceeding brought thereon, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as provided in Section 10.4 hereof, and upon notice from the Authority, the Bond Insurer, or the Trustee, the Corporation shall defend them or any of them in any such action or proceeding.

(b) The Corporation agrees that it will indemnify and hold the Trustee harmless from any and all liability, cost, or expense incurred without negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee in the course of its duties, including any act, omission, delay, or refusal of the Trustee in reliance upon any signature, certificate, order, demand, instruction, request, notice, or other instrument or document of the Corporation believed by the Trustee to be valid, genuine, and sufficient.

(c) Notwithstanding the fact that it is the intention of the parties that the Authority, the Trustee, the Bond Insurer, and their directors, officers, members, and employees shall not incur pecuniary liability by reason of the terms of the Bond Documents or the undertakings required thereunder or by reason of (i) the issuance of the Bonds, (ii) the execution of the Bond Documents, (iii) the performance of any act required by the Bond Documents, (iv) the performance of any act requested by the Corporation, or (v) any other costs, fees, or expenses incurred by the Authority, the Bond Insurer, or the Trustee with respect to the Facilities or the financing thereof, including all claims, liabilities, or losses arising in connection with the violation of any statutes or regulations pertaining to the foregoing, nevertheless, if the Authority or the Trustee should incur any such pecuniary liability, then in such event the Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless the Authority, the Bond Insurer, and the Trustee against all claims by or on behalf of any Person arising out of the same and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such claim or in connection with any action or proceeding brought thereon, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, and upon notice from the Authority, the Bond Insurer, or the Trustee, the Corporation shall defend the Authority, the Bond Insurer, and the Trustee in any such action or proceeding.

(d) The indemnity contained in this Section 6.14 shall not apply to any (i) acts of willful misconduct, bad faith, or fraud of the Authority or any acts of negligence, willful misconduct, or intentional misconduct of the other parties seeking indemnification; (ii) any breach by the party seeking indemnification of its obligations under the Bond Documents; or (iii) with respect to the Authority and the Bond Insurer, any liability or claim arising out of or relating to any information furnished by the Authority or the Bond Insurer and included in the offering statement relating to the Series 2017 Bonds or any failure by the Authority to disclose information required to make the statements in the offering statement relating to the Authority or the Bond Insurer not misleading.

(e) Nothing contained in this Section 6.14 shall require the Corporation to indemnify the Authority, the Trustee, the Bond Insurer, or their officers, directors, members, or employees for any claim or liability that the Corporation was not given any opportunity to contest or for any settlement of any such action effected without the Corporation's consent (assuming such opportunity to contest or consent was available to the party seeking indemnification and was not waived in writing by the Corporation). The indemnity of the Authority, the Trustee, the Bond Insurer, and their officers, directors, members, and employees contained in this Section 6.14 shall survive the payment of the Bonds and the termination of this Loan Agreement.

(f) In addition, the Corporation agrees that if it initiates any action, suit, or other proceeding with respect to any claim, demand, or request for relief, whether judicial or administrative, in which the Authority or the Bond Insurer is named or joined as a party, the Corporation will pay to and reimburse to the Authority and the Bond Insurer the full amount of all reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Issuer or the Bond Insurer with respect to the Issuer's or the Bond Insurer's defense of or participation in such action, suit, or other proceeding.

Section 6.15 Debt Service Coverage Ratios. The Corporation shall or it shall cause the Board to maintain a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities as provided in Section 3(h) of the Facilities Lease, the provisions of which, including the applicable cure and default provisions, are incorporated herein by reference.

ARTICLE VII ASSIGNMENT

Section 7.1 Assignment of this Loan Agreement.

(a) Without the written consent of the Bond Insurer, the rights of the Corporation under this Loan Agreement may be assigned as a whole or in part but no such assignment shall constitute a release of the Corporation from its obligations hereunder.

(b) Each transferee of the Corporation's interest in this Loan Agreement shall assume the obligations of the Corporation hereunder to the extent of the interest assigned, sold or leased, and the Corporation shall, not more than sixty (60) nor fewer than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of any such assignment or lease, furnish or cause to be furnished to the Authority, the Bond Insurer and the Trustee a true and complete copy of each such assignment or lease.

Section 7.2 Restrictions on Transfer of Authority's Rights. The Authority agrees that it will not during the term of this Loan Agreement sell, assign, transfer or convey its interests in this Loan Agreement except as provided in Section 7.3.

Section 7.3 Assignment by the Authority. It is understood, agreed and acknowledged that the Authority will assign to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture certain of its rights, title and interests in and to this Loan Agreement (reserving its rights, however, pursuant to sections of this Loan Agreement providing that notices, reports and other statements be given to the Authority and also reserving its rights to reimbursement and payment of costs and expenses under Section 9.5 hereof, its rights to indemnification under Section 6.1(d) hereof and its individual and corporate rights to exemption from liability under Section 10.12 hereof), including the interest of the Authority in and to the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease assigned by the Corporation to the Authority hereunder, and the Corporation hereby assents to such assignment and pledge.

ARTICLE VIII SUPPLEMENTS AND AMENDMENTS

Section 8.1 Amendment to Loan Agreement without Consent. The Authority and the Corporation, with the consent of the Trustee with respect to Sections 8.1(d) and 8.1(e) hereof, with the consent of the Bond Insurer, except if such supplement or amendment is for the purpose of refunding Bonds in order to realize debt service savings in each subsequent year as specified in Section 5.2 of the Indenture, but without the consent of the owners of any of the Bonds Outstanding under the Indenture, may enter into supplements to the Loan Agreement that shall not be inconsistent with the terms and provisions hereof for any of the purposes heretofore specifically authorized in the Loan Agreement or the Indenture, and in addition thereto for the following purposes:

(a) To cure any ambiguity or formal defect, inconsistency or omission in this Loan Agreement or to clarify matters or questions arising hereunder;

(b) To add covenants and agreements for the purpose of further securing the obligations of the Corporation hereunder;

(c) To confirm as further assurance any mortgage or pledge of additional property, revenues, securities or funds;

(d) To conform the provisions of the Loan Agreement in connection with the provisions of any supplements or amendments to the Indenture entered into pursuant to the provisions of Section 10.1 thereof;

(e) To provide any other modifications which, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, are not prejudicial to the interests of the Bondholders; or

(f) to conform the covenants and provisions of the Corporation contained herein to any different financial statement presentation required by the Financial Accounting Standard Board that is different than the presentation required as of the date of issuance of the Bonds, so long as the effect of such conformed covenants and provisions is substantially identical to the effect of the covenants and provisions as in effect on the date of issuance of the Bonds.

Section 8.2 Amendment to Loan Agreement upon Approval of a Majority of Bondholders.

(a) The provisions of the Loan Agreement may be amended in any particular with the consent of the owners of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of Bonds then Outstanding and the written consent of the Bond Insurer; provided, however, that no such amendment may be adopted that decreases the percentage of owners of the Bonds required to approve an amendment, or that permits a change in the date of payment of the principal of or interest on any Bonds or of any redemption price thereof or the rate of interest thereon without the consent of the owners of all of the aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then Outstanding.

(b) If at any time the Authority and the Corporation shall request the Trustee to consent to a proposed amendment for any of the purposes of this Section 8.2, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such proposed amendment to be given in the manner required by the Indenture to redeem the Bonds. Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed amendment and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee for inspection by all Bondholders. If, within sixty (60) days or such longer period as shall be prescribed by the Authority following such notice, the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds outstanding at the time of the execution of any such proposed amendment shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as herein provided, no owner of any Bonds shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof, or in any manner to question the propriety of the execution thereof, or to enjoin or restrain the Trustee, the Corporation or the Authority from executing or approving the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions thereof. Upon the execution of any such proposed amendment as in this Section permitted and provided, this Loan Agreement shall be and be deemed to be modified and amended in accordance therewith.

Section 8.3 Amendments to Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease Not Requiring Owner Consent. Subject to the terms and provisions of Section 8.5 and 8.7 of this Loan Agreement, with the written consent of the Bond Insurer, except if such supplement or amendment is for the purpose of refunding Bonds in order to realize debt service savings in each subsequent year as specified in Section 5.2 of the Indenture, the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease may be amended or modified in any manner not inconsistent with the terms and provisions of the Loan Agreement, for any one or more of the following purposes: (1) to cure any ambiguity or formal defect or omission in the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease that does not have an adverse effect upon the interest of the Owners; (2) to grant or confer upon the Authority or the Trustee, for the benefit of the Owners, any additional rights, remedies, powers or authorities that lawfully may be granted to or conferred upon the Authority or the Trustee; (3) to more clearly identify the Facilities or to add to or subtract from the Facilities any property; (4) to amend or modify the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease in any manner specifically required or permitted by the terms thereof, including as may be necessary to maintain the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for federal income tax purposes; (5) to make any amendment or modification required as a condition to obtaining any rating by Moody's or S&P with respect to the Bonds; and (6) to amend or modify the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease in any other manner that, in the judgment of the Trustee, is not materially adverse to the interests of the owners of the Bonds and the Bond Insurer or the Trustee and that does not involve a change described in Section 8.5 hereof.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided herein, the consent of the Bond Insurer shall not be required in order to amend the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease solely to add additional property for the Facilities.

Section 8.4 Amendments to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease Requiring Owner Consent. Exclusive of amendments and modifications covered by Section 8.3 hereof, the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease may be amended or modified only as provided in Section 8.4 and 8.5 of this Loan Agreement. Subject to the terms and provisions contained in Section 8.5 of this Loan Agreement, the Authority and the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then Outstanding and the Bond Insurer, shall have the right, from time to time, anything contained in this Loan Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, to consent to and approve the amendment or modification of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease. If at any time there is a proposed amendment or modification to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such modification or amendment to be mailed to each of the owners of the Bonds at the address indicated on the registration books of the Trustee and the Bond Insurer. Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed amendment or modification and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal office of the Trustee for inspection by owners of all Outstanding Bonds. If, within sixty (60) days, or such longer period as shall be prescribed by the Authority, following the mailing of such notice, the owners of the requisite percentage in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Bonds at the time of the execution of any such amendment or modification shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as herein provided, no owner of any Outstanding Bond shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof; or to enjoin or restrain the parties thereto from executing the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions hereof.

Section 8.5 Consent Required Under Certain Circumstances for Amendment of Facilities Lease or Ground Lease. Nothing contained in Sections 8.3 and 8.4 of this Loan Agreement shall permit, or be construed as permitting, without the approval and consent of all of the owners of the Outstanding Bonds and the Bond Insurer, (a) a reduction in the amount of, or the extension of the time for, any payment of Base Rental due under the Facilities Lease or any amount due under the Bond Insurance Policy; or (b) the termination of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease prior to the expiration of their stated term, other than in accordance with the provisions thereof.

Section 8.6 Opinion Required for Amendment of Facilities Lease or Ground Lease. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, no amendment or modification of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease shall become effective unless and until the Trustee has been provided with an opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that such amendment or modification will not have an adverse effect upon the validity of the Bonds and to the effect that such amendment or modification will maintain the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for federal income tax purposes.

Section 8.7 Consent of the Board. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, an amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease under this Article VIII shall not become effective unless and until the Board shall have consented to the execution and delivery of such amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease, unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and no amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease shall without the prior written consent of the Board affect the date or amounts of payments required on the Bonds or required under the Facilities Lease.

Section 8.8 Filing. Copies of any such supplement or amendment to this Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease shall be filed with the Trustee and delivered to the Authority and the Corporation before such supplement or amendment may become effective.

Section 8.9 Reliance on Counsel. The Authority and the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon the opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Trustee, who may be counsel for the Authority, as conclusive evidence that any such proposed supplement or amendment to this Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease complies with the provisions of this Loan Agreement and the Indenture and that it is proper for the Authority and the Trustee under the provisions of this Article to execute or approve such supplement or amendment.

Section 8.10 Notice to Rating Agencies. No supplemental agreement or amendment to this Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease shall be executed and delivered pursuant hereto without prior written notice having been given by the Corporation to Standard & Poor's Ratings Group and Moody's, if any of the Bonds are rated by such Rating Agencies, of the Corporation's intention to execute such supplemental agreement or amendment thereof not fewer than fifteen (15) days in advance of the execution of said supplemental agreement or amendment. The Corporation shall provide the Bond Insurer a full transcript of all proceedings relative to said supplemental agreement or amendment.

ARTICLE IX EVENTS OF DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

Section 9.1 Events of Default Defined. The terms "Event of Default" and "Default" under the Original Loan Agreement shall include any one or more of the following events:

(a) The Corporation shall default in the timely payment of any Payment pursuant to Article IV of this Loan Agreement.

(b) An Event of Default shall exist under the Bond Documents, the Facilities Lease, or the Tax Regulatory Agreement.

(c) The Corporation shall fail duly to perform, observe or comply with any other covenant, condition or agreement on its part under this Loan Agreement (other than a failure to make any payment required under this Loan Agreement), and such failure continues for a period of thirty (30) days after the date on which written notice of such failure, requiring the same to be remedied, shall have been given to the Corporation by the Trustee; provided, however, that if such performance, observation or compliance requires work to be done, action to be taken, or conditions to be remedied, which by their nature cannot reasonably be done, taken or remedied, as the case may be, within such thirty (30) day period, no Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred or to exist if, and so long as the Corporation shall commence such performance, observation or compliance within such period and shall diligently and continuously prosecute the same to completion.

(d) The entry of a decree or order by a court having jurisdiction in the premises adjudging the Corporation a bankrupt or insolvent, or approving as properly filed a petition seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition of or in respect of the Corporation under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable federal or state law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, custodian, assignee, or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Corporation or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days.

(e) The institution by the Corporation of proceedings to be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by it to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency against it, or the filing by it of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other similar applicable federal or state law, or the consent by it to the filing of any such petition or to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, custodian, assignee, trustee or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Corporation or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by it of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by it in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due.

Section 9.2 Remedies.

Whenever any Event of Default under Section 9.01 hereof shall have happened and be continuing, any one or more of the following remedial steps may be taken with the consent of the Bond Insurer and shall be taken at the direction of the Bond Insurer:

(a) The Issuer or the Trustee may declare all installments of Payments under Section 4.02 hereof to be immediately due and payable, whereupon the same shall become immediately due and payable;

(b) The Issuer or the Trustee may take whatever action at law or in equity may appear necessary or desirable to collect the Payments then due and thereafter to become due, or to enforce performance and observance of any obligation, agreement or covenant of the Corporation under this Agreement;

(c) The Issuer or the Trustee may have access to and inspect, examine and make copies of any and all books, accounts and records of the Corporation;

(d) The Issuer or the Trustee (or the owners of the Bonds in the circumstances permitted by the Indenture) may exercise any option and pursue any remedy provided by the Indenture; and/or

(e) The Trustee may foreclose the lien of the Mortgage.

Section 9.3 No Remedy Exclusive; Selective Enforcement. No remedy conferred upon or reserved to the Authority or the Trustee by this Loan Agreement is intended to be exclusive of any other available remedy or remedies, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given under this Loan Agreement and as now or hereafter existing at law or in equity. No delay or omission to exercise any right or power accruing upon any event of nonperformance shall impair any such right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver thereof, but any such right and power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient. In order to entitle the Authority or the Trustee to exercise any remedy reserved to it in this Article, it shall not be necessary to give any notice, other than such notice as may be herein expressly required. In the event the Authority or the Trustee shall elect to selectively and successively enforce its rights under this Loan Agreement, such action shall not be deemed a waiver or discharge of any other lien, encumbrance or security interest securing payment of the indebtedness secured hereby or thereby until such time that it shall have been paid in full all sums secured hereunder and thereunder. The foreclosure of any lien provided pursuant to this Loan Agreement without the simultaneous foreclosure of all such liens shall not merge the liens granted which are not foreclosed with any interest which the Authority or the Trustee might obtain as a result of such selective and successive foreclosure.

Section 9.4 Indenture Overriding. All of the provisions of this Article are subject to and subordinate to the rights and remedies of the Bond Insurers, the holders of the Bonds and the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture. The Authority shall have no power to waive any event of default hereunder, except with respect to indemnification and its administrative payments, without the consent of the Trustee and the Bond Insurer to such waiver.

Section 9.5 Loan Agreement to Pay Attorneys' Fees and Expenses. In any Event of Default, if the Authority or the Trustee employs attorneys or incurs other expenses for the collection of amounts payable hereunder or the enforcement of the performance or observance of any covenants or agreements on the part of the Corporation herein contained, whether or not such suit is commenced, the Corporation agrees that it will on demand therefor pay to the Authority or the Trustee the reasonable fees of such attorneys and such other reasonable expenses so incurred by the Authority or the Trustee.

Section 9.6 Authority and Corporation to Give Notice of Default. The Authority and the Corporation severally covenant that they will, at the expense of the Corporation, promptly give to the Trustee written notice of any Event of Default under this Loan Agreement of which they shall have actual knowledge or written notice, but the Authority shall not be liable (except as provided in Section 6.1(d) hereof) for failing to give such notice.

Section 9.7 Correlative Waivers. If an Event of Default under Section 8.2 of the Indenture shall be cured or waived and any remedial action by the Trustee rescinded, any correlative Default under this Loan Agreement shall be deemed to have been cured or waived.

Section 10.5 Performance on Legal Holidays. In any case where the date of maturity of interest on or principal of the Bonds or the date fixed for redemption or purchase of any Bonds or the date fixed for the giving of notice or the taking of any action under the Indenture shall not be a Business Day, then payment of such interest, principal, purchase price and redemption premium, if any, the giving of such notice or the taking of such action need not be made on such date but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the date of maturity or the date fixed for redemption or purchase, and no interest on such payment shall accrue for the period after such date.

Section 10.6 Execution in Counterparts. This Loan Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be regarded as an original and all of which shall constitute but one and the same instrument; provided, however, that upon the assignment and pledge to the Trustee provided for in Section 3.2 hereof, the Authority shall deliver to the Trustee an executed counterpart of this Loan Agreement which executed counterpart shall be deemed to be collateral of which the Trustee has taken possession and no other counterpart shall be deemed to be collateral for any other purpose.

Section 10.7 Applicable Law. This Loan Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State.

Section 10.8 Severability. If any clause, provision or Section of this Loan Agreement be held illegal or invalid by any court, the invalidity of such clause, provision or Section shall not affect any of the remaining clauses, provisions or Sections hereof and this Loan Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal or invalid clause, provision or Section had not been contained herein. In case any agreement or obligation contained in this Loan Agreement be held to be in violation of law, then such agreement or obligation shall be deemed to be the agreement or obligation of the Authority or the Corporation, as the case may be, only to the extent permitted by law.

Section 10.11 Third Party Beneficiaries. It is specifically agreed between the parties executing this Loan Agreement that it is not intended by any of the provisions of any part of this Loan Agreement to make the public or any member thereof, other than the Trustee, and the Bond Insurer and except as expressly provided herein or as contemplated in the Indenture, a third party beneficiary hereunder, or to authorize anyone not a party to this Loan Agreement to maintain a suit for personal injuries or property damage pursuant to the terms or provisions of this Loan Agreement. The duties, obligations and responsibilities, if any, of the parties to this Loan Agreement with respect to third parties shall remain as imposed by law.

Section 10.12 Exculpatory Provision.

(a) In the exercise of the powers of the Authority the Trustee and their respective trustees, directors, officers, employees and agents (each, an “Indemnified Party”) under this Loan Agreement, each Indemnified Party shall not be accountable or liable to the Corporation (i) for any actions taken or omitted by such Indemnified Party in good faith and believed by it or them to be authorized or within their discretion or rights or powers conferred upon them (other than the negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Party), or (ii) for any claims based on this Loan Agreement against any such Indemnified Party, all such liability, if any, being expressly waived by the Corporation by the execution of this Loan Agreement. The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnified Party against any claim or liability based on the foregoing asserted by any other person.

(b) In case any action shall be brought against an Indemnified Party in respect of which indemnity may be sought against the Corporation, such Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Corporation in writing and the Corporation shall assume the defense thereof, including the employment of counsel of the Corporation's choice and the payment of all expenses. (c) No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or premium or interest on any of the Bonds or for any claim based thereon or upon any obligations, covenant or agreement contained in this Loan Agreement against any past, present or future officer, director, member, employee or agent of the Authority, or of any successor public corporation, as such, either directly or through the Authority or any successor public corporation, under any rule of law or equity, statute or constitution, or by the enforcement of any assessment or penalty or otherwise, and all such liability of any such officers, directors, members, employees, or agents as such is hereby expressly waived and released as a condition of and consideration for the execution of this Loan Agreement and the issuance of such Bonds.

The new student housing center will consist of two 4-story residence halls located on the western part of the main campus north of Texas Drive. Landscaping and hardscaping features will enhance the open spaces around and between the buildings. A green space with trees will be located to the south of the south building and will provide a soft buffer zone between the south building and Texas Ave. Paved walkways with low scale pedestrian light poles will be located throughout the site and will provide convenient pedestrian connections to the surrounding campus while providing connections between the two buildings. A paved plaza area will be provided at the north building and will be connected to the foodservice retail space.

Service access to the two buildings will be provided from the new parking area located to the west of the buildings. The Corporation and the Trustee shall in no event be answerable, accountable or liable therefor, nor shall any of the foregoing events entitle the Board to any abatements, set-offs or counter claims with respect to its Base Rental, Additional Rental or any other obligation hereunder.

ARTICLE XIII CONDEMNATION

Section 13.01 Condemnation. If the Facilities Lease has been terminated, upon the permanent Taking of all the Land, the Stadium Expansion Land, the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, this Ground Lease shall terminate and expire as of the date of such Taking, and both the Corporation and the Board shall thereupon be released from any liability thereafter accruing hereunder except for Rent and all other amounts secured by this Ground Lease owed to the Board apportioned as of the date of the Taking or the last date of occupancy, whichever is later. The Corporation shall receive notice of any proceedings relating to a Taking and shall have the right to participate therein.

Section 13.02 Partial Condemnation if Facilities Lease is No Longer in Effect. Upon a temporary Taking or a Taking of less than all of the Land, the Stadium Expansion Land, the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion and if the Facilities Lease is no longer in effect, the Corporation, at its election, may terminate this Ground Lease by giving the Board notice of its election to terminate at least sixty (60) days prior to the date of such termination. Upon any such termination, the Rent accrued and unpaid hereunder shall be apportioned to the date of termination. In the event there is a partial condemnation of the Land or the Stadium Expansion Land and the Corporation decides not to terminate this Ground Lease, the Board and the Corporation shall either amend this Ground Lease or enter into a new lease so as to cover an adjacent portion of property, if necessary to restore or replace any portion of the Land, the Stadium Expansion Land, and/or Facilities and the Stadium Expansion.

place thereon the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion and to enter into a new Facilities Lease (in form and substance substantially the same as the Facilities Lease) covering such replacement Facilities and the Stadium Expansion.

Section 13.04 Payment of Awards - If Facilities Lease is in Effect. Upon the Taking of all or any portion of the Land or the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion Land and the Stadium Expansion while the Facilities Lease remains in full force and effect (a) the proceeds of the Award allocable to the value of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion shall be disbursed in accordance with the provisions of the Facilities Lease and the Bond Documents, and (b) subject to the Bonds and any amounts owing to the Bond Insurer being paid in full, the Board shall be entitled (free of any claim by the Corporation) to the Award for the value of the Board's Interest (such value to be determined as if this Ground Lease were in effect and continuing to encumber the Board's Interest); and (c) the Corporation shall be entitled to the Award for the value of the Corporation's interest in the Land or Stadium Expansion Land under this Ground Lease that is the subject of the Taking.

Section 13.06 Bond Documents Control. Notwithstanding anything in this Ground Lease to the contrary, in the event of a Casualty or a Taking of all or any portion of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, the provisions in the Bond Documents shall control the division, application and disbursement of any insurance proceeds or Award paid as a result thereof for so long as the Bond Documents remain in effect.

ARTICLE XIV ASSIGNMENT, SUBLETTING, AND TRANSFERS OF THE CORPORATION'S INTEREST

Section 14.02 Subletting. The Corporation is not authorized to sublet the leasehold estate to any entity other than the Board; provided, however, that if the Facilities Lease terminates, the Corporation shall have the right to sublease the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion to University students, faculty and staff and Permitted Sublessees.

Section 14.03 Transfers of the Corporation's Interest. Section 18.07 Warranty of Peaceful Possession. Section 18.08 Curative Matters. Except for the express representations and warranties of the Board set forth in this Ground Lease, any additional matters necessary or desirable to make the Land and the Stadium Expansion Land useable for the Corporation's purpose shall be undertaken, in the Corporation's sole discretion, at no expense to the Board. Section 18.09 Nonwaiver. No waiver by the Board or the Corporation of a breach of any of the covenants, conditions, or restrictions of this Ground Lease shall constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach of any of the covenants, conditions or restrictions of this Ground Lease. The failure of the Board or the Corporation to insist in any one or more cases upon the strict performance of any of the covenants of the Ground Lease, or to exercise any option herein contained, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment for the future of such covenant or option. A receipt by the Board or acceptance of payment by the Board of Rent with knowledge of the breach of any covenant hereof shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach. No waiver, change, modification or discharge by the Board or the Corporation of any provision of this Ground Lease shall be deemed to have been made or shall be effective unless expressed in writing and signed by the party to be charged.

All exhibits attached to this Ground Lease constitute a part of this Ground Lease and are incorporated herein. All references to a specific time of day in this Ground Lease shall be based upon Central Standard Time (or the other standard of measuring time then in effect in Hammond, Louisiana).

Section 18.11 Counterparts. This agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be declared an original.

Section 18.16 Successors and Assigns. All of the covenants, agreements, terms and conditions to be observed and performed by the parties hereto shall be applicable to and binding upon their respective successors and assigns including any successor by merger or consolidation of the University into another educational institution or the Board into another educational management board.

Section 18.17 Entire Agreement. This Ground Lease, together with the exhibits attached hereto, contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the Land and the Stadium Expansion Land and contains all of the terms and conditions agreed upon with respect to the lease of the Land and the Stadium Expansion Land, and no other agreements, oral or otherwise, regarding the subject matter of this Ground Lease shall be deemed to exist or to bind the parties hereto; it being the intent of the parties that neither shall be bound by any term, condition, or representations not herein written.

Section 18.18 Prior Ground Lease Amended and Restated. The Corporation and the Board, by execution and delivery of this Ground Lease, intend to amend and restate in its entirety the Prior Ground Lease. Whenever the term "Ground Lease" is used in the Bond Documents, it is intended to mean this Ground Lease, as the same may be supplemented and amended by supplemental ground leases. Neither the Corporation nor the Board intend this Ground Lease to be construed as a novation of the Obligations (as defined in the Mortgage) or any of the other Bond Documents.

Each bedroom will be furnished with a loft style bed, student desk with chair, a low (2-drawer) dresser, and a closet.

Landscaping and hardscaping features will enhance the open spaces around and between the buildings. A green space with trees will be located to the south of the south building and will provide a soft buffer zone between the south building and Texas Ave. Paved walkways with low scale pedestrian light poles will be located throughout the site and will provide convenient pedestrian connections to the surrounding campus while providing connections between the two buildings. A paved plaza area will be provided at the north building and will be connected to the foodservice retail space.

Service access to the two buildings will be provided from the new parking area located to the west of the buildings. Enclosures for trash and recycling containers will be provided in this area and will be accessible from the main vehicle drive lanes in the parking area. A dedicated service access lane will be provided for retail deliveries to the north building and for maintenance vehicle use. A cooling tower or chiller will be located to the west of the buildings.

Parking for residents and staff will be provided on all sides of the site. Parking areas will be lighted with pole light fixtures and will include paved perimeter walkways providing access to the buildings and the campus.

The Board agrees that it will take immediate possession of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion. The Term of this Facilities Lease begins on the Commencement Date and ends on the Expiration Date; provided, however, this Facilities Lease shall terminate prior to the Expiration Date upon the happening of any of the following events:

- (a) repayment of the Bonds in full, including principal, premium, if any, interest and all Administrative Expenses with respect to the Bonds or the defeasance of the Bonds, all as set forth in the Indenture;
- (b) the exercise by the Board of the Option to Purchase with respect to all portions of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion and the purchase of the Corporation’s interest in the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion pursuant to the Option; or
- (c) any other event described in this Facilities Lease which is specifically stated to cause a termination of this Facilities Lease, including without limitation a Default by the Board, and the failure of the Board to appropriate or cause to be appropriated an amount necessary to pay the Base Rental, all as set forth in Sections 21 and 29 hereof.

Upon the termination of the Facilities Lease under the circumstances set forth in Section 2(a) above, at the Board’s option, the Board may require the demolition of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion as set forth in Section 12.02 of the Ground Lease.

Section 3. Acknowledgments, Representations and Covenants of the Board. The Board represents, covenants and agrees as follows:

- (a) The Board has full power and authority to enter into this Facilities Lease, the Ground Lease, and the transactions contemplated thereby and agrees to perform all of its obligations hereunder and under the Ground Lease;

(b) The Board has been duly authorized to execute and deliver this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease and further represents and covenants that this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease constitute the valid and binding obligations of the Board and that all requirements have been met and procedures have occurred in order to ensure the enforceability of this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease and the Board has complied with all constitutional and other statutory requirements as may be applicable to the Board in the authorization, execution, delivery and performance of this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease;

(c) The execution and delivery of this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease, and compliance with the provisions hereof, will not conflict with or constitute on the part of the Board a violation of, breach of, or default under any constitutional provision, statute, law, resolution, bond indenture or other financing agreement or any other agreement or instrument to which the Board is a party or by which the Board is bound, or any order, rule or regulation of any court or Governmental Authority or body having jurisdiction over the Board or any of its activities or properties with respect to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion; and all consents, approvals or authorizations required of the Board for the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been obtained or timely will be obtained;

(d) Other than that which was previously disclosed, there is no action, suit, proceeding, inquiry or investigation, at law or in equity, before or by any court, public board or body pending or threatened against or affecting the Board, wherein an unfavorable decision, ruling or finding would materially and adversely affect the transactions contemplated hereunder or which in any way would adversely affect the validity or enforceability of this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease;

(e) The Board will not take or permit to be taken any action which would have the effect, directly or indirectly, of causing interest on any of the Bonds to be included in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

(f) The Board agrees to cause the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion to be used for the Permitted Use and shall not allow the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion to be used for any other use. No more than five percent (5%) of the gross area of the Facilities will be subleased by the Board or by any sublessees or assigns of the Board to, or otherwise used by, private business and the Board agrees to take all action, to the extent it is legally authorized and able to do so, necessary to prevent the Bonds from being deemed "private activity bonds" within the meaning of Section 141 of the Code.

(g) (i) The use of the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities is essential to the operation of the University by providing modern housing and related facilities for students, faculty and staff of the University. The Board presently intends to make all payments from Housing Lawfully Available Funds for use of the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities. There are no alternative facilities available for use as contemplated for the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities since there is currently a shortage of available, modern on-campus housing at the University.

(ii) The use of the Series 2007 Facilities is essential to the operation of the University by providing modern intermodal parking facilities for students, faculty and staff of the University. The Board presently intends to make all payments from Series 2007 Lawfully Available Funds for use of the Series 2007 Facilities. There are no alternative facilities available for use as contemplated for the Series 2007 Facilities.

(h) (i) The Board hereby covenants and agrees to maintain a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities of not less than 1.10:1.00 and a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University of not less than 1.25:1.00. The Board covenants that, as long as any bonds, notes or lease obligations remain outstanding that are payable from Housing Lawfully Available Funds, if the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities falls below 1.10:1.00 or the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University falls below 1.25:1.0, the Board shall use its best efforts to raise its fees, rentals, rates and charges relating to the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities so that within two (2) full semesters after either of the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities or the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University becomes deficient, the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities equals 1.10:1.00 and the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University equals 1.25:1.0. At the end of two (2) full semesters, if the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities is still below 1.10:1.00 or the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University is still below 1.25:1.0, the Board shall hire an outside consultant, approved by the Series 2017 Bond Insurer and the Series 2019 Bond Insurer, and the Board shall follow any reasonably feasible recommendations of such consultant regarding the operation and management of the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities, including raising fees and rents, reducing expenses and, if necessary, increasing the average occupancy rate through strict enforcement of parietal rules requiring students to reside on campus and, to the extent legally possible, revising parietal rules to increase the number of students required to reside on campus. So long as the Board is working in good faith with such consultant to increase any deficient Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities or any deficient Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University, there shall not be an Event of Default hereunder unless (i) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities is less than 1.00:1.00 at the end of any Fiscal Year or (ii) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University is less than 1.10 to 1.00 for two (2) full consecutive semesters after retention of an outside consultant by the Board. For purposes of the foregoing, when establishing such fees, rentals, rates and charges and calculating the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities and the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University for this Section, the Board shall take into account payments required to be made into the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund, and the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund pursuant to the Amended and Restated Indenture. The Board further covenants that it will seek any required approval necessary in order to comply with this covenant.

(ii) The Board covenants that, as long as any bonds, notes, or lease obligations remain outstanding that are payable from Series 2007 Lawfully Available Funds, if the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Parking Facilities shall fall below 1.25:1.0, the Board will use its best efforts to continue to levy and collect the fees and charges relating to the Series 2007 Facilities so that within two (2) full semesters after the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Parking Facilities shall become deficient, the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Parking Facilities equals 1.25:1.0. At the end of two (2) full semesters, if the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Parking Facilities shall remain below 1.25:1.0, the Board will be required to hire an outside consultant, approved by the Series 2007 Bond Insurer, and the Board will be required to follow any reasonably feasible recommendations of such consultant regarding the operation and management of the Series 2007 Facilities. So long as the Board shall be working in good faith with such consultant to increase any deficient Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Parking Facilities, there will not be an Event of Default under this Facilities Lease unless (i) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Parking Facilities shall be less than 1.25 to 1.00 for two (2) full consecutive semesters after retention of an outside consultant by the Board. For purposes of the foregoing, when establishing such fees and charges and calculating the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Parking Facilities, the Board will be required to take into account payments required to be made into the Series 2007 Debt Service Reserve Fund pursuant to the provisions of the Series 2007 Indenture. The Board will further covenant that it will seek any required approval necessary in order to comply with the covenant described under this subheading.

(i) (i) Without the prior written consent of the Series 2017 Bond Insurer and the Series 2019 Bond Insurer, the University will not build, acquire, or renovate any similar student housing facilities, whether such facilities are owned by the University or a private entity, unless (A) the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities have met a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities of at least 1.25:1.00 for the prior Fiscal Year, (B) the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities are projected to meet a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities of at least 1.25:1.00 for the two Fiscal Years following the projected completion of the proposed facility and (C) based on a market analysis prepared by a market research company with experience in student or multi-family housing, which is independent from the University, the University's proposed project is not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Series 2004 Facilities or the Series 2017 Facilities. Such additional student housing facilities owned or leased by the Board or the Corporation shall be incorporated with the Series 2004 Facilities or the Series 2017 Facilities into a single housing system so that such additional student housing facilities and all revenues derived therefrom shall secure the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds, and the Series 2019 Bonds, and the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities and the revenues derived therefrom, including all revenues derived from this Facilities Lease, will secure any debt incurred to finance such additional student housing facilities. In addition, the Mortgage (as defined in the Amended and Restated Indenture) shall be amended to encumber any such Additional Housing Facilities and any revenues derived therefrom to secure the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds, the Series 2019 Bonds, and any debt incurred to finance such Additional Housing Facilities. So long as the Series 2017 Bonds and the Series 2019 Bonds are outstanding, the consent of the Series 2017 Bond Insurer and the Series 2019 Bond Insurer shall also be required prior to the construction, acquisition or renovation of such student housing facilities unless (A) – (C) above have been satisfied.

(ii) Without the prior written consent of the Series 2007 Bond Insurer, the University will not build, acquire or renovate any similar parking facilities, whether such facilities are owned by the University or a private entity, unless (i) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Parking Facilities for the prior Fiscal Year has been met, (ii) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Parking Facilities is projected to be met for the two Fiscal Years following the projected completion of the proposed facility and (iii) based on a market analysis prepared by a market research company with experience in university parking facilities, which is independent from the University, the University's proposed project is not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Series 2007 Facilities.

(j) So long as any Series 2013 Bonds, Series 2017 Bonds or Series 2019 Bonds remain outstanding, the University shall actively promote the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities as a housing alternative and an integral part of the housing system of the University. The University shall, among other things, provide housing brochures to prospective students and allow signs to be posted to promote the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities.

Section 4. Representations and Covenants of the Corporation. The Corporation makes the following representations and covenants:

(a) The Corporation has been validly created under the Louisiana Nonprofit Corporation Law, is currently in good standing under the laws of the State, has the power to enter into the transactions contemplated by, and to carry out its obligations under this Facilities Lease, the Ground Lease and the Agreement. The Corporation is not in breach of or in default under any of the provisions contained in any contract, instrument or agreement to which it is a party or in any other instrument by which it is bound. By proper action, the Corporation has been duly authorized to execute and deliver this Facilities Lease, the Ground Lease and the Agreement;

(b) The execution and delivery of this Facilities Lease, the Ground Lease and the Agreement, and compliance with the provisions thereof and hereof, will not conflict with or constitute on the part of the Corporation a violation of, breach of, or default under any statute, indenture, mortgage, declaration or deed of trust, loan agreement or other agreement or instrument to which the Corporation is a party or by which the Corporation is bound or any order, rule or regulation of any court or Governmental Agency or body having jurisdiction over the Corporation or any of its activities or properties; and all consents, approvals and authorizations which are required of the Corporation for the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby and hereby have been or timely will be obtained;

(c) There is no action, suit, proceeding, inquiry or investigation, at law or in equity, before or by any court, public board or body pending or threatened against or affecting the Corporation, wherein an unfavorable decision, ruling or finding would materially and adversely affect the transactions contemplated hereunder or which in any way would adversely affect the validity or enforceability of this Facilities Lease, the Ground Lease or any agreement or instrument to which the Corporation is a party;

(d) The Corporation will not take or permit to be taken any action which would have the effect, directly or indirectly, of causing interest on any of the Bonds to be included in gross income for federal income tax purposes.

(e) No bonds, notes or other obligations secured by Series 2007 Lawfully Available Funds may be issued except as Additional Bonds. Additional Bonds may be issued and secured by Series 2007 Lawfully Available Funds which will be on a parity with the Series 2007 Bonds only as and to the extent authorized and described in the Series 2007 Indenture, provided that, at the time of issuance thereof, no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing. The issuance of Additional Bonds is permitted as follows:

(A) Additional Bonds on a parity with the Series 2007 Bonds may be issued with the prior approval of the Series 2007 Bond Insurer but without the need for prior approval of the Bondholders.

(B) Bonds issued to refund the Series 2007 Bonds in their entirety may be issued without the need for prior approval of the Bondholders or the Series 2007 Bond Insurer.

Section 5. Waiver and Disclaimer of Warranties.

(a) The Board acknowledges that the Corporation has not made any representations or warranties as to the suitability or fitness of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion for the needs and purposes of the Board or for any other purpose.

(b) The Board further declares and acknowledges that the Corporation in connection with this Facilities Lease, does not warrant that the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion will be upon completion of construction free from redhibitory or latent defects or vices and releases the Corporation of any liability for redhibitory or latent defects or vices under Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2520 through 2548 and Louisiana Civil Code Article 2695. The Board declares and acknowledges that it does hereby waive the warranty of fitness for intended purposes and guarantee against hidden or latent redhibitory defects and vices under Louisiana law, including Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2520 through 2548 and Louisiana Civil Code Article 2695, and the warranty imposed by Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2475 and 2695, and waives all rights in redhibition pursuant to Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2520, et seq. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board hereby retains all of its rights to proceed against any third parties with respect to such defects.

(c) The Corporation disclaims and the Board waives any warranties and representations with respect to compliance with Governmental Regulations, including Environmental Requirements, or the disposal of, or existence in, on, under, or about the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion of any Hazardous Substance. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation reserves in this Facilities Lease all rights to recover from the Board all costs and expenses imposed on the Corporation to bring the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion into compliance with any Environmental Requirement, and all costs of Remediation or cleanup of such Hazardous Substance imposed on the Corporation or the Board, which shall be payable by the Board as Additional Rental hereunder to the extent imposed upon the Corporation.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Facilities Lease, the obligation of the Board to make payments under this Facilities Lease, including payments of Base Rental and Additional Rental, shall be subject to, and dependent upon, appropriation of Lawfully Available Funds necessary to make the payments required under this Facilities Lease. The Vice President for Finance and Administration of the Board shall cause the University to include in the Budget and, if necessary, any amendments to the Budget, an amount of Lawfully Available Funds sufficient to make the payments of Base Rental and Additional Rental described herein which amounts may or may not ultimately be appropriated by the Board for such purpose. Subject to the foregoing and Section 29 hereof, until such time as the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds shall have been fully paid or provision for the payment thereof shall have been made in accordance with this Facilities Lease, the Board shall not suspend or discontinue payment of Rental or any other payments pursuant to this Facilities Lease for any cause, and shall continue to perform and observe all of its agreements contained in this Facilities Lease. (f) The payments of Base Rental and Additional Rental under this Facilities Lease for each Fiscal Year or portion thereof during the Term shall constitute the total Rental for such Fiscal Year or portion thereof and shall be paid by the Board for and in consideration of the construction by the Corporation of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion and the right to the use and occupancy of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion by the Board for and during such Fiscal Year or portion thereof.

(i) The State, through the Division of Administration, is not, at any time whatsoever, obligated, committed or required to provide funds by legislative appropriation or any other means to pay debt service on the Bonds or to support the continued operation and maintenance of the Facilities and Stadium Expansion, it being understood that the portion of the lease payments payable by the Board under this Facilities Lease for payment of debt service on the Bonds are payable solely from the Lawfully Available Funds and the Board is not legally committed, obligated or required to make available any other funds to make the lease payments hereunder.

(j) (i) In addition to the Rental payments required hereby, the Board covenants and agrees to make an Extraordinary Rental payment to pay for costs of the Series 2017 Facilities, from funds on hand or collected by the Board, not to exceed $9,000,000.

(ii) In addition to Rental payments required hereby, the Board (a) covenants to make an extraordinary rental payment to fund a portion of the capital cost of the Series 2007 Facilities and the Stadium Expansion from funds on hand, not to exceed $5,170,000, on or after October 1, 2006; and (b) shall have the option to make Rental payments for the express purpose, and only for the purpose, of prepayment of the Bonds pursuant to Section 3.4 of the Series 2007 Indenture and Section 4.05 of the Series 2007 Agreement, such payment of extraordinary rent shall be solely at the option of the University and the Board and shall be paid in accordance with the provisions hereof and of the Series 2007 Indenture and the Series 2007 Agreement, and such provisions shall control regarding written directions to the Trustee for redemption.

The Corporation may contract with a Management Company, subject to the approval of the Board, to provide operations and management services for the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion. All Rents collected by a Management Company under a Management Agreement shall be deposited in an operating account and transferred daily to the Trustee in accordance with the Indenture.

(b) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall be responsible for maintaining the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion and shall make or contract or cause to be made or contracted with a suitable contractor for the making of all alterations, repairs, restorations, and replacements to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, including without limitation the heating, ventilating, air conditioning, mechanical, electrical, elevators, plumbing, fire, sprinkler and theft systems, air and water pollution control and waste disposal facilities, structural roof, walls, and foundations, fixtures, equipment, and appurtenances to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion as and when needed to preserve them in good working order, condition and repair (ordinary wear and tear excepted), regardless of whether such repairs, alterations, restorations or replacements are ordinary or extraordinary, foreseeable or unforeseeable, or are at the fault of the Board, the Corporation or some Other Party. All alterations, repairs, restoration, or replacements shall be of a quality and class equal to or better than the quality and class presently located in the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion.

(c) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall have the right during the Term to cause the Corporation or some other Party to make or construct any additions or improvements to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, alter the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, attach fixtures, structures, or signs to or on the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, and affix personal property to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion without the Corporation's prior written consent to the extent allowed under the terms of any insurance covering the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion. All such alterations, improvements, additions, attachments, repairs, restorations, and replacements of all or any portion of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion shall (i) be at the sole cost and expense of the University; (ii) not reduce the then fair market value of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion; (iii) be constructed in a good and workmanlike manner; and (iv) be in compliance with all Governmental Regulations.

(d) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall provide or cause to be provided all security service, custodial service, janitorial service, trash disposal, and all other services necessary for the proper upkeep and maintenance of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion as required herein. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation has made no representation or warranty with respect to systems and/or procedures for the security of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, any persons occupying, using or entering the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, or any equipment, furnishings, or contents of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion. It is the sole responsibility of the Board, through the University to cause to be provided or to provide for the security of persons on or entering the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion and/or property located at the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, in accordance with reasonable and prudent business practices.

Section 8. Utilities. All utilities which are used or consumed in or upon or in connection with the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion during the Term, including, without limitation water, gas, electricity, sewerage, garbage, or trash removal, light, cable, heat, telephone, power, computer data and other utilities necessary for the operation of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion (the "Utility Service") shall be the responsibility of the Board and/or the students, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessees residing in the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion. Payments for Utility Services provided to the entire Facilities and the Stadium Expansion or to the common areas of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion under such contract or contracts therefor as the Board may make shall be made by the Board directly to the respective utility companies furnishing such Utility Services.

The Corporation shall have no responsibility to the Board for the quality or availability of Utility Service to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, or for the cost to procure Utility Service. The Corporation shall not be in Default under this Facilities Lease or be liable to the Board or any other Person for direct or consequential damage, or otherwise, for any failure in supply of any Utility Service, heat, air conditioning, elevator service, cleaning service, lighting, security, or for surges or interruptions of electricity.

Section 9. Insurance.

(a) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall cause to be secured and maintained at the University's cost and expense:

(i) A policy or policies of insurance covering the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion against loss or damage by fire, lightening, earthquake, collapse, vandalism and malicious mischief, flood and storm surge, and against such other perils as are included in so-called "extended coverage" and against such other insurable perils as, under good insurance practice, from time to time are insured for properties of similar character and location, which insurance shall be not less than the full replacement cost of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, without deduction for depreciation. In the event that the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion are not repaired or replaced, insurance proceeds shall be no greater than the actual cash value (replacement cost less depreciation) of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion at the time of the loss. The policy shall be adjusted to comply with any applicable co-insurance provisions of such insurance policy. Full payment of insurance proceeds shall not be contingent on the degree of damage sustained at other facilities leased by the Board. The policy or policies covering such loss must explicitly waive any co-insurance penalty.

(ii) A policy of comprehensive public liability insurance with respect to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion and the operations related thereto, whether conducted on or off the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, against liability for personal injury (including bodily injury and death) and property damage, of not less than $2,000,000 in combined single limit liability coverage. Such comprehensive public liability insurance shall specifically include, but shall not be limited to, sprinkler leakage legal liability, water damage legal liability, motor vehicle liability for all owned and non-owned vehicles, including rented or leased vehicles.

(iii) Boiler and machinery insurance coverage against loss or damage by explosion of steam boilers, pressure vessels and similar apparatus, but only if steam boilers, pressure vessels or similar apparatus are installed on the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, in an amount not less than $5,000,000 with deductible provisions not exceeding $100,000 per accident.

(iv) Workers' compensation insurance issued by a responsible carrier authorized under the laws of the State to insure employers against liability for compensation under the Labor Code of the State, or any act hereafter enacted as an amendment thereto or in lieu thereof, such workers' compensation insurance to cover all persons employed by the University in connection with the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion and to cover full liability for compensation under any such act aforesaid.

(v) A policy of rental interruption insurance in the amount of at least one (1) year's rental in the event of loss of or damage to the Series 2004 Facilities or the Series 2017 Facilities.

(b) The Corporation shall:

(i) cause to be secured and maintained a policy of title insurance insuring the Corporation's leasehold interest under the Ground Lease in an amount equal to the par amount of the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds and the Series 2019 Bonds; and

(ii) cause all of the construction professionals to secure and maintain:

(A) Comprehensive or Commercial General Liability insurance;

(B) Errors and Omissions insurance;

(C) Automobile Liability insurance;

- (D) Worker's Compensation insurance;
- (E) an all Risk Builder's Policy upon the construction on the Property; and
- (F) boiler and machinery or additional property insurance;

all as required by the terms of any construction contracts entered into with regards to the demolition of certain existing facilities and the renovation, development and construction of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion.

(c) All insurance required in this Section and all renewals of such insurance (excepting self-insurance or commercial insurance, through ORM) shall be issued by commercial insurers authorized to transact business in the State, and rated at least A- by Best's Insurance Reports (property/liability) or in the two highest rating categories of S&P and Moody's. All insurance policies provided or caused to be provided by the Corporation shall expressly provide that the policies shall not be canceled or altered without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the University and the Trustee; and shall, to the extent obtainable, provide that no act or omission of the Corporation or other provider of the insurance that would otherwise result in forfeiture or reduction of the insurance will affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained.

(d) All policies of liability insurance that the University is obligated to maintain according to this Facilities Lease (other than any policy of worker's compensation insurance) will name the Corporation, the Trustee and such other Persons or firms as the University may be required to name from time to time as additional insureds and shall expressly provide that the policies shall not be cancelled or altered without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Corporation and the Trustee; and shall, to the extent obtainable, provide that no act or omission of the University or other provider of the insurance that would otherwise result in forfeiture or reduction of the insurance will affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained. All public liability, property damage liability, and casualty policies maintained by the University shall be written as primary policies.

(e) Proceeds of insurance received and/or the amount of any loss that is self-insured with respect to destruction of or damage to any portion of the Facilities by fire, earthquake or other casualty or event shall be paid to the Trustee (or, in the case of ORM insurance, to the Board for delivery in full to the Trustee) for application in accordance with the provisions of Section 11 of this Facilities Lease and the Indenture.

(f) If the Series 2004 Facilities, the Series 2007 Facilities, the Stadium Expansion and the Series 2017 Facilities are self-insured through ORM, the insurance provisions of this Section shall be deemed as having been satisfied.

(g) The Corporation shall certify annually to the Bond Insurer that all insurance policies required by this Section 9 are as of the date of such certification in place and in effect.

Section 10. Condemnation, Casualty and Other Damage. The risk of loss or decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion due to any damage or destruction thereof by acts of God, fire, flood, natural disaster, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, civil strife, lockout, war, nuclear explosion or otherwise (collectively "Casualty") or in consequence of any foreclosures, attachments, levies or executions; or the taking of all or any portion of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion by condemnation, expropriation, or eminent domain proceedings (collectively "Expropriation") is expressly assumed by the Board. The Corporation and the Trustee shall in no event be answerable, accountable or liable therefor, nor shall any of the foregoing events entitle the Board to any abatements, set-offs or counter claims with respect to its Base Rental, Additional Rental or any other obligation hereunder.

Section 11. Application of Insurance Proceeds; Condemnation Award. (a) If during construction, all or any portion of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion is damaged or destroyed by a Casualty, or is taken by Expropriation proceedings, the Board shall instruct the Corporation, as expeditiously as possible, to continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof; provided however, that the Corporation shall in no way be liable for any costs of the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion in excess of the proceeds of any insurance or of any Expropriation award received because of such Casualty or Expropriation. Following the completion of construction and acceptance of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion by the Board on behalf of the Corporation, the Board shall, as expeditiously as possible, continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted, the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof. The proceeds of any insurance, including the proceeds of any self-insurance fund, or of any Expropriation award or payment in lieu of Expropriation, received on account of any damage, destruction or taking of all or any portion of the Facilities shall be delivered to the Trustee and held by the Trustee in trust (or in the case of self-insurance through ORM, as set forth in paragraph (b) below), and shall be made available for, and to the extent necessary be applied to, such restoration, repair and replacement. Any amounts so held by the Trustee shall be disbursed to pay the costs of restoration, replacement and repair of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion with respect to which they are held, in each case promptly after receipt of a written request of the Corporation stating that the amount to be disbursed pursuant to such request will be used to pay costs of replacing or repairing or restoring the Facilities and that no amount previously has been disbursed by the Trustee for payment of the costs to be so paid. In making such payments, the Trustee may conclusively rely upon such written requests and shall have no liability or responsibility to investigate any matter stated therein, or for any inaccuracy or misstatement therein. In no event shall the Trustee be responsible for the adequacy of the plans and specifications or construction contract relating to the replacement, restoration, or repair of the Facilities, or for the improper use of moneys properly disbursed pursuant to request made under this Section. Any proceeds remaining on deposit with Trustee following completion of the repairs, restoration or replacement of the Facilities shall be paid by Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

In the event the proceeds of any insurance, and any additional funds deposited with the Trustee, are insufficient to fully repair, restore or replace the Facilities, the proceeds shall be paid to the Board for immediate delivery to Trustee and used to redeem the Outstanding Bonds.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation's obligation to replace the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion in the event of Expropriation Proceedings is dependent on the Board entering into a lease with a different portion of the Campus as provided in Section 13.03 of the Ground Lease. In the event it is necessary to restore or replace the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion in a different location because of the Expropriation of all or a portion of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, the Corporation and the Board agree to amend or enter into a new Facilities Lease and Ground Lease in accordance with Sections 13.03 of the Ground Lease. In the event the Board, pursuant to the Ground Lease, decides not to repair, restore or replace the Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation) shall be paid to the Board for immediate delivery to the Trustee and applied to the prepayment of the Bonds in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, and this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease shall terminate on the date that the events described in Section 2(a) or 2(b) hereof have occurred.

(b) In the event that ORM insures the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, the Board shall use the insurance proceeds received from ORM in accordance with Policy and Procedure Memorandum Number 10 (requiring invoices to be submitted to ORM for payment to vendors, or alternatively, production of invoices paid by the Board to ORM for reimbursement of vendor payments) to effect the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion.

Section 12. Encumbrances.

(a) Payment by the Board. The Board shall pay or cause to be paid all costs and charges for alterations, improvements, additions, repairs and maintenance (“Work”) (i) done by the Board or caused to be done by the Board in or to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, and (ii) for all materials furnished for or in connection with such Work. The Corporation reserves all rights to collect for any loss or damage sustained or incurred by the Corporation resulting from any and all Encumbrances, demands or liabilities arising on account of the Work, which shall be payable by the Board as Additional Rent hereunder.

(b) Failure to Discharge. If the Board fails to pay any charge for which an Encumbrance has been filed, and the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion or any portion thereof is placed in imminent danger of being seized, the Corporation may, but shall not be obligated to, pay such charge and related costs and interest, and the amount so paid, together with reasonable Legal Expenses incurred in connection with such Encumbrance, will be immediately due from the Board to the Corporation as Additional Rental. Nothing contained in this Facilities Lease will be deemed the consent or agreement of the Corporation to subject the Corporation’s interest in the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion to liability under any Encumbrance, or any mechanics’, materialman’s or other lien law. If the Board receives written notice that an Encumbrance has been or is about to be filed against the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, or that any action affecting title to the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion has been commenced on account of Work done by or for the Board or for materials furnished to or for the Board, it shall immediately give the Corporation Notice of such notice.

(c) Notice of Work. At least fifteen (15) days prior to the commencement of any Work in or to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, by or for the University, the University shall give the Corporation Notice of the proposed Work and the names and addresses of the Persons supplying labor and materials for the proposed Work. The Corporation will have the right to post notices of nonresponsibility or similar written notices on the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion in order to protect the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion against any such claimants.

Section 13. Assignment and Sublease. (a) Neither this Facilities Lease nor any interest of the Board in the Facilities shall be mortgaged, pledged, assigned or transferred by the Board by voluntary act or by operation of law, or otherwise; provided, however, the Board may sublease all or any portion of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, or grant concessions involving the use of all or any portion of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, whether such concessions purport to convey a leasehold interest or a license to use all or a portion of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion to any University student, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessee. No such concession, leasehold interest or license to use the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion shall be granted to any University students, faculty or staff for a term of more than one (1) year, or to any Permitted Sublessee for a term of more than one (1) month. The Board shall, however, at all times remain liable for the performance of the covenants and conditions on its part to be performed under this Facilities Lease (including, without limitation, the payment of Base Rental and Additional Rental), notwithstanding any subletting or granting of concessions which may be made. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve the Board from its obligations to pay Base Rental and Additional Rental as provided in this Facilities Lease or to relieve the Board from any other obligations contained herein. Other than subleases to University students, faculty, staff and Permitted

Sublessees, in no event will the Board sublease or permit the use of all or any part of the Facilities to any person without an opinion of Bond Counsel that such will not cause interest on the Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owners of the Bonds for federal income tax purposes.

(b) The Corporation shall, concurrently with the execution hereof, assign all of its right, title and interest in and to this Facilities Lease, including without limitation its right to receive Base Rental payable hereunder, to the Issuer pursuant to the Agreement, and the Issuer will in turn assign its rights under this Facilities Lease to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture. The parties hereto further agree to execute any and all documents necessary and proper in connection therewith. Anything required or permitted to be done by the Corporation under this Facilities Lease may be done by the Trustee under the Indenture.

(c) Except as set forth in Section 13(b) hereof, the Corporation shall not sell or assign its interest in the Facility or this Facilities Lease without the prior written consent of the Board and the Bond Insurer.

Section 14. Additions and Improvements Removal. At the expiration of the Term, or termination of this Facilities Lease, all alterations, fixtures, improvements and additions made by the Board or the University and all equipment placed upon the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion that are incorporated into or made into component parts of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, as well as, title to all property, furniture, equipment, fixtures, and other property installed at or placed upon the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion by the Board which is not incorporated into or made a component part of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion remain the property of the Board.

The Board hereby agrees to replace such property from time to time as such property becomes worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable or undesirable. The Board may add to or remove such property from time to time, and upon expiration of the Term, provided that the Board repairs any damage to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion caused by such removal.

Section 15. Right of Entry. Representatives of the Corporation and the Bond Insurer shall, subject to reasonable security precautions, and upon giving the Board not less than twenty-four (24) hours advance Notice, have the right to enter upon the Facilities during reasonable business hours (and in emergencies without notice and at all times) accompanied by a Board Representative (i) to inspect the same, (ii) for any purpose connected with the rights or obligations of the Corporation under this Facilities Lease, or (iii) for all other lawful purposes. Any right of access to any portion of the Facilities leased to the students, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessees shall be subject to their rights pursuant to their rental agreements and University policy.

Section 16. Mortgage Prohibition. Except as set forth in the Indenture, the Ground Lease and the Agreement, the Corporation shall not be entitled to mortgage or grant a security interest in the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion.

Section 17. Sale of Facilities; Attornment; and Conveyance and Transfer of the Corporation's Interest. If a person other than the Corporation shall succeed to the rights of the Corporation hereunder (in any case with the prior written consent of the Board as required hereby), upon the declaration of the successor to the Corporation's interest in this Facilities Lease, the Board agrees to fully attorn to and recognize any such successor as the Board's landlord under this Facilities Lease upon the then existing terms of this Facilities Lease, provided that such successor shall agree in writing to accept the Board's attornment and not to disturb the Board's possession so long as the Board shall observe the provisions and all covenants of this Facilities Lease. This attornment provision shall inure to the benefit of any such successor and shall be self-operative upon the election and declaration by such successor, and no further instrument shall be required to give effect to the provisions. However, the Board agrees to evidence and confirm the foregoing attornment provisions by the execution and delivery of instruments in recordable form satisfactory to such successor.

If the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, or any part thereof, shall be sold or otherwise transferred by sale, assignment, transfer or other contract, or by operation of law or otherwise (with the prior written consent of the Board as required hereby, with the prior written consent of the Series 2017 Bond Insurer and the Series 2019 Bond Insurer with respect to the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities and the 2007 Bond Insurer with respect to the Series 2007 Facilities, and with an opinion of Bond Counsel that such action will not cause interest on the Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owner of the Bonds for federal tax purposes), and if such written consent specifically so provides, the Corporation shall be automatically and entirely released and discharged to the extent of the interest in or the portion of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion sold, assigned or transferred from and after the effective date of such sale, assignment or transfer of all liability for the performance of any of the covenants of this Facilities Lease on the part of the Corporation thereafter to be performed. The purchaser or other transferee of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion shall be deemed to have agreed to perform such covenants of the Corporation from and after the date of such assignment or sale during such transferee's period of ownership of the Corporation's interest under this Facilities Lease, all without further agreement between the Corporation, its successor and the Board. The Corporation's transferee shall not be held responsible for the performance of any of the covenants of this Facilities Lease on the part of the Corporation required to be performed prior to such sale and transfer, the Board reserving its rights against the Corporation for any unperformed covenants prior to such sale or transfer.

Section 18. Quiet Enjoyment. The Corporation covenants that the Board, on paying the Rental and performing and observing all of the covenants and agreements herein contained and provided to be performed by the Board or the University, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold, occupy, use, and enjoy the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion during the Term and may exercise all of its rights hereunder; and the Corporation agrees to warrant and forever defend the Board's right to such occupancy, use, and enjoyment and the title to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion against the claims of any and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same, or any part thereof subject only to the provisions of this Facilities Lease.

Section 19. Environmental Compliance and Indemnity.

(a) Environmental Compliance. The Board or the University shall operate or cause to be operated the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion in compliance with all Environmental Requirements continuously during the Term, and for such periods of time prior to the Commencement Date and after the Expiration Date, as long as the Board is in possession of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, in whole or in part. The Board shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Substance to be brought upon, kept, or used in or about the Facilities, the Stadium Expansion, the Land, or the Stadium Expansion Land, except for such Hazardous Substance as is necessary or useful to the operation of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion.

(b) The Board's Liability. If the Board fails to comply with any of the foregoing warranties, representations, and covenants, and removal or Remediation of any Hazardous Substance found on the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion is required by Environmental Requirements or Governmental Authority, the Board shall promptly undertake the removal or Remediation of such Hazardous Substance, at the Board's sole cost and expense. In the event the Board fails or refuses to undertake such removal or Remedial actions, the Corporation may cause the removal or Remediation (or other cleanup reasonable acceptable to the Corporation) of any such Hazardous Substance from the Land, the Stadium Expansion Land, the Stadium Expansion, or the Facilities. The reasonable costs of removal, Remediation, or any other cleanup (including transportation and storage costs) will be considered as Additional Rental under this Facilities Lease, whether or not a court has ordered the cleanup, and those costs will become due and payable within ninety (90) days of written demand by the Corporation. In connection therewith, the Board will give the Corporation, its agents, and employees access to the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion to remove, remediate, or otherwise clean up any Hazardous Substance. The Corporation, however, has no affirmative obligation to remove, remediate, or otherwise clean up any Hazardous Substance, and this Facilities Lease will not be construed as creating any such obligation. The Board hereby agrees that it shall be fully liable for all costs and expenses related to the use, storage, and disposal of any Hazardous Substance located in or about the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion by the Board.

Section 20. The Corporation's Reservation of Rights.

(a) The Corporation hereby reserves all of its rights to recover from the Board for any and all Claims asserted against the Corporation, including Litigation Expenses arising out of or by reason of:

(i) any injury to or death of any person or damage to property occurring on or about the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion occasioned by or growing out of or arising or resulting from any tortious or negligent act on the part of the Board in connection with the operation and management of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion; or

(ii) any failure, breach, or default on the part of the Board in the performance of or compliance with any of the obligations of the Board under the terms of this Facilities Lease.

(b) Notwithstanding the fact that it is the intention of the parties that the Corporation shall not incur any pecuniary liability by reason of the terms of this Facilities Lease or the undertakings required of the Corporation hereunder, nevertheless, if the Corporation should incur any such pecuniary liability, then in that event, the Corporation shall be entitled to assert all rights and remedies granted in law or in equity to recover from the Board the amount of any pecuniary liability incurred by the Corporation, plus all Litigation Expenses incurred in defense of such liability to the extent subject to indemnification pursuant to Subsection (a) above.

(c) No recourse shall be had for the enforcement of any obligation, covenant, or agreement of the Corporation contained in this Facilities Lease or any Claim based thereon against the Corporation or of any successor thereto or member thereof, either directly or through the Corporation whether by virtue of any constitutional provision, statute, or rule of law. This Facilities Lease and the obligations of the Corporation hereunder, and any Claim asserted against the Corporation are solely corporate obligations, and the enforcement of any obligation or Claim shall be limited solely to the Corporation's interest in the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion. No personal liability shall attach to, or be incurred by, any officer, director, agent, employee or member of the Corporation and the Board acknowledges that all personal liability of any character against every such officer, director, agent, employee or member by the execution of this Facilities Lease, is expressly waived and released. The immunity of any officer, director, agent, employee or member of the Corporation under the provisions contained in this Section 20 shall survive any acquisition of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion by the Board and the expiration or other termination of this Facilities Lease.

Section 21. Default by the Board. If (i) the Board shall fail to deposit with the Trustee any Base Rental payment required to be so deposited pursuant to Section 6 hereof by the close of business on the day such deposit is required pursuant to Section 6 hereof, and shall fail to remedy such breach within five (5) days thereof, but in no event later than the date on which such payment is required to enable the Corporation to make payment on the Bonds (without use of moneys held in the Debt Service Reserve Fund), or (ii) the Board shall fail to pay or discharge any monetary obligation under this Lease (other than the payment of Base Rental) as and when due, or within thirty (30) days after receipt of Notice from the Corporation that such sums are due and owing; or (iii) the Board shall breach any non-monetary terms, covenants or conditions herein, and shall (except with respect to any breach of covenant set forth in Section 3(h), which Section contains the timeframe whereby the failure to meet the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Parking Facilities shall become and Event of Default) fail to remedy any such breach with all reasonable dispatch within a reasonable period of time (or such longer period as the Trustee may approve) after written notice thereof from the Corporation, the Bond Insurer, or the University to the Board, then and in any such event the Board shall be deemed to be in default hereunder, and the Corporation (with the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer) shall have the right, at its option, without any further demand or notice to terminate this Facilities Lease on the earliest date permitted by law or on any later date specified in any Notice given to the Board, in which case the Board's right to possession of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion will cease and this Facilities Lease will be terminated, without, however, waiving the Corporation's right to collect all Rental and other payments due or owing for the period up to the time the Corporation regains possession (which have been approved for payment under this Facilities Lease, but not paid by the Board), and to enforce other obligations of the Board which survive termination of this Facilities Lease, and in such event the Corporation may without any further demand or notice re-enter the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion and eject all parties in possession thereof, subject to the rights of students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees. The foregoing remedies of the Corporation are in addition to and not exclusive of any other remedy of the Corporation. Any such re-entry shall be allowed by the Board without hindrance, and the Corporation shall not be liable in damages for any such re-entry or be guilty of trespass. The Corporation understands and agrees that upon its termination of the Board's right to possession of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion or termination of this Facilities Lease, the Corporation upon its re-entry of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion shall only be allowed to use the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion for the Permitted Use and shall be subject to all applicable Governmental Regulations heretofore or hereafter enacted by any Governmental Authority relating to the use and operation of the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Facilities Lease, (i) in no event shall the Corporation have the right to accelerate the payment of any Base Rental payment hereunder and (ii) the Bond Insurer shall have ninety (90) days to cure an Event of Default hereunder.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 21 to the contrary, a failure by the Board to pay when due any payment required to be made under this Facilities Lease or a failure by the Board to observe and perform any covenant, condition or agreement on its part to be observed or performed under this Facilities Lease, resulting from a failure by the Board to appropriate moneys shall not constitute an Event of Default under this Section 21 and the Corporation shall not have any of the remedial rights set forth in this Section 21. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in such event the Board acknowledges that the Facilities Lease and the Stadium Expansion shall terminate and the Board shall immediately vacate the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion, and deliver the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion to the Corporation.

Section 22. Cumulative Remedies. Each right and remedy provided for in this Facilities Lease is cumulative and is in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in this Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise, and the exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Corporation of any one or more of the rights or remedies provided for in this Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise will not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Corporation of any or all other rights or remedies provided for in this Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise. All costs incurred by the Corporation in collecting any amounts and damages owing by the Board pursuant to the provisions of this Facilities Lease or to enforce any provision of this Facilities Lease, including reasonable Litigation Expenses from the date any such matter is turned over to an attorney, whether or not one or more actions are commenced by the Corporation, will also be recoverable by the Corporation from the Board. The waiver by the Corporation of any breach by the Board and the waiver by the Board of any breach by the Corporation of any term, covenant or condition hereof shall not operate as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition hereof.

Section 23. Option to Purchase. For and in consideration of the obligations of the Board under the Facilities Lease, the mutual undertakings of the parties, the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, the Corporation grants to the Board an exclusive and irrevocable option to purchase for the price and on the terms, provisions, stipulations and conditions hereinafter set forth, all but not less than all of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion.

(a) Effective Date. The effective date of this Option agreement shall be the Commencement Date.

(b) Term of Option. The Option shall expire at midnight Central Standard Time, on the Expiration Date, or upon the termination of this Facilities Lease, whichever occurs first.

(c) Limitation on Exercise of Option. The Board may not exercise the Option, and the Option shall be voidable, at the sole election of the Corporation, if a Default by the Board has occurred and is continuing under the Facilities Lease, and the applicable time period in which the Board may cure such default has expired. Notwithstanding any provision of this Option to the contrary, the Board shall be entitled to exercise the Option as long as the Board is legally obligated to make payments of Base Rental under the Facilities Lease.

(d) Exercise of Option.

(i) The Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities. The Board may exercise the Option herein granted with respect to the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities at any time on or before expiration of the Term, on any Interest Payment Date on or after August 1, 2027 or on the date the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds, and the Series 2019 Bonds are defeased pursuant to Article XII of the Amended and Restated Indenture, by Notice to the Corporation of its election to exercise the Option and purchase the Corporation's interest in and to the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities given not less than sixty (60) days prior to the date on which the Board desires to purchase the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities.

(ii) The Series 2007 Facilities and the Stadium Expansion. The Board may exercise the Option herein granted at any time on or before expiration of the Term with respect to the Stadium Expansion and on any Interest Payment Date on or after August 1, 2014 or on the date the Series 2007 Bonds are defeased pursuant to Article XII of the Series 2007 Indenture with respect to the Series 2007 Facilities, by Notice to the Corporation of its election to exercise the Option and purchase the Corporation's interest in and to such Series 2007 Facilities given not less than sixty (60) days prior to the date on which the Board desires to purchase such portion of the Series 2007 Facilities.

(e) Purchase Price. The Purchase Price (i) for the Facilities shall be equal to the principal of all Bonds then Outstanding plus the interest to accrue on such Bonds until the purchase date plus any prepayment penalties, charges or costs for early prepayment or defeasance of the Bonds and any Administrative Expenses owed prior to the purchase date which payments are necessary to discharge the Indenture pursuant to Article XII thereof; and (ii) for the Stadium Expansion shall be one dollar ($1.00) (collectively, the "Purchase Price").

(f) Effect on Facilities Lease and Ground Lease. Upon the purchase of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, as the case may be, by the Board pursuant to this Option, the Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease shall terminate with respect to that portion of the Land or the Stadium Expansion Land, as applicable, and that portion of the Facilities or Stadium Expansion and all of the Corporation's leasehold interest in that portion of the Land or the Stadium Expansion Land, as applicable, and that portion of the Facilities or Stadium Expansion under the Facilities Lease shall terminate but shall continue in effect with respect to that portion of the Facilities or Stadium Expansion not so purchased. A purchase of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Stadium Expansion shall (A) require an opinion of Bond Counsel that such purchase will not cause interest on the Series 2007 Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owners of the Series 2007 Bonds for Federal income tax purposes and (B) not reduce the Rental payable by the Board hereunder.

(g) Payment of Purchase Price. The Board, on the purchase date, shall deposit an amount equal to the Purchase Price with the Trustee in the case of the Facilities and with the Corporation with respect to the Stadium Expansion.

(i) Conveyance. In the event of and upon the payment of the Purchase Price and any other sums due under this Facilities Lease by the Board, the Corporation will on the purchase date execute and deliver to the Board a written cancellation of the Ground Lease and this Facilities Lease with respect to that portion of the Facilities and/or Stadium Expansion.

(ii) Assignment of Contract Rights and Obligations. The conveyance of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion shall also effect a transfer and assignment of all rights, warranties and liabilities of the Corporation under then existing contracts of any nature with respect to the Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion.

(h) Closing. In the event the Option is timely exercised, notice of the Board's election to the Corporation shall constitute an irrevocable conversion of the Option into a binding obligation of the Corporation to sell its leasehold interest in the Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion and the Board to buy the same under the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 23, and in such event, the Corporation and the Board shall have the right to demand specific performance of this agreement by the other. The closing shall occur at the offices of the Board or its counsel, or at such other time, place, and date as agreed upon by the Corporation and the Board.

(i) Closing Costs. The Board shall pay all closing costs and charges incident to the conveyance of the Corporation's interest in the Land, the Stadium Expansion Land, the Stadium Expansion, and the Facilities.

(j) No Warranty. The Corporation shall convey its leasehold interest in the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion without any warranty whatsoever of any nature. The conveyance of the leasehold interest in the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion shall be without any warranty as to fitness and condition, as set forth in Section 5 of this Facilities Lease. Language substantially similar to the language contained in Section 5 of this Facilities Lease shall be incorporated into and made a part of such conveyance. In no event shall the Corporation be responsible for any defects in title.

(k) Default under the Option:

(i) In the event the Option is exercised, and the Corporation fails to consummate the transactions contemplated herein for any reason, except default by the Board or the failure of the Board to satisfy any of the conditions set forth herein, the Board may, in addition to any other rights and remedies which may otherwise be available to the Board, enforce this agreement by specific performance. The Board's remedies under this Section are expressly subject to the provisions of Section 30 of this Facilities Lease.

(ii) In the event the Option is exercised, and the Board fails to consummate the transactions contemplated herein for any reason, except default by the Corporation or the failure of the Corporation to satisfy any of the conditions set forth herein, the Corporation (a) may enforce this agreement by specific performance and in such action shall have the right to recover damages suffered by reason of the Board's delay; or (b) may bring suit for damages for breach of this agreement.

(iii) No delay or omission in the exercise of any right or remedy accruing to either party upon any breach by the other party under this Section 23 shall impair such right or remedy or be construed as a waiver of any such breach theretofore or thereafter occurring. The waiver by either party of any condition or any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition contained in this Section 23 shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any other condition or of any subsequent breach of the same or of any other term, covenant or condition herein contained.

(l) Attorney's Fees. Should either party employ an attorney or attorneys to enforce any of the provisions hereof, or to protect its interest in any matter arising under this agreement, or to recover damages for the breach of this agreement, the party prevailing in any final judgment shall have the right to collect from the losing party all Litigation Expenses incurred in enforcing such rights.

(m) Notices. Any notices required or permitted under this Section 23 shall be in writing and delivered either in person to the other party, or the other party's authorized agent, or by United States Certified Mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the address set forth in Section 50 of this Facilities Lease, or to such other address as either party may designate in writing and delivered as herein provided.

(n) Assignability. Except as set forth in the Indenture, the Mortgage or the Ground Lease, the Option may not be assigned by the Corporation or its interest in the Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion sold (subject to the Option or otherwise) to any person or entity without the Board's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld by the Board in its sole discretion.

(o) Time of Essence: Time is of the essence of this Option.

(p) Binding Effect: This Option shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their heirs, successors and assigns.

Section 24. Severability. If any provisions of this Facilities Lease shall be invalid, inoperative or unenforceable as applied in any particular case in any jurisdiction or jurisdictions or in all jurisdictions, or in all cases because it conflicts with any other provision or provisions hereof or any constitution or statute or rule of public policy, or for any other reason, such circumstances shall not have the effect of rendering the provision in question inoperative or unenforceable in any other case or circumstance, or of rendering any other provision or provisions herein contained invalid, inoperative or unenforceable, to any extent whatever. The invalidity of any one or more phrases, sentences, clauses or Sections contained in this Facilities Lease shall not affect the remaining portions of this Facilities Lease, or any part thereof.

Section 25. Redemption of Bonds. The Corporation agrees that it will not exercise its option to redeem any Bonds pursuant to the Indenture unless the Board consents to such redemption or such redemption is to be effected with moneys derived from a source other than payments made by the Board under this Facilities Lease, however, in no event shall the mandatory redemption of any Bonds pursuant to the Indenture require the consent of the Board. The Corporation further agrees that if requested by the Board it will take all actions necessary to redeem all or any portion of the Bonds designated by the Board on the first date that it may do so under the terms of the Indenture so long as the Board agrees to provide funds in an amount, and at the time, required to effect such redemption.

Section 26. Additional Bonds. Upon the request and at the expense of the Board, the Corporation shall take action as may be required to effect the issuance of Additional Bonds in such amount as the Board may request as permitted by and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture for any purpose permitted thereby.

Section 27. Execution. This Facilities Lease may be simultaneously executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same Facilities Lease.

Section 28. Law Governing. This Facilities Lease is made in the State under the constitution and laws of the State and is to be governed by the laws of the State.

Section 29. Nonappropriation of Funds. In the event no funds or insufficient funds are lawfully appropriated in any Fiscal Year enabling the payment of Base Rental and Additional Rental due during the next succeeding Fiscal Year, the Board will immediately notify the Corporation and the Trustee of such occurrence. On the first day of the month following the Base Rental payment date on which the last payment of Base Rental can be made in full from Lawfully Available Funds, this Facilities Lease shall terminate without penalty or expense to the Board of any kind whatsoever, except as to the portions of Base Rental and Additional Rental payments herein agreed upon for Fiscal Years for which sufficient funds have been lawfully appropriated. In the event of such termination, the Board agrees peaceably to surrender possession of the Facilities to the Corporation on the date of such termination in its original condition (normal wear and tear excepted). The Corporation will have all legal and equitable rights and remedies to take possession of the Facilities and re-let or sell the Facilities as the Corporation determines and as granted in this Facilities Lease. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation's rights to take possession and to re-let or sell the Facilities under this Section 29 may be assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the owners of the Bonds, and the Board agrees that the Trustee shall be entitled to exercise all of the rights of the Corporation under this Section 29. The event of an inability by the Board to cause the appropriation of sufficient funds for the payment of sums due under this Facilities Lease shall not constitute a default hereunder, but shall ipso facto terminate this Facilities Lease. This provision is operative notwithstanding any provisions of this Facilities Lease to the contrary. The Board shall be considered in default hereunder if sufficient funds are lawfully appropriated for the payment of Rental required under this Facilities Lease and the Board fails to use lawfully appropriated funds for the payment of Rental. In such event, the Corporation shall be entitled to the rights and remedies set forth in Sections 21 and 22 hereof.

Section 30. Exculpatory Provision. In the exercise of the powers of the Corporation and its trustees, officers, employees and agents under this Facilities Lease and the Indenture, the Corporation shall not be accountable or liable to the Board (i) for any actions taken or omitted by it or its officers, employees or agents in good faith and believed by it or them to be authorized or within their discretion or rights or powers conferred upon them, or (ii) for any claims based on this Facilities Lease against any officer, employee or agent of the Corporation in his or her personal capacity, all such liability, if any, being expressly waived by the Board by the execution of this Facilities Lease. Nothing in this Facilities Lease or the Indenture is intended to require or obligate, nor shall anything herein or therein be interpreted to require or obligate, the Corporation for any purpose or at any time whatsoever, to provide, apply or expend any funds coming into the hands of the Corporation other than the funds derived from the issuance of the Bonds under the Indenture and moneys derived pursuant to the Indenture and this Facilities Lease.

The Board specifically agrees to look solely to the Corporation's interest in the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion for the recovery of any judgments from the Corporation. It is agreed that the Corporation will not be personally liable for any such judgments, or incur any pecuniary liability as a result of this Facilities Lease to the Board, or the breach of its obligations hereunder. The Corporation's liability under this Facilities Lease is "in rem" as to its interest in the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion. The provisions contained in the preceding sentences are not intended to and will not limit any right that the Board might otherwise have to obtain injunctive relief against the Corporation or relief in any suit or action in connection with enforcement or collection of amounts that may become owing or payable under or on account of insurance maintained by the Corporation.

Section 31. Amendments. This Facilities Lease may be amended only as permitted in Article VIII of the Agreement.

Section 32. Recording. The Corporation covenants and agrees that it will promptly record and from time to time re-record a memorandum in recordable form a memorandum of this Facilities Lease in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto and the Indenture and all supplements thereto and hereto in such manner and in such places as may be required by law in order to fully protect and preserve the security of the holders or owners of the Bonds.

Section 33. Construction Against Drafting Party. The Corporation and the Board acknowledge that each of them and their counsel have had an opportunity to review this Facilities Lease and that each Party was responsible for the drafting thereof.

Section 34. Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence of each and every provision of this Facilities Lease.

Section 35. No Waiver. The waiver by the Corporation of any agreement, condition, or provision contained in this Facilities Lease will not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other agreement, condition, or provision contained in this Facilities Lease, nor will any custom or practice that may grow up between the parties in the administration of the terms of this Facilities Lease be construed to waive or to lessen the right of the Corporation to insist upon the performance by the Board in strict accordance with the terms of this Facilities Lease. The subsequent acceptance of Rental by the Corporation will not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding breach by the Board of any agreement, condition, or provision of this Facilities Lease, other than the failure of the Board to pay the particular Rental so accepted, regardless of the Corporation's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such Rental.

Section 36. Survival. To the extent permitted by law and to the extent such will not constitute the incurrence of debt by the Board, all of the Corporation's remedies and rights of recovery under Sections 19 and 20 of this Facilities Lease shall survive the Term and/or the purchase of the Facilities by the Board under the Option.

Section 37. Counterparts. This Facilities Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 38. Estoppel Certificates. At any time and from time to time but within ten (10) days after prior written request by the Corporation, the Board will execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the Corporation, promptly upon request but only to the extent accurate, a certificate certifying (i) that this Facilities Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect or, if there have been modifications, that this Facilities Lease is in full force and effect, as modified, and stating the date and nature of each modification; (ii) the date, if any, to which Rental and other sums payable under this Facilities Lease have been paid; (iii) that no Notice of any default has been delivered to the Corporation which default has not been cured, except as to defaults specified in said certificate; (iv) that there is no Event of Default under this Facilities Lease or an event which, with Notice or the passage of time, or both, would result in an Event of Default under this Facilities Lease, except for defaults specified in said certificate; and (v) such other matters as may be reasonably requested by the Corporation. Any such certificate may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser or existing or prospective mortgagee of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion or any part thereof. The Board's failure to notify the Corporation of any inaccuracies in the proposed certificate within the specified time period shall be conclusive evidence that the matters set forth in the certificate are accurate and correct.

Section 39. Waiver of Jury Trial. The Corporation and the Board waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding, or counterclaim brought by either of the Parties to this Facilities Lease against the other on any matters whatsoever arising out of or in any way connected with this Facilities Lease, the relationship of the Corporation and the Board, the Board's use or occupancy of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, or any other Claims, and any emergency statutory or any other statutory remedy.

Section 40. Written Amendment Required. No amendment, alteration, modification of, or addition to the Facilities Lease will be valid or binding unless expressed in writing and signed by the Corporation and the Board and consented to the extent required by Article VIII of the Agreement.

Section 41. Entire Agreement. This Facilities Lease, the exhibits and addenda, if any, contain the entire agreement between the Corporation and the Board. No promises or representations, except as contained in this Facilities Lease, have been made to the Board respecting the condition or the manner of operating the Facilities.

Section 42. Signs. The Board may attach any sign on any part of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, or in the halls, lobbies, windows, or elevator banks of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, without the Corporation approval. The Board may name the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion and change the name, number, or designation of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, without the Corporation's prior consent.

Section 43. Litigation Expenses. The Board will pay the Corporation as Additional Rental all reasonable Litigation Expenses and all other reasonable expenses which may be incurred by the Corporation in enforcing any of the obligations of the Board under this Facilities Lease, in exercising its rights to recover against the Board for loss or damage sustained in accordance with the provisions of this Facilities Lease, or in any litigation or negotiation in which the Corporation shall, without its fault, become involved through or because of this Facilities Lease.

Section 44. Brokers. The Corporation and the Board respectively represent and warrant to each other that neither of them has consulted or negotiated with any broker or finder with regard to the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion.

Section 45. No Easements for Air or Light. Any diminution or shutting off of light, air, or view by any structure that may be erected on any of the lands constituting the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, or on lands adjacent to the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, will in no way affect this Facilities Lease or impose any liability on the Corporation. This Facilities Lease does not grant any rights to light, view and/or air over the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion whatsoever.

Section 46. Binding Effect. The covenants, conditions, and agreements contained in this Facilities Lease will bind and inure to the benefit of the Corporation and the Board and their respective permitted successors and assigns. The Bond Insurer and the Surety Provider shall be third party beneficiaries of this Facilities Lease.

Section 47. Rules of Interpretation. The following rules shall apply to the construction of this Facilities Lease unless the context requires otherwise: (a) the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular; (b) words importing any gender include the other genders; (c) references to statutes are to be construed as including all statutory provisions consolidating, amending or replacing the statute to which reference is made and all regulations promulgated pursuant to such statutes; (d) references to “writing” include printing, photocopy, typing, lithography and other means of reproducing words in a tangible visible form; (e) the words “including” “includes” and “include” shall be deemed to be followed by words “without limitation”; (f) references to the introductory paragraph, preliminary statements, articles, sections (or subdivision of sections), exhibits, appendices, annexes or schedules are to those of this Facilities Lease unless otherwise indicated; (g) references to agreements and other contractual instruments shall be deemed to include all subsequent amendments and other modifications to such instruments; (h) references to Persons include their respective successors and assigns to the extent successors or assigns are permitted or not prohibited by the terms of this Facilities Lease; (i) any accounting term not otherwise defined has the meaning assigned to it in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; (j) “or” is not exclusive; (k) provisions apply to successive events and transactions; (l) references to documents or agreements which have been terminated or released or which have expired shall be of no force and effect after such termination, release, or expiration; (m) references to mail shall be deemed to refer to first-class mail, postage prepaid, unless another type of mail is specified; (n) all references to time shall be to Hammond, Louisiana time; (o) references to specific persons, positions, or officers shall include those who or which succeed to or perform their respective functions, duties, or responsibilities; and (p) the terms “herein”, “hereunder” “hereby” “hereof,” and any similar terms refer to this Facilities Lease as a whole and not to any particular articles, section or subdivision hereof.

Section 48. Relationship of Parties. The relationship of the Parties shall be one of lessor and lessee only, and shall not be considered a partnership, joint venture, license arrangement or unincorporated association. The Corporation is not controlled by the Board or under the control of any Person also in control of the Board.

Section 49. Law Between the Parties. This Facilities Lease shall constitute the law between the Parties, and if any provision of this Facilities Lease is in conflict with the provisions of “Title IX - Of Lease” of the Louisiana Civil Code, Articles 2669 through 2777, inclusive, the provisions of this Facilities Lease shall control.

Section 4.2 First Priority Mortgage. This Mortgage constitutes a valid mortgage and, upon proper recording hereof, will constitute a valid and perfected first mortgage Lien on the Mortgaged Property, and security interest in, the Collateral other than the Mortgaged Property, subject only to the Permitted Encumbrances, and there are no defenses or offsets to the Mortgagor's obligations pursuant to this Mortgage or the Loan Documents to which it is a party, including, without limitation, the applicable obligations to pay and perform the Obligations.

Section 4.3 Location of Offices; Taxpayer Identification Number. The Mortgagor's chief executive office and principal place of business are as set forth in the Mortgagor's appearance clause herein. The Mortgagor's Federal Taxpayer Identification Number is as set forth in the Mortgagor's appearance clause herein.

Section 4.4 Enforceability. The execution and delivery of this Mortgage and any of the Loan Documents to which the Mortgagor is a party will result in valid and legally binding obligations of the Mortgagor enforceable against it in accordance with the respective terms and provisions hereof and thereof.

Section 4.5 Peaceable Possession. The Mortgagor's possession of the Mortgaged Property has been peaceable and undisturbed and, to the best of the Mortgagor's knowledge, the title thereto has never been disputed or questioned, and the Mortgagor does not know of any facts by reason of which any adverse claim to any part of the Mortgaged Property or to any undivided interest therein might be set up or made.

Section 4.6 Taxes. The Mortgagor has not received any notice of any federal, state, or local tax claims or Liens assessed or filed against the Mortgagor or the Collateral for Taxes that are due and payable, unsatisfied of record, or docketed in any court of the state in which the Collateral is located or in any court located in the United States.

Section 4.7 Casualty and Condemnation. The Collateral has not been damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, and no condemnation or eminent domain proceedings have been commenced and/or are pending with respect to the Mortgaged Property, and, to the best of the Mortgagor's knowledge, no such condemnation or eminent domain proceedings are about to be commenced.

Section 4.8 No Consents or Approvals. No consent or approval of any trustee or holder of any other obligation of the Mortgagor, and no consent, permission, authorization, order, or license of any Governmental Authority (other than those that have already been obtained and delivered to the Mortgagee and those that are in the process of being obtained and that will be delivered to Mortgagee upon receipt), is necessary in connection with the execution, delivery, and performance of this Mortgage or any of the Loan Documents to which the Mortgagor is a party or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby.

Section 4.9 No Conflicts. There is no provision of any agreement, written or oral, to which the Mortgagor is a party or under which the Mortgagor is obligated, and no statute, rule, or regulation, or judgment, decree, or order of any Governmental Authority binding on the Mortgagor, that would be contravened by the execution and delivery of this Mortgage or any of the Loan Documents to which the Mortgagor is a party or by the performance of any provision, condition, covenant, or other term hereof or thereof.

Section 4.10 Accordance With Laws and Regulations. The Mortgaged Property is in compliance with all applicable Laws, including, without limitation, Environmental Requirements, all regulations of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and with all applicable building, safety, and fire codes, as well as zoning and subdivision laws and regulations. All environmental impact statements, subdivision maps, drawings, specifications, and reports relating to the Mortgaged Property have been or will be timely prepared and filed with all Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction over such matters and requiring any such submittal.

Section 4.11 No Hazardous Activities. Except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, the results of which have been provided to the Bond Insurer and the Trustee, (i) none of the Mortgaged Property has ever been used for storage, treatment, or disposal of any Hazardous Materials, (ii) no manufacturing, landfilling, or chemical production has ever occurred on any part of the Mortgaged Property, and (iii) there have never been any underground storage tanks located on any part of the Mortgaged Property.

Section 4.12 No Hazardous Materials. Except as disclosed to and acknowledged by the Mortgagee in writing, the Mortgagor represents and warrants that:

(i) During the period of the Mortgagor's leasehold interest in the Mortgaged Property, there has been no use, generation, manufacture, storage, treatment, disposal, release, or threatened release of any Hazardous Substances by any Person on, under, or about any of the Mortgaged Property and there has been no use, generation, manufacture, storage, treatment or other handling of any Hazardous Substances by any person on, under or about any of the Mortgaged Property in violation of applicable Environmental Requirements; and

(ii) The Mortgagor has no knowledge of or reason to believe that there has been (a) any disposal, release, or threatened release of any Hazardous Substances or violation of Environmental Requirements by any prior owners or occupants of the Mortgaged Property or any other Person or (b) any actual or threatened litigation or claims of any kind by any Person relating to such matters.

Section 4.13 Business Locations. All of the Inventory and the Equipment will be located on the Mortgaged Property. The books and records pertaining to the Collateral will be located at the Mortgaged Property.

Section 4.14 Leases. The Mortgagor is the sole owner of the entire landlord's interests in the Leases; the Mortgagor has not executed any prior assignment of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease, the Leases, or the Rentals; no Rentals reserved in the Leases or any of them has been assigned or anticipated, and no Rentals for any period subsequent to the date of this Mortgage has been collected in advance of the time when the same became due under the terms of the Leases or any of them; the Mortgagor has not executed or granted any modifications to any Lease except as previously disclosed to the Mortgagee; all existing Leases are valid and in full force and effect; there exists no defense, counterclaim, or set-off to the payment of any Rentals under any Lease; there are no defaults or events of default now existing under any of the Leases, and no event has occurred which with the passage of time or the giving of notice, or both, would constitute such a default or event of default.

Section 4.15 Continuing Accuracy. All of the representations and warranties contained in this Article or elsewhere in this Mortgage shall be true through and until the date on which all obligations of Mortgagor under this Mortgage and the Second Supplemental Loan Agreement are fully satisfied, and Mortgagor shall promptly notify Mortgagee of any event which would render any of said representations and warranties untrue or misleading.

ARTICLE 5 COVENANTS OF MORTGAGOR

So long as the Obligations or any part thereof remains outstanding or unpaid, the Mortgagor specially covenants, promises, stipulates, and agrees with the Mortgagee as follows:

Section 5.1 Warranty. The Mortgagor shall warrant, preserve, and defend the leasehold interest in and to the Mortgaged Property, including the Facilities, and its interest in and to the remainder of the Collateral and the validity, enforceability, and priority of the Lien of this Mortgage against the claims and demands of all Persons whomsoever, at its sole cost and expense.

Section 5.2 Payment; Performance of Covenants. The Mortgagor shall make prompt payment when due of all amounts owing hereunder as the same become due, without offset, counterclaim, or defense, and shall punctually and properly perform all of the Mortgagor's covenants, duties, agreements, and conditions (i) under this Mortgage and any Loan Document to which the Mortgagor is a party or (ii) imposed upon or assumed by the Mortgagor by virtue of the provisions of any deed, conveyance, lease, agreement, statute, or ordinance pursuant to which the Mortgagor or any predecessor in title of the Collateral acquired the Collateral or any rights or privileges appurtenant thereto or for the benefit thereof.

Section 5.3 Payment of Taxes and Utilities. Subject to the right to contest certain matters with respect to the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.6 hereof and the Second Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Mortgagor shall or shall cause the Board to pay all Taxes levied or assessed against the Collateral or any part thereof prior to the date upon which any fine, penalty, interest, or cost may be added thereto or imposed by Laws for the nonpayment thereof. The Mortgagor shall deliver to the Mortgagee, promptly after a request therefor by the Mortgagee, receipted bills or canceled checks evidencing the payment of prior Taxes to the date upon which any fine, penalty, interest, or cost may be added thereto or imposed by Laws for the nonpayment thereof. In the case of any assessment payable in installments, each installment thereof shall be paid prior to or on the date on which such installment becomes due and payable without imposition of any fine, penalty, interest, or cost. The Mortgagor shall not be entitled to any credit on the Obligations, or any other sums that may become payable under the terms hereof, under any Loan Document, or otherwise, by reason of the payment of Taxes. The Mortgagor shall or shall cause the Board to pay timely all charges for electricity, power, gas, water, and other utilities used in connection with the Collateral, as and when due.

Section 5.4 Other Compliance. Subject to the right to contest certain matters with respect to the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.6 hereof, the Mortgagor itself agrees to or agrees to cause the Board: (1) to perform and comply with or cause the performance and compliance with all covenants, agreements, and restrictions affecting the Collateral and with all Laws, ordinances, acts, rules, regulations, and orders of any Governmental Authority exercising any power of regulation or supervision over the Mortgagor or any part of the Collateral, whether now or hereafter enacted or enforced and whether the same be directed to the ownership, lease and operation of the Mortgaged Property, or the repair, manner of use, or structural alteration of the Mortgaged Property or otherwise, (2) to comply with or to cause compliance with the terms of all insurance policies covering or applicable to the Collateral, all requirements of the issuer of any such policy, and all orders, rules, regulations, and other requirements of or standards recommended by the National and Regional Fire Protection Association (or any other body exercising similar functions) applicable to or affecting the Collateral or any use or condition of the Collateral, and (3) to procure, maintain, and comply or cause the procurement, maintenance and compliance of and with all permits, licenses, approvals, or other authorizations required for any use of the Collateral being made and for the proper erection, installation, operation, and maintenance of the Mortgaged Property and any fixture, equipment, machinery, or appliance in or on the Mortgaged Property, or any portion of the foregoing.

Section 5.5 Payment of Indebtedness and Obligations Pertaining to Collateral. Subject to the right to contest certain matters with respect to the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.6 hereof, the Mortgagor shall cause all indebtedness, claims, encumbrances, and liabilities of any kind or character (including, without limitation, claims for labor, materials, supplies, and rent) incurred in the operation, maintenance, and development of the Collateral to be paid within a reasonable time after same become due and in any event prior to the time any lien caused by such nonpayment would arise by law or contract.

Section 5.6 Contest of Taxes, Indebtedness, and Other Claims. The Mortgagor shall have the right to contest directly or through the Board, at its own expense, by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, the amount or validity of any Taxes, indebtedness, claims, assessments or encumbrances referred to herein (other than this Mortgage or any Loan Document securing all or any portion of the Obligations), or any of the Laws, ordinances, acts, rules, regulations, orders, licenses, and authorizations referred to herein; provided, however, the Collateral is not placed in imminent danger of being seized or forfeited or the execution of any lien is stayed.

Section 5.7 Insurance Requirements. The Mortgagor agrees to or agrees to cause the Board to insure continuously the Collateral and each and every part and parcel thereof in such amounts and with policies meeting the criteria set forth in the Second Supplemental Indenture and the Second Supplemental Loan Agreement.

Section 5.8 Preservation and Maintenance of Collateral. Except as otherwise permitted by the express terms of the Loan Documents, the Mortgagor: (i) shall not commit waste; (ii) shall not abandon the Mortgaged Property; (iii) in the event of any damage, injury, or loss to the Collateral, shall restore or repair promptly and in a good and workmanlike manner all or any part of the Collateral to the substantial equivalent of its condition prior to such damage, injury, or loss or such other condition as the Mortgagee may approve in writing, whether or not insurance proceeds are available to cover in whole or in part the costs of such restoration or repair; (iv) shall keep or cause the Board to keep the Collateral in good condition, repair, and working order, ordinary wear and tear excepted and shall not remove or demolish the Collateral without the Mortgagee's prior written consent; (v) shall comply with all applicable Laws, ordinances, regulations, and requirements of any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the Collateral; (vi) shall not make any structural alterations to the Collateral without the Mortgagee's or the Bond Insurer's prior written consent; and (vii) shall give notice in writing to the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer of and, unless otherwise directed in writing by the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer, appear in and defend any action or proceeding affecting the Collateral, the security or priority of this Mortgage, or the rights or powers of the Mortgagee.

Section 5.9 Environmental Hazards.

1. The Mortgagor shall not: (1) cause or permit the presence, use, generation, manufacture, production, processing, installation, release, escape, spillage, seepage, leakage, dumping, pouring, emptying, emission, discharge, storage (including above-ground and underground storage tanks for petroleum or petroleum products, but excluding small containers of gasoline used for maintenance equipment or similar purposes and in compliance with applicable Environmental Requirements), treatment, management, transportation, handling or the like of any Hazardous Substances on, under, in, or about the Mortgaged Property, or in any way affecting the Mortgaged Property, and that are in violation of applicable Environmental Requirements or could form the basis for any present or future claim, demand, or action seeking cleanup of the Mortgaged Property or imposition of liabilities under Environmental Requirements, or the transportation of any Hazardous Substances to or from the Mortgaged Property in violation of applicable Environmental Requirements; or (2) cause or exacerbate any occurrence or condition on the Mortgaged Property that is or may be in violation of any Environmental Requirements or that could otherwise serve as the basis of liability under any Environmental Requirements. No Hazardous Substances shall be placed on, in, under or about the Mortgaged Property except in strict compliance with applicable Environmental Requirements. No Hazardous Substances shall be disposed of on, in, under or about the Mortgaged Property. The Mortgagor shall not cause or permit the migration of Hazardous Substances from the Mortgaged Property to any other property or onto the Mortgaged Property from any property or area adjacent to the Mortgaged Property. The Mortgagor shall at all times comply with all applicable Environmental Requirements and shall immediately correct any matters discussed in all notices of violations of Environmental Requirements prior to the issuance of any regulatory or judicial order or assessment of any fines. The Mortgagor shall secure compliance by all lessees and sublessees of the Mortgaged Property with its obligations in this Section.

2. The Mortgagor itself agrees to, or agrees to cause the Board, as appropriate, to advise the Mortgagee promptly, in writing, of any notice or other communication, written or oral, from the United States Environmental Protection Agency, the Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality, or any other federal, state, or local Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over the Mortgaged Property with respect to any alleged violation of any Environmental Requirements or the generation, presence, management, release, escape, spillage, seepage, leakage, dumping, pouring, emptying, treatment, discharge, emission, handling, storage, transportation, disposal, or the like of Hazardous Substances or storage tanks, or any other matter regulated under Environmental Requirements.

3. The Mortgagor itself agrees to, or agrees to cause the Board, as appropriate, promptly to notify the Mortgagee in writing of: (i) any enforcement, cleanup, removal, or other governmental or regulatory action, investigation, notice of violation, or any other proceeding instituted against the Mortgagor or the Mortgaged Property and (ii) any suit, cause of action, or any other claim made or threatened by any third party against the Mortgagor or the Mortgaged Property relating to damage, contribution, cost recovery, compensation, loss, or injury resulting from any Hazardous Substances. The provisions of the preceding sentence shall be in addition to any and all other obligations and liabilities that the Mortgagor may have to the Mortgagee under applicable law.

4. The Mortgagor itself agrees to, or agrees to cause the Board, as appropriate, to promptly take any and all necessary remedial and response actions in response to the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, or discharge of any Hazardous Materials on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property, any alleged violation of Environmental Requirements that could lead to liability; provided, however, that the Mortgagor shall not take any such remedial or response action or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree, or other compromise in respect to any claims, proceedings, lawsuits, or actions completed or threatened as a result of any actual or alleged Hazardous Substances on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property, or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree, or other compromise in respect to any claims, proceedings, lawsuits, or actions completed or threatened pursuant to any Environmental Requirements, without, in each case, obtaining the Mortgagee's prior written consent; provided further, however, that the Mortgagee's prior consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Substances on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property either: (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety, or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such a nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain the consent prior to undertaking such action. In the event that the Mortgagor undertakes remedial action with respect to any Hazardous Substances on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property as set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) above, the Mortgagor shall immediately notify the Mortgagee of any such remedial/response action, and shall conduct and complete, or cause a sublessee to conduct and complete such remedial/response action in compliance with all applicable Environmental Requirements and in accordance with the orders and directives of all federal, state, and local Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction.

5. The Mortgagor shall or shall cause the Board to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer from and against any and all claims, demands, costs, losses, liabilities (including those based on strict liability), expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees, whether suit is instituted or not), judgments, fines, penalties, or amounts paid in settlement (collectively, "Losses") incurred by the Mortgagee and/or the Bond Insurer in connection with or as a result of the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, discharge, or release or threatened release on, under, from, above, or about the Mortgaged Property of any Hazardous Substances or any violations of any Environmental Requirements arising out of acts or omissions of the Mortgagor, or the Board, or their agents, tenants, occupants, employees, or contractors. To the extent of such indemnity, Losses indemnified against specifically shall include costs incurred in connection with (i) any investigation or monitoring of site conditions; (ii) any clean up, containment, remediation, removal, or restoration work required or performed by any federal, state, or local Governmental Authority or performed by the Mortgagor, the Board or any other Person because of the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, discharge, or release or threatened release of any Hazardous Substances on, in, from, under, or about the Mortgaged Property, and (iii) any claims by third parties for Losses due to the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, discharge, or release or threatened release of such Hazardous Substances or the cleanup, containment, remediation, or removal thereof.

6. The indemnity provisions contained in this Section 5.9 shall survive the payment of the Obligations and the cancellation of this Mortgage.

Section 5.10 Notice of Changes. The Mortgagor will not change its name, identity, federal tax identification number or corporate structure in any manner unless it shall have given the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice thereof. The Mortgagor will not change the location of (i) its chief executive office or chief place of business, or (ii) the locations where it keeps or holds any Collateral or any records relating thereto, from the applicable location described in Section 7.6 hereof unless it shall have given the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer at least 30 days' prior written notice thereof.

Section 5.11 Filing. The Mortgagor agrees that a carbon, photographic, facsimile, photostatic or other reproduction of this Mortgage or of a financing statement is sufficient as a financing statement. The Mortgagor shall pay all costs of or incidental to the recording or filing of any financing, amendment, continuation, termination or other statements concerning the Collateral.

Section 5.12 Accounts Collection. The Mortgagor shall use its best efforts to cause to be collected from its account debtors, as and when due, any and all amounts owing under or on account of each Account (including, without limitation, Accounts that are delinquent, such Accounts to be collected in accordance with lawful collection procedures) and shall apply forthwith upon receipt thereof all such amounts as are so collected to the outstanding balance of such Account. Subject to the rights of the Mortgagee hereunder, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Mortgagor may allow as adjustments to amounts owing under its Accounts (i) an extension or renewal of the time or times of payment, or settlement for less than the total unpaid balance, and (ii) a refund or credit due as a result of returned or damaged merchandise, all in accordance with the Mortgagor's ordinary course of business consistent with its historical collection practices and with sound business judgment. The costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) of collection, whether incurred by the Mortgagor or the Mortgagee, shall be borne by the Mortgagor.

Section 5.13 Instruments. While an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Mortgagor will immediately deliver and pledge to the Mortgagee each instrument evidencing, representing or otherwise arising from an Account or General Intangible, appropriately endorsed to the Mortgagee, provided that so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Mortgagor may refrain from such delivery and may retain possession of, for the purpose of collection in the ordinary course, any such instruments received by it in the ordinary course of business.

Section 5.14 Transfer and Other Liens. The Mortgagor will not sell, lease, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of the Collateral or the Proceeds, or any part thereof, and except as otherwise permitted under the Second Supplemental Indenture and the Second Supplemental Loan Agreement without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee, and will not permit any Lien to attach to the Collateral or the Proceeds, or any part thereof, other than Permitted Liens, except that the Mortgagor may, in the ordinary course of its business and in the absence of an Event of Default, collect its Accounts and General Intangibles.

Section 5.15 Use of Mortgaged Property; Leases. The Mortgagor shall, or shall cause the Board to maintain, preserve, and renew all rights of way, servitudes, grants, privileges, licenses, permits, zoning approvals, and franchises necessary for the use of the Mortgaged Property and shall not, unless required by applicable law or unless the Mortgagee has otherwise agreed in writing, allow changes in the use for which the Mortgaged Property was intended under the Fourth Supplemental Facilities Lease and the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease. To the extent permitted by law, the Mortgagor shall not permit the Board to initiate or acquiesce in a change in the zoning classification of the Mortgaged Property without the Mortgagee's prior written consent. The Mortgagor will observe and perform all the obligations imposed upon it as landlord under the Leases, if any, and not do or permit to be done anything to impair the security thereof; will exercise any option or election contained in or relating to any of the Leases that the Mortgagee shall require; at the Mortgagee's request, will assign and transfer to the Mortgagee by specific assignment of leases any and all subsequent Leases upon all or any part of the Property or the Facilities; and to execute and deliver at the request of the Mortgagee all such further assurances and assignments in the premises covered by the Leases as the Mortgagee shall from time to time require.

Section 5.16 Additional Provisions Regarding the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease.

(a) The Mortgagor shall pay all rent and other charges required under the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease as and when the same are due and the Mortgagor shall keep, observe, and perform, or cause to be kept, observed, and performed, all of the other terms, covenants, provisions, and agreements of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease on the part of the tenant thereunder to be kept, observed, and performed, and shall not in any manner, cancel, terminate, or surrender, or permit any cancellation, termination, or surrender of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease, in whole or in part, or, without the written consent of the Mortgagee, either orally or in writing, modify, amend, or permit any modification or amendment of any of the terms thereof in any respect, and any attempt on the part of the Mortgagor to exercise any such right without such written consent of the Mortgagee shall be null and void ab initio and of no force or effect.

(b) The Mortgagor shall do, or cause to be done, all things necessary to preserve and keep unimpaired the rights of the Mortgagor as tenant under the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease and to prevent any default under the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease or any termination, surrender, cancellation, forfeiture, or impairment thereof, and in the event of the failure of the Mortgagor to make any payment required to be made by the Mortgagor pursuant to the provisions of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease or to keep, observe, or perform, or cause to be kept, observed, or performed, any of the terms, covenants, provisions, or agreements of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease, the Mortgagor agrees that the Mortgagee may (but shall not be obligated to) take any action on behalf of the Mortgagor, to make or cause to be kept, observed, or performed any such terms, covenants, provisions, or agreements and to enter upon the Mortgaged Property and take all such action thereof as may be necessary therefor to the end that the rights of the Mortgagor in and to the leasehold estate created by the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease shall be kept unimpaired and free from default, and all money so expended by the Mortgagee, with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date of each such expenditure, shall be paid by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee promptly upon demand by the Mortgagee and shall be added to the Obligations, and the Mortgagee shall have, in addition to any other remedy thereof, the same rights and remedies in the event of non-payment of any such sum by the Mortgagor as in the case of a default by the Mortgagor in the payment of any sums due under the Loan Documents.

(c) The Mortgagor shall enforce the obligations of the Board under the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease to the end that it may enjoy all of the rights granted to it under the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease; promptly notify the Mortgagee in writing of any default by the Board or by the Mortgagor in the performance or observance of any of the terms, covenants, or conditions on the part of the Board or the Mortgagor, as the case may be, to be performed or observed under the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease; promptly advise the Mortgagee in writing of the occurrences of any of the events of default enumerated in the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease and of the giving of any notice by the Board to the Mortgagor of any default by the Mortgagor in performance or observance of any of the terms, covenants, or conditions of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease on the part of the Mortgagor to be performed or observed; and promptly deliver to the Mortgagee a true and complete copy of each such notice. If, pursuant to the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease, the Board shall deliver to the Mortgagee a copy of any notice of default given to the Mortgagor, such notice shall constitute full authority and protection to the Mortgagee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Mortgagee in good faith in reliance thereon.

(d) If any action or proceeding shall be instituted to evict the Mortgagor or to recover possession of the Mortgaged Property or for any other purpose affecting the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease or this Mortgage, the Mortgagor shall, immediately upon service thereof on or to the Mortgagor, deliver to the Mortgagee a true and complete copy of each petition, summons, complaint, notice of motion, order to show cause and of all other provisions, pleadings, and papers, however designated, served in any such action or proceeding.

(e) The Mortgagor covenants and agrees that unless the Mortgagee shall otherwise expressly consent in writing, the fee title to the Property and the leasehold estate shall not merge, but shall always remain separate and distinct, notwithstanding the union of said estates either in the Board, the Mortgagor, or a third party by purchase or otherwise; and in case the Mortgagor acquires the fee title or any other estate, title, or interest in the Mortgaged Property, this Mortgage shall attach to and, cover, and be a lien upon the fee title or such other estate so acquired, and such fee title or other estate shall, without further assignment, mortgage, or conveyance, become and be subject to the lien of and covered by this Mortgage.

(f) No release or forbearance of any of the Mortgagor's obligations under the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease, pursuant to the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease or otherwise, shall release the Mortgagor from any of its obligations under this Mortgage, including its obligation with respect to the payment of rent as provided for in the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease and the performance of all of the terms, provisions, covenants, conditions, and agreements contained in the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease to be kept, performed, and complied with by the tenant therein.

(g) The Mortgagor shall not make any election or give any consent or approval (other than the exercise of a renewal right or extension right or other right conferring a benefit on the Mortgagor, provided that any such action has no adverse effect or consequence to the Mortgagee) for which a right to do so is conferred upon the Mortgagor as tenant under the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee. In case of any Event of Default under this Mortgage, all such rights, together with the right of termination, cancellation, modification, change, supplement, alteration, or amendment of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease, all of which have been assigned for collateral purposes to the Mortgagee, shall vest in and be exercisable solely by the Mortgagee.

(h) Not more than three hundred sixty (360) and not less than two hundred seventy (270) days before the right of the Mortgagor to exercise any option or right to renew or extend the term of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease shall expire, the Mortgagor shall give the Mortgagee written notice specifying the date, term, and manner for which such option or renewal is to be exercised. Within ten (10) days of written demand by the Mortgagee, the Mortgagor shall exercise any such option or renewal which is necessary to extend the term of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease beyond the term of this Mortgage or to comply with any law affecting the Mortgagor or the Mortgagee or which is necessary, in the reasonable judgment of the Mortgagee, to preserve the value of the Mortgaged Property intended to be afforded by this Mortgage. The Mortgagor shall promptly provide evidence of such exercise of such option or right to the reasonable satisfaction of the Mortgagee. In the event that the Mortgagor fails to so exercise any such option or right or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Mortgagor hereby agrees and grants to the Mortgagee all right and authority to exercise such option in the name of the Mortgagor or in its own name. Nothing contained herein shall affect or limit any rights of the Mortgagee under the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease.

(i) If there shall be filed by or against the Mortgagor a petition under the United States Bankruptcy Code, Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), then the lien of this Mortgage shall attach to all of the Mortgagor’s rights and remedies at any time arising under or pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, including, but not limited to, §365 thereof. Upon the filing of any petition by or against the Mortgagor under the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall immediately provide copies of all pleadings and notices related thereto to the Mortgagee. The Mortgagor unconditionally assigns to the Mortgagee all of the Mortgagor’s rights to remain in possession of the Mortgaged Property following the filing of any bankruptcy petition by or against the Mortgagor, and acknowledges that the Mortgagee may file any pleading in furtherance thereof. This assignment constitutes a present, irrevocable, and unconditional assignment of the foregoing claims, rights, and remedies of the Mortgagor, and shall continue in effect until all of the Obligations shall have been satisfied and discharged in full. Furthermore, the Mortgagor hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Mortgagee as the Mortgagor’s attorney-in-fact for the purpose of filing any pleading in the court in which the initial petition was filed or any court to which the action thereon may be removed, transferred, or assigned (the “Bankruptcy Court”) that the Mortgagee determines in its sole discretion to protect the Mortgagee’s interests in and to the Mortgaged Property, including but not limited to a motion to extend any applicable time period for the filing of any motion related to the assumption of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease.

(i) The Mortgagor shall not, without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee, file any motion or other pleading to reject or otherwise elect to treat the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease as terminated under §365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such motion, pleading, or election made without such prior written consent shall be void ab initio, and this Mortgage may be pled in bar thereof. If the Mortgagor does file such a motion to reject the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease under §365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor hereby acknowledges and agrees that, unless the Mortgagee consents in writing to such rejection, the Mortgagor may not reject the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease unless the Mortgagor proves, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the Mortgagor was “insolvent,” within the meaning of §101 of the Bankruptcy Code, on the petition filing date. If the Mortgagor, as tenant under the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease and as debtor under the Bankruptcy Code, shall desire to reject the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease pursuant to §365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall give the Mortgagee not less than thirty (30) days’ prior written notice of the date on which the Mortgagor intends to file a motion in or otherwise apply to the Bankruptcy Court for authority to reject the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease. In such event, the Mortgagee shall have the right, but not the obligation, to serve upon the Mortgagor within such thirty (30) day period a notice stating that the Mortgagee demands that the Mortgagor assume the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease and assign the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease to the Mortgagee or the Mortgagee’s designee pursuant to §365 of the Bankruptcy Code. If the Mortgagee shall serve upon the Mortgagor the notice described in the preceding sentence, the Mortgagor shall not seek to reject the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease and shall comply with the demand provided for in the preceding sentence.

(ii) If the Mortgagor shall desire to assume the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease, then the Mortgagor shall give the Mortgagee not less than thirty (30) days’ prior written notice of the date on which the Mortgagor intends to file a motion in, or otherwise apply to, the Bankruptcy Court for authority to assume the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease. The Mortgagor shall inform the Mortgagee as a part of such notice whether or not the Mortgagor intends to assign the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease following assumption thereof. The Mortgagee shall have the right, but not the obligation, to serve upon the Mortgagor within such thirty (30) day period a notice stating that the Mortgagee demands that the Mortgagor assume the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease and assign the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease to the Mortgagee or the Mortgagee’s designee pursuant to §365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and such election by the Mortgagee shall be binding upon the Mortgagor. Should the Mortgagor file a motion to assume the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease, the Mortgagee shall have the sole right to determine what terms and conditions will provide the Mortgagee with “adequate assurance of future performance,” within the meaning of §365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(j) If there shall be filed by or against the Board or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property a petition under the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall, after obtaining knowledge thereof, promptly notify the Mortgagee thereof in writing. The Mortgagor shall promptly deliver to the Mortgagee, following receipt, complete and correct copies of any and all notices, motions, summonses, pleadings, claim forms, applications, and other documents received by the Mortgagor in connection with any such petition and any proceedings relating thereto. In the event of such a bankruptcy filing, the Mortgagee shall have the option, exercisable upon notice from the Mortgagee to the Mortgagor, to conduct and control any such litigation with counsel chosen by the Mortgagee. The Mortgagee may proceed in its own name or in the name of the Mortgagor in connection with any such litigation, and the Mortgagor agrees to execute any and all powers, authorizations, consents, or other documents required by the Mortgagee in connection therewith. The Mortgagor shall, upon demand, pay to the Mortgagee all costs and expenses (including attorneys’ and paralegals’ fees and expenses) paid or incurred thereby in connection with the prosecution or conduct of any such proceedings. Any such costs or expenses not paid by the Mortgagor as aforesaid shall be secured by the lien of this Mortgage and shall be added to the principal amount of the Obligations. The Mortgagor shall not commence any action, suit, proceeding, or case, or file any application or make any motion, in respect of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease in any such case under the Bankruptcy Code without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee. The Mortgagor hereby unconditionally assigns, transfers, and sets over to the Mortgagee all of the Mortgagor’s claims and rights to the payment of damages or any claim arising from any rejection of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease by the Board or any other fee owner of the Mortgaged Property, or the payment of any amount or claim associated with the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code. The Mortgagee shall have the right to proceed in its own name and/or in the name of the Mortgagor in respect of any claim, suit, action, or proceeding relating to the assumption or rejection of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease by the Board, including, without limitation, the right to file and prosecute, to the exclusion and in the name of the Mortgagor, any proofs of claim, complaints, motions, applications, notices, and other documents, or to defend against any objection thereto, in any case in respect to the Board or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property. This assignment constitutes a present, irrevocable, and unconditional assignment of the foregoing claims, rights, and remedies, and shall continue in effect until all of the Obligations shall have been satisfied and discharged in full. Any amounts received by the Mortgagee as damages arising out of the rejection of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease as aforesaid shall be applied first to all costs and expenses of the Mortgagee (including, without limitation, attorneys’ and paralegals’ fees and expenses) incurred in connection with the exercise of any of its rights or remedies under this Section. The Mortgagor shall promptly make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver, in form and substance satisfactory to the Mortgagee, a UCC Financing Statement (Form UCC-1), and all such additional instruments, agreements and other documents, as may at any time hereafter be required by the Mortgagee to effectuate and carry out the assignment made pursuant to this Section.

(k) If the Mortgagor shall seek to offset against the rent reserved in the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease the amount of any damages caused by the nonperformance by the Board or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property any of its obligations under the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease after the rejection by the Board or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property under the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall, prior to effecting such offset, notify the Mortgagee of its intent to do so, setting forth the amounts proposed to be so offset and the basis therefor. The Mortgagee shall have the right to object to all or any part of such offset that, in the reasonable judgment of the Mortgagee, would constitute a breach of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease, and in the event of such objection, the Mortgagor shall not effect any offset of the amounts so objected to by the Mortgagee. Neither the failure of the Mortgagee to object as aforesaid nor any objection relating to such offset shall constitute an approval of any such offset by the Mortgagee. The Mortgagor shall pay and protect the Mortgagee, and indemnify and save the Mortgagee harmless from and against, any and all claims, demands, actions, suits, proceedings, damages, losses, costs, and expenses of every nature whatsoever (including without limitation, attorneys' and paralegals' fees and expenses) arising from or relating to any off-set by the Mortgagor against the rent reserved in the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease.

Section 5.17 Inspection. The Mortgagee is authorized and empowered to enter, and to authorize its employees, agents, or contractors identified in writing to the Mortgagor and the Board to enter, upon any or all of the Mortgaged Property at any reasonable time and from time to time upon prior notice to the Mortgagor and the Board to inspect the same, to perform or observe any covenants, conditions, or terms that the Mortgagor shall fail to perform, meet, or comply with, to make such repairs, replacements, renewals, or additions as shall be necessary, or for any other purpose in connection with the maintenance, protection, or preservation of the Mortgagee's security, without thereby becoming liable to the Mortgagor, the Board or any Person in possession holding under the Mortgagor. Any inspections performed by or for the Mortgagee shall be performed at times and in a manner so as not to unreasonably interfere with the Mortgagor's business or the operation of the Mortgaged Property. The Mortgagor will keep accurate books and records in which full, true, and correct entries shall be promptly made with respect to the Mortgaged Property and the operation thereof. Any right of access to any portion of the Facilities leased to the students, faculty, staff or Permitted Lessees shall be subject to their rights pursuant to their rental agreements and University policy.

Section 5.18 Negative Covenants. The Mortgagor hereby agrees that, so long as any of the Obligations remains outstanding or unpaid, the Mortgagor shall not, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee:

A. Create, incur, assume, or suffer to exist any indebtedness relating to the Collateral, except the Obligations under this Mortgage and the Permitted Encumbrances, or as otherwise permitted under the Second Supplemental Indenture or the Second Supplemental Agreement;

B. Create, incur, or place, or permit to be created, incurred, or placed, any Liens on the Collateral, or any part thereof, or any revenues related thereto, except for the Permitted Encumbrances and Liens in favor of the Mortgagee;

C. Convey, sell, lease, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of the Collateral, or permit any conveyance, sale, lease, assignment, transfer, or other disposition of the Collateral, except as otherwise permitted under the Second Supplemental Indenture and the Second Supplemental Loan Agreement.

Section 5.19 Cure of Defects. If the validity or priority of this Mortgage or of any rights or Liens created or evidenced hereby with respect to the Collateral or any part thereof, or the leasehold interest or right of occupancy of the Mortgagor to the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof, shall be endangered or questioned or shall be attacked directly or indirectly, or if any legal proceedings are instituted against the Mortgagor with respect thereto, upon discovery of such actual or alleged defect, the Mortgagor shall give written notice thereof to the Mortgagee promptly, secure the necessary funds and diligently endeavor, with the Board, as necessary, to cure any defect that may be developed or claimed and take all necessary and proper steps for the defense of such legal proceedings, including, but not limited to, the employment of counsel agreeable to the Mortgagee, the prosecution or defense of litigation, and the release or discharge of all adverse claims. The Mortgagee (whether or not named as a party to legal proceedings with respect thereto) is hereby authorized and empowered to take such additional steps as in its judgment and discretion may be necessary or proper for the defense of any such legal proceedings or the protection of the validity or priority of this Mortgage and the Liens created or evidenced hereby, including, but not limited to, the employment of independent counsel, the prosecution or defense of litigation, the compromise or discharge of any adverse claims made with respect to the Collateral, the purchase of any tax title, and the removal of prior Liens or security interests, and all expenses so incurred of every kind and character shall be a demand obligation owing by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee and shall bear interest from the date of expenditure until paid at a rate equal to the rate provided for in Section 6.12 hereof for Advances to bear, and the same shall be secured by the Lien evidenced by this Mortgage, and the party incurring such expenses shall be subrogated to all rights of the Person receiving such payment.

Section 5.20 Estoppel Certificate. The Mortgagor shall, within ten (10) business days of a written request therefor by the Mortgagee, furnish the Mortgagee with a written statement, duly acknowledged, setting forth the sums secured by this Mortgage and any right of set-off, counterclaim, or other defense that exists against such sums and the obligations under this Mortgage.

Section 5.21 Further Assurances.

(a) On the request of Mortgagee, the Mortgagor shall promptly correct (i) any defect, error, or omission that may be discovered in the contents, or in the execution or acknowledgment, of this Mortgage or any Loan Document to which the Mortgagor is a party, and (ii) the Mortgagor itself shall, or shall cause the Board to execute, acknowledge, deliver, record, re-record, file, re-file, register, and re-register any and all such further acts, deeds, conveyances, security agreements, mortgages, assignments, estoppel certificates, financing statements and continuations thereof, termination statements, notices of assignment, transfers, certificates, assurances, and other instruments as reasonably may be required from time to time in order (A) to carry out more effectively the purposes of this Mortgage and any of the Loan Documents to which the Mortgagor is a party, (B) to more fully identify and subject to the Liens created by this Mortgage any of the properties, rights, or interests required to be encumbered hereby, including, specifically, any additions, substitutions, replacements, or appurtenances to the Collateral, (C) to perfect and maintain the validity, effectiveness, and priority of this Mortgage and the Liens intended to be created hereby and (D) to better assure, convey, grant, assign, transfer, preserve, protect, and confirm to the Mortgagee any of the rights granted or now or hereafter intended by the parties hereto to be granted to the Mortgagee hereunder or under any other instrument or agreement executed in connection herewith. The Mortgagor shall pay, directly or through the Board, all costs connected with any of the foregoing.

(b) Mortgagor hereby authorizes Mortgagee to file one or more financing or continuation statements and other records with respect to all or any part of the Collateral (including any amendments thereto, or continuation or termination statements thereof), without the signature or other authorization of Mortgagor, in such form and in such offices as Mortgagee reasonably determines appropriate, to perfect or maintain the perfection of the security interest of Mortgagee hereunder. Mortgagor acknowledges and agrees that it is not authorized to, and will not, authenticate or file, or authorize the filing of, any financing statements or other record with respect to the Collateral (including any amendments thereto, or continuation or termination statements thereof) except as permitted hereby, without the prior written approval and authorization by the Mortgagee, consenting to the form and substance of such filing or record. Mortgagor approves and ratifies any filing or recording of records made by or on behalf of Mortgagee in connection with the perfection of the security interest in favor of Mortgagee.

EVENTS OF DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

Section 6.1 Events of Default. The occurrence and continuance of any one of the following shall constitute an event of default under this Mortgage (herein referred to as an “Event of Default”):

(i) the failure to make payment when due of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds and any Additional Bonds hereafter issued under the Second Supplemental Indenture;

(ii) the failure to make payment when due of any amounts owed under this Mortgage or the Second Supplemental Loan Agreement;

(iii) the occurrence of an event of default (other than an event of default described in (i) or (ii) above) under the Second Supplemental Indenture, the Second Supplemental Loan Agreement or any other Loan Document that is not cured within any applicable grace or cure period contained in such Loan Document;

(iv) except as provided otherwise in this Mortgage, failure by Mortgagor to observe and perform any of the terms, covenants, or conditions to be observed or performed by Mortgagor contained in this Mortgage (other than those specified in (i) and (ii) above) for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice, by registered or certified mail, specifying such failure and requesting that it be remedied, given to Mortgagor by Mortgagee, or for such longer period as Mortgagor and Mortgagee may agree to in writing; provided that if the failure is other than the payment of money and is of such nature that it can be corrected but not within the applicable period, such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default so long as Mortgagor institutes curative action within the applicable period and diligently pursues such action to completion;

(v) any representation or warranty of Mortgagor made herein or any representation or warranty made in any of the other Loan Documents or any representation or warranty made in any certificate, document, or financial or other statement furnished at any time under or in connection with this Mortgage or any of the other Loan Documents shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect on or as of the date made or deemed made;

(vi) (a) the Mortgagor commences any case, proceeding, or other action seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution, or composition of Mortgagor or Mortgagor's debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, reorganization, or relief of debtors, or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or other similar official for Mortgagor or for all or any substantial part of Mortgagor's property; or (b) any such case, proceeding, or other action is commenced against Mortgagor and such case, proceedings, or other action either results in an order for relief against Mortgagor which is not fully stayed within ten (10) days after the entry thereof, or remains undismissed for a period of sixty (60) days;

(vii) Mortgagor fails to pay its debts as they become due, admits in writing Mortgagor's inability to pay Mortgagor's debts, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors.

(viii) Mortgagor sells, conveys or otherwise transfers or disposes of all or any portion of the Collateral except as otherwise permitted herein or grants any mortgage or security interest affecting all or any portion of the Collateral, or permits any Lien against all or any portion of the Collateral, except as permitted by the terms of this Mortgage; or

(ix) A writ or warrant of executory process, fiery facias, attachment or any similar process shall be issued by any court against the Collateral, and such writ or warrant is not released or bonded within thirty (30) days after its entry.

Section 6.2 Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Mortgage and in addition to any other remedy Mortgagee may have under this Mortgage, or any of the other Loan Documents, Mortgagee may, subject to the provisions of Section 6.18 hereof, declare all sums secured by this Mortgage (including without limitation the Obligations) immediately due and payable without presentment, demand, protest, notice of protest or dishonor, or other notice of default of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Mortgagor. In addition to the foregoing, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, the Mortgagee may, subject to the provisions of Section 6.18 hereof, take such action, without notice or demand or putting in default (all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Mortgagor), as it deems advisable to protect and enforce its rights against the Mortgagor and in and to the Collateral, including, but not limited to, the following actions, each of which may be pursued concurrently or otherwise, at such time and in such order as the Mortgagee may determine, in its sole discretion, without impairing or otherwise affecting the other rights and remedies of the Mortgagee:

(1) institute proceedings for the complete foreclosure of this Mortgage, in which case the Collateral may be sold for cash or upon credit in one or more parcels under ordinary or executory process, at the Mortgagee's sole option, and with or without appraisal, appraisal being expressly waived; or

(2) to the extent permitted and pursuant to the procedures provided by applicable law, institute proceedings for the partial foreclosure of this Mortgage for the portion of the Obligations then due and payable, subject to the continuing lien of this Mortgage for the balance of the Obligations not then due; or

(3) institute an action, suit, or proceeding in equity for the specific performance of any covenant, condition, or agreement contained in this Mortgage or any Loan Document; or

(4) apply for the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, or conservator of the Collateral, without regard for the adequacy of the security for the Obligations and without regard for the solvency of the Mortgagor or of any Person liable for the payment of the Obligations; or

(5) pursue such other remedies as the Mortgagee may have under applicable law, in equity, by virtue of any other security instrument, or otherwise.

The proceeds or avails of any sale made under or by virtue of this Article 6, together with any other sums that then may be held by the Mortgagee under this Mortgage, whether under the provisions of this Article 6 or otherwise, shall be applied in such manner as the Mortgagee, in its sole discretion, shall determine.

Upon any sale made under or by virtue of this Article 6, the Mortgagee may bid for and acquire the Collateral or any part thereof and in lieu of paying cash therefor may make settlement for the purchase price by crediting upon the Obligations the net sales price after deducting therefrom the expenses of the sale and the costs of the action and any other sums which the Mortgagee is authorized to deduct under this Mortgage.

The Mortgagee may proceed under this Mortgage solely as to the immovable property interests, or solely as to the movable property interests, or as to both the immovable and movable property interests in accordance with its rights and remedies in respect of the immovable property interests.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Mortgage, any purchaser of the Mortgaged Property pursuant to a foreclosure sale under this Mortgage or a deed in lieu of foreclosure shall purchase said Mortgaged Property subject and subordinate to the ownership rights of the Board and shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease. Such purchaser shall have no additional right to grant any mortgage or other lien on the Mortgaged Property or to sell, lease or otherwise alienate the Mortgaged Property without the prior written consent of the Board.

Section 6.3 Leases and Rentals. Upon the occurrence and continuation of any Event of Default, the Mortgagee may additionally take any one or more of the following actions, each of which may be pursued concurrently or otherwise, at such time and in such order as the Mortgagee may determine, in its sole discretion, without impairing or otherwise affecting the other rights and remedies of the Mortgagee:

(i) The Mortgagee may notify any and all Tenants to pay all Rentals due thereafter directly to the Mortgagee at the address set forth in the Mortgagee's notice to such Tenants. The Mortgagor irrevocably agrees that all such Tenants shall be authorized to pay the Rentals directly to the Mortgagee without liability of such Tenants for the determination of the actual existence of any default by the Mortgagor claimed by the Mortgagee. Tenants shall be expressly relieved of any and all duty, liability and obligation to the Mortgagor in connection with any and all Rentals so paid.

(ii) The Mortgagee may enter upon and take possession of the Mortgaged Property, to manage and operate the Mortgaged Property and the Mortgagor's business on the Mortgaged Property, and take possession of and use all books of account and financial records of the Mortgagor and its property managers or representatives, if any, relating to the Mortgaged Property.

(iii) The Mortgagee may alter, modify, amend, terminate or permit the surrender of any or all Leases, except for leases pursuant to Section 13 of the Fourth Supplemental Facilities Lease to students, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessees (as defined in the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease) who are not themselves in default under their Leases, and the Mortgagee may execute new Leases of any part of the Mortgaged Property, including Leases that extend beyond the maturity date of the Second Supplemental Agreement.

The enforcement of any and all such rights available to the Mortgagee hereunder shall continue for so long as the Mortgagee shall elect, until the collection and application of the Rentals have cured the Event of Default and all sums owed by Mortgagor to any person in connection with the enforcement of its remedies in connection with such Event of Default have been paid, in which event, the Mortgagee shall permit the Mortgagor to re-enter and take possession of the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof and to perform all acts necessary for the operation and maintenance of the Mortgaged Property, including the right to collect the Rentals, but the Mortgagee shall nevertheless have the right, effective upon written notice, to demand, sue for possession of and collect the Rentals under the Leases and otherwise exercise its rights under this Mortgage again if there occurs another Event of Default hereunder.

Section 6.4 General Authority. The Mortgagor hereby irrevocably appoints the Mortgagee its agent and attorney in fact, with full power of substitution, in the name of the Mortgagor or the Mortgagee, for the sole use and benefit of the Mortgagee, but at the Mortgagor's expense, to exercise, at any time and from time to time while an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, all or any of the following powers with respect to all or any of the Collateral and the Proceeds:

(i) to endorse the name of the Mortgagor upon any check, draft, agreement or other instrument payable to the Mortgagor evidencing payment upon any Accounts or General Intangible;

(ii) to notify postal service authorities to change the address for delivery of the Mortgagor's mail to a "lockbox" address designated and controlled by the Mortgagee, and to receive, open and dispose of all mail addressed to the Mortgagor;

(iii) to demand, sue for, collect, receive and give acquittance for any and all Accounts and other monies due or to become due for or as Collateral (or Proceeds) or by virtue thereof;

(iv) to settle, compromise, compound, prosecute or defend any action or proceeding with respect to any of the Collateral and the Proceeds; and

(v) to extend the time of payment of any or all of the Collateral and the Proceeds and to make any allowance and other adjustments with reference thereto.

The aforesaid mandate and power of attorney, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable so long as any of the Obligations remains outstanding.

Section 6.5 Accounts. While an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Mortgagor will make no material change to the terms of any Account without the prior written permission of the Mortgagee. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, and at any time thereafter, the Mortgagor upon request of the Mortgagee will promptly notify (and the Mortgagor hereby authorizes the Mortgagee so to notify) each account debtor in respect of any Account or General Intangible that such Collateral has been assigned to the Mortgagee hereunder, and that any payments due or to become due in respect of such Collateral are to be made directly to the Mortgagee or its designee.

Section 6.6 Sale. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Mortgagee may exercise all rights of a secured party under the Commercial Laws and other applicable law and, in addition, the Mortgagee may, without being required to give any notice, except as herein provided or as may be required by mandatory provisions of law, (i) withdraw all cash in its possession and apply such cash then held by it as Collateral or Proceeds against the Obligations or (ii) sell the Collateral and the Proceeds or any part thereof at public or private sale, for cash, upon credit or for future delivery, and at such price or prices as the Mortgagee may deem satisfactory. The Mortgagee may be the purchaser of any or all of the Collateral and Proceeds so sold at any public sale (or, if the Collateral and Proceeds is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market or is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations, at any private sale). The Mortgagor will execute and deliver such documents and take such other action as the Mortgagee deems necessary or advisable in order that any such sale may be made in compliance with law. Upon any such sale the Mortgagee shall have the right to deliver, assign and transfer to the purchaser thereof the Collateral and Proceeds so sold. Each purchaser at any such sale shall hold the Collateral and Proceeds so sold to it absolutely and free from any claim or right of whatsoever kind, including any equity or right of redemption of the Mortgagor which may be waived, and the Mortgagor, to the extent permitted by law, hereby specifically waives all rights of redemption, stay of appraisal which it has or may have under any law now existing or hereafter adopted; provided, however, that such purchaser shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Fourth Supplemental Ground Lease. The Mortgagor agrees that twenty (20) days' prior written notice of the time and place of any sale or other intended disposition of any of the Collateral and Proceeds constitutes "reasonable notification" within the meaning of Section 9-611(b) of the UCC, except that shorter or no notice shall be reasonable as to any Collateral and Proceeds that is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market. The notice (if any) of such sale shall (1) in case of a public sale, state the time and place fixed for such sale, and (2) in the case of a private sale, state the day after which such sale may be consummated. Any such public sale shall be held at such time or times within ordinary business hours and at such place or places as the Mortgagee may fix in the notice of such sale. At any such sale the Collateral and Proceeds may be sold in one lot as an entirety or in separate parcels or portions, as the Mortgagee may determine. The Mortgagee shall not be obligated to make any such sale pursuant to any such notice. The Mortgagee may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private sale or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for the sale, and such sale may be made at any time or place to which the same may be so adjourned. In case of any sale of all or any part of the Collateral and Proceeds on credit or for future delivery, the Collateral or Proceeds so sold may be retained by the Mortgagee until the selling price is paid by the purchaser thereof, but the Mortgagee shall not incur any liability in case of the failure of such purchaser to take up and pay for the Collateral and Proceeds so sold and, in case of any such failure, such Collateral and Proceeds may again be sold upon like notice.

Section 6.7 Assemble Collateral. For the purpose of enforcing any and all rights and remedies under this Mortgage the Mortgagee may: (i) require the Mortgagor to, and the Mortgagor agrees that it will, at its expense and upon the request of the Mortgagee, forthwith assemble all or any part of the Collateral (other than the Mortgaged Property) and Proceeds as directed by the Mortgagee and make it available at a place designated by the Mortgagee which is, in its opinion, reasonably convenient to the Mortgagee and the Mortgagor, whether at the Mortgaged Property of the Mortgagor or otherwise, and Mortgagee shall be entitled to specific performance of this obligation; (ii) to the extent permitted by applicable law of this or any other state, enter, with or without process of law and without breach of the peace, any premises where any of the Collateral or Proceeds is or may be located, and, without charge or liability, to it seize and remove such Collateral or Proceeds from such premises; (iii) have access to and use the Mortgagor's books and records relating to the Collateral and Proceeds and (iv) prior to the disposition of the Collateral and Proceeds, store or transfer it without charge in or by means of any storage or transportation facility owned or leased by the Mortgagor, process, repair or recondition it or otherwise prepare it for disposition in any manner and to the extent the Mortgagee deems appropriate and, in connection with such preparation and disposition, use without charge any trademark, trade name, copyright, patent or technical process used by the Mortgagor.

Section 6.8 Limitation on Duty of Mortgagee. Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof, the Mortgagee shall have no duty as to any Collateral or Proceeds in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon. The Mortgagee shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral and Proceeds in its possession if the Collateral and Proceeds is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords its own property, and shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or damage to any of the Collateral or Proceeds, or for any diminution in the value thereof, by reason of the act or omission of any warehouseman, carrier, forwarding agency, consignee or other agent or bailee selected by the Mortgagee in good faith. The Mortgagor agrees that the Mortgagee shall not be obligated to preserve rights against prior parties obligated on any instruments.

Section 6.9 Appointment of Agent. At any time or times, in order to comply with any legal requirement in any jurisdiction, the Mortgagee may appoint a bank or trust company or one or more other Persons with such power and authority as may be necessary for the effectual operation of the provisions hereof and may be specified in the instrument of appointment.

Section 6.10 Set-Off. Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, the Mortgagee shall have the right to set-off any revenues of the Mortgagor in the possession of the Mortgagee against any amounts then due by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee pursuant to the Mortgage.

Section 6.11 Release of Property. The Mortgagee may at any time and without notice to the Mortgagor, release any part of the Collateral from the effect of this Mortgage, or grant an extension or deferment of time for the discharge of any obligation hereunder, without affecting the liability of the Mortgagor hereunder.

Section 6.12 Advances by Mortgagee. The Mortgagor authorizes the Mortgagee in the Mortgagee's discretion to advance any sums necessary for the purpose of paying: (i) insurance premiums; (ii) any and all excise, property, sales, use and other taxes, forced contributions, service charges, local assessments and governmental charges on any of the Collateral; (iii) any Liens affecting the Collateral (whether superior or subordinate to the lien of this Mortgage) not permitted by this Mortgage; (iv) necessary repairs and maintenance expenses; or (v) any other amounts which the Mortgagee deems necessary and appropriate to preserve the validity and ranking of this Mortgage, to cure any Defaults or to prevent the occurrence of any Default (collectively, the “Advances”) of whatever kind; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as making such Advances obligatory upon Mortgagee, or as making Mortgagee liable for any loss, damage, or injury resulting from the nonpayment thereof. The Mortgagor covenants and agrees that within five (5) days after demand therefor by the Mortgagee, the Mortgagor will repay the Advances to Mortgagee, together with interest thereon at the rate of eighteen (18%) percent per annum, and in addition to repay any other reasonable costs, attorneys’ fees and expenses, charges and expenses of any and every kind for the full protection and preservation of the Collateral or this Mortgage, including payments required in respect to any Lien affecting the Collateral, together with interest thereon at the rate of eighteen (18%) percent per annum. All such Advances and amounts (including interest) shall be included in the Obligations secured hereby (subject to the maximum amount of the Obligations set forth above in this Mortgage).

Section 6.13 Authentic Evidence. Any and all declarations of facts made by authentic act before a notary public in the presence of two witnesses by a person declaring that such facts lie within his knowledge shall constitute authentic evidence of such facts for the purpose of executory process. The Mortgagor specifically agrees that such an affidavit by a representative of the Mortgagee as to the existence, amount, terms and maturity of the Obligations and of a default thereunder shall constitute authentic evidence of such facts for the purpose of executory process.

Section 6.14 Keeper. In connection with each and all of the foregoing and acting pursuant to the authority granted under Louisiana Revised Statutes 9:5136-5140.2, as the same may hereafter be amended or supplemented, the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee hereby expressly designate the Mortgagee, or any agent, servant, employee, or other Person named by the Mortgagee, as “keeper” of each and all of the Collateral pending the judicial sale thereof, with all the powers set forth in said statutes (as hereafter amended), including the right to employ agents to operate the Collateral. All reasonable costs, expenses, and liabilities of every character incurred by the Mortgagee or any such other Person as keeper in connection with managing, operating, maintaining, and possessing the Collateral shall constitute a demand obligation owing by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee, and shall draw interest from date of expenditure until paid at the rate provided in Section 6.123 hereof for Advances to bear. All of such costs, expenses, and liabilities shall constitute a portion of the Obligations secured by this Mortgage. The keeper shall be entitled to receive as compensation, in excess of such costs, expenses, and liabilities, a reasonable amount to be fixed by the court based upon the keeper’s activities and the amounts expended in connection with the management, operation, and maintenance of the Collateral. The designation of keeper made herein shall not be deemed to require the Mortgagee to provoke the appointment of such a keeper.

Section 6.15 Certain Waivers. The Mortgagor hereby expressly waives any and all homestead exemptions and other exemptions to which the Mortgagor is or may be entitled under the Constitution and the laws and statutes of the State of Louisiana insofar as the Collateral is concerned. The Mortgage will remain in effect until: (a) all of the Obligations are fully paid and satisfied and there is no agreement or commitment to advance any additional indebtedness; and (b) Mortgagor cancels this Mortgage by filing a written cancellation instrument signed by Mortgagee. Mortgagee may delay providing Mortgagor with such a mortgage cancellation instrument for a period of sixty (60) days following receipt of Mortgagor's written request to verify that all conditions precedent for mortgage cancellation have been satisfied.

Section 7.2 Waivers. Any and all covenants in this Mortgage may from time to time, by instrument in writing signed by the Mortgagee and delivered to the Mortgagor, be waived to such extent and in such manner as the Mortgagee may desire, but no such waiver shall ever affect or impair the Mortgagee's rights or Liens hereunder, except to the extent specifically stated in such written instrument.

Section 7.5 Severability. A determination that any provision of this Mortgage is unenforceable or invalid in any jurisdiction shall not affect the enforceability or validity of such provision in any other jurisdiction or the enforceability or validity of any other provision hereof in any jurisdiction, and the determination that the application of any provision of this Mortgage to any Person or circumstance is illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction should not affect the enforceability or validity of such provision in any other jurisdiction or the enforceability or validity of such provision as it may apply to other Persons or circumstances.

Section 7.7 Relationship of Parties. No right or benefit conferred on the Mortgagee under this Mortgage shall constitute or be deemed to constitute the Mortgagee a partner or a joint venturer with the Mortgagor. The Mortgagor and the Mortgagee specifically acknowledge that the relationship between the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee is solely that of borrower and a lender's agent and that all payments required to be made by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee hereunder or under any Loan Document to which the Mortgagor is a party are required solely by reason of that relationship.

Section 7.8 Mortgage Absolute. The obligations of the Mortgagor under this Mortgage are independent of the obligations of the Mortgagor under the other Loan Documents, and a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against the Mortgagor to enforce this Mortgage. All rights of the Mortgagee and the mortgage, assignment, and security interest hereunder, and all obligations of the Mortgagor hereunder, shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of:

Section 7.9 Interpretation. Section 7.10 Conflicts between Loan Documents. In the event that any of the Collateral hereunder is also subject to a valid and enforceable Lien under the terms of any Loan Document and the terms of such other Loan Document are inconsistent in any respect with the terms of this Mortgage, then with respect to all Collateral that is also subject to such other Loan Document, the terms that are most restrictive or, in the case of equally restrictive terms, the terms that are most specific shall be controlling; provided, however, that if any provision of either document is unenforceable with respect to any item of Collateral subject thereto, then the provision of the document that is enforceable with respect to such Collateral shall be controlling.

Section 7.11 Multiple Originals. This Mortgage may be executed in multiple originals, all of which such multiple originals together shall constitute one and the same mortgage.

Section 7.12 Binding Effect. This Mortgage is binding upon the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee and their respective successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of the Mortgagee and its successors and assigns. The benefit of this Mortgage shall pass automatically with any assignment of the Obligations (or any portion thereof) to the extent of such assignment.

Section 7.13 Waiver of Certificates. The parties hereto expressly waive the production of conveyance, mortgage, or tax certificates and hereby relieve and release me, Notary, and my official surety and agree to hold me and said surety harmless from and by reason of the failure to procure and attach same to this Mortgage.

Section 7.14 Governing Law. This Mortgage and all matters relating or pertaining hereto shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Louisiana.

This agreement by Mortgagee shall not be construed in any way so as to affect or impair the lien of this Mortgage or Mortgagee's right to foreclose hereunder as provided by law, or to limit or restrict any of Mortgagee's rights or remedies in any foreclosure proceedings or other enforcement of payment of the indebtedness secured hereby out of and from the security given therefor.

No Hazardous Substances shall be placed on, in, under or about the Mortgaged Property except in strict compliance with applicable Environmental Requirements. No Hazardous Substances shall be disposed of on, in, under or about the Mortgaged Property. The Mortgagor shall not cause or permit the migration of Hazardous Substances from the Mortgaged Property to any other property or onto the Mortgaged Property from any property or area adjacent to the Mortgaged Property. The Mortgagor shall at all times comply with all applicable Environmental Requirements and shall immediately correct any matters discussed in all notices of violations of Environmental Requirements prior to the issuance of any regulatory or judicial order or assessment of any fines. The Mortgagor shall secure compliance by all lessees and sublessees of the Mortgaged Property with its obligations in this Section.

2. The Mortgagor itself agrees to, or agrees to cause the Board, as appropriate, to advise the Mortgagee promptly, in writing, of any notice or other communication, written or oral, from the United States Environmental Protection Agency, the Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality, or any other federal, state, or local Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over the Mortgaged Property with respect to any alleged violation of any Environmental Requirements or the generation, presence, management, release, escape, spillage, seepage, leakage, dumping, pouring, emptying, treatment, discharge, emission, handling, storage, transportation, disposal, or the like of Hazardous Substances or storage tanks, or any other matter regulated under Environmental Requirements.

3. The Mortgagor itself agrees to, or agrees to cause the Board, as appropriate, promptly to notify the Mortgagee in writing of: (i) any enforcement, cleanup, removal, or other governmental or regulatory action, investigation, notice of violation, or any other proceeding instituted against the Mortgagor or the Mortgaged Property and (ii) any suit, cause of action, or any other claim made or threatened by any third party against the Mortgagor or the Mortgaged Property relating to damage, contribution, cost recovery, compensation, loss, or injury resulting from any Hazardous Substances. The provisions of the preceding sentence shall be in addition to any and all other obligations and liabilities that the Mortgagor may have to the Mortgagee under applicable law.

4. The Mortgagor itself agrees to, or agrees to cause the Board, as appropriate, to promptly take any and all necessary remedial and response actions in response to the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, or discharge of any Hazardous Materials on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property, any alleged violation of Environmental Requirements that could lead to liability; provided, however, that the Mortgagor shall not take any such remedial or response action or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree, or other compromise in respect to any claims, proceedings, lawsuits, or actions completed or threatened as a result of any actual or alleged Hazardous Substances on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property, or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree, or other compromise in respect to any claims, proceedings, lawsuits, or actions completed or threatened pursuant to any Environmental Requirements, without, in each case, obtaining the Mortgagee's prior written consent; provided further, however, that the Mortgagee's prior consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Substances on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property either: (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety, or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such a nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain the consent prior to undertaking such action. In the event that the Mortgagor undertakes remedial action with respect to any Hazardous Substances on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property as set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) above, the Mortgagor shall immediately notify the Mortgagee of any such remedial/response action, and shall conduct and complete, or cause a sublessee to conduct and complete such remedial/response action in compliance with all applicable Environmental Requirements and in accordance with the orders and directives of all federal, state, and local Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction.

5. The Mortgagor shall or shall cause the Board to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer from and against any and all claims, demands, costs, losses, liabilities (including those based on strict liability), expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees, whether suit is instituted or not), judgments, fines, penalties, or amounts paid in settlement (collectively, "Losses") incurred by the Mortgagee and/or the Bond Insurer in connection with or as a result of the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, discharge, or release or threatened release on, under, from, above, or about the Mortgaged Property of any Hazardous Substances or any violations of any Environmental Requirements arising out of acts or omissions of the Mortgagor, or the Board, or their agents, tenants, occupants, employees, or contractors. To the extent of such indemnity, Losses indemnified against specifically shall include costs incurred in connection with (i) any investigation or monitoring of site conditions; (ii) any clean up, containment, remediation, removal, or restoration work required or performed by any federal, state, or local Governmental Authority or performed by the Mortgagor, the Board or any other Person because of the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, discharge, or release or threatened release of any Hazardous Substances on, in, from, under, or about the Mortgaged Property, and (iii) any claims by third parties for Losses due to the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, discharge, or release or threatened release of such Hazardous Substances or the cleanup, containment, remediation, or removal thereof.

6. The indemnity provisions contained in this Section 5.9 shall survive the payment of the Obligations and the cancellation of this Mortgage.

Section 5.10 Notice of Changes. The Mortgagor will not change its name, identity, federal tax identification number or corporate structure in any manner unless it shall have given the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice thereof. The Mortgagor will not change the location of (i) its chief executive office or chief place of business, or (ii) the locations where it keeps or holds any Collateral or any records relating thereto, from the applicable location described in Section 7.6 hereof unless it shall have given the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer at least 30 days' prior written notice thereof.

Section 5.11 Filing. The Mortgagor agrees that a carbon, photographic, facsimile, photostatic or other reproduction of this Mortgage or of a financing statement is sufficient as a financing statement. The Mortgagor shall pay all costs of or incidental to the recording or filing of any financing, amendment, continuation, termination or other statements concerning the Collateral.

Section 5.12 Accounts Collection. The Mortgagor shall use its best efforts to cause to be collected from its account debtors, as and when due, any and all amounts owing under or on account of each Account (including, without limitation, Accounts that are delinquent, such Accounts to be collected in accordance with lawful collection procedures) and shall apply forthwith upon receipt thereof all such amounts as are so collected to the outstanding balance of such Account. Subject to the rights of the Mortgagee hereunder, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Mortgagor may allow as adjustments to amounts owing under its Accounts (i) an extension or renewal of the time or times of payment, or settlement for less than the total unpaid balance, and (ii) a refund or credit due as a result of returned or damaged merchandise, all in accordance with the Mortgagor's ordinary course of business consistent with its historical collection practices and with sound business judgment. The costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) of collection, whether incurred by the Mortgagor or the Mortgagee, shall be borne by the Mortgagor.

Section 5.13 Instruments. While an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Mortgagor will immediately deliver and pledge to the Mortgagee each instrument evidencing, representing or otherwise arising from an Account or General Intangible, appropriately endorsed to the Mortgagee, provided that so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Mortgagor may refrain from such delivery and may retain possession of, for the purpose of collection in the ordinary course, any such instruments received by it in the ordinary course of business.

Section 5.14 Transfer and Other Liens. The Mortgagor will not sell, lease, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of the Collateral or the Proceeds, or any part thereof, and except as otherwise permitted under the Indenture and the Agreement without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee, and will not permit any Lien to attach to the Collateral or the Proceeds, or any part thereof, other than Permitted Liens, except that the Mortgagor may, in the ordinary course of its business and in the absence of an Event of Default, collect its Accounts and General Intangibles.

Section 5.15 Use of Mortgaged Property; Leases. The Mortgagor shall, or shall cause the Board to maintain, preserve, and renew all rights of way, servitudes, grants, privileges, licenses, permits, zoning approvals, and franchises necessary for the use of the Mortgaged Property and shall not, unless required by applicable law or unless the Mortgagee has otherwise agreed in writing, allow changes in the use for which the Mortgaged Property was intended under the Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease. To the extent permitted by law, the Mortgagor shall not permit the Board to initiate or acquiesce in a change in the zoning classification of the Mortgaged Property without the Mortgagee's prior written consent. The Mortgagor will observe and perform all the obligations imposed upon it as landlord under the Leases, if any, and not do or permit to be done anything to impair the security thereof; will exercise any option or election contained in or relating to any of the Leases that the Mortgagee shall require; at the Mortgagee's request, will assign and transfer to the Mortgagee by specific assignment of leases any and all subsequent Leases upon all or any part of the Property or the Facilities; and to execute and deliver at the request of the Mortgagee all such further assurances and assignments in the premises covered by the Leases as the Mortgagee shall from time to time require.

Section 5.16 Additional Provisions Regarding the Ground Lease. (a) The Mortgagor shall pay all rent and other charges required under the Ground Lease as and when the same are due and the Mortgagor shall keep, observe, and perform, or cause to be kept, observed, and performed, all of the other terms, covenants, provisions, and agreements of the Ground Lease on the part of the tenant thereunder to be kept, observed, and performed, and shall not in any manner, cancel, terminate, or surrender, or permit any cancellation, termination, or surrender of the Ground Lease, in whole or in part, or, without the written consent of the Mortgagee, either orally or in writing, modify, amend, or permit any modification or amendment of any of the terms thereof in any respect, and any attempt on the part of the Mortgagor to exercise any such right without such written consent of the Mortgagee shall be null and void ab initio and of no force or effect.

- (b) The Mortgagor shall do, or cause to be done, all things necessary to preserve and keep unimpaired the rights of the Mortgagor as tenant under the Ground Lease and to prevent any default under the Ground Lease or any termination, surrender, cancellation, forfeiture, or impairment thereof, and in the event of the failure of the Mortgagor to make any payment required to be made by the Mortgagor pursuant to the provisions of the Ground Lease or to keep, observe, or perform, or cause to be kept, observed, or performed, any of the terms, covenants, provisions, or agreements of the Ground Lease, the Mortgagor agrees that the Mortgagee may (but shall not be obligated to) take any action on behalf of the Mortgagor, to make or cause to be kept, observed, or performed any such terms, covenants, provisions, or agreements and to enter upon the Mortgaged Property and take all such action thereof as may be necessary therefor to the end that the rights of the Mortgagor in and to the leasehold estate created by the Ground Lease shall be kept unimpaired and free from default, and all money so expended by the Mortgagee, with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date of each such expenditure, shall be paid by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee promptly upon demand by the Mortgagee and shall be added to the Obligations, and the Mortgagee shall have, in addition to any other remedy thereof, the same rights and remedies in the event of non-payment of any such sum by the Mortgagor as in the case of a default by the Mortgagor in the payment of any sums due under the Loan Documents.

- (c) The Mortgagor shall enforce the obligations of the Ground Lessor under the Ground Lease to the end that it may enjoy all of the rights granted to it under the Ground Lease; promptly notify the Mortgagee in writing of any default by the Ground Lessor or by the Mortgagor in the performance or observance of any of the terms, covenants, or conditions on the part of the Ground Lessor or the Mortgagor, as the case may be, to be performed or observed under the Ground Lease; promptly advise the Mortgagee in writing of the occurrences of any of the events of default enumerated in the Ground Lease and of the giving of any notice by the Ground Lessor to the Mortgagor of any default by the Mortgagor in performance or observance of any of the terms, covenants, or conditions of the Ground Lease on the part of the Mortgagor to be performed or observed; and promptly deliver to the Mortgagee a true and complete copy of each such notice. If, pursuant to the Ground Lease, the Ground Lessor shall deliver to the Mortgagee a copy of any notice of default given to the Mortgagor, such notice shall constitute full authority and protection to the Mortgagee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Mortgagee in good faith in reliance thereon.
- (d) If any action or proceeding shall be instituted to evict the Mortgagor or to recover possession of the Mortgaged Property or for any other purpose affecting the Ground Lease or this Mortgage, the Mortgagor shall, immediately upon service thereof on or to the Mortgagor, deliver to the Mortgagee a true and complete copy of each petition, summons, complaint, notice of motion, order to show cause and of all other provisions, pleadings, and papers, however designated, served in any such action or proceeding.
- (e) The Mortgagor covenants and agrees that unless the Mortgagee shall otherwise expressly consent in writing, the fee title to the Property and the leasehold estate shall not merge, but shall always remain separate and distinct, notwithstanding the union of said estates either in the Ground Lessor, the Mortgagor, or a third party by purchase or otherwise; and in case the Mortgagor acquires the fee title or any other estate, title, or interest in the Mortgaged Property, this Mortgage shall attach to and, cover, and be a lien upon the fee title or such other estate so acquired, and such fee title or other estate shall, without further assignment, mortgage, or conveyance, become and be subject to the lien of and covered by this Mortgage.

- (f) No release or forbearance of any of the Mortgagor's obligations under the Ground Lease, pursuant to the Ground Lease or otherwise, shall release the Mortgagor from any of its obligations under this Mortgage, including its obligation with respect to the payment of rent as provided for in the Ground Lease and the performance of all of the terms, provisions, covenants, conditions, and agreements contained in the Ground Lease to be kept, performed, and complied with by the tenant therein.
- (g) The Mortgagor shall not make any election or give any consent or approval (other than the exercise of a renewal right or extension right or other right conferring a benefit on the Mortgagor, provided that any such action has no adverse effect or consequence to the Mortgagee) for which a right to do so is conferred upon the Mortgagor as tenant under the Ground Lease without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee. In case of any Event of Default under this Mortgage, all such rights, together with the right of termination, cancellation, modification, change, supplement, alteration, or amendment of the Ground Lease, all of which have been assigned for collateral purposes to the Mortgagee, shall vest in and be exercisable solely by the Mortgagee.
- (h) Not more than three hundred sixty (360) and not less than two hundred seventy (270) days before the right of the Mortgagor to exercise any option or right to renew or extend the term of the Ground Lease shall expire, the Mortgagor shall give the Mortgagee written notice specifying the date, term, and manner for which such option or renewal is to be exercised. Within ten (10) days of written demand by the Mortgagee, the Mortgagor shall exercise any such option or renewal which is necessary to extend the term of the Ground Lease beyond the term of this Mortgage or to comply with any law affecting the Mortgagor or the Mortgagee or which is necessary, in the reasonable judgment of the Mortgagee, to preserve the value of the Mortgaged Property intended to be afforded by this Mortgage. The Mortgagor shall promptly provide evidence of such exercise of such option or right to the reasonable satisfaction of the Mortgagee. In the event that the Mortgagor fails to so exercise any such option or right or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Mortgagor hereby agrees and grants to the Mortgagee all right and authority to exercise such option in the name of the Mortgagor or in its own name. Nothing contained herein shall affect or limit any rights of the Mortgagee under the Ground Lease.
- (i) If there shall be filed by or against the Mortgagor a petition under the United States Bankruptcy Code, Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), then the lien of this Mortgage shall attach to all of the Mortgagor's rights and remedies at any time arising under or pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, including, but not limited to, §365 thereof. Upon the filing of any petition by or against the Mortgagor under the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall immediately provide copies of all pleadings and notices related thereto to the Mortgagee. The Mortgagor unconditionally assigns to the Mortgagee all of the Mortgagor's rights to remain in possession of the Mortgaged Property following the filing of any bankruptcy petition by or against the Mortgagor, and acknowledges that the Mortgagee may file any pleading in furtherance thereof. This assignment constitutes a present, irrevocable, and unconditional assignment of the foregoing claims, rights, and remedies of the Mortgagor, and shall continue in effect until all of the Obligations shall have been satisfied and discharged in full. Furthermore, the Mortgagor hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Mortgagee as the Mortgagor's attorney-in-fact for the purpose of filing any pleading in the court in which the initial petition was filed or any court to which the action thereon may be removed, transferred, or assigned (the "Bankruptcy Court") that the Mortgagee determines in its sole discretion to protect the Mortgagee's interests in and to the Mortgaged Property, including but not limited to a motion to extend any applicable time period for the filing of any motion related to the assumption of the Ground Lease.

- (i) The Mortgagor shall not, without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee, file any motion or other pleading to reject or otherwise elect to treat the Ground Lease as terminated under §365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such motion, pleading, or election made without such prior written consent shall be void ab initio, and this Mortgage may be pled in bar thereof. If the Mortgagor does file such a motion to reject the Ground Lease under §365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor hereby acknowledges and agrees that, unless the Mortgagee consents in writing to such rejection, the Mortgagor may not reject the Ground Lease unless the Mortgagor proves, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the Mortgagor was "insolvent," within the meaning of §101 of the Bankruptcy Code, on the petition filing date. If the Mortgagor, as tenant under the Ground Lease and as debtor under the Bankruptcy Code, shall desire to reject the Ground Lease pursuant to §365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall give the Mortgagee not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the date on which the Mortgagor intends to file a motion in or otherwise apply to the Bankruptcy Court for authority to reject the Ground Lease. In such event, the Mortgagee shall have the right, but not the obligation, to serve upon the Mortgagor within such thirty (30) day period a notice stating that the Mortgagee demands that the Mortgagor assume the Ground Lease and assign the Ground Lease to the Mortgagee or the Mortgagee's designee pursuant to §365 of the Bankruptcy Code. If the Mortgagee shall serve upon the Mortgagor the notice described in the preceding sentence, the Mortgagor shall not seek to reject the Ground Lease and shall comply with the demand provided for in the preceding sentence.
- (ii) If the Mortgagor shall desire to assume the Ground Lease, then the Mortgagor shall give the Mortgagee not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the date on which the Mortgagor intends to file a motion in, or otherwise apply to, the Bankruptcy Court for authority to assume the Ground Lease. The Mortgagor shall inform the Mortgagee as a part of such notice whether or not the Mortgagor intends to assign the Ground Lease following assumption thereof. The Mortgagee shall have the right, but not the obligation, to serve upon the Mortgagor within such thirty (30) day period a notice stating that the Mortgagee demands that the Mortgagor assume the Ground Lease and assign the Ground Lease to the Mortgagee or the Mortgagee's designee pursuant to §365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and such election by the Mortgagee shall be binding upon the Mortgagor. Should the Mortgagor file a motion to assume the Ground Lease, the Mortgagee shall have the sole right to determine what terms and conditions will provide the Mortgagee with "adequate assurance of future performance," within the meaning of §365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

- (j) If there shall be filed by or against the Ground Lessor or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property a petition under the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall, after obtaining knowledge thereof, promptly notify the Mortgagee thereof in writing. The Mortgagor shall promptly deliver to the Mortgagee, following receipt, complete and correct copies of any and all notices, motions, summonses, pleadings, claim forms, applications, and other documents received by the Mortgagor in connection with any such petition and any proceedings relating thereto. In the event of such a bankruptcy filing, the Mortgagee shall have the option, exercisable upon notice from the Mortgagee to the Mortgagor, to conduct and control any such litigation with counsel chosen by the Mortgagee. The Mortgagee may proceed in its own name or in the name of the Mortgagor in connection with any such litigation, and the Mortgagor agrees to execute any and all powers, authorizations, consents, or other documents required by the Mortgagee in connection therewith. The Mortgagor shall, upon demand, pay to the Mortgagee all costs and expenses (including attorneys' and paralegals' fees and expenses) paid or incurred thereby in connection with the prosecution or conduct of any such proceedings. Any such costs or expenses not paid by the Mortgagor as aforesaid shall be secured by the lien of this Mortgage and shall be added to the principal amount of the Obligations. The Mortgagor shall not commence any action, suit, proceeding, or case, or file any application or make any motion, in respect of the Ground Lease in any such case under the Bankruptcy Code without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee. The Mortgagor hereby unconditionally assigns, transfers, and sets over to the Mortgagee all of the Mortgagor's claims and rights to the payment of damages or any claim arising from any rejection of the Ground Lease by the Ground Lessor or any other fee owner of the Mortgaged Property, or the payment of any amount or claim associated with the Ground Lease in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code. The Mortgagee shall have the right to proceed in its own name and/or in the name of the Mortgagor in respect of any claim, suit, action, or proceeding relating to the assumption or rejection of the Ground Lease by the Ground Lessor, including, without limitation, the right to file and prosecute, to the exclusion and in the name of the Mortgagor, any proofs of claim, complaints, motions, applications, notices, and other documents, or to defend against any objection thereto, in any case in respect to the Ground Lessor or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property. This assignment constitutes a present, irrevocable, and unconditional assignment of the foregoing claims, rights, and remedies, and shall continue in effect until all of the Obligations shall have been satisfied and discharged in full. Any amounts received by the Mortgagee as damages arising out of the rejection of the Ground Lease as aforesaid shall be applied first to all costs and expenses of the Mortgagee (including, without limitation, attorneys' and paralegals' fees and expenses) incurred in connection with the exercise of any of its rights or remedies under this Section. The Mortgagor shall promptly make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver, in form and substance satisfactory to the Mortgagee, a UCC Financing Statement (Form UCC-1), and all such additional instruments, agreements and other documents, as may at any time hereafter be required by the Mortgagee to effectuate and carry out the assignment made pursuant to this Section.

- (k) If the Mortgagor shall seek to offset against the rent reserved in the Ground Lease the amount of any damages caused by the nonperformance by the Ground Lessor or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property any of its obligations under the Ground Lease after the rejection by the Ground Lessor or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property under the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall, prior to effecting such offset, notify the Mortgagee of its intent to do so, setting forth the amounts proposed to be so offset and the basis therefor. The Mortgagee shall have the right to object to all or any part of such offset that, in the reasonable judgment of the Mortgagee, would constitute a breach of the Ground Lease, and in the event of such objection, the Mortgagor shall not effect any offset of the amounts so objected to by the Mortgagee. Neither the failure of the Mortgagee to object as aforesaid nor any objection relating to such offset shall constitute an approval of any such offset by the Mortgagee. The Mortgagor shall pay and protect the Mortgagee, and indemnify and save the Mortgagee harmless from and against, any and all claims, demands, actions, suits, proceedings, damages, losses, costs, and expenses of every nature whatsoever (including without limitation, attorneys' and paralegals' fees and expenses) arising from or relating to any off-set by the Mortgagor against the rent reserved in the Ground Lease.

Section 5.17 Inspection. The Mortgagee is authorized and empowered to enter, and to authorize its employees, agents, or contractors identified in writing to the Mortgagor and the Board to enter, upon any or all of the Mortgaged Property at any reasonable time and from time to time upon prior notice to the Mortgagor and the Board to inspect the same, to perform or observe any covenants, conditions, or terms that the Mortgagor shall fail to perform, meet, or comply with, to make such repairs, replacements, renewals, or additions as shall be necessary, or for any other purpose in connection with the maintenance, protection, or preservation of the Mortgagee's security, without thereby becoming liable to the Mortgagor, the Board or any Person in possession holding under the Mortgagor. Any inspections performed by or for the Mortgagee shall be performed at times and in a manner so as not to unreasonably interfere with the Mortgagor's business or the operation of the Mortgaged Property. The Mortgagor will keep accurate books and records in which full, true, and correct entries shall be promptly made with respect to the Mortgaged Property and the operation thereof. Any right of access to any portion of the Facilities leased to the students, faculty, staff or Permitted Lessees shall be subject to their rights pursuant to their rental agreements and University policy.

Section 5.18 Negative Covenants. The Mortgagor hereby agrees that, so long as any of the Obligations remains outstanding or unpaid, the Mortgagor shall not, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee:

A. Create, incur, assume, or suffer to exist any indebtedness relating to the Collateral, except the Obligations under this Mortgage and the Permitted Encumbrances, or as otherwise permitted under the Indenture or the Agreement;

B. Create, incur, or place, or permit to be created, incurred, or placed, any Liens on the Collateral, or any part thereof, or any revenues related thereto, except for the Permitted Encumbrances and Liens in favor of the Mortgagee;

C. Convey, sell, lease, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of the Collateral, or permit any conveyance, sale, lease, assignment, transfer, or other disposition of the Collateral, except as otherwise permitted under the Indenture and the Agreement.

Section 5.19 Cure of Defects. If the validity or priority of this Mortgage or of any rights or Liens created or evidenced hereby with respect to the Collateral or any part thereof, or the leasehold interest or right of occupancy of the Mortgagor to the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof, shall be endangered or questioned or shall be attacked directly or indirectly, or if any legal proceedings are instituted against the Mortgagor with respect thereto, upon discovery of such actual or alleged defect, the Mortgagor shall give written notice thereof to the Mortgagee promptly, secure the necessary funds and diligently endeavor, with the Board, as necessary, to cure any defect that may be developed or claimed and take all necessary and proper steps for the defense of such legal proceedings, including, but not limited to, the employment of counsel agreeable to the Mortgagee, the prosecution or defense of litigation, and the release or discharge of all adverse claims. The Mortgagee (whether or not named as a party to legal proceedings with respect thereto) is hereby authorized and empowered to take such additional steps as in its judgment and discretion may be necessary or proper for the defense of any such legal proceedings or the protection of the validity or priority of this Mortgage and the Liens created or evidenced hereby, including, but not limited to, the employment of independent counsel, the prosecution or defense of litigation, the compromise or discharge of any adverse claims made with respect to the Collateral, the purchase of any tax title, and the removal of prior Liens or security interests, and all expenses so incurred of every kind and character shall be a demand obligation owing by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee and shall bear interest from the date of expenditure until paid at a rate equal to the rate provided for in Section 6.12 hereof for Advances to bear, and the same shall be secured by the Lien evidenced by this Mortgage, and the party incurring such expenses shall be subrogated to all rights of the Person receiving such payment.

Section 5.20 Estoppel Certificate. The Mortgagor shall, within ten (10) business days of a written request therefor by the Mortgagee, furnish the Mortgagee with a written statement, duly acknowledged, setting forth the sums secured by this Mortgage and any right of set-off, counterclaim, or other defense that exists against such sums and the obligations under this Mortgage.

Section 5.21 Further Assurances. (a) on the request of Mortgagee, the Mortgagor shall promptly correct (i) any defect, error, or omission that may be discovered in the contents, or in the execution or acknowledgment, of this Mortgage or any Loan Document to which the Mortgagor is a party, and (ii) the Mortgagor itself shall, or shall cause the Board to execute, acknowledge, deliver, record, re-record, file, re-file, register, and re-register any and all such further acts, deeds, conveyances, security agreements, mortgages, assignments, estoppel certificates, financing statements and continuations thereof, termination statements, notices of assignment, transfers, certificates, assurances, and other instruments as reasonably may be required from time to time in order (A) to carry out more effectively the purposes of this Mortgage and any of the Loan Documents to which the Mortgagor is a party, (B) to more fully identify and subject to the Liens created by this Mortgage any of the properties, rights, or interests required to be encumbered hereby, including, specifically, any additions, substitutions, replacements, or appurtenances to the Collateral, (C) to perfect and maintain the validity, effectiveness, and priority of this Mortgage and the Liens intended to be created hereby and (D) to better assure, convey, grant, assign, transfer, preserve, protect, and confirm to the Mortgagee any of the rights granted or now or hereafter intended by the parties hereto to be granted to the Mortgagee hereunder or under any other instrument or agreement executed in connection herewith. The Mortgagor shall pay, directly or through the Board, all costs connected with any of the foregoing.

(b) Mortgagor hereby authorizes Mortgagee to file one or more financing or continuation statements and other records with respect to all or any part of the Collateral (including any amendments thereto, or continuation or termination statements thereof), without the signature or other authorization of Mortgagor, in such form and in such offices as Mortgagee reasonably determines appropriate, to perfect or maintain the perfection of the security interest of Mortgagee hereunder. Mortgagor acknowledges and agrees that it is not authorized to, and will not, authenticate or file, or authorize the filing of, any financing statements or other record with respect to the Collateral (including any amendments thereto, or continuation or termination statements thereof) except as permitted hereby, without the prior written approval and authorization by the Mortgagee, consenting to the form and substance of such filing or record. Mortgagor approves and ratifies any filing or recording of records made by or on behalf of Mortgagee in connection with the perfection of the security interest in favor of Mortgagee.

EVENTS OF DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

Section 6.1 Events of Default. The occurrence and continuance of any one of the following shall constitute an event of default under this Mortgage (herein referred to as an "Event of Default"):

- (i) the failure to make payment when due of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds and any Additional Bonds hereafter issued under the Indenture;
- (ii) the failure to make payment when due of any amounts owed under this Mortgage or the Agreement;
- (iii) the occurrence of an event of default (other than an event of default described in (i) or (ii) above) under the Indenture, the Agreement or any other Loan Document that is not cured within any applicable grace or cure period contained in such Loan Document;
- (iv) except as provided otherwise in this Mortgage, failure by Mortgagor to observe and perform any of the terms, covenants, or conditions to be observed or performed by Mortgagor contained in this Mortgage (other than those specified in (i) and (ii) above) for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice, by registered or certified mail, specifying such failure and requesting that it be remedied, given to Mortgagor by Mortgagee, or for such longer period as Mortgagor and Mortgagee may agree to in writing; provided that if the failure is other than the payment of money and is of such nature that it can be corrected but not within the applicable period, such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default so long as Mortgagor institutes curative action within the applicable period and diligently pursues such action to completion;

(v) any representation or warranty of Mortgagor made herein or any representation or warranty made in any of the other Loan Documents or any representation or warranty made in any certificate, document, or financial or other statement furnished at any time under or in connection with this Mortgage or any of the other Loan Documents shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect on or as of the date made or deemed made;

(vi) (a) the Mortgagor commences any case, proceeding, or other action seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution, or composition of Mortgagor or Mortgagor's debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, reorganization, or relief of debtors, or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or other similar official for Mortgagor or for all or any substantial part of Mortgagor's property; or (b) any such case, proceeding, or other action is commenced against Mortgagor and such case, proceedings, or other action either results in an order for relief against Mortgagor which is not fully stayed within ten (10) days after the entry thereof, or remains undismissed for a period of sixty (60) days;

(vii) Mortgagor fails to pay its debts as they become due, admits in writing Mortgagor's inability to pay Mortgagor's debts, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors.

(viii) Mortgagor sells, conveys or otherwise transfers or disposes of all or any portion of the Collateral except as otherwise permitted herein or grants any mortgage or security interest affecting all or any portion of the Collateral, or permits any Lien against all or any portion of the Collateral, except as permitted by the terms of this Mortgage; or

(ix) A writ or warrant of executory process, fieri facias, attachment or any similar process shall be issued by any court against the Collateral, and such writ or warrant is not released or bonded within thirty (30) days after its entry.

Section 6.2 Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Mortgage and in addition to any other remedy Mortgagee may have under this Mortgage, or any of the other Loan Documents, Mortgagee may, subject to the provisions of Section 6.18 hereof, declare all sums secured by this Mortgage (including without limitation the Obligations) immediately due and payable without presentment, demand, protest, notice of protest or dishonor, or other notice of default of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Mortgagor. In addition to the foregoing, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, the Mortgagee may, subject to the provisions of Section 6.18 hereof, take such action, without notice or demand or putting in default

(all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Mortgagor), as it deems advisable to protect and enforce its rights against the Mortgagor and in and to the Collateral, including, but not limited to, the following actions, each of which may be pursued concurrently or otherwise, at such time and in such order as the Mortgagee may determine, in its sole discretion, without impairing or otherwise affecting the other rights and remedies of the Mortgagee:

- (1) institute proceedings for the complete foreclosure of this Mortgage, in which case the Collateral may be sold for cash or upon credit in one or more parcels under ordinary or executory process, at the Mortgagee's sole option, and with or without appraisal, appraisal being expressly waived; or
- (2) to the extent permitted and pursuant to the procedures provided by applicable law, institute proceedings for the partial foreclosure of this Mortgage for the portion of the Obligations then due and payable, subject to the continuing lien of this Mortgage for the balance of the Obligations not then due; or
- (3) institute an action, suit, or proceeding in equity for the specific performance of any covenant, condition, or agreement contained in this Mortgage or any Loan Document; or
- (4) apply for the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, or conservator of the Collateral, without regard for the adequacy of the security for the Obligations and without regard for the solvency of the Mortgagor or of any Person liable for the payment of the Obligations; or
- (5) pursue such other remedies as the Mortgagee may have under applicable law, in equity, by virtue of any other security instrument, or otherwise.

The proceeds or avails of any sale made under or by virtue of this Article 6, together with any other sums that then may be held by the Mortgagee under this Mortgage, whether under the provisions of this Article 6 or otherwise, shall be applied in such manner as the Mortgagee, in its sole discretion, shall determine.

Upon any sale made under or by virtue of this Article 6, the Mortgagee may bid for and acquire the Collateral or any part thereof and in lieu of paying cash therefor may make settlement for the purchase price by crediting upon the Obligations the net sales price after deducting therefrom the expenses of the sale and the costs of the action and any other sums which the Mortgagee is authorized to deduct under this Mortgage.

The Mortgagee may proceed under this Mortgage solely as to the immovable property interests, or solely as to the movable property interests, or as to both the immovable and movable property interests in accordance with its rights and remedies in respect of the immovable property interests.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Mortgage, any purchaser of the Mortgaged Property pursuant to a foreclosure sale under this Mortgage or a deed in lieu of foreclosure shall purchase said Mortgaged Property subject and subordinate to the ownership rights of the Board and shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Ground Lease. Such purchaser shall have no additional right to grant any mortgage or other lien on the Mortgaged Property or to sell, lease or otherwise alienate the Mortgaged Property without the prior written consent of the Board.

Section 6.3 Leases and Rentals. Upon the occurrence and continuation of any Event of Default, the Mortgagee may additionally take any one or more of the following actions, each of which may be pursued concurrently or otherwise, at such time and in such order as the Mortgagee may determine, in its sole discretion, without impairing or otherwise affecting the other rights and remedies of the Mortgagee:

(i) The Mortgagee may notify any and all Tenants to pay all Rentals due thereafter directly to the Mortgagee at the address set forth in the Mortgagee's notice to such Tenants. The Mortgagor irrevocably agrees that all such Tenants shall be authorized to pay the Rentals directly to the Mortgagee without liability of such Tenants for the determination of the actual existence of any default by the Mortgagor claimed by the Mortgagee. Tenants shall be expressly relieved of any and all duty, liability and obligation to the Mortgagor in connection with any and all Rentals so paid.

(ii) The Mortgagee may enter upon and take possession of the Mortgaged Property, to manage and operate the Mortgaged Property and the Mortgagor's business on the Mortgaged Property, and take possession of and use all books of account and financial records of the Mortgagor and its property managers or representatives, if any, relating to the Mortgaged Property.

(iii) The Mortgagee may alter, modify, amend, terminate or permit the surrender of any or all Leases, except for leases pursuant to Section 13 of the Facilities Lease to students, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessees (as defined in the Ground Lease) who are not themselves in default under their Leases, and the Mortgagee may execute new Leases of any part of the Mortgaged Property, including Leases that extend beyond the maturity date of the Agreement.

The enforcement of any and all such rights available to the Mortgagee hereunder shall continue for so long as the Mortgagee shall elect, until the collection and application of the Rentals have cured the Event of Default and all sums owed by Mortgagor to any person in connection with the enforcement of its remedies in connection with such Event of Default have been paid, in which event, the Mortgagee shall permit the Mortgagor to re-enter and take possession of the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof and to perform all acts necessary for the operation and maintenance of the Mortgaged Property, including the right to collect the Rentals, but the Mortgagee shall nevertheless have the right, effective upon written notice, to demand, sue for possession of and collect the Rentals under the Leases and otherwise exercise its rights under this Mortgage again if there occurs another Event of Default hereunder.

Section 6.4 General Authority. The Mortgagor hereby irrevocably appoints the Mortgagee its agent and attorney in fact, with full power of substitution, in the name of the Mortgagor or the Mortgagee, for the sole use and benefit of the Mortgagee, but at the Mortgagor's expense, to exercise, at any time and from time to time while an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, all or any of the following powers with respect to all or any of the Collateral and the Proceeds:

(i) to endorse the name of the Mortgagor upon any check, draft, Agreement or other instrument payable to the Mortgagor evidencing payment upon any Accounts or General Intangible;

(ii) to notify postal service authorities to change the address for delivery of the Mortgagor's mail to a "lockbox" address designated and controlled by the Mortgagee, and to receive, open and dispose of all mail addressed to the Mortgagor;

(iii) to demand, sue for, collect, receive and give acquittance for any and all Accounts and other monies due or to become due for or as Collateral (or Proceeds) or by virtue thereof;

(iv) to settle, compromise, compound, prosecute or defend any action or proceeding with respect to any of the Collateral and the Proceeds; and

(v) to extend the time of payment of any or all of the Collateral and the Proceeds and to make any allowance and other adjustments with reference thereto.

The aforesaid mandate and power of attorney, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable so long as any of the Obligations remains outstanding.

Section 6.5 Accounts. While an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Mortgagor will make no material change to the terms of any Account without the prior written permission of the Mortgagee. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, and at any time thereafter, the Mortgagor upon request of the Mortgagee will promptly notify (and the Mortgagor hereby authorizes the Mortgagee so to notify) each account debtor in respect of any Account or General Intangible that such Collateral has been assigned to the Mortgagee hereunder, and that any payments due or to become due in respect of such Collateral are to be made directly to the Mortgagee or its designee.

Section 6.6 Sale. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Mortgagee may exercise all rights of a secured party under the Commercial Laws and other applicable law and, in addition, the Mortgagee may, without being required to give any notice, except as herein provided or as may be required by mandatory provisions of law, (i) withdraw all cash in its possession and apply such cash then held by it as Collateral or Proceeds against the Obligations or (ii) sell the Collateral and the Proceeds or any part thereof at public or private sale, for cash, upon credit or for future delivery, and at such price or prices as the Mortgagee may deem satisfactory. The Mortgagee may be the purchaser of any or all of the Collateral and Proceeds so sold at any public sale (or, if the Collateral and Proceeds is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market or is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations, at any private sale). The Mortgagor will execute and deliver such documents and take such other action as the Mortgagee deems necessary or advisable in order that any such sale may be made in compliance with law. Upon any such sale the Mortgagee shall have the right to deliver, assign and transfer to the purchaser thereof the Collateral and Proceeds so sold. Each purchaser at any such sale shall hold the Collateral and Proceeds so sold to it absolutely and free from any claim or right of whatsoever kind, including any equity or right of redemption of the Mortgagor which may be waived, and the Mortgagor, to the extent permitted by law, hereby specifically waives all rights of redemption, stay of appraisal which it has or may have under any law now existing or hereafter adopted; provided, however, that such purchaser shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Ground Lease. The Mortgagor agrees that twenty (20) days' prior written notice of the time and place of any sale or other intended disposition of any of the Collateral and Proceeds constitutes "reasonable notification" within the meaning of Section 9-611(b) of the UCC, except that shorter or no notice shall be reasonable as to any Collateral and Proceeds that is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market. The notice (if any) of such sale shall (1) in case of a public sale, state the time and place fixed for such sale, and (2) in the case of a private sale, state the day after which such sale may be consummated. Any such public sale shall be held at such time or times within ordinary business hours and at such place or places as the Mortgagee may fix in the notice of such sale. At any such sale the Collateral and Proceeds may be sold in one lot as an entirety or in separate parcels or portions, as the Mortgagee may determine. The Mortgagee shall not be obligated to make any such sale pursuant to any such notice. The Mortgagee may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private sale or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for the sale, and such sale may be made at any time or place to which the same may be so adjourned. In case of any sale of all or any part of the Collateral and Proceeds on credit or for future delivery, the Collateral or Proceeds so sold may be retained by the Mortgagee until the selling price is paid by the purchaser thereof, but the Mortgagee shall not incur any liability in case of the failure of such purchaser to take up and pay for the Collateral and Proceeds so sold and, in case of any such failure, such Collateral and Proceeds may again be sold upon like notice.

Section 6.7 Assemble Collateral. For the purpose of enforcing any and all rights and remedies under this Agreement the Mortgagee may: (i) require the Mortgagor to, and the Mortgagor agrees that it will, at its expense and upon the request of the Mortgagee, forthwith assemble all or any part of the Collateral (other than the Mortgaged Property) and Proceeds as directed by the Mortgagee and make it available at a place designated by the Mortgagee which is, in its opinion, reasonably convenient to the Mortgagee and the Mortgagor, whether at the Mortgaged Property of the Mortgagor or otherwise, and Mortgagee shall be entitled to specific performance of this obligation; (ii) to the extent permitted by applicable law of this or any other state, enter, with or without process of law and without breach of the peace, any premises where any of the Collateral or Proceeds is or may be located, and, without charge or liability, to it seize and remove such Collateral or Proceeds from such premises; (iii) have access to and use the Mortgagor's books and records relating to the Collateral and Proceeds and (iv) prior to the disposition of the Collateral and Proceeds, store or transfer it without charge in or by means of any storage or transportation facility owned or leased by the Mortgagor, process, repair or recondition it or otherwise prepare it for disposition in any manner and to the extent the Mortgagee deems appropriate and, in connection with such preparation and disposition, use without charge any trademark, trade name, copyright, patent or technical process used by the Mortgagor.

Section 6.8 Limitation on Duty of Mortgagee. Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof, the Mortgagee shall have no duty as to any Collateral or Proceeds in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon. The Mortgagee shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral and Proceeds in its possession if the Collateral and Proceeds is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords its own property, and shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or damage to any of the Collateral or Proceeds, or for any diminution in the value thereof, by reason of the act or omission of any warehouseman, carrier, forwarding agency, consignee or other agent or bailee selected by the Mortgagee in good faith. The Mortgagor agrees that the Mortgagee shall not be obligated to preserve rights against prior parties obligated on any instruments.

Section 6.9 Appointment of Agent. At any time or times, in order to comply with any legal requirement in any jurisdiction, the Mortgagee may appoint a bank or trust company or one or more other Persons with such power and authority as may be necessary for the effectual operation of the provisions hereof and may be specified in the instrument of appointment.

Section 6.10 Set-Off. Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, the Mortgagee shall have the right to set-off any revenues of the Mortgagor in the possession of the Mortgagee against any amounts then due by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee pursuant to the Mortgage.

Section 6.11 Release of Property. The Mortgagee may at any time and without notice to the Mortgagor, release any part of the Collateral from the effect of this Mortgage, or grant an extension or deferment of time for the discharge of any obligation hereunder, without affecting the liability of the Mortgagor hereunder.

Section 6.12 Advances by Mortgagee. The Mortgagor authorizes the Mortgagee in the Mortgagee's discretion to advance any sums necessary for the purpose of paying: (i) insurance premiums; (ii) any and all excise, property, sales, use and other taxes, forced contributions, service charges, local assessments and governmental charges on any of the Collateral; (iii) any Liens affecting the Collateral (whether superior or subordinate to the lien of this Mortgage) not permitted by this Mortgage; (iv) necessary repairs and maintenance expenses; or (v) any other amounts which the Mortgagee deems necessary and appropriate to preserve the validity and ranking of this Mortgage, to cure any Defaults or to prevent the occurrence of any Default (collectively, the "Advances") of whatever kind; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as making such Advances obligatory upon Mortgagee, or as making Mortgagee liable for any loss, damage, or injury resulting from the nonpayment thereof. The Mortgagor covenants and agrees that within five (5) days after demand therefor by the Mortgagee, the Mortgagor will repay the Advances to Mortgagee, together with interest thereon at the rate of eighteen (18%) percent per annum, and in addition to repay any other reasonable costs, attorneys' fees and expenses, charges and expenses of any and every kind for the full protection and preservation of the Collateral or this Mortgage, including payments required in respect to any Lien affecting the Collateral, together with interest thereon at the rate of eighteen (18%) percent per annum. All such Advances and amounts (including interest) shall be included in the Obligations secured hereby (subject to the maximum amount of the Obligations set forth above in this Mortgage).

Section 6.13 Authentic Evidence. Any and all declarations of facts made by authentic act before a notary public in the presence of two witnesses by a person declaring that such facts lie within his knowledge shall constitute authentic evidence of such facts for the purpose of executory process. The Mortgagor specifically agrees that such an affidavit by a representative of the Mortgagee as to the existence, amount, terms and maturity of the Obligations and of a default thereunder shall constitute authentic evidence of such facts for the purpose of executory process.

Section 6.14 Keeper. In connection with each and all of the foregoing and acting pursuant to the authority granted under Louisiana Revised Statutes 9:5136-5140.2, as the same may hereafter be amended or supplemented, the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee hereby expressly designate the Mortgagee, or any agent, servant, employee, or other Person named by the Mortgagee, as "keeper" of each and all of the Collateral pending the judicial sale thereof, with all the powers set forth in said statutes (as hereafter amended), including the right to employ agents to operate the Collateral. All reasonable costs, expenses, and liabilities of every character incurred by the Mortgagee or any such other Person as keeper in connection with managing, operating, maintaining, and possessing the Collateral shall constitute a demand obligation owing by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee, and shall draw interest from date of expenditure until paid at the rate provided in Section 6.123 hereof for Advances to bear. All of such costs, expenses, and liabilities shall constitute a portion of the Obligations secured by this Mortgage. The keeper shall be entitled to receive as compensation, in excess of such costs, expenses, and liabilities, a reasonable amount to be fixed by the court based upon the keeper's activities and the amounts expended in connection with the management, operation, and maintenance of the Collateral. The designation of keeper made herein shall not be deemed to require the Mortgagor to provoke the appointment of such a keeper.

Section 7.2 Waivers. Any and all covenants in this Mortgage may from time to time, by instrument in writing signed by the Mortgagee and delivered to the Mortgagor, be waived to such extent and in such manner as the Mortgagee may desire, but no such waiver shall ever affect or impair the Mortgagee's rights or Liens hereunder, except to the extent specifically stated in such written instrument.

No right or benefit conferred on the Mortgagee under this Mortgage shall constitute or be deemed to constitute the Mortgagee a partner or a joint venturer with the Mortgagor. The Mortgagor and the Mortgagee specifically acknowledge that the relationship between the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee is solely that of borrower and a lender's agent and that all payments required to be made by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee hereunder or under any Loan Document to which the Mortgagor is a party are required solely by reason of that relationship.

Section 7.8 Mortgage Absolute. The obligations of the Mortgagor under this Mortgage are independent of the obligations of the Mortgagor under the other Loan Documents, and a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against the Mortgagor to enforce this Mortgage. All rights of the Mortgagee and the mortgage, assignment, and security interest hereunder, and all obligations of the Mortgagor hereunder, shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of:

Section 7.10 Conflicts between Loan Documents. In the event that any of the Collateral hereunder is also subject to a valid and enforceable Lien under the terms of any Loan Document and the terms of such other Loan Document are inconsistent in any respect with the terms of this Mortgage, then with respect to all Collateral that is also subject to such other Loan Document, the terms that are most restrictive or, in the case of equally restrictive terms, the terms that are most specific shall be controlling; provided, however, that if any provision of either document is unenforceable with respect to any item of Collateral subject thereto, then the provision of the document that is enforceable with respect to such Collateral shall be controlling.

Section 7.11 Multiple Originals. This Mortgage may be executed in multiple originals, all of which such multiple originals together shall constitute one and the same mortgage.

Section 7.12 Binding Effect. This Mortgage is binding upon the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee and their respective successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of the Mortgagee and its successors and assigns. The benefit of this Mortgage shall pass automatically with any assignment of the Obligations (or any portion thereof) to the extent of such assignment.

Section 7.13 Waiver of Certificates. The parties hereto expressly waive the production of conveyance, mortgage, or tax certificates and hereby relieve and release me, Notary, and my official surety and agree to hold me and said surety harmless from and by reason of the failure to procure and attach same to this Mortgage.

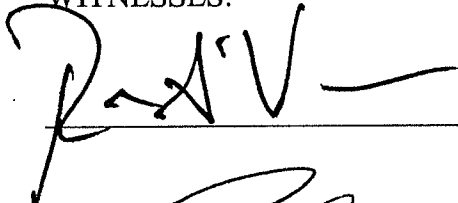

Section 7.14 Governing Law. This Mortgage and all matters relating or pertaining hereto shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Louisiana.

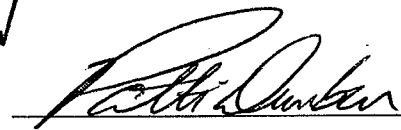

Section 7.15 No Recourse Against Mortgagor. Mortgagee shall not look to Mortgagor or any principal of Mortgagor with respect to the Obligations. In enforcing its rights and remedies under this Mortgage, Mortgagee shall look solely to the Collateral for the payment of the Obligations secured hereby and for the performance of the provisions hereof. Mortgagee shall not seek a deficiency or other money judgment against Mortgagor or any principal of Mortgagor and shall not institute any separate action against Mortgagor by reason of any default which may occur in the performance of any term or condition of this Mortgage or the Obligations. This agreement by Mortgagee shall not be construed in any way so as to affect or impair the lien of this Mortgage or Mortgagee's right to foreclose hereunder as provided by law, or to limit or restrict any of Mortgagee's rights or remedies in any foreclosure proceedings or other enforcement of payment of the indebtedness secured hereby out of and from the security given therefor.

THUS DONE AND PASSED in the place and on the day, month, and year first above written in the presence of the undersigned competent witnesses, who hereunto sign their names with the Mortgagor and me, Notary, after due reading of the whole.

EXHIBIT "C" TO UCC-1 FINANCING STATEMENT

DESCRIPTION OF THE FACILITIES

The project will consist of the demolition of Zachary Taylor and the construction of two 4-story buildings with a total of 282 units with 556 beds with certain additional amenities, including public gathering spaces for on-campus residents. The new student housing center will consist of two 4-story residence halls located on the western part of the main campus north of Texas Drive. The buildings will be located adjacent to Hammond and Tangipahoa Residence Halls, Sims Memorial Library, Cate Teacher Education Center, and Zachary Taylor Hall, which will be demolished at the completion of construction. The square footage of both buildings will be 84,888 each and each will consist of 278 beds. Thus, the complete project will result in a total of 169,776 square feet and 556 beds. Additionally, each building will include 215 resident rooms in three different room types. The shared double semi-suites (126 units / 252 beds) will be 315 square feet; the private double semi-suite (118 units / 236 beds) will be 400 square feet; the private single rooms (8 units / 8 beds) will be 240 square feet; and there will be additional private double semi-suites (30 units / 60 beds) at 435 square feet. The private double semi-suites will consist of a shared space and two bedrooms. Each shared space will be furnished with a dining table and chairs, millwork with a sink, a micro fridge, and vanity adjacent to the bathroom. The shared double semi-suites will consist of a shared bedroom adjacent to the bathroom. Each bedroom will be furnished with a loft style bed, student desk with chair, a low (2-drawer) dresser, and a closet.

Landscaping and hardscaping features will enhance the open spaces around and between the buildings. A green space with trees will be located to the south of the south building and will provide a soft buffer zone between the south building and Texas Ave. Paved walkways with low scale pedestrian light poles will be located throughout the site and will provide convenient pedestrian connections to the surrounding campus while providing connections between the two buildings. A paved plaza area will be provided at the north building and will be connected to the foodservice retail space.

Service access to the two buildings will be provided from the new parking area located to the west of the buildings. Enclosures for trash and recycling containers will be provided in this area and will be accessible from the main vehicle drive lanes in the parking area. A dedicated service access lane will be provided for retail deliveries to the north building and for maintenance vehicle use. A cooling tower or chiller will be located to the west of the buildings.

Parking for residents and staff will be provided on all sides of the site. Parking areas will be lighted with pole light fixtures and will include paved perimeter walkways providing access to the buildings and the campus.

Rental Payments

In consideration of the Corporation entering into the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease, the Board will agree in the Facilities Lease to make payments of Base Rental and Additional Rental (together, the “Rental Payments”) from Housing Lawfully Available Funds (as defined below).

The Base Rental amount will be in an amount equal to the principal of, premium, if any, and interest due on the Parity Bonds. Base Rental will also include any amounts required to be paid into any funds established in the Indenture, including any debt service reserve funds for the Parity Bonds (as defined herein), or to make up any deficiency or to restore any loss resulting from investment and any other payment required to be made to such fund by the Indenture. In addition, the Board will agree to pay as Additional Rental any and all expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Corporation on behalf of the Board and/or by the Board in the management, operation, ownership, and/or maintenance of the Housing Facilities.

Housing Lawfully Available Funds

“Housing Lawfully Available Funds” means all unrestricted funds available to the University and appropriated by the Board to make Rental Payments from any source, including but not limited to Rents and Auxiliary Revenues.

“Rents” means all revenues actually received from any source by, or on behalf the Board or the University with respect to the Housing Facilities, including without duplication, all collected rents and other charges for the use or occupancy of the Housing Facilities, parking charges and revenues, utility charges, vending machine and laundry machine revenues and forfeited security deposits relating to the Housing Facilities, and rental interruption insurance proceeds actually received by or on behalf of the Board or the University (net of the costs of collecting such proceeds), if any; excluding tenants’ security deposits unless and until applied in satisfaction of tenants’ obligations as provided for in the Management Agreement and excluding refunds and reimbursements due to students in accordance with University policy.

“Auxiliary Revenues” means the amount of all funds or revenues held by the University derived by Auxiliary Enterprises and any earnings thereof from the self-generated fees, rates, charges or income received by students, faculty or the public in connection with the utilization or operation of Auxiliary Enterprises after payment of any Auxiliary Enterprises expenses. The Auxiliary Enterprises of the University include the following, subject to modification from time to time: 1) student service fees for the operation of ID Card Services, Student Health Center and Student Union 2) certain commissions received from Food Service contractors, Retail and Rental Bookstore operations and Vending operations and 3) the sales of copying services. Budget Process

The Rental payments made by the Board under the Facilities Lease must be appropriated by the Board each year through the approval by the Board of the University’s budget. Although the Assistant Vice President for Finance and Comptroller of the University will cause the University to include in the budget an amount sufficient to make the Rental Payments under the Facilities Lease, there is no guarantee that the Board will approve such budget. In the event the Board fails to budget the Rental Payments, the Trustee, on behalf of the Corporation, may terminate the Facilities Lease and re-let the Facilities in accordance with the Permitted Use (as defined in the Facilities Lease).

The State is not, at any time whatsoever, obligated, committed or required to provide funds by legislative appropriation or any other means to pay debt service on the Parity Bonds, to pay Base Rental or Additional Rental, or to support the continued operation and maintenance of the Housing Facilities.

Bond Insurance

THE UNIVERSITY

Southeastern Louisiana University (the “University”) is located in Hammond, Louisiana, the heart of Louisiana’s “Florida Parishes.” Hammond is located at the intersection of Interstate Highways 55 and 12, approximately 60 miles north of New Orleans, Louisiana’s largest city, and 40 miles east of Baton Rouge, the State’s capital. The University is the third largest public University in the State by enrollment and has a current enrollment of approximately 15,000 students with a faculty and staff population of approximately 1,300.

The University began as a grass roots movement by the people of Hammond and the surrounding area, who recognized the need for an institution of higher education in order to further the educational, economic, and cultural development of southeast Louisiana. What began as a junior college supported by local taxes has developed into a major university as the University has grown to meet the evolving needs of southeast Louisiana and the Florida parishes.

On July 7, 1925, the voters overwhelmingly approved a bond issue that created Hammond Junior College. Operated under the auspices of the Tangipahoa Parish School Board, President Linus A. Sims opened the doors on September 14, 1925 with a faculty of three women, two men and forty students. The two-year coeducational institution offered basic undergraduate work in arts and sciences that culminated in a teaching certificate.

Rapidly increasing enrollments quickly forced the college out of its two rooms in Hammond High School. In 1927, voters supported the purchase of the Hunter Leake estate on Hammond’s north end. In 1928 Hammond Junior College became Southeastern Louisiana College, formally adopted into the state educational system under the control of the State Board of Education. The purchase of sixty acres adjoining the original fifteen-acre plot provided the space to develop a suitable campus, and in 1934, a state bond issue provided for the construction of McGehee Hall and a gymnasium.

In 1937, the State Board of Education authorized curricula for four-year programs in liberal arts, teacher education, business administration, music, social sciences, and physical education. The first baccalaureate degrees were conferred in May, 1939.

Voter approval of Act No. 388 in 1938, an amendment to the 1920 Louisiana Constitution, granted Southeastern Louisiana College the same legal status as other four-year colleges. The amendment did not, however, require the state to fund the University at the level of other institutions of higher education, despite strong local support.

On January 18, 1946, the State Board made available funds to purchase seven city blocks east and west of the campus, and 275 acres of land north and northwest of the campus, increasing the University’s total area to approximately 365 acres.

On March 3, 1946, the University was formally approved and accepted into full membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), as a four-year degree-granting institution.

In 1960, the State Board authorized the University to offer master's degrees through the newly-formed Division of Graduate Studies. The University began awarding the Education Specialist degree in 1967. Governor John J. McKeithen on June 16, 1970 signed into law the legislative act turning Southeastern Louisiana College into Southeastern Louisiana University. The early 1970's also saw the construction of D. Vickers, the Athletics Building, and the C.E. Cate Teacher Education Building.

In October of 1986, a group of faculty members launched Fanfare, a festival celebrating the arts, humanities and sciences. Since then, Fanfare has become an acclaimed month long event, drawing nationally and internationally recognized artists and providing recognition for those closer to home. In addition to providing entertainment for the North Shore, Fanfare has an educational outreach program that works closely with local schools. In October of 2015, Fanfare proudly celebrated its 30th anniversary.

The University's enrollment, continually increasing since its inception, reached an important milestone in 1997, registering over fifteen thousand students for the fall semester. Since 1925 the University has conferred over seventy thousand degrees.

As the University celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2000, the Fall semester marked an exciting change as the University implemented screened admissions standards for the first time. Also, during the 2000-2001 academic year, the Village, Fayard Hall and the Claude B. Pennington, Jr. Student Activity Center were completed.

In the following years the University continued to expand its infrastructure with the Teacher Education Center Renovation and Addition in 2003, the Biology Building Renovation and Addition in 2004, the Meade Hall Classroom Renovation in 2007, the Kinesiology & Health Studies College of Nursing Renovation and Addition in 2011, the Expansion and Renovation to the War Memorial Student Union in 2015, and the Ascension and Twelve Oaks residence halls in 2018.

THE SERIES 2019 BONDS

The Series 2019 Bonds will be dated as of the date of issuance and delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds and will bear interest at the rates per annum and mature on August 1 in the years and in the principal amounts indicated on the inside cover page of this Official Statement. Purchases of the beneficial interests in the Series 2019 Bonds will be made in book-entry only form in authorized denominations by credit to participating broker-dealers and other institutions on the books of DTC as described herein. Such notice will be irrevocable until a new notice is delivered not later than a Record Date. In the event of any such default, such defaulted interest will be payable on a payment date established by the Trustee to the persons in whose names the Series 2019 Bonds are registered at the close of business on a special record date for the payment of such defaulted interest established by notice mailed by the Trustee to the registered owners of the Series 2019 Bonds not fewer than fifteen (15) days preceding Project) Series 2017 (the “Series 2017 Bonds”), the proceeds of which were loaned to the Corporation to finance the demolition of Zachary Taylor Hall and the development and construction of two 4-story residence student housing facilities consisting of 169,776 square feet with 556 beds and related facilities for the benefit of the University (the “Series 2017 Facilities”). The Series 2017 Facilities replaced the 202 beds of Zachary Taylor halls. The Series 2017 Bonds are currently outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $35,465,000.

SERIES 2004B BONDS AND SERIES 2013 BONDS

On August 13, 2004 the Authority issued its $76,910,000 Revenue Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2004, (the “Series 2004 Bonds”), in three series, the 2004A Bonds in the amount of $60,985,000, the 2004B Bonds in the amount of $15,000,000, and the 2004C Bonds in the amount of $925,000, the proceeds of which were loaned to the Corporation to finance the demolition of certain then-existing facilities and the renovation, development and construction of student housing and related facilities and to refinance existing debt for the benefit of the University. On November 13, 2013 the Authority issued its $40,910,000 Revenue Refunding Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2013 (the “Series 2013 Bonds”), the proceeds of which were loaned to the Corporation to fully refund and defease the Series 2004A Bonds, along with certain other funds available therefor. The Series 2004C Bonds matured and are fully redeemed. The 2004B Bonds remain outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $15,000,000 and will be refunded in full with the proceeds of the Series 2019 Bonds. The Series 2013 Bonds are currently outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $26,545,000.

The Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds, the Series 2019 Bonds and any Additional Bonds are referred to herein as the “Parity Bonds”.

In consideration of the Corporation entering into the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease, the Board will agree in the Facilities Lease to make payments of Base Rental and Additional Rental from Housing Lawfully Available Funds. The Base Rental amount will be in an amount equal to the principal of, premium, if any, and interest due on the Parity Bonds. Base Rental will also include any amounts required to be paid into any funds established in the Indenture, including any debt service reserve funds for the Parity Bonds, or to make up any deficiency or to restore any loss resulting from investment and any other payment required to be made to such fund by the Indenture. In addition, the Board will agree to pay as Additional Rental any and all expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Corporation on behalf of the Board and/or by the Board in the management, operation, ownership, and/or maintenance of the Housing Facilities. The Board’s obligations to make Rental Payments from Housing Lawfully Available Funds are on parity with respect to all of the Parity Bonds.

In addition, the Mortgage secures the Corporation’s leasehold interest in the Series 2004 Property, Series 2004 Facilities, the Series 2017 Property, the Series 2017 Facilities, and secures payments of the Parity Bonds. The Corporation also granted the Trustee a first priority security interest in the leases and subleases affecting the 2017 Property and/or the Series 2017 Facilities, including, without limitation, the Facilities Lease, Ground Lease and all revenues, rentals and other sums due or becoming due under the leases.

SERIES 2007 BONDS

On March 14, 2007 the Authority issued its $8,435,000 Revenue Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc.: Phase Four Parking Project) Series 2007A, in two series, the Series 2007A Bonds in the amount of $5,545,000 and the Series 2007B Bonds in the amount of $2,490,000 (collectively, the “Series 2007 Bonds”), the proceeds of which were loaned to the Corporation to finance the construction of an intermodal parking facility and a stadium for the benefit of the University. The Series 2007 Bonds are currently outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $3,970,000.

The Series 2007 Bonds are payable from the University’s Student Parking Fees (as defined in the First Supplemental Facilities Lease) and Auxiliary Revenues, which are a component of Housing Lawfully Available Funds. As described above, the Parity Bonds, including the Series 2019 Bonds, are payable from Housing Lawfully Available Funds and are not secured by the same primary source of revenues as the Series 2007 Bonds. The Parity Bonds and the Series 2007 Bonds are secured equally by Auxiliary Revenues; however, the University has historically utilized Student Parking Fees as the sole source of payment for the Series 2007 Bonds and has not been reliant upon Auxiliary Revenues to pay debt service on the Series 2007 Bonds. Accordingly, debt service coverage calculations related to the Parity Bonds do not include Student Parking Fees or debt service on the Series 2007 Bonds. See “APPENDIX A – DEBT MANAGEMENT” for a historical calculation of debt service coverage for the Series 2007 Bonds based solely on Student Parking Fees. See “DEBT SERVICE COVERAGE” herein for historical and pro-forma calculations of debt service coverage on the Parity Bonds.

The Series 2019 Bonds are special limited obligations of the Authority payable from the Trust Estate held for the benefit of the Bondholders pursuant to the Indenture. The Series 2019 Bonds are not payable from any other revenues, funds, or assets of the Authority. The Trust Estate will include: (i) all right, title, and interest of the Authority in, to and under the Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease, the Facilities Lease and the Mortgage, and (ii) moneys held in funds and accounts (other than the Rebate Fund) established pursuant to the Indenture.

RENTAL PAYMENTS

In consideration of the Corporation entering into the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease, the Board will agree in the Facilities Lease to make payments of Base Rental and Additional Rental (together, the "Rental Payments") from Housing Lawfully Available Funds (as defined below). The Base Rental amount will be in an amount equal to the principal of, premium, if any, and interest due on the Parity Bonds. Base Rental will also include any amounts required to be paid into any funds established in the Indenture, including any debt service reserve funds for the Parity Bonds, or to make up any deficiency or to restore any loss resulting from investment and any other payment required to be made to such fund by the Indenture. In addition, the Board will agree to pay as Additional Rental any and all expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Corporation on behalf of the Board and/or by the Board in the management, operation, ownership, and/or maintenance of the Housing Facilities.

HOUSING LAWFULLY AVAILABLE FUNDS

"Housing Lawfully Available Funds" means all unrestricted funds available to the University and appropriated by the Board to make Rental Payments from any source, including but not limited to Rents and Auxiliary Revenues.

"Rents" means all revenues actually received from any source by, or on behalf the Board or the University with respect to the Housing Facilities, including without duplication, all collected rents and other charges for the use or occupancy of the Housing Facilities, parking charges and revenues, utility charges, vending machine and laundry machine revenues and forfeited security deposits relating to the Housing Facilities, and rental interruption insurance proceeds actually received by or on behalf of the Board or the University (net of the costs of collecting such proceeds), if any; excluding tenants' security deposits unless "Auxiliary Revenues" means the amount of all funds or revenues held by the University derived by Auxiliary Enterprises and any earnings thereof from the self-generated fees, rates, charges or income received by students, faculty or the public in connection with the utilization or operation of Auxiliary Enterprises after payment of any Auxiliary Enterprises expenses. The Auxiliary Enterprises of the University include the following, subject to modification from time to time: 1) student service fees for the operation of the University's ID Card Services, Student Health Center and Student Union 2) certain commissions received from Food Service contractors, Retail and Rental Bookstore operations and Vending operations and 3) the sales of copying services. Auxiliary Revenues shall not include student fees specifically assessed by the University to service any outstanding obligations or any capital funds received by outside contractors required to make building improvements for their delivery of services.

BUDGET PROCESS

The Rental Payments made by the Board under the Facilities Lease must be appropriated by the Board each year through the approval by the Board of the University's budget. Although the Assistant Vice President for Finance and Comptroller of the University will cause the University to include in the Budget an amount sufficient to make the Rental Payments under the Facilities Lease, there is no guarantee that the Board will approve such Budget. In the event the Board fails to budget the Rental Payments, the Trustee, on behalf of the Corporation, may terminate the Facilities Lease and re-let the Housing Facilities in accordance with the Permitted Use (as defined in the Facilities Lease).

The State is not, at any time whatsoever, obligated, committed or required to provide funds by legislative appropriation or any other means to pay debt service on the Parity Bonds, to pay Base Rental or Additional Rental, or to support the continued operation and maintenance of the Housing Facilities.

BOND INSURANCE

Concurrently with the issuance of the Bonds, Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. ("AGM") will issue its Municipal Bond Insurance Policy for the Bonds (the "Policy"). The Policy guarantees the scheduled payment of principal of and interest on the Bonds when due as set forth in the form of the Policy included as Appendix E to this Official Statement. The Policy is not covered by any insurance security or guaranty fund established under New York, California, Connecticut or Florida insurance law. See "BOND INSURANCE POLICY" herein.

DEBT SERVICE RESERVE FUND

The Indenture establishes a debt service reserve fund (the "Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund") for the benefit of the Series 2019 Bonds. The Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund is required to be funded at a level sufficient to maintain the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Requirement. "Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Requirement" means an amount equal to the lesser of: (i) 100% of the maximum annual debt service on the Series 2017 Bonds, (ii) 10% of the aggregate proceeds of the Series 2019 Bonds, or (iii) 125% of the aggregate average annual debt service on the Series 2019 Bonds.

The Indenture authorizes the Authority to satisfy the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement by obtaining a surety bond in place of fully funding the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund. On the date of issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds, Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. ("AGM") will issue a debt service reserve policy for the Series 2019 Bonds (the "Reserve Policy") in the amount of the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement. The premium for the Reserve Policy will be fully paid at or prior to the issuance and delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds. Additional information on AGM can be found under "BOND INSURANCE POLICY" herein. See "RESERVE FUND INSURANCE POLICY" herein.

FACILITIES LEASE SECURITY PROVISIONS

The following descriptions of the Facilities Lease do not purport to be comprehensive or definitive, and all descriptions herein are qualified in their entirety by reference to the financing documents attached hereto in APPENDIX C.

DEBT SERVICE COVERAGE RATIO

"Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities" means, for any Fiscal Year, the ratio determined by the Vice-President for Administration and Finance of the University by dividing the amount of Net Revenues of the Housing Facilities for such Fiscal Year by Annual Debt Service on the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds, the Series 2019 Bonds, and on any Additional Housing Debt issued and proposed to be issued on a parity therewith for such Fiscal Year; provided, however, that for the purpose of calculating the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities pursuant to subsection (i) of Section 3(i) of the Facilities Lease, to determine whether the Board may build, acquire or renovate any Additional Housing Facilities, the numerator of the fraction representing the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities shall be increased by the additional anticipated revenues, if any, to be derived from the Additional Housing Facilities constructed with the proceeds resulting from the Additional Housing Debt as certified by the Vice-President for Administration and Finance of the University.

“Net Revenues of the Housing Facilities” means, with respect to any period, the excess of the Rents (determined on a cash basis) over Operating Expenses (before extraordinary items) of the Series 2004 Facilities, the Series 2017 Facilities, and any Additional Housing Facilities, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and excluding: (a) any profits or losses on the sale or disposition, not in the ordinary course of business, of investments or fixed or capital assets or resulting from the early extinguishment of debt; (b) gifts, grants, bequests, donations and contributions, to the extent specifically restricted by the donor to a particular purposes inconsistent with their use for the payment of Annual Debt Service on the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds, the Series 2019 Bonds, or Additional Housing Debt; and (c) the net proceeds of insurance (other than business interruption insurance) and condemnation awards.

“Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University” means, for any Fiscal Year, the ratio determined by the Vice-President for Administration and Finance of the University by dividing (i) the amount of Housing Lawfully Available Funds for such Fiscal Year by (ii) Annual Debt Service on the Parity Bonds outstanding, and on any Additional Bonds proposed to be issued for such Fiscal Year.

RATE MAINTENANCE COVENANT

Pursuant to the Facilities Lease, the Board has covenanted and agreed to maintain a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities of not less than 1.10:1.00 and a Debt Service Coverage for the University of not less than 1.25:1.00. The Board covenants that, as long as any bonds, notes or lease obligations remain outstanding that are payable from Housing Lawfully Available Funds, if the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities falls below 1.10:1.00 or the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University falls below 1.25:1.0, the Board shall use its best efforts to raise its fees, rentals, rates and charges relating to the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities so that within two (2) full semesters after either of the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities or the Debt Service Coverage Ratio of the University becomes deficient, the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities equals 1.10:1.00 and the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University equals 1.25:1.0.

At the end of two (2) full semesters, if the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities is still below 1.10:1.00 or the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University is still below 1.25:1.0, the Board shall hire an outside consultant, approved by the Series 2017 Bond Insurer and the Series 2019 Bond Insurer, and the Board shall follow any reasonably feasible recommendations of such consultant regarding the operation and management of the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities, including raising fees and rents, reducing expenses and, if necessary, increasing the average occupancy rate through strict enforcement of parietal rules requiring students to reside on campus and, to the extent legally possible, revising parietal rules to increase the number of students required to reside on campus.

So long as the Board is working in good faith with such consultant to increase any deficient Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities or any deficient Debt Service Coverage Ratio of the University, there shall not be an Event of Default hereunder unless (i) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities is less than 1.00:1.00 at the end of any Fiscal Year or (ii) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University is less than 1.10 to 1.00 for two (2) full consecutive semesters after retention of an outside consultant by the Board.

For purposes of the foregoing, when establishing such fees, rentals, rates and charges and calculating the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities and the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University for this Section, the Board shall take into account payments required to be made into the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund, and the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund pursuant to the Indenture. The Board further covenants that it will seek any required approval necessary in order to comply with this covenant.

ADDITIONAL STUDENT HOUSING FACILITIES/ADDITIONAL DEBT

Without the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer, the University will not build, acquire, or renovate any similar student housing facilities, whether such facilities are owned by the University or a private entity, unless (A) the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities have met a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities of at least 1.25:1.00 for the prior Fiscal Year, (B) the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities are projected to meet a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities of at least 1.25:1.00 for the two Fiscal Years following the projected completion of the proposed facility and (C) based on a market analysis prepared by a market research company with experience in student or multi-family housing, which is independent from the University, the University’s proposed project is not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Series 2004 Facilities or the Series 2017 Facilities.

Such Additional Housing Facilities shall be incorporated with the existing Housing Facilities into a single student housing system so that all Rents derived from the existing Housing Facilities and such Additional Housing Facilities shall secure the Parity Bonds and any Additional Bonds issued to finance such Additional Housing Facilities. In addition, the Mortgage shall be amended to encumber such Additional Housing Facilities and any Rents derived therefrom to secure the Parity Bonds and any Additional Bonds issued to finance such Additional Housing Facilities.

INSURANCE

The University, at the direction of the Board, shall cause to be secured and maintained at the University's cost and expense: A policy or policies of insurance covering the Facilities against loss or damage by fire, lightning, earthquake, collapse, vandalism and malicious mischief, flood and storm surge, and against such other perils as are included in so-called "extended coverage" and against such other insurable perils as, under good insurance practice, from time to time are insured for properties of similar character and location, which insurance shall be not less than the full replacement cost of the Facilities, without deduction for depreciation. In the event that the Facilities are not repaired or replaced, insurance proceeds shall be no greater than the actual cash value (replacement cost less depreciation) of the Facilities at the time of the loss. The policy shall be adjusted to comply with any applicable co-insurance provisions of such insurance policy. Full payment of insurance proceeds shall not be contingent on the degree of damage sustained at other facilities leased by the Board. The policy or policies covering such loss must explicitly waive any co-insurance penalty.

The Corporation shall cause to be secured and maintained a policy of title insurance insuring the Corporation's leasehold interest under the Ground Lease in an amount equal to the par amount of the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds and the Series 2019 Bonds and also cause all construction professionals to secure and maintain policy or policies of insurance to cover all items set forth in the Facilities Lease.

CASUALTY OR EXPROPRIATION

The risk of loss or decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of the Facilities due to any damage or destruction thereof by acts of God, fire, flood, natural disaster, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, civil strife, lockout, war, nuclear explosion or otherwise (collectively "Casualty") or in consequence of any foreclosures, attachments, levies or executions; or the taking of all or any portion of the Facilities by condemnation, expropriation, or eminent domain proceedings (collectively "Expropriation") is expressly assumed by the Board. The Corporation and the Trustee shall in no event be answerable, accountable or liable therefor, nor shall any of the foregoing events entitle the Board to any abatements, set-offs or counter claims with respect to its Base Rental, Additional Rental or any obligation hereunder risk of loss or decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities due to any damage or destruction thereof by acts of God, fire, flood, natural disaster, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, civil strife, lockout, war, nuclear explosion or otherwise (collectively "Casualty") or in consequence of any foreclosures, attachments, levies or executions; or the taking of all or any portion of the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities by condemnation, expropriation, or eminent domain proceedings (collectively "Expropriation") is expressly assumed by the Board. The Corporation and the Trustee shall in no event be answerable, accountable or liable therefor, nor shall any of the foregoing events entitle the Board to any abatements, set-offs or counter claims with respect to its Base Rental, Additional Rental, or any other obligation under the Facilities Lease.

APPLICATION OF INSURANCE, CASUALTY OR EXPROPRIATION PROCEEDS

If during construction, all or any portion of the Facilities is damaged or destroyed by a Casualty, or is taken by Expropriation proceedings, the Board shall instruct the Corporation, as expeditiously as possible, to continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof; provided however, that the Corporation shall in no way be liable for any costs of the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities in excess of the proceeds of any insurance or of any Expropriation award received because of such Casualty or Expropriation. Following the completion of construction and acceptance of the Facilities by the Board on behalf of the Corporation, the Board shall, as expeditiously as possible, continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted, the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof. The proceeds of any insurance, including the proceeds of any self-insurance fund, or of any Expropriation award or payment in lieu of Expropriation, received on account of any damage, destruction or taking of all or any portion of the Facilities shall be delivered to the Trustee and held by the Trustee in trust (or in the case of self-insurance through ORM and shall be made available for, and to the extent necessary be applied to, such restoration, repair and replacement.

Any amounts so held by the Trustee shall be disbursed to pay the costs of restoration, replacement and repair of the Facilities with respect to which they are held, in each case promptly after receipt of a written request of the Corporation stating that the amount to be disbursed pursuant to such request will be used to pay costs of replacing or repairing or restoring the Facilities and that no amount previously has been disbursed by the Trustee for payment of the costs to be so paid. In making such payments, the Trustee may conclusively rely upon such written requests and shall have no liability or responsibility to investigate any matter stated therein, or for any inaccuracy or misstatement therein. In no event shall the Trustee be responsible for the adequacy of the plans and specifications or construction contract relating to the replacement, restoration, or repair of the Facilities, or for the improper use of moneys properly disbursed pursuant to request made under this Section. Any proceeds remaining on deposit with Trustee following completion of the repairs, restoration or replacement of the Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation's obligation to replace the Facilities in the event of Expropriation Proceedings is dependent on the Board entering into a lease with a different portion of the Campus as provided in the Ground Lease. In the event it is necessary to restore or replace the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion in a different location because of the Expropriation of all or a portion of the Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, the Corporation and the Board agree to amend or enter into a new Facilities Lease and Ground Lease in accordance with the Ground Lease. In the event the Board, pursuant to the Ground Lease, decides not to repair, restore or replace the Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation) shall be paid to the Board for immediate delivery to the Trustee and applied to the prepayment of the Bonds in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, and the Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease shall terminate on the date that the events described in the Ground Lease have occurred.

In the event that the Louisiana Office of Risk Management ("ORM") insures the Facilities, the Board shall use the insurance proceeds received from ORM in accordance with Policy and Procedure Memorandum Number 10 (requiring invoices to be submitted to ORM for payment to vendors, or alternatively, production of invoices paid by the Board to ORM for reimbursement of vendor payments) to effect the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities.

DEFAULT BY THE BOARD

If (i) the Board shall fail to deposit with the Trustee any Base Rental payment required to be so deposited pursuant to Section 6 of the Facilities Lease by the close of business on the day such deposit is required pursuant to Section 6 of the Facilities Lease, and shall fail to remedy such breach within five (5) days thereof, but in no event later than the date on which such payment is required to enable the Corporation to make payment on the Bonds (without use of moneys held in the Debt Service Reserve Fund), or (ii) the Board shall fail to pay or discharge any monetary obligation under this Lease (other than the payment of Base Rental) as and when due, or within thirty (30) days after receipt of Notice from the Corporation that such sums are due and owing; or (iii) the Board shall breach any non-monetary terms, covenants or conditions herein, and shall (except with respect to any breach of covenant set forth in Section 3(h) of the Facilities Lease, which Section contains the timeframe whereby the failure to meet the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Parking Facilities shall become and Event of Default) fail to remedy any such breach with all reasonable dispatch within a reasonable period of time (or such longer period as the Trustee may approve) after written notice thereof from the Corporation, the Bond Insurer, or the University to the Board, then and in any such event the Board shall be deemed to be in default hereunder, and the Corporation (with the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer) shall have the right, at its option, without any further demand or notice to terminate the Facilities Lease on the earliest date permitted by law or on any later date specified in any Notice given to the Board, in which case the Board's right to possession of the Facilities will cease and the Facilities Lease will be terminated, without, however, waiving the Corporation's right to collect all Rental and other payments due or owing for the period up to the time the Corporation regains possession (which have been approved for payment under the Facilities Lease, but not paid by the Board), and to enforce other obligations of the Board which survive termination of the Facilities Lease, and in such event the Corporation may without any further demand or notice re-enter the Facilities and eject all parties in possession thereof, subject to the rights of students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees. The foregoing remedies of the Corporation are in addition to and not exclusive of any other remedy of the Corporation. Any such re-entry shall be allowed by the Board without hindrance, and the Corporation shall not be liable in damages for any such re-entry or be guilty of trespass. The Corporation understands and agrees that upon its termination of the Board's right to possession of the Facilities or termination of the Facilities Lease, the Corporation upon its re-entry of the Facilities shall only be allowed to use the Facilities for the Permitted Use and shall be subject to all applicable Governmental Regulations heretofore or hereafter enacted by any Governmental Authority relating to the use and operation of the Facilities.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Facilities Lease, (i) in no event shall the Corporation have the right to accelerate the payment of any Base Rental payment hereunder and (ii) the Bond Insurer shall have ninety (90) days to cure an Event of Default hereunder.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Facilities Lease to the contrary, a failure by the Board to pay when due any payment required to be made under the Facilities Lease or a failure by the Board to observe and perform any covenant, condition or agreement on its part to be observed or performed under the Facilities Lease, resulting from a failure by the Board to appropriate moneys shall not constitute an Event of Default and the Corporation shall not have any of the remedial rights set forth in the Facilities Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in such event the Board acknowledges that the Facilities Lease shall terminate and the Board shall immediately vacate the Facilities, and deliver the Facilities to the Corporation.

NON-APPROPRIATION OF FUNDS

In the event no funds or insufficient funds are lawfully appropriated in any Fiscal Year enabling the payment of Base Rental and Additional Rental due during the next succeeding Fiscal Year, the Board will immediately notify the Corporation and the Trustee of such occurrence. On the first day of the month following the Base Rental payment date on which the last payment of Base Rental can be made in full from Housing Lawfully Available Funds, the Facilities Lease shall terminate without penalty or expense to the Board of any kind whatsoever, except as to the portions of Base Rental and Additional Rental payments herein agreed upon for Fiscal Years for which sufficient funds have been lawfully appropriated. In the event of such termination, the Board agrees peaceably to surrender possession of the Facilities to the Corporation on the date of such termination in its original condition (normal wear and tear excepted). The Corporation will have all legal and equitable rights and remedies to take possession of the Facilities and re-let or sell the Facilities as the Corporation determines and as granted in the Facilities Lease. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation's rights to take possession and to re-let or sell the Facilities under Section 29 of the Facilities Lease may be assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the owners of the Bonds, and the Board agrees that the Trustee shall be entitled to exercise all of the rights of the Corporation under Section 29. The event of an inability by the Board to cause the appropriation of sufficient funds for the payment of sums due under the Facilities Lease shall not constitute a default hereunder, but shall ipso facto terminate the Facilities Lease. This provision is operative notwithstanding any provisions of the Facilities Lease to the contrary. The Board shall be considered in default hereunder if sufficient funds are lawfully appropriated for the payment of Rental required under the Facilities Lease and the Board fails to use lawfully appropriated funds for the payment of Rental. In such event, the Corporation shall be entitled to the rights and remedies set forth in Sections 21 and 22 of the Facilities Lease.

DEBT SERVICE COVERAGE RATIO

"Net Revenues of the Housing Facilities" means, with respect to any period, the excess of the Rents (determined on a cash basis) over Operating Expenses (before extraordinary items) of the Series 2004 Facilities, the Series 2017 Facilities, and any Additional Housing Facilities, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and excluding: (a) any profits or losses on the sale or disposition, not in the ordinary course of business, of investments or fixed or capital assets or resulting from the early extinguishment of debt; (b) gifts, grants, bequests, donations and contributions, to the extent specifically restricted by the donor to a particular purpose inconsistent with their use for the payment of Annual Debt Service on the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds, the Series 2019 Bonds, or Additional Housing Debt; and (c) the net proceeds of insurance (other than business interruption insurance) and condemnation awards.

"Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities" means, for any Fiscal Year, the ratio determined by the Vice-President for Administration and Finance of the University by dividing the amount of Net Revenues of the Housing Facilities for such Fiscal Year by Annual Debt Service on the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds, the Series 2019 Bonds, and on any Additional Housing Debt issued and proposed to be issued on a parity therewith for such Fiscal Year; provided, however, that for the purpose of calculating the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities pursuant to subsection (i) of Section 3(i) of the Facilities Lease, to determine whether the Board may build, acquire or renovate any Additional Housing Facilities, the numerator of the fraction representing the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Student Housing Facilities shall be increased by the additional anticipated revenues, if any, to be derived from the Additional Housing Facilities constructed with the proceeds resulting from the Additional Housing Debt as certified by the Vice-President for Administration and Finance of the University.

"Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University" means, for any Fiscal Year, the ratio determined by the Vice-President for Administration and Finance of the University by dividing the amount of Housing Lawfully Available Funds for such Fiscal Year by Annual Debt Service on the Parity Bonds outstanding and on any Additional Housing Debt issued and proposed to be issued for such Fiscal Year.

* The Series 2007 Bonds are payable from the University's Student Parking Fees (as defined in the First Supplemental Facilities Lease) and Auxiliary Revenues, which are a component of Housing Lawfully Available Funds. As described above, the Parity Bonds, including the Series 2019 Bonds, are payable from Housing Lawfully Available Funds and are not secured by the same primary source of revenues as the Series 2007 Bonds. The Parity Bonds and the Series 2007 Bonds are secured equally by Auxiliary Revenues; however, the University has historically utilized Student Parking Fees as the sole source of payment for the Series 2007 Bonds and has not been reliant upon Auxiliary Revenues to pay the Series 2007 Bonds. Accordingly, debt service coverage calculations related to the Parity Bonds do not include Student Parking Fees or debt service on the Series 2007 Bonds. See "APPENDIX A – DEBT MANAGEMENT" for a historical calculation of debt service coverage for the Series 2007 Bonds based solely on Student Parking Fees.

 The decline in auxiliary revenues and expenses is due to Southeastern's decision to outsource textbook rentals. This decision will ensure the continued viability and sustainability of the program as well as provide the lowest possible cost to its students.

SERIES 2019 DEBT SERVICE FUND

The Series 2019 Debt Service Fund will be funded from the transfer of a portion of monies collected in the Receipts Fund. The Series 2019 Debt Service Fund will be applied as follows:

(a) Moneys on deposit in the Interest Account of the Series 2019 Debt Service Fund shall be used solely to pay the interest on the Series 2019 Bonds as it becomes due and payable, whether on an Interest Payment Date, at maturity, or upon acceleration.

(b) Moneys on deposit in the Principal Account of the Series 2019 Debt Service Fund shall be used solely to pay the principal of the Series 2019 Bonds as it becomes due and payable, whether at maturity, prior redemption, or upon scheduled sinking fund redemption; and, if funds are available for such purpose and at the written direction of the Authority as instructed in writing by the Corporation, to effect the redemption of the Series 2019 Bonds prior to their maturity in accordance with the redemption provisions of the Indenture or the purchase of Series 2019 Bonds prior to their maturity in the open market at a price not in excess of the then applicable redemption price (the principal amount thereof, premium, if any, plus accrued interest).

(c) Whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in the Interest Account or the Principal Account is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2019 Bonds, the Trustee shall transfer money to the Series 2019 Debt Service Fund from the Surplus Fund, the Replacement Fund, (both as defined herein) and the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund, in that order.

In the event that monies in the Series 2019 Debt Service Fund are insufficient to pay the scheduled principal and interest on the Series 2019 Bonds, the Trustee may make a claim for payment under the Reserve Policy and use the proceeds of such claim to pay principal and interest on the Series 2019 Bonds. The Trustee will transfer the amount so deposited in the Receipts Fund to the Debt Service Fund without distinction or priority. Moneys on deposit in the Receipts Fund will be withdrawn by the Trustee in accordance with the requirements of this Indenture and ratably on a parity therewith and applied in the following priority:

REPLACEMENT FUND

The Board has, among its other powers and duties, the budgetary responsibility for all public post-secondary education in the University of Louisiana System. The policies of the Board and the Louisiana Board of Regents (the "Board of Regents") require that the Corporation fund a Replacement Fund in an amount equal to the Replacement Fund Annual Funding Requirements. The Replacement Fund shall be maintained with the Trustee and used to fund the cost of replacing any worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable, or undesirable property, furniture, fixtures, or equipment placed upon or used in connection with the Facilities. Moneys in the Replacement Fund will also be transferred to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in such Accounts, together with money available therefor in the Surplus Fund, is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Bonds.

SURPLUS FUND

The Surplus Fund will continue to be maintained with the Trustee. Upon satisfaction of certain performance covenants contained in the Indenture, funds on deposit in the Surplus Fund at the end of any Fiscal Year may be transferred to the University. Until such transfer, moneys in the Surplus Fund will be available to be transferred to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in such Accounts is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Parity Bonds.

REDEMPTION DATE (AUGUST 1)	PRINCIPAL AMOUNT

PARTIAL REDEMPTION

Unless otherwise specified above, if fewer than all of the Series 2019 Bonds are called for redemption, the Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed will be in inverse order of their maturity and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed will be in an integral multiple at $5,000. If a portion of any Series 2019 Bond is called for redemption, a new Series 2019 Bond in a principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof will be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

This eliminates the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct Participants include both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations. DTC is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation ("DTCC"). DTCC is the holding company for DTC, National Securities Clearing Corporation and Fixed Income Clearing Corporation, all of which are registered clearing agencies. DTCC is owned by the users of its regulated subsidiaries. Access to the DTC system is also available to others such as both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Direct Participant, either directly or indirectly ("Indirect Participants"). DTC has a Standard & Poor's rating of "AA+". The DTC Rules applicable to its Participants are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. More information about DTC can be found at www.dtcc.com.

Purchases of Series 2019 Bonds under the DTC system must be made by or through Direct Participants, which will receive a credit for the Series 2019 Bonds on DTC's records. The ownership interest of each actual purchaser of each Bond ("Beneficial Owner") is in turn to be recorded on the Direct and Indirect Participants' records. Beneficial Owners will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchase. Beneficial Owners are, however, expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the Direct or Indirect Participant through which the Beneficial Owner entered into the transaction. Transfers of ownership interests in the Series 2019 Bonds are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of Direct and Indirect Participants acting on behalf of Beneficial Owners. Beneficial Owners will not receive bonds representing their ownership interests in Series 2019 Bonds, except in the event that use of the book-entry system for the Series 2019 Bonds is discontinued.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all Series 2019 Bonds deposited by the Direct Participants with DTC are registered in the name of DTC's partnership nominee, Cede & Co., or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. The deposit of Series 2019 Bonds with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. or such other DTC nominee do not affect any change in beneficial ownership. DTC has no knowledge of the actual Beneficial Owners of the Series 2019 Bonds; DTC's records reflect only the identity of the Direct Participants to whose accounts such Series 2019 Bonds are credited, which may or may not be the Beneficial Owners. The Direct and Indirect Participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to Direct Participants, by Direct Participants to Indirect Participants, and by Direct Participants and Indirect Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time.

Redemption notices shall be sent to DTC. If less than all the Series 2019 Bonds within an issue are being redeemed, DTC's practice is to determine by lot the amount of the interest of each Direct Participant in such issue to be redeemed.

Neither DTC nor Cede & Co. (nor any other DTC nominee) will consent or vote with respect to the Series 2019 Bonds unless authorized by a Direct Participant in accordance with DTC's procedures. Under its usual procedures, DTC mails an Omnibus Proxy to the Trustee as soon as possible after the record date. The Omnibus Proxy assigns Cede & Co.'s consenting or voting rights to those Direct Participants to whose accounts Series 2019 Bonds are credited on the record date (identified in a listing attached to the Omnibus Proxy).

Principal and interest payments on the Series 2019 Bonds will be made to Cede & Co., or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. DTC's practice is to credit Direct Participants' accounts upon DTC's receipt of funds and corresponding detail information from the Trustee, on each payable date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC's records. Payments by Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name," and will be the responsibility of such Participant and not of DTC, nor its nominee, the Trustee or the Authority, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Payment of principal and interest to Cede & Co., or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC is the responsibility of the Trustee; disbursement of such payments to the Direct Participants shall be the responsibility of DTC; and disbursement of such payments to the Beneficial Owners shall be the responsibility of Direct and Indirect Participants.

DTC may discontinue providing its services as depository with respect to the Series 2019 Bonds at any time by giving reasonable notice to the Trustee. Under such circumstances, in the event that a successor depository is not named, Series 2019 Bonds are required to be printed and delivered.

The Authority may decide to discontinue use of the system of book-entry-only transfers through DTC (or a successor Series 2019 Bonds depository). In that event, Series 2019 Bonds will be printed and delivered to DTC.

THE ISSUER, THE BOARD, THE CORPORATION, THE TRUSTEE AND THE UNDERWRITERS CANNOT AND DO NOT GIVE ANY ASSURANCES THAT THE DIRECT PARTICIPANTS OR THE INDIRECT PARTICIPANTS WILL DISTRIBUTE TO THE BENEFICIAL OWNERS OF THE SERIES 2019 BONDS, (i) PAYMENTS OF PRINCIPAL OF OR INTEREST ON THE SERIES 2019 BONDS, (ii) CERTIFICATES REPRESENTING AN OWNERSHIP INTEREST OR OTHER CONFIRMATION OF BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP INTERESTS IN THE SERIES 2019 BONDS, OR (iii) REDEMPTION OR OTHER NOTICES SENT TO DTC OR CEDE & CO., ITS NOMINEE, AS THE REGISTERED OWNERS OF THE SERIES 2019 BONDS, OR THAT THEY WILL DO SO ON A TIMELY BASIS OR THAT DTC OR DIRECT PARTICIPANTS OR INDIRECT PARTICIPANTS WILL SERVE AND ACT IN THE MANNER DESCRIBED IN THIS OFFICIAL STATEMENT. THE CURRENT "RULES" APPLICABLE TO DTC ARE ON FILE WITH THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION AND THE CURRENT "PROCEDURES" OF DTC TO BE FOLLOWED IN DEALING WITH DTC PARTICIPANTS ARE ON FILE WITH DTC.

NEITHER THE ISSUER, THE BOARD, THE CORPORATION, THE TRUSTEE OR THE UNDERWRITERS WILL HAVE ANY RESPONSIBILITY OR OBLIGATIONS TO SUCH DTC PARTICIPANTS OR THE BENEFICIAL OWNERS WITH RESPECT TO: (1) THE SERIES 2019 BONDS; (2) THE ACCURACY OF ANY RECORDS MAINTAINED BY DTC OR ANY DTC PARTICIPANT; (3) THE PAYMENT BY ANY DTC PARTICIPANT OF ANY AMOUNT DUE TO ANY BENEFICIAL OWNER IN RESPECT OF THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF OR INTEREST ON THE SERIES 2019 BONDS; (4) THE DELIVERY BY ANY DTC PARTICIPANT OF ANY NOTICE TO ANY BENEFICIAL OWNER WHICH IS REQUIRED OR PERMITTED UNDER THE TERMS OF THE INDENTURE TO BE GIVEN TO HOLDERS OF THE SERIES 2019 BONDS; (5) THE SELECTION OF THE BENEFICIAL OWNERS TO RECEIVE PAYMENT IN THE EVENT OF ANY PARTIAL REDEMPTION OF THE SERIES 2019 BONDS; OR (6) ANY CONSENT GIVEN OR OTHER ACTION TAKEN BY DTC AS HOLDER OF THE SERIES 2019 BONDS.

In reading this Official Statement, it should be understood that while the Series 2019 Bonds are in the book-entry only system, references in other sections of this Official Statement to Registered Owners should be read to include the person for which the Participant acquires an interest in the Series 2019 Bonds, but (i) all rights of ownership must be exercised through DTC and the book-entry only system, and (ii) except as described above, notices that are to be given to Registered Owners under the Indenture will be given only to DTC.

BOND INSURANCE POLICY

BOND INSURANCE POLICY

Concurrently with the issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds, Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. ("AGM") will issue its Municipal Bond Insurance Policy for the Series 2019 Bonds (the "Policy"). The Policy guarantees the scheduled payment of principal of and interest on the Series 2019 Bonds when due as set forth in the form of the Policy included as Appendix E to this Official Statement.

The Policy is not covered by any insurance security or guaranty fund established under New York, California, Connecticut or Florida insurance law.

ASSURED GUARANTY MUNICIPAL CORP.

AGM is a New York domiciled financial guaranty insurance company and an indirect subsidiary of Assured Guaranty Ltd. ("AGL"), a Bermuda-based holding company whose shares are publicly traded and are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "AGO". AGL, through its operating subsidiaries, provides credit enhancement products to the U.S. and global public finance, infrastructure and structured finance markets. Neither AGL nor any of its shareholders or affiliates, other than AGM, is obligated to pay any debts of AGM or any claims under any insurance policy issued by AGM.

AGM's financial strength is rated "AA" (stable outlook) by S&P Global Ratings, a business unit of Standard & Poor's Financial Services LLC ("S&P"), "AA+" (stable outlook) by Kroll Bond Rating Agency, Inc. ("KBRA") and "A2" (stable outlook) by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's"). Each rating of AGM should be evaluated independently. An explanation of the significance of the above ratings may be obtained from the applicable rating agency. The above ratings are not recommendations to buy, sell or hold any security, and such ratings are subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the rating agencies, including withdrawal initiated at the request of AGM in its sole discretion. In addition, the rating agencies may at any time change AGM's long-term rating outlooks or place such ratings on a watch list for possible downgrade in the near term. Any downward revision or withdrawal of any of the above ratings, the assignment of a negative outlook to such ratings or the placement of such ratings on a negative watch list may have an adverse effect on the market price of any security guaranteed by AGM. AGM only guarantees scheduled principal and scheduled interest payments payable by the issuer of bonds insured by AGM on the date(s) when such amounts were initially scheduled to become due and payable (subject to and in accordance with the terms of the relevant insurance policy), and does not guarantee the market price or liquidity of the securities it insures, nor does it guarantee that the ratings on such securities will not be revised or withdrawn.

The policyholders' surplus of AGM and the contingency reserves, net unearned premium reserves and deferred ceding commission income of AGM and MAC were determined in accordance with statutory accounting principles. RESERVE FUND INSURANCE POLICY

GENERAL

The Indenture establishes a debt service reserve fund (the "Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund") for the benefit of the Series 2019 Bonds. The Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund is required to be funded at a level sufficient to maintain the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Requirement. "Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Requirement" means an amount equal to the lesser of: (i) 100% of the maximum annual debt service on the Series 2019 Bonds, (ii) 10% of the aggregate proceeds of the Series 2019 Bonds, or (iii) 125% of the aggregate average annual debt service on the Series 2019 Bonds.

The Indenture authorizes the Authority to satisfy the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement by obtaining a surety bond in place of fully funding the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund. On the date of issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds, Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. ("AGM") will issue a debt service reserve insurance policy for the Series 2019 Bonds (the "Reserve Policy") in the amount of the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement. The premium for the Reserve Policy will be fully paid at or prior to the issuance and delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds. Additional information on AGM can be found under "BOND INSURANCE POLICY" herein.

WITHDRAWALS OF FUNDS FROM RESERVE FUND

Under the Indenture, the Trustee is required to ascertain the necessity for a claim upon the Reserve Policy in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture and provide notice to the Bond Insurer in accordance with the terms of the Reserve Policy at least three (3) Business Days prior to each date upon which interest or principal is due on the Series 2019 Bonds.

REIMBURSEMENT

Repayment of draws under the Reserve Policy and payment of expenses and accrued interest thereon at the Late Payment Rate (collectively, "Policy Costs") is required to commence in the first month following each draw, and each monthly payment is required to be in an amount at least equal to 1/12th of the aggregate of Policy Costs related to such draw.

BONDHOLDER RISKS

Purchasers of the Series 2019 Bonds are advised of certain risk factors with respect to the Corporation, the Board and the University. This discussion of risk factors is not, and is not intended to be, exhaustive, and should be read in conjunction with APPENDIX A and APPENDIX B hereto.

THE BOARD AND THE UNIVERSITY

There are a number of factors affecting institutions of higher education in general, including the University, that could have an adverse effect on the Board's financial position and its ability to make the payments of Base Rental required under the Facilities Lease. These factors include the rising costs of providing higher education services; the expected decline in the number of college-age persons in the country generally; the failure to maintain or increase in the future the funds obtained by the Board from other sources, including gifts and contributions from donors, grants or appropriations from governmental bodies and income from investment of endowment funds; adverse results from the investment of endowment funds; increasing costs of compliance with federal or State regulatory laws or regulations, including, without limitation, laws or regulations concerning environmental quality, work safety and accommodating the handicapped; and legislation or regulations which may affect student aid and other program funding. The Board cannot assess or predict the ultimate effect of these factors on its operations or financial results of operations, including its ability to generate lawfully available funds sufficient to enable it to make the required payments under the Facilities Lease.

STATE APPROPRIATIONS TO THE UNIVERSITY

Although the Rental Payments paid by the Board pursuant to the Facilities Lease will be paid from Lawfully Available Funds and not from funds appropriated by the State to the Board, on behalf of the University, State appropriations are a significant source of funding for the University. Various factors outside the control of the Board and the University may materially alter the funding levels from the State and the timing of the Board's receipt of funds appropriated by the State. In addition, the State Legislature could change the process by which it makes appropriations to the Board, for the benefit of the University. Any significant changes in the level of State appropriations or to the timing or procedures pursuant to which State appropriations are paid to the Board, for the benefit of the university, could materially alter the University's finances.

Due to numerous financial factors, the State's total revenues declined by $1.75 billion or 6% between the fiscal years 2009 to fiscal year 2016. During this time, the State attempted to balance its budget primarily through cuts in expenditures and through the use of one time surplus funds. In this period, the State reduced the amount of general fund appropriations to the University by $46.7 million or 62%. Over the same period, tuition, fees and other self-generated revenue were increased by $39.4 million, which mitigated the reductions in State general fund appropriations. State funding now comprises 25% of the University's total operating budget, while tuition, fees and self-generated revenues now comprise 75% of the University's total operating budget. State's total revenues declined by $1.75 billion or 6% between the fiscal years 2009 to fiscal year 2016. During this time, the State attempted to balance its budget primarily through cuts in expenditures and through the use of one time surplus funds. In this period, the State reduced the amount of general fund appropriations to the University by $46.7 million or 62%. Over the same period, tuition, fees and other self-generated revenue were increased by $39.4 million, which mitigated the reductions in State general fund appropriations. State funding now comprises 25% of the University's total operating budget, while tuition, fees and self-generated revenues now comprise 75% of the University's total operating budget.

In 2018, the University's operating budget was approximately $122 million, which is an increase of approximately $5.4 million when compared to fiscal year 2017. Reduction in state support of approximately $1.9 million was offset by an increase in self-generated revenues to the University.

In 2018, after years of special sessions and temporary budget patches, the Louisiana Legislature took significant steps toward stabilizing the state's finances through at least 2025. In the spring legislative session, the Louisiana Legislature renewed a portion of an expiring 1 cent sales tax that was set to roll off the books at year end by extending nine-twentieths, or .45, of the 1 cent sales tax or 45 percent effective July 1, 2018 and expiring on June 30 of 2025. The partially renewed sales tax generates almost $500M in revenue and is not set to expire until 2025 and may be available to provide additional funding in areas that have been cut over the past few years.

In 2019, anticipated operating revenue for the University will approach approximately $124 million dollars. This increase is due to an increase in self-generated revenue and relatively flat state support.

While the State will experience fewer budget cuts over the near term future, neither the Board nor the University are able to make any prediction or representations regarding the future status of the State budget or the level of future State appropriations to the University. Although State general fund appropriations now constitute a much lower percentage of the University's operating budget than in the past, State appropriations remain essential to the University's continued operation.

The Rental Payments payable by the Board under the Facilities Lease are payable solely from Housing Lawfully Available Funds as provided herein. Housing Lawfully Available Funds do not include funds appropriated to the University by the Legislature of the State from time to time. The Board is not legally committed, obligated or required to make available any other funds to make the Rental Payments.

BUDGET PROCESS

The Rental Payments made by the Board under the Facilities Lease must be appropriated by the Board each year through the approval by the Board of the University's budget. Although the Assistant Vice President for Finance and Controller of the University will cause the University to include in the Budget an amount sufficient to make the Rental Payments under the Facilities Lease, there is no guarantee that the Board will approve such Budget. In the event the Board fails to budget the Rental Payments, the Trustee, on behalf of the Corporation, may terminate the Facilities Lease and re-let the Housing Facilities in accordance with the Permitted Use (as defined in the Fourth Supplemental Facilities Lease).

The State is not, at any time whatsoever, obligated, committed or required to provide funds by legislative appropriation or any other means to pay debt service on the Parity Bonds, to pay Base Rental or Additional Rental, or to support the continued operation and maintenance of the Series 2017 Facilities.

CHANGES TO THE TAYLOR OPPORTUNITY PROGRAM FOR STUDENTS

The State's Taylor Opportunity Program for Students (TOPS) is a program of state funded scholarships for Louisiana resident students who attend one of the State's public or private universities. A merit-based scholarship, TOPS is given to any eligible Louisiana student who meets the program minimum requirements. For eligible students, the award has historically covered the basic tuition cost at a Louisiana public university. Approximately 35% of students at the University are recipients of a TOPS scholarship. As a result, it is a significant resource for students, with more than $24,000,000 in undergraduate tuition revenues funded by this program in the 2017-2018 fiscal year.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2016, the State Legislature provided funding for TOPS aid to public higher education at 70% or approximately $210,000,000. For fiscal year 2018-2019, however, the adopted budget provides funding for TOPS aid at 100% or approximately $291,000,000.

SELECTIVE ADMISSIONS STANDARDS

Prior to the Fall 2000 semester, the University maintained an open admissions standard, whereby persons with high school diplomas or their equivalent could enroll as a new student at the University regardless of grade point average or college entrance exam scores. Beginning the Fall 2000 semester, the University implemented selective admissions standards, whereby students may, with certain exceptions, enroll at the University only if they achieve certain standards to include grade point averages and college entrance exams. Following implementation of the selective admissions standards, enrollment at the University dropped slightly and, although enrollment is currently reaching levels maintained prior to the implementation of the selective admissions standards, no assurance can be given that current enrollment levels will be maintained. However, admissions standards were raised again in 2004 and 2005 and additional admissions standards were implemented in 2010 and 2012 with little to no impact on overall enrollment. In 2014, admissions requirements were again adjusted to exclude all developmental requirements. As a result of this action, even though the overall enrollment decreased slightly, the University experienced increases in retention and in the number of students in good standing. Enrollment has remained stable, as the University has consistently enrolled nearly 15,000 students since 2008.

APPROVAL FOR FEES AND CIVIL FINES

Constitutional Article VII, Section 2.1. Article VII, §2.1 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana of 1974, as amended (the “Louisiana Constitution”), requires that any new fee or civil fine or increase in an existing fee or civil fine imposed or assessed by the State or any board, department or agency of the State shall require the enactment of a law by a two-thirds vote of the elected members of each house of the Louisiana Legislature. It is unclear whether this constitutional provision should be applied to any fees, rates and charges for the use of the Auxiliary Facilities of the University and the services provided thereby or any increases thereof which form part of the Auxiliary Revenues. On October 9, 1996, the Louisiana Attorney General issued Opinion Number 96-353, which opined that, for purposes of Article VII, §2.1 of the Louisiana Constitution, the word “fee” does not include charges for auxiliary and self-generated operations of Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College (“LSU”), such as for food services, book store merchandise, medical or veterinary services, student housing and admittance to extracurricular events. This opinion was based on the rationale that the term “fee” as used in Article VII, §2.1 of the Louisiana Constitution should be restricted to only those charges assessed by a governmental entity for the purpose of defraying the costs of providing a governmental service or the costs of regulating a particular area. Therefore, according to the opinion, charges assessed by the University for the provision of higher education would be considered fees, but charges which are for services or products which are not directly a part of the delivery of an education are not considered fees. Opinions of the Louisiana Attorney General are advisory only and are not binding in any court of law.

In litigation brought by an LSU student against the Board of Supervisors of Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College (the “LSU Board”) (civil action filed on October 16, 2003 captioned Donald C. Hodge, Jr. vs. Board of Supervisors of Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College, Number 512,930, Section “D”) which sought to enjoin the LSU Board from implementing a football ticket pricing policy as a violation of Article VII, §2.1 of the Louisiana Constitution, the 19th Judicial District Court (the “Trial Court”) ruled that the LSU Board’s adoption of a new general pricing policy for home football games did not constitute implementation or assessment of a fee under Article VII, §2.1 of the Louisiana Constitution that would require approval by a vote of two-thirds of each house of the Louisiana Legislature. The Trial Court decision was appealed by Hodge to the Louisiana First Circuit Court of Appeal (the “Appellate Court”). In affirming the Trial Court’s decision, the Appellate Court, as did the Trial Court, agreed with the reasoning of the Louisiana Attorney General that the Louisiana Legislature has evidenced no intent to have oversight over “fees” with respect to LSU, other than those fees directly connected with LSU’s principal governmental function of providing higher education to the citizens of the State.

The Trial Court ruled on the Hodge action on November 18, 2003 and the Appellate Court rendered its affirming decision on December 23, 2003. The Louisiana Supreme Court denied writs on March 11, 2004. While the Hodge action does not directly address the Auxiliary Revenues of the University, the above described reasoning of the Louisiana Attorney General was followed by the courts in this first judicial interpretation of Article VII, §2.1 of the Louisiana Constitution.

There can be no assurance, absent favorable judicial interpretation specifically as to the Auxiliary Revenues, from which a portion of the Base Rental is payable, that Article VII, §2.1 of the Louisiana Constitution does not apply to the student fees which constitute a portion of the Auxiliary Revenues. In the event this constitutional provision does apply, neither the Board nor the University could increase the student fees or impose a new student fees without a two-thirds favorable vote of each house of the Louisiana Legislature.

LITIGATION

While there may be lawsuits pending involving either the University or the Board, it is not possible to confer with every attorney handling such matters. Furthermore, it would be impossible to predict the outcome of all such cases. However, to the extent that there are adverse judgments in excess of the Board’s insurance policy limits, such judgment may be satisfied only through appropriation by the Louisiana Legislature because Board assets are not available to satisfy such judgments. See “Difficulties in Enforcing Rights and Remedies” below.

DIFFICULTIES IN ENFORCING RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

The remedies available to the Trustee or the owners of the Series 2019 Bonds upon an event of default under the Indenture or the Facilities Lease are in many respects dependent upon judicial actions which are often subject to discretion and delay. Under existing constitutional and statutory law and judicial decisions, including specifically Title 11 of the United States Code (the federal bankruptcy code), the rights and remedies provided in the Indenture and any other agreement with respect to the Series 2019 Bonds or in the Facilities Lease, and the rights and remedies of any party seeking to enforce the pledge of Housing Lawfully Available Funds may not be readily available or may be limited. The State Constitution provides that no judgment against the State, a state agency, or a political subdivision may be enforced by the seizure and sale of property of the Board but shall be eligible, payable, or paid only from funds appropriated therefor by the State Legislature or by the political subdivision against which judgment is rendered.

The various legal opinions delivered concurrently with the delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds will be qualified as to the enforceability of the various legal instruments by limitations imposed by general principles of equity and by bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency or other similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally and the provisions of State law regarding enforceability of judgments against public entities. The exceptions would encompass any exercise of federal, State or local police powers (including the police powers of the University and the State) in a manner consistent with public health and welfare, and the applicability of Article VII, § 2.1 of the Constitution to the imposition or increase in charges imposed by the University. Enforceability of the Indenture and the Facilities Lease, and availability of remedies to a party seeking to enforce the payment of the Housing Lawfully Available Funds where such enforcement or availability may adversely affect public health and welfare, may be subject to these police powers.

COMPETITION

Competition from other higher education facilities located within and outside the State, both public and private, may offer comparable educational opportunities at competitive pricing levels. The cost of tuition at the University is competitive with other higher education institutions within the State, however, no assurance can be given that current enrollment levels will be maintained and that the Board will be able to generate Housing Lawfully Available Funds sufficient to enable it to make required payments under the Facilities Lease.

SPECIAL NATURE OF THE FACILITIES

All Housing Facilities have been constructed to serve as student housing facilities and are located on the campus of the University. If it were necessary to sell the Corporation's interest in the Ground Lease pursuant to the Mortgage upon an Event of Default, the special use nature of the Facilities and the fact that the interest to be sold is in the nature of a leasehold interest and subject to the terms of the Ground Lease may curtail the purchase price that could be obtained, and the net proceeds received may be less than the principal amount of the Parity Bonds. For all practical purposes, payment of the Parity Bonds is dependent upon the continued occupancy and operation of the Housing Facilities.

TAX-EXEMPT STATUS OF THE SERIES 2019 BONDS

The excludability from gross income for federal income taxation purposes of the interest on the Series 2019 Bonds is based on the continuing compliance by the Corporation and the Board with certain covenants contained in the Second Supplemental Indenture and the Tax Agreement. These covenants relate generally to restrictions on the use of the facilities financed with the proceeds of the Series 2004B Bonds, arbitrage limitations, and rebate of certain excess investment earnings, if any, to the federal government. Failure to comply with such covenants could cause interest on the Series 2019 Bonds to become subject to federal income taxation retroactive to the date of issuance on the Series 2019 Bonds.

Additionally, from time to time there are legislative proposals in the Congress and in the states that, if enacted, could alter or amend the federal and state tax matters referred to herein or adversely affect the market value of the Series 2019 Bonds. See "TAX EXEMPTION – Changes in Federal and State Tax Law" herein.

CONSEQUENCES OF CHANGES IN THE CORPORATION'S TAX STATUS

The Corporation has obtained a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that it will be treated as an exempt organization as described in §501(c)(3) of the Code and can reasonably be expected to not be classified as a "private foundation." In order to maintain its exempt status and to not be considered a private foundation, the Corporation will be subject to a number of requirements affecting its operation. The possible modification or repeal of certain existing federal income tax laws, the change of Internal Revenue Service policies or positions, the change of the Corporation's method of operations, purposes or character or other factors could result in loss by the Corporation of its tax-exempt status.

The Corporation will covenant to cause to remain eligible for such tax-exempt status and to avoid operating the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities as an unrelated trade or business (as determined by applying §512(a) of the Code). Failure of the Series 2017 Facilities to remain so qualified or of the Corporation so to operate the Series 2004 Facilities and the Series 2017 Facilities could affect the funds available to the Corporation for payments under the Loan Agreement by subjecting the Corporation to federal income taxation and could result in the loss of the excludability of interest on the Series 2019 Bonds from gross income for purposes of federal income taxation. See "Effect of Determination of Taxability" below.

EFFECT OF DETERMINATION OF TAXABILITY

The Corporation will covenant not to take any action that would cause the Series 2019 Bonds to be arbitrage bonds or that would otherwise adversely affect the federal income tax status of interest in the Series 2019 Bonds. The Corporation will also make representations with respect to certain matters within their knowledge that have been relied on by Bond Counsel and that Bond Counsel has not independently verified. Failure to comply with such covenants could cause interest on the Series 2019 Bonds to become subject to federal income taxation retroactively from their date of issuance.

It is possible that a period of time may elapse between the occurrence of the event that causes interest to become taxable and the determination that such an event has occurred. In such a case, interest previously paid on the Series 2019 Bonds could become retroactively taxable from the date of their issuance. Additionally, certain owners of Series 2019 Bonds are subject to possible adverse tax consequences. See "TAX EXEMPTION" herein.

SECONDARY MARKET

There is no guarantee that a secondary trading market will develop for the Series 2019 Bonds. Consequently, prospective Series 2019 Bond purchasers should be prepared to hold their Series 2019 Bonds to maturity or prior redemption. Subject to applicable securities laws and prevailing market conditions, the Underwriters intend, but are not obligated, to make a market in the Series 2019 Bonds.

FAILURE TO PROVIDE CONTINUING DISCLOSURE

The Board will enter into an Undertaking pursuant to the Rule (as such terms are defined herein). Failure to comply with the Undertaking and the Rule may adversely affect the transferability and liquidity of the Series 2019 Bonds and their market price. See "CONTINUING DISCLOSURE" herein.

BOOK-ENTRY

Persons who purchase Series 2019 Bonds through DTC participants become creditors of the DTC Participant with respect to the Series 2019 Bonds. Records of the investors' holdings are maintained only by the DTC Participant and the investor. In the event of the insolvency of the DTC Participant, the investor would be required to look to the DTC Participant's estate and to any insurance maintained by the DTC Participant, to make good the investor's loss. Neither the Authority, the Corporation, the Board, the University, the Trustee, nor the Underwriters are responsible for failures to act by, or insolvencies of, the Securities Depository or any DTC Participant. See "BOOK-ENTRY ONLY SYSTEM" herein.

LEGAL MATTERS

The Series 2019 Bonds are offered when, as and if issued, subject to approval of legality by Jones Walker LLP, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Bond Counsel. Certain legal matters will be passed upon by Mahtook & La Fleur, LLC, Lafayette, Louisiana, counsel to the Underwriters, The Becknell Law Firm, APC, Metairie, Louisiana, counsel to the Authority, DeCuir, Clark & Adams, LLP, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, counsel to the Board, and Jones Fussell, LLP, Covington, Louisiana, counsel to the Corporation.

TAX EXEMPTION

GENERAL

In the opinion of Jones Walker LLP, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Bond Counsel, subject to the discussion below, interest on the Series 2019 Bonds (and original issue discount treated as interest (see discussion below)) is excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes under existing statutes, regulations, published rulings and judicial decisions. As hereinafter described under the section labeled "Alternative Minimum Tax Considerations", interest on the Series 2019 Bonds (and original issue discount treated as interest) will not be an item of tax preference for purposes of the federal alternative minimum tax.

The Code imposes a number of requirements that must be satisfied for interest on state and local obligations to be excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes. These requirements include limitations on the use of bond proceeds and the source of repayment of bonds, limitations on the investment of bond proceeds prior to expenditure, a requirement that excess arbitrage earned on the investment of certain bond proceeds be paid periodically to the United States government, except under certain circumstances, and a requirement that information reports be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. In rendering the foregoing opinions, Bond Counsel will assume continuing compliance by the Authority and the Corporation with the provisions of the Indenture and the Loan Agreement subsequent to the issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds which affect the exclusion from gross income of all amounts treated as interest on the Series 2019 Bonds. In addition, Bond Counsel will rely upon certain representations and certifications of the Corporation made in certificates dated the date of initial delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds pertaining to the use, expenditure and investment of the proceeds of the Series 2019 Bonds. These representations relate to matters that are solely within the knowledge of the Corporation, which Bond Counsel has not verified. The Indenture and the Loan Agreement contain certain covenants by the Authority and the Corporation with respect to, among other matters, the above requirements. Failure of the Corporation to comply with any of the covenants may result in interest on the Series 2019 Bonds being included in the gross income of the owners thereof from the date of issue of the Series 2019 Bonds.

Prospective purchasers of the Series 2019 Bonds should be aware that ownership of tax-exempt obligations may result in collateral federal income tax consequences to financial institutions, property and casualty insurance companies, individual recipients of Social Security or Railroad Retirement benefits and taxpayers who may be deemed to have incurred or continued indebtedness to purchase or carry tax-exempt obligations. In addition, certain foreign corporations doing business in the United States may be subject to the "branch profits tax" on their effectively connected earnings and profits including tax-exempt interest such as interest on the Series 2019 Bonds. These categories of prospective purchasers should consult their own tax advisors as to the applicability of these consequences.

ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX CONSIDERATION

Interest on the Bonds is not an item of tax preference for purposes of the federal alternative minimum tax.

ORIGINAL ISSUE PREMIUM AND DISCOUNT

Certain maturities of the Series 2019 Bonds may be offered and sold to the public at a price in excess of their stated principal amounts (the "Premium Bonds"). Such excess is characterized as a "bond premium" and must be amortized by an investor purchasing a Premium Bond on a constant yield over the remaining term of the Premium Bond in a manner that takes into account potential call dates and call prices. An investor cannot deduct amortized bond premium related to a tax-exempt bond for federal income tax purposes. However, as bond premium is amortized, it reduces the investor's tax basis in the Premium Bond. Investors who purchase a Premium Bond should consult their own tax advisors regarding the amortization of bond premium and its effect on the Premium Bond's tax basis for purposes of computing gain or loss in connection with the sale, exchange, redemption or early retirement of the Premium Bond.

Certain maturities of the Series 2019 Bonds may be offered and sold at an original issue discount (the "OID Bonds"). The difference between the initial public offering price of the OID Bonds (as set forth on the inside front cover hereon) and their stated principal amount payable at maturity constitutes original issue discount treated as interest that is excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes and which is exempt from all taxation in the State subject to the caveats and provisions described above. In the case of an owner of an OID Bond, the amount of original issue discount which is treated as having accrued with respect to such OID Bond is added to the cost basis of the owner in determining, for federal income tax purposes, gain or loss upon disposition of such OID Bond (including its sale, redemption or payment at maturity).

Amounts received upon disposition of such an OID Bond which are attributable to accrued original issue discount will be treated as interest, rather than as taxable gain, for federal income tax purposes. Original issue discount is treated as compounding semiannually, at a rate determined by reference to the yield to maturity of each individual OID Bond, on days which are determined by reference to the maturity date of such OID Bond. The amount treated as original discount on such OID Bond for a particular semiannual period is equal to (i) the product of (a) the yield to maturity for such OID Bond and (b) the amount which would have been the tax basis of such OID Bond at the beginning of the particular semiannual period if held by the original purchaser, (ii) less the amount of any payments on such OID Bond during the semiannual period. The tax basis is determined by adding to the initial public offering price on such OID Bond the sum of the amounts which would have been treated as original issue discount for such purposes during all prior periods. If such an OID Bond is sold between compounding dates, original issue discount which would have accrued for that semiannual compounding period for federal income tax purposes is to be apportioned in equal amounts among the days in such compounding period.

Investors who purchase an OID Bond should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the determination for federal income tax purposes of original issue discount accrued with respect to such OID Bonds as of any date, with respect to the accrual of original issue discount for such OID Bonds purchased on the secondary markets and with respect to the state and local tax consequences of owning such OID Bonds.

NON-QUALIFIED TAX-EXEMPT OBLIGATIONS FOR FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

The Authority cannot designate the Series 2019 Bonds as "qualified tax-exempt obligations" within the meaning of Section 265(b) of the Code. Therefore, the carrying cost (the interest paid or incurred by a taxpayer, including a "financial institution", on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry the Series 2019 Bonds) is not deductible by a bank or "financial institution" in determining taxable income.

LOUISIANA TAXES

In the opinion of Bond Counsel, pursuant to the Refunding Act the Series 2019 Bonds are exempt from taxation by the State of Louisiana and its political subdivisions.

CHANGES IN FEDERAL AND STATE TAX LAW

During recent years, legislative proposals have been introduced in Congress and the State legislature, and in some cases enacted, that altered certain federal and State tax consequences resulting from the ownership of obligations that are similar to the Series 2019 Bonds. In some cases, these proposals have contained provisions that altered these consequences on a retroactive basis. Such alteration of federal and State tax consequences may have affected the market value of obligations similar to the Series 2019 Bonds. From time to time, legislative proposals are pending which could have an effect on both the federal and State tax consequences resulting from ownership of the Series 2019 Bonds and their market value. No assurance can be given that legislative proposals will not be enacted that would apply to, or have an adverse effect upon, the Series 2019 Bonds. For example, in connection with federal deficit reduction, job creation and tax law reform efforts, proposals have been and others are likely to be made that could significantly reduce the benefit of, or otherwise affect, the exclusion from gross income of interest on obligations like the Series 2019 Bonds. There can be no assurance that any such legislation or proposal will be enacted, and if enacted, what form it may take. The introduction or enactment of any such legislative proposals may affect, perhaps significantly, the market price for, or marketability of, the Series 2019 Bonds. Prospective purchasers of the Series 2019 Bonds should consult their own tax advisors as to the tax consequences of owning the Series 2019 Bonds in their particular state or local jurisdiction and regarding any pending or proposed federal or state tax legislation, regulations or litigation, as to which Bond Counsel expresses no opinion.

NO OTHER OPINIONS

Except as stated above, Bond Counsel expresses no other opinions with respect to any tax consequences resulting from the ownership of, receipt of interest on or disposition of the Series 2019 Bonds.

RATINGS

INITIAL RATING

Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's") is expected to issue an insured rating of "A2"/(stable outlook) to the Series 2019 Bonds based upon the issuance by Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. of its municipal bond insurance policy insuring the Series 2019 Bonds at the time of delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds. Further, Moody's has assigned a long term underlying rating of "A3"/(stable outlook) to the Series 2019 Bonds.

S&P Global Ratings ("S&P") is expected to assign an insured rating of "AA"/(stable outlook) to the Series 2019 Bonds based upon the issuance by Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. of its municipal bond insurance policy insuring the Series 2019 Bonds at the time of delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds. S&P has not assigned an underlying rating to the Series 2019 Bonds.

Any definitive explanation of the significance of such ratings may be obtained only from such rating agency. There is no assurance that such ratings will remain in effect for any given period of time or that they may not be lowered or withdrawn entirely if, in the judgment of the rating agencies, circumstances should warrant such action. Any such downward revision or withdrawal of any ratings assigned to the Series 2019 Bonds could have an adverse effect on their market price.

The ratings of the Series 2019 Bonds by each rating agency reflect only the views of each agency at the time such rating is given and the Authority and the Underwriters make no representation as to the appropriateness of such rating.

CHANGES IN BOND RATING

Generally, a rating agency bases its rating on the information and materials furnished to it and on investigations, studies and assumptions of its own. There is no assurance such ratings will continue for any given period of time or that such ratings will not be revised downward or withdrawn entirely by the rating agencies, if in the judgment of such rating agencies, circumstances so warrant. Any such downward revision or withdrawal of such ratings may have an adverse effect on the market price of the Series 2019 Bonds.

Due to the ongoing uncertainty regarding the economy and debt of the United States of America, including, without limitation, the general economic conditions in the country and political and economic developments that may affect the financial condition of the United States government, the United States debt limit, and the bond ratings of the United States and its instrumentalities, obligations issued by state and local governments, such as the Series 2019 Bonds, could be subject to a rating downgrade. Additionally, if a significant default or other financial crisis should occur in the affairs of the United States or of any of its agencies or political subdivisions, then such event could also adversely affect the market for and ratings, liquidity, and market value of outstanding debt obligations including the Series 2019 Bonds.

UNDERWRITING

The Series 2019 Bonds are being purchased by Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated and Raymond James & Associates, Inc. (collectively, the "Underwriters"). The purchase price of the Series 2019 Bonds is $ _____, which is equal to the par amount of the Series 2019 Bonds, plus net original issue premium of $ _____, less an Underwriters' discount of $ _____. The Bond Purchase Agreement executed by the Underwriters provides that the Underwriters will purchase all of the Series 2019 Bonds if any are purchased. The obligation of the Underwriters to accept delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds is subject to various conditions stated in the Bond Purchase Agreement. The Underwriters intend to offer the Series 2019 Bonds to the public initially at the price set forth on the inside front cover page of this Official Statement, which may subsequently change without any requirement of prior notice. The Underwriters reserve the right to join with dealers and other underwriters in offering the Series 2019 Bonds to the public. The Underwriters may offer and sell the Series 2019 Bonds to certain dealers at prices lower than the public offering prices. In connection with this offering, the Underwriters may over allocate or effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the Series 2019 Bonds offered hereby at a level above that which might otherwise prevail in the open market. Such stabilizing, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

MUNICIPAL ADVISOR

The Corporation has retained Sisung Securities Corporation as independent municipal advisor (the "Municipal Advisor") in connection with sale and issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds. In such capacity, the Municipal Advisor has provided recommendations and other financial guidance to the Corporation with respect to the preparation of documents, the preparation for the sale of the Series 2019 Bonds and, at the time of the sale, bond market conditions and other factors related to the sale of said Series 2019 Bonds. The Municipal Advisor has not independently verified any of the information set forth herein. The Municipal Advisor or its affiliates may receive additional compensation in conjunction with the investment of certain bond proceeds.

CONTINUING DISCLOSURE

GENERAL

The Authority has determined that no financial or operating data concerning the Authority is material to an evaluation of the offering of the Series 2019 Bonds or to any decisions to purchase, hold or sell the Series 2019 Bonds, and the Authority will not provide any such information. The Board has undertaken all responsibilities for any continuing disclosure to Owners of the Series 2019 Bonds as described below, and the Authority will have no liability to the Owners of the Series 2019 Bonds or any other person with respect to such disclosures.

Pursuant to a Continuing Disclosure Certificate, the Board, through the University will covenant for the benefit of Bondowners to provide, or cause the Dissemination Agent to provide, certain financial information and operating data relating to the Board by not later than 210 days after the end of the Board's fiscal year (presently, no later than January 30 of each year) commencing January 30, 2020, (the "Annual Report"), and to provide notices of the occurrence of certain enumerated events (the "Undertaking"). The specific nature of the information to be contained in the Annual Report or the notices of material events is set forth in Appendix E. The covenants have been made in order to assist the Participating Underwriters in complying with Section (b)(5)(i) of Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c2-12 (17 C.F.R. Part 240 §15c2-12) (the "Rule").

Except as provided in the Undertaking, the Board has not undertaken to provide all information investors may desire to have in making decisions to hold, sell or buy the Series 2019 Bonds. Failure to comply with the Undertaking will not constitute an Event of Default under the First Supplemental Indenture (although Bondholders will have any available remedy at law or in equity). Nevertheless, such a failure must be reported in accordance with the Rule and must be considered by a broker-dealer or municipal securities dealer before recommending the purchase or sale of the Series 2019 Bonds in the secondary market. Consequently, such a failure may adversely affect the transferability and liquidity of the Series 2019 Bonds and their market price.

COMPLIANCE WITH PAST CONTINUING DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS

The Board has filed all continuing disclosure reports currently required by its prior Undertakings relating to the University; however, not all reports were filed timely. The Board is presently in compliance in all material respects, with its continuing disclosure obligations relating to the University and has implemented internal and external procedures to ensure timely compliance with its Undertakings in the future, including the employment of a dissemination agent to assist in the filing and the establishment of an annually recurring calendar tickler system.

Furthermore, the filing of a number of the Board's financial reports, other financial information, and certain events required to be reported under the continuing disclosure undertakings executed in order to comply with the Rule relating to obligations issued by or on behalf of the Board for the benefit of other higher education institutions under its management and supervision and with respect to which the Board is responsible for satisfying the reporting requirements under the Rule (the "Reportable Bonds"), as more particularly described in the "CONTINUING DISCLOSURE COMPLIANCE SUMMARY" attached hereto as Appendix G, were not timely filed with EMMA by the Board for the Fiscal Years ended June 30, 2013 through and including Fiscal Year ending 2015 and June 30, 2017. In addition, the Board failed to timely file notices of insured rating changes related to Assured Guaranty Municipal and underlying ratings. Such Board financial reports and other financial information were filed by the Board on the dates set forth in Appendix G hereto.

To ensure compliance with the Rule and timely filings going forward, the Board (i) has enrolled in the EMMA automated email reminder system, which alerts issuers and obligated persons to upcoming filing deadlines and (ii) is using spreadsheets in substantially the form attached hereto as Appendix G to track its future compliance.

With respect to certain prior bonds issued for the benefit of the Board's universities, the Board has entered into continuing disclosure undertakings which require annual reporting within as little as 180 days after the end of the Board's fiscal year. The Board's audited financial statements are subject to audit by the Louisiana Legislative Auditor and the timing of the audit process is largely outside the Board's control. In recent years, the Board's audit has been completed in as little as 171 days after the end of the fiscal year to as long as 249 days after the end of the fiscal year. In the future, the Board generally expects for the audit to be completed within 210 days after the end of the fiscal year. However, because the Board is unable to change its prior undertakings which require reporting within 180 days after the end of the fiscal year, it is likely that the Board may be late in filing its audited financial statements with respect to such prior undertakings.

Except as stated above, and based upon its diligent review and to the best of its knowledge, the Board is presently in compliance, in all material respects, with its continuing disclosure undertakings.

LOUISIANA ACT 463

During the 2014 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature, the Louisiana Legislature passed Act 463, which provides certain procedures designed to ensure compliance with the Rule. Such legislation, which became effective August 1, 2014, requires public entities, such as the Board, to keep certain records demonstrating compliance with the Rule. Additionally, auditors for public entities in the State are required to review a sample of the public entity's compliance with such record-keeping requirements, review the public entity's EMMA filings, and report on the auditor's findings of any deficiency in the annual audited financial statements of such entity.

APPENDIX A

DEMOGRAPHIC AND SUMMARY FINANCIAL INFORMATION RELATED TO THE UNIVERSITY

Southeastern Louisiana University (the “University”) is located in Hammond, Louisiana, the heart of Louisiana’s “Florida Parishes.” Hammond is located at the intersection of Interstate Highways 55 and 12, approximately 60 miles north of New Orleans, Louisiana’s largest city, and 40 miles east of Baton Rouge, the State’s capital. The University has a current enrollment of approximately 15,000 students with a faculty and staff population of approximately 1,422.

HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY

The University began as a grass roots movement by the people of Hammond and the surrounding area, who recognized the need for an institution of higher education in order to further the educational, economic, and cultural development of southeast Louisiana. What began as a junior college supported by local taxes has developed into a major university as the University has grown to meet the evolving needs of southeast Louisiana and the Florida parishes.

On July 7, 1925, the voters overwhelmingly approved a bond issue that created Hammond Junior College. Operated under the auspices of the Tangipahoa Parish School Board, President Linus A. Sims opened the doors on September 14, 1925 with a faculty of three women, two men and forty students. The two-year coeducational institution offered basic undergraduate work in arts and sciences that culminated in a teaching certificate.

Rapidly increasing enrollments quickly forced the college out of its two rooms in Hammond High School. In 1927, voters supported the purchase of the Hunter Leake estate on Hammond’s north end. In 1928 Hammond Junior College became Southeastern Louisiana College, formally adopted into the state educational system under the control of the State Board of Education. The purchase of sixty acres adjoining the original fifteen-acre plot provided the space to develop a suitable campus, and in 1934, a state bond issue provided for the construction of McGehee Hall and a gymnasium.

In 1937, the State Board of Education authorized curricula for four-year programs in liberal arts, teacher education, business administration, music, social sciences, and physical education. The first baccalaureate degrees were conferred in May, 1939.

Voter approval of Act No. 388 in 1938, an amendment to the 1920 Louisiana Constitution, granted Southeastern Louisiana College the same legal status as other four-year colleges. The amendment did not, however, require the state to fund the University at the level of other institutions of higher education, despite strong local support.

On January 18, 1946, the State Board made available funds to purchase seven city blocks east and west of the campus, and 275 acres of land north and northwest of the campus, increasing the University’s total area to approximately 365 acres.

On March 3, 1946, the University was formally approved and accepted into full membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), as a four-year degree-granting institution.

In 1960, the State Board authorized the University to offer master’s degrees through the newly-formed Division of Graduate Studies. The University began awarding the Education Specialist degree in 1967. Governor John J. McKeithen on June 16, 1970 signed into law the legislative act turning Southeastern Louisiana College into Southeastern Louisiana University. The early 1970’s also saw the construction of D. Vickers, the Athletics Building, and the C.E. Cate Teacher Education Building.

In October of 1986, a group of faculty members launched Fanfare, a festival celebrating the arts, humanities and sciences. Since then, Fanfare has become an acclaimed month long event, drawing nationally and internationally recognized artists and providing recognition for those closer to home. In addition to providing entertainment for the North Shore, Fanfare has an educational outreach program that works closely with local schools. In October of 2015, Fanfare proudly celebrated its 30th anniversary.

The University’s enrollment, continually increasing since its inception, reached an important milestone in 1997, registering over fifteen thousand students for the fall semester. Since 1925 the University has conferred over eighty thousand degrees.

As the University celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2000, the Fall semester marked an exciting change as the University implemented screened admissions standards for the first time. Also during the 2000-2001 academic year, the Village, Fayard Hall and the Claude B. Pennington, Jr. Student Activity Center were completed.

In the following years the University continued to expand its' infrastructure with the Teacher Education Center Renovation and Addition in 2003, the Biology Building Renovation and Addition in 2004, eight new residence halls in 2005, the Meade Hall Classroom Renovation in 2007, the Kinesiology & Health Studies College of Nursing Renovation and Addition in 2011, the Expansion and Renovation to the War Memorial Student Union in 2015, and the Ascension and Twelve oaks residence halls in 2018.

Since 1925, many dedicated individuals have led the University from a junior college to the vibrant university it is today. Those individuals are: Linus A. Sims, Yves Leon Fontenot, J. Leon Clark, George W. Bond, Gladney Jack Tinsley, Luther Dyson, Clark LeBlanc Barrow, J.B. Wooley, Clea Parker, J. Larry Crain, G. Warren Smith, Sally Clausen, Randy Moffett, and John Crain.

ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

The University is governed by the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System (the “Board”). The Board determines broad administrative and educational policies for the institutions under its management and control. The administrative officers of the University are responsible for its operation and maintenance in accordance with the rules and policies established by the Board. The following are brief resumes of the principal administrators of the University:

Dr. John L. Crain was named President of Southeastern Louisiana University on February 17, 2009 by the Board of Supervisors of the University of Louisiana System, after serving as Interim President since July 2008. Dr. Crain served as Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs for seven years prior to his appointment as Interim President. His over 30 years of experience on the Hammond campus also include head of the Department of Accounting, chair of the Council of Department Heads, president of the Faculty Senate, director of the Small Business Development Center, and 13 years as a full-time member of the accounting faculty. Dr. Crain is a native of Franklinton and received a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Southeastern in 1981 and Master of Business Administration in 1984. He received his doctoral degree in accountancy from the University of Mississippi in 1988.

Dr. Tena L. Golding was appointed Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs in October 2017 after serving as Interim Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs since June 2016. Dr. Golding served as a Professor in the Department of Mathematics for many years while also serving as the Director of the Center for Faculty Excellence. Her over 35 years of experience at Southeastern also include serving for a period of time as Interim Department Head of Mathematics and serving on multiple committees including SACSCOC Reaffirmation Committees, Institutional Effectiveness committee, and the University Planning Committee to name a few. Additionally, she served on the Mathematics faculty at Delta State University in Mississippi. NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

INTRODUCTION

Southeastern Louisiana University (University) is a component unit of the University of Louisiana System (System), a publicly supported institution of higher education. The System is a component unit of the State of Louisiana within the executive branch of government. The University is under the management and supervision of the University of Louisiana System Board of Supervisors; however, the annual budget of the System and the University and changes to the degree programs, departments of instruction, et cetera, of the individual institutions require the approval of the Board of Regents for Higher Education. The Board of Supervisors is comprised of 15 members appointed for staggered six-year terms by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate, and one student member appointed for a one-year term by a council composed of the student body presidents of the universities within the System. As a state university, operations of the University's instructional programs are funded through annual lapsing appropriations made by the Louisiana Legislature. The chief executive officer of the System is the president. In addition, the chief executive officer of the University is the university president.

The university had approximately 14,308 students enrolled during the fall semester of the 2017/2018 academic year and employed approximately 1,584 employees.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) promulgates accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and reporting standards for state and local governments. These principles are found in the Codification of Governmental Accounting and Financial Reporting Standards, published by GASB.

B. REPORTING ENTITY

GASB Codification Section 2100 has defined the governmental reporting entity to be the State of Louisiana. The System is considered a component unit of the State of Louisiana because the State exercises oversight responsibility and has accountability for fiscal matters as follows: (1) the majority of the members of the governing board are appointed by the Governor; (2) the State has control and exercises authority over budget matters; (3) the State issues bonds to finance certain construction; and (4) the universities within the System primarily serve State residents. The accompanying financial statements present information only as to the transactions of the programs of the University as authorized by Louisiana statutes and administrative regulations.

Annually, the State of Louisiana issues basic financial statements, which include the activity contained in the accompanying financial statements. The System's financial statements are audited by the Louisiana Legislative Auditor.

Blended Component Units

University Facilities, Inc. is a Louisiana nonprofit corporation that is considered a blended component unit of the University. This component unit is included in the reporting entity because it is fiscally dependent on the university. The purpose of the organization is to promote, assist, and benefit the mission of the University through the acquisition, construction, development, management, leasing or otherwise assisting in the acquisition, construction, development, management, or leasing of student housing or other facilities on behalf of the University. Although this facility corporation is legally separate, it is reported as a part of the University because:

- The majority of its revenue comes from leasing facilities to the university, and/or
- In accordance with GASB Statement No. 61, The Financial Reporting Entity: Omnibus – an amendment of GASB Statements No. 14 and 34, if a component unit's total outstanding debt, including leases, is expected to be repaid entirely or almost entirely with the resources of its primary government, then that component unit shall be blended with its primary government.

To obtain the corporations' latest audit reports, write to:

- University Facilities, Inc., c/o Mr. Sam Domiano, Southeastern Louisiana University, SLU 10709, Hammond, Louisiana 70402

C. BASIS OF ACCOUNTING

For financial reporting purposes, the University is considered a special-purpose government engaged only in business-type activities. All activities of the University are accounted for within a single proprietary (enterprise) fund. Accordingly, the University's financial statements have been presented using the economic resources measurement focus and the accrual basis of accounting. Under the accrual basis, revenues are recognized when earned, and expenses are recorded when an obligation has been incurred. All significant intra-system transactions have been eliminated.

D. BUDGET PRACTICES

The State of Louisiana's appropriation is an annual lapsing appropriation established by legislative action and by Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes. The statute requires that the budget be approved by the Board of Regents for Higher Education and certain legislative and executive branches of state government. Budget revisions are granted by the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget. In compliance with these legal restrictions, budgets are adopted on the accrual basis of accounting, except that (1) depreciation is not recognized; (2) leave costs are treated as budgeted expenditures to the extent that they are expected to be paid; (3) summer school tuition and fees and summer school faculty salaries and related benefits for June are not prorated but are recognized in the succeeding year; and (4) inventories are recorded as expenditures at the time of purchase.

E. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS AND INVESTMENTS

Cash includes cash on hand (petty cash), demand deposits, and interest-bearing demand deposits. Cash equivalents include certificates of deposit and all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased. Under State law, the University may deposit funds within a fiscal agent bank organized under the laws of the State of Louisiana, the laws of any other state in the Union, or the laws of the United States. Furthermore, the University may invest in certificates of deposit of state banks organized under Louisiana law and national banks having their principal offices in Louisiana. Cash equivalents reported on the Statement of Net Position include all negotiable certificates of deposit, regardless of maturity.

In accordance with Louisiana Revised Statute (R.S.) 49:327, the University is authorized to invest funds in direct U.S. Treasury obligations, U.S. government agency obligations, and money market funds. In addition, funds derived from gifts and grants, endowments, and reserve funds established in accordance with bond issues may be invested as stipulated by the conditions of the gift instrument or bond indenture. Investments are maintained in investment accounts in external foundations as authorized by policies and procedures established by the Board of Regents and are reported at fair value in accordance with GASB Statement No. 31, as amended by GASB Statement No. 72. Changes in the carrying value of investments, resulting from unrealized gains and losses, are reported as a component of investment income in the Statement of Revenues, Expenses, and Changes in Net Position. For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, the University considers all highly-liquid investments (including restricted assets) with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

F. INVENTORIES

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or market. The University uses periodic and perpetual inventory systems and values its various other inventories using the first in, first out and weighted-average valuation methods. Adjustments are made at fiscal year-end to account for inventories using the consumption method.

G. NONCURRENT RESTRICTED ASSETS

Cash, investments, receivables, and other assets that are externally restricted for grants, endowments, debt service payments, maintenance of sinking or reserve funds, or to purchase or construct capital assets are classified as noncurrent restricted assets in the Statement of Net Position.

H. CAPITAL ASSETS

Capital assets are reported at cost at the date of acquisition or their estimated fair value at the date of donation. For movable property, the University's capitalization policy includes all items with a unit cost of $5,000 or more and an estimated useful life greater than one year. Renovations to buildings, infrastructure, and land improvements that significantly increase the value or extend the useful life of the structure are capitalized if they exceed $100,000. Any infrastructure exceeding $3 million must be capitalized. Routine repairs and maintenance are charged to operating expense in the year in which the expense is incurred. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the assets, generally 40 years for buildings and infrastructure, 20 years for depreciable land improvements, three to 10 years for most movable property, three years for software with an acquisition cost of $1,000,000 or more, and three to 10 years for internally generated software with development costs of $1,000,000 or more.

I. UNEARNED REVENUES

Unearned revenues include amounts received for tuition and fees and certain auxiliary activities prior to the end of the fiscal year but are related to the subsequent accounting period. Unearned revenues also include amounts received from grant and contract sponsors that have not yet been earned.

J. COMPENSATED ABSENCES

Employees accrue and accumulate annual and sick leave in accordance with state law and administrative regulations. The leave is accumulated without limitation; however, nine-month faculty members do not accrue annual leave but are granted faculty leave during holiday periods when students are not in classes. Employees who are considered having nonexempt status according to the guidelines contained in the Fair Labor Standards Act may be paid for compensatory leave earned.

Upon separation of employment, both classified and non-classified personnel or their heirs are compensated for accumulated annual leave not to exceed 300 hours. In addition, academic and non-classified personnel or their heirs are compensated for accumulated sick leave not to exceed 25 days upon retirement or death. Act 343 of 1993 allows members of the Louisiana State Employees' Retirement System (LASERS), upon application for retirement, the option of receiving an actuarially determined lump sum payment for annual and sick leave, which would otherwise have been used to compute years of service for retirement. Unused annual leave in excess of 300 hours plus unused sick leave are used to compute retirement benefits.

Upon termination or transfer, a classified employee will be paid for any one and one-half hour compensatory leave earned and may or may not be paid for any straight hour-for-hour compensatory leave earned. Compensation paid will be based on the classified employee's hourly rate of pay at termination or transfer.

K. NONCURRENT LIABILITIES

Noncurrent liabilities include principal amounts of revenue bonds payable, notes payable, capital lease obligations with contractual maturities greater than one year, amounts for accrued compensated absences, the University's proportionate shares of the LASERS and Teachers' Retirement System of Louisiana (TRSL) actuarially accrued net pension liability, the actuarially accrued liability for Other Postemployment Benefits (OPEB), and other liabilities that will not be paid within the next fiscal year.

For purposes of measuring the net pension liability, deferred outflows of resources and deferred inflows of resources related to pensions, and pension expense, information about the fiduciary net position of LASERS and TRSL, and additions to/deductions from the retirement systems' fiduciary net position have been determined on the same basis as they are reported by the retirement systems. For this purpose, benefit payments (including refunds of employee contributions) are recognized when due and payable in accordance with the benefit terms. Investments are reported at fair value.

For purposes of measuring the OPEB liability, deferred outflows of resources and deferred inflows of resources related to OPEB, and OPEB expense and information about changes in the Office of Group Benefit's (OGB) OPEB liabilities have been determined on the same basis as they are reported by the health care system. For this purpose, benefit payments (including refunds of employee contributions) are recognized when due and payable in accordance with the benefit terms. The OGB plan is not administered through trusts and, therefore, no assets for the plans have been accumulated.

L. NET POSITION

The University's net position is classified as follows:

(1) Net Investment in Capital Assets

This represents the University's total investment in capital assets, net of accumulated depreciation and reduced by outstanding debt obligations related to acquisition, construction, or improvement of those capital assets.

(2) Restricted Net Position - Expendable

Restricted expendable net position includes resources that the University is legally or contractually obligated to spend in accordance with restrictions imposed by external third parties.

(3) Restricted Net Position - Nonexpendable

Restricted nonexpendable net position consists of endowment and similar type funds that donors or other outside sources have stipulated, as a condition of the gift instrument, that the principal is to be maintained inviolate and in perpetuity, and invested for the purpose of producing present and future income, which may either be expended or added to principal.

(4) Unrestricted Net Position

Unrestricted net position represents resources derived from student tuition and fees, state appropriations, and sales and services of educational departments and auxiliary enterprises. These resources are used for transactions relating to the educational and general operations of the University and may be used at the discretion of the governing board to meet current expenses and for any purpose.

When an expense is incurred that can be paid using either restricted or unrestricted resources, the University's policy is to first apply the expense toward unrestricted resources, and then toward restricted resources.

M. CLASSIFICATION OF REVENUES AND EXPENSES

The University has classified its revenues as either operating or non-operating according to the following criteria:

- (a) Operating revenue includes activities that have the characteristics of exchange transactions, such as (1) student tuition and fees, net of scholarship discounts and allowances; (2) sales and services of auxiliary enterprises, net of scholarship discounts and allowances; and (3) most federal, state, and local grants and contracts, and federal appropriations.
- (b) Non-operating revenue includes activities that have the characteristics of non-exchange transactions, such as gifts and contributions, state appropriations, and investment income.
- (c) Operating expenses generally include transactions resulting from providing goods or services, such as (1) payment to vendors for goods or services; (2) payments to employees for services; and (3) payments for employee benefits.
- (d) Non-operating expenses include transactions resulting from financing activities, capital acquisitions, and investing activities.

N. SCHOLARSHIP DISCOUNTS AND ALLOWANCES

Student tuition and fee revenues and certain other revenues from students are reported net of scholarship discounts and allowances in the Statement of Revenues, Expenses, and Changes in Net Position. Scholarship discounts and allowances are the difference between the stated charge for services (tuition and fees) provided by the University and the amount that is paid by students and/or third parties making payments on the students' behalf.

O. USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

P. ADOPTION OF NEW ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

For the year ended June 30, 2018, the University implemented GASB Statement No. 75, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Postemployment Benefits Other Than Pensions. Statement No. 75 was issued in June 2017 and is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2017. Statement No. 75 addresses accounting and financial reporting for OPEB for health care and life insurance that are provided to employees of state and local governmental employers. In addition, Statement No. 75 replaces the requirements of Statements No. 45, Accounting and Financial Reporting by Employers for Postemployment Benefits Other Than Pensions, as amended, and No. 57, OPEB Measurements by Agent Employers and Agent Multiple-Employer Plans, for OPEB.

The cumulative effect of applying Statement No. 75 is reported as a restatement of beginning net position for fiscal year 2018 (see note 16). The restatement of all prior year deferred outflows and inflows was not practical, so only deferred outflows related to fiscal year 2017 OGB contributions were recorded at implementation.

2. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

At June 30, 2018, the University has cash and cash equivalents of $57,344,210, as follows:

Demand Deposits	$28,043,795
Certificates of Deposit	14,733,978
Petty Cash	12,250
Blended Component Unit Cash	14,554,187
Total Cash	$57,344,210

Custodial credit risk is the risk that in the event of a bank failure the University's deposits may not be returned to it. Under State law, the University's deposits (or the resulting bank balances) must be secured by federal deposit insurance or similar federal security or the pledge of securities owned by the fiscal agent bank. The fair market value of the pledged securities plus the federal deposit insurance must at all times equal the amount on deposit with the fiscal agent. These securities are held in the name of the University or the pledging bank by a holding or custodial bank that is mutually acceptable to both parties.

As of June 30, 2018, the University's bank balance totaled $59,522,838.

3. INVESTMENTS

At June 30, 2018, the University has investments totaling $40,361,649. The University follows state law (R.S. 49:327) as applicable to institutions of higher education in establishing investment policy. State law authorizes the University to invest funds in direct U.S. Treasury obligations, U.S. government agency obligations, direct security repurchase agreements, reverse direct repurchase agreements, investment grade commercial paper, investment grade corporate notes and bonds, and money market funds.

GASB Statement No. 72, Fair Value Measurement and Application, requires disclosures to be made about fair value measurements, the level of fair value hierarchy, and valuation techniques. The fair value hierarchy categorizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three levels.

- Level 1 inputs - the valuation is based on quoted market prices for identical assets or liabilities traded in active markets;
- Level 2 inputs - the valuation is based on quoted market prices for similar instruments traded in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active, and inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Level 3 inputs - the valuation is determined by using the best information available under the circumstances and might include the government's own data. In developing unobservable inputs, a government may begin with its own data but should adjust those data if (a) reasonably available information indicates that other market participants would use different data or (b) there is something particular to the government that is not available to other market participants.

Fair values of assets measured on a recurring basis at June 30, 2018, are as follows:

	Fair Value	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets Level 1	Other Observable Inputs Level 2	Significant Unobservable Inputs Level 3
Investments held by foundations:
U.S. government securities:
U.S. Treasury Notes	$2,257,958		$2,257,958
Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation	691,061		691,061
Federal National Mortgage Association	1,031,443		1,031,443
Mutual funds	841,161	$841,161

Subtotal	17,325,399	$10,821,798	$5,811,140	$692,461
Blended component unit cash	23,036,250
Total	$40,361,649

Fair values for the University's investments categorized in Level 1 (e.g., equity securities, certain mutual funds, money market accounts) have been obtained using quoted prices from active markets in which these securities are traded (e.g., New York Stock Exchange). Fair values for investments categorized in Level 2 (e.g., United States government securities, certain mutual funds, corporate bonds and obligations) have been provided by the University's investment advisors, financial institutions, or other sources and are based on other observable inputs. Fair values for investments categorized in Level 3 have been provided by the University's investment advisors, financial institutions, or other sources and are based on other available information.

Interest rate risk is the risk that changes in interest rates will adversely affect the fair value of an investment. State law as applicable to institutions of higher education does not address interest rate risk. In addition, the University does not have policies to limit interest rate risk. The University's fixed-income investments and maturities at June 30, 2018, follow:

	Percentage of Investments	Fair Value	Investment Maturities in Years
			Less Than 1 Year	1-5 Years	6-10 Years	11-20 Years	Over 20 Years
Investments held by foundations:
US Government Securities:

B-9

For an investment, custodial credit risk is the risk that in the event of the failure of the counterparty the University will not be able to recover the value of its investments or collateral securities that are in the possession of an outside party. For U.S. Treasury obligations and U.S. government agency obligations, the University's investment policies generally require that issuers must provide the University with safekeeping receipts, collateral agreements, and custodial agreements.

Concentration of credit risk is the risk of loss attributed to the magnitude of an entity's investment in a single issuer. State law requires that at no time shall the funds invested in U.S. government agency obligations exceed 60% of all monies invested with maturities of 30 days or longer. In addition, State law limits the investment in commercial paper and corporate notes and bonds to 20% of all investments. The University does not have policies to further limit concentration of credit risk.

The University's foundation holds and manages funds received by the University as state matching funds for the Endowed Chairs, Endowed Professorship, and Endowed Scholarship programs.

Credit risk is the risk that an issuer or other counterparty to an investment will not fulfill its obligations. State law limits the University's investments to U.S. Treasury obligations, U.S. government agency obligations, direct security repurchase agreements, reverse direct repurchase agreements, investment grade commercial paper, investment grade corporate notes and bonds, and money market funds. The University does not have policies to further limit credit risk.

The University participates in two State public employee retirement systems, the Louisiana State Employees' Retirement System (LASERS) and the Teachers' Retirement System of Louisiana (TRSL). The University of Louisiana System includes the required disclosures for LASERS and TRSL in its audited financial statements.

9. OPTIONAL RETIREMENT SYSTEM

TRSL administers an optional retirement plan (ORP), which was created by R.S. 11:921-931 for academic and administrative employees of public institutions of higher education. The purpose of the optional retirement plan is to provide retirement and death benefits to the participants while affording the maximum portability of these benefits to the participants.

The optional retirement plan is a defined contribution plan that provides for full and immediate vesting of all contributions remitted to the participating companies on behalf of the participants. Eligible employees make an irrevocable election to participate in ORP rather than TRSL and purchase retirement and death benefits through fixed and/or variable annuity contracts provided by designated companies. Benefits payable to participants are not the obligation of the State of Louisiana or TRSL. Such benefits and other rights of ORP are the liability and responsibility solely of the designated company or companies to whom contributions have been made.

R.S. 11:927 sets the contribution requirements of the ORP plan members and the employer. Each plan member shall contribute monthly to ORP an amount equal to the contribution rates established for the regular retirement plan of TRSL as disclosed in note 8. Effective July 1, 2014, each higher education board created by Article VII of the Constitution of Louisiana is required to establish, by resolution, the portion of the employer contribution to be transferred to the ORP participants' accounts (transfer amount). In addition, effective July 1, 2014, the employer contribution rate for amounts credited to the ORP participants who are not employed in higher education must be the greater of: (1) the employer normal cost contribution for the TRSL Regular Plan; or (2) 6.2%.

Employer ORP contributions to TRSL for fiscal year 2018 totaled $6,006,510, which represents pension expense for the University. Employee contributions totaled $1,713,148. The active member and employer contribution rates were 8% and 5.8%, respectively, with an additional employer contribution of 22.2% made to the TRSL defined benefit plan.

10. POSTEMPLOYMENT HEALTH CARE AND LIFE INSURANCE BENEFITS

The University provides certain continuing health care and life insurance benefits for its retired employees. Substantially, all University employees become eligible for these benefits if they reach normal retirement age while working for the University. The University offers its employees the opportunity to participate the State's Office of Group Benefits (OGB), which also offers a life insurance plan.

The University of Louisiana System includes the required disclosures for the OPEB plans in its audited financial statements.

15. REVENUE USED AS SECURITY FOR REVENUE BONDS

Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System Revenue Refunding Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Recreation and Activity Center Project) Series 2011

Revenue pledged for this bond includes all revenue related to the Student Recreation and Activity Center, including student fees, membership fees, and other miscellaneous revenue related to the Recreation Center. The original principal on the bonds totaled $3,650,000, and the debt secured by the pledge is $1,340,000. The revenue was pledged for the purpose of this bond through June 2020.

The debt secured by the revenue pledged was for the purpose of providing funds to refund the $4,100,000 outstanding Board of Trustees for State Colleges and Universities, State of Louisiana Revenue Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Recreation and Activity Center Project), Series 1998; to fund a debt service reserve fund, if necessary; and to pay the costs of issuance of the bonds. Pledged revenue related to this bond includes all revenue derived by the University from the levy and collection of the pledged student fee; any other student fees levied and collected to pay for the Recreation Center pledged to the payment of bonds from time to time; and membership fees imposed by the University from time to time on Recreation Center users other than Southeastern Louisiana University students. The pledged student fee is $25 per student per regular semester and $12.50 per student per summer semester.

For the year ended June 30, 2018, principal and interest requirements were $435,000 and $42,481, respectively. Pledged revenues recognized for the period totaled $819,934.

20. CONTINGENT LIABILITIES AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Losses arising from judgments, claims, and similar contingencies such as guaranty of mortgage loans on sorority and fraternity houses are considered State liabilities and paid upon appropriation by the Legislature and not the University. Therefore, the University, through its legal advisors, estimates that potential claims not covered by insurance would not materially affect the financial statements. Other losses of the University arising from judgments, claims, and similar contingencies are paid through the state's self-insurance fund operated by the Office of Risk Management, the agency responsible for the state's risk management program, or by appropriation from the state's General Fund. The Office of Risk Management insures all of these lawsuits.

21. ON-BEHALF PAYMENTS FOR SALARIES AND FRINGE BENEFITS

Southeastern Louisiana University did not have on-behalf payments for fringe benefits and salaries for the year ended June 30, 2018.

22. DONOR RESTRICTED ENDOWMENTS

If a donor has not provided specific instructions, State law permits the University of Louisiana System Board of Supervisors to authorize expenditure of the net appreciation (realized and unrealized) of the investments of endowment funds. Any net appreciation that is spent is required to be spent for the purposes for which the endowment was established.

At June 30, 2018, net appreciation of donor-restricted endowments is equal to $576,554, which is available to be spent for restricted purposes. The University limits endowment spending to the income earned in a given year for purposes specified by donors. The donated portion of the endowments is reported in restricted net position - nonexpendable in the Statement of Net Position; the endowment income is reported in restricted net position - expendable.

23. FOUNDATIONS

The accompanying financial statements do not include the accounts of the following foundations:

Lion Athletic Association
Southeastern Louisiana University Foundation
Southeastern Louisiana University Alumni Association, Inc.

These foundations are separate corporations whose financial statements are subject to audit by other independent certified public accountants.

The University has contracted with Southeastern Louisiana University Foundation to invest the university's Endowed Chair/Professorship Program endowment funds in accordance with the Board of Regents for Higher Education's investment policies. The Endowed Chair endowment funds are established for $1,000,000 each, with $600,000 of private contributions and $400,000 of state matching portion allocated by the Board of Regents for Higher Education (Regents). The Endowed Professorship Program endowment funds are established for $100,000 each. Effective July 1, 2017, universities with fewer than 15 Endowed Professorship slots with $60,000 of private contributions receive $40,000 of State matching portion allocated by Regents (60% non-State/40% State ratio), and universities with more than 15 Endowed Professorship slots with $80,000 of private contributions receive $20,000 of State matching portion allocated by Regents (80% non-State/20% State ratio). Once a university has received State match for 15 Endowed Professorship slots, that university will be eligible only for the 80% non-State/20% State ratio. At June 30, 2018, the foundations held in custody $17,325,399 of Endowed Chair and Endowed Professorship Program funds. Amounts invested by private foundations are included as investments held by private foundations in the disclosures in note 3.

24. DEFERRED COMPENSATION PLAN

Certain employees of the System participate in the Louisiana Public Employees' Deferred Compensation Plan adopted under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code Section 457. Complete disclosures relating to the Plan are included in the separately issued audit report for the Plan, available on the Internet at www.lla.la.gov.

25. COOPERATIVE ENDEAVOR AGREEMENTS

Southeastern Louisiana University/Livingston Parish School Board

General

In October 2017, Southeastern Louisiana University (University) accepted from the Southeastern Educational Foundation, which is a subsidiary of the Southeastern Louisiana University Foundation (Foundation), its leasehold estate, authority, sublease and all other rights to the Livingston Parish Literacy and Technology Center (Livingston Center) pursuant to the terms of the Livingston Educational Public Benefit Agreement dated June 18, 2002. The construction and operation of the 39,000 square foot Livingston Center stems from a collaboration between the University and the Livingston Parish School Board (School Board) and was funded through a $4.5 million 1999 settlement grant to the Foundation from the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana. Since its completion, the facility has been utilized by the parties for education programming, including collegiate credit courses and non-credit courses and other programming provided by the University.

Obligations

Pursuant to the cooperative endeavor agreement, the facility is maintained and operated in accordance with guidelines jointly developed by the parties in accordance with the Court Order, with the University serving as a critical operational participant. The Foundation held a leasehold estate in the facility, while the School Board owns the land on which the facility was constructed. Pursuant to the original terms, at the termination of the agreement on June 18, 2027, full ownership of the building reverts to the School Board.

(b) Prior to or simultaneously with the delivery by the Trustee of the Series 2019 Bonds there shall be filed with the Trustee:

(i) A copy, duly certified by the Secretary, Executive Director, or an Assistant Secretary of the Authority, of the resolution or resolutions adopted by the Authority authorizing the execution and delivery of this Indenture and the Agreement and all other instruments contemplated thereby and the authorization, issuance, sale, and delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds;

(ii) A copy, duly certified by an Authorized Corporation Representative, of the resolution or resolutions of the Corporation authorizing the execution and delivery of the Agreement, and all other instruments contemplated thereby and approving this Indenture and the authorization, issuance, sale, and delivery of the Series 2019 Bonds;

(iii) Original executed counterparts of this Indenture, the Agreement, the Facilities Lease, and the Ground Lease;

(iv) Signed copies of all opinions of counsel required in connection with the issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds and the transactions contemplated thereby;

(v) A request and authorization to the Trustee on behalf of the Authority and signed by its Chairman, Vice Chairman, Executive Director, Secretary, or an Assistant Secretary to authenticate and deliver the Series 2019 Bonds to the purchasers thereof and specifying the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2019 Cost of Issuance Account and the Series 2019 Current Refunding Fund; and

(vi) A signed copy of the legal opinion of Jones Walker LLP, addressed to the Trustee, to the effect that (i) the Series 2019 Bonds are exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and this Indenture is exempt from qualification under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended; and (ii) authorizing the Trustee to rely upon Bond Counsel's approving opinion as if it were addressed to the Trustee.

(c) The Authority hereby authorizes and directs the Trustee to execute and deliver the Series 2019 Tax Regulatory Agreement dated the Closing Date, among the Authority, the Board, the Trustee, and the Corporation.

Section 3.13 Book-Entry Registration of Bonds.

(a) The Bonds shall be initially issued in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee for DTC, as registered owner of the Bonds, and held in the custody of DTC (or the Trustee as the agent of DTC under the F.A.S.T. delivery system). The Authority and the Trustee acknowledge that the Authority has executed and delivered a Blanket Letter of Representations with DTC and that the terms and provisions of said Letter of Representations shall govern in the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Indenture and said Letter of Representations. A single bond certificate for each maturity of Bonds will be issued and delivered to DTC. The Beneficial Owners will not receive physical delivery of Bond certificates except as provided herein. Beneficial Owners are expected to receive a written confirmation of their purchase providing details of each Bond acquired. For so long as DTC shall continue to serve as securities depository for the Bonds as provided herein, all transfers of beneficial ownership interest will be made by book-entry only, and no investor or other party purchasing, selling or otherwise transferring beneficial ownership of Bonds is to receive, hold or deliver any Bond certificate.

(b) For every transfer and exchange of the Bonds, the Beneficial Owner may be charged a sum sufficient to cover such Beneficial Owner's allocable share of any tax, fee or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto.

(c) The Authority, the Corporation and the Trustee will recognize DTC or its nominee as the Bondholder for all purposes, including notices and voting.

(d) Neither the Authority, the Trustee, the Corporation nor the Board is responsible for the performance by DTC of any of its obligations, including, without limitation, the payment of moneys received by DTC, the forwarding of notices received by DTC or the giving of any consent or proxy in lieu of consent.

(e) Whenever during the term of the Bonds the beneficial ownership thereof is determined by a book entry at DTC, the requirements of this Indenture of holding, delivering or transferring Bonds shall be deemed modified to require the appropriate person to meet the requirements of DTC as to registering or transferring the book entry to produce the same effect.

(f) DTC may determine to discontinue providing its services with respect to the Bonds at any time by giving notice to the Authority and the Trustee and discharging its responsibilities with respect thereto under applicable law.

(g) The Authority, in its sole discretion and without the consent of any other person, may terminate the services of DTC with respect to the Bonds if the Authority determines that (i) DTC is unable to discharge its responsibilities with respect to the Bonds, or (ii) a continuation of the requirement that all of the outstanding Bonds be registered on the registration books kept by the Trustee in the name of Cede & Co., or any other nominee of DTC, is not in the best interest of the beneficial owners of the Bonds.

(h) Upon the termination of the services of DTC with respect to the Bonds pursuant to the above two paragraphs, after which no substitute securities depository willing to undertake the functions of DTC hereunder can be found which, in the opinion of the Authority is willing and able to undertake such functions upon reasonable and customary terms, the Authority is obligated to deliver Bonds to the owner, at the expense of the said owner as described in this Indenture, and the Bonds shall no longer be restricted to being registered in the registration books kept by the Trustee in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC, but may be registered in whatever name or names holders transferring or exchanging Bonds shall designate in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture to the contrary, so long as any Bond is registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC, all payments with respect to principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Bond and all notices with respect to such Bond shall be made and given, respectively, in the manner provided in the Blanket Letter of Representations of the Authority dated November 17, 1998 and delivered to DTC.

(j) If at any time DTC ceases to hold the Bonds, all references herein to DTC shall be of no further force or effect.

Section 3.14 Provisions Related to Series 2017 Bond Insurance Policy and the Series 2019 Bond Insurance Policy. As long as any Series 2017 Bonds or any Series 2019 Bonds (for purposes of this section, collectively, the "Insured Bonds") are insured by the Series 2017 Bond Insurer and the Series 2019 Bond Insurer (for purposes of this section, collectively, the "Bond Insurer"), are outstanding and Bond Insurer is not then in default under the Series 2017 Bond Insurance Policy or the Series 2019 Bond Insurance Policy (for purposes of this section, collectively, the "Bond Insurance Policy"), then notwithstanding any provisions of the Indenture to the contrary, the provisions of this Section shall apply; provided, however, to the extent the Bond Insurer has made any payments under the Bond Insurance Policy it shall retain its rights of subrogation:

(a) The prior written consent of the Bond Insurer shall be a condition precedent to the deposit of any credit instrument provided in lieu of a cash deposit into the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Indenture, amounts on deposit in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be applied solely to the payment of debt service due on the Series 2017 Bonds or the Series 2019 Bonds, as applicable.

(b) Further to the rights granted to Bond Insurer under Article VIII of this Indenture and as a term of this Indenture and each Insured Bond, the Trustee and each owner of the Insured Bonds appoint the Bond Insurer as their agent and attorney-in-fact with respect to the Insured Bonds and agree that the Bond Insurer may at any time during the continuation of any proceeding by or against the Authority, the Board, the Corporation or the University under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, rehabilitation or similar law (an “Insolvency Proceeding”) direct all matters relating to such Insolvency Proceeding, including without limitation, (A) all matters relating to any claim or enforcement proceeding in connection with an Insolvency Proceeding (a “Claim”), (B) the direction of any appeal of any order relating to any Claim, (C) the posting of any surety, supersedeas or performance bond pending any such appeal, and (D) the right to vote to accept or reject any plan of adjustment. In addition, the Trustee and each owner of the Insured Bonds delegate and assign to the Bond Insurer, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the rights of the Trustee and each owner of the Insured Bonds with respect to the Insured Bonds in the conduct of any Insolvency Proceeding, including, without limitation, all rights of any party to an adversary proceeding or action with respect to any court order issued in connection with any such Insolvency Proceeding. Remedies granted to the Bondholders shall expressly include mandamus.

(c) The maturity of Insured Bonds insured by the Bond Insurer shall not be accelerated without the consent of the Bond Insurer and in the event the maturity of the Insured Bonds is accelerated, the Bond Insurer may elect, in its sole discretion, to pay accelerated principal and interest accrued, on such principal to the date of acceleration (to the extent unpaid by the Authority) and the Trustee shall be required to accept such amounts. Upon payment of such accelerated principal and interest accrued to the acceleration date as provided above, the Bond Insurer’s obligations under the Bond Insurance Policy with respect to such Insured Bonds shall be fully discharged.

(d) The Bond Insurer is a third party beneficiary of this Indenture.

(e) The exercise of any provision of this Indenture which permits the purchase of Insured Bonds in lieu of redemption shall require the prior written approval of the Bond Insurer if any Insured Bond so purchased is not cancelled upon purchase.

(f) Unless the Bond Insurer otherwise directs, upon the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default or an event which with notice or lapse of time would constitute an Event of Default, amounts on deposit in the Series 2017 Project Fund shall not be disbursed, but shall instead be applied to the payment of debt service or redemption price of the Series 2017 Bonds.

(g) The rights granted to the Bond Insurer under this Indenture or any other Bond Document to request, consent to or direct any action are rights granted to the Bond Insurer in consideration of its issuance of the Bond Insurance Policy. Any exercise by the Bond Insurer of such rights is merely an exercise of the Bond Insurer’s contractual rights and, except as otherwise provided in the Bond Documents, shall not be construed or deemed to be taken for the benefit, or on behalf, of the Bondholders and such action does not evidence any position of the Bond Insurer, affirmative or negative, as to whether the consent of the Bondowners or any other person is required in addition to the consent of the Bond Insurer.

(h) To accomplish defeasance of the Insured Bonds, the Authority shall cause to be delivered (i) a report of an independent firm of nationally recognized certified public accountants or such other accountant as shall be acceptable to the Bond Insurer (“Accountant”) verifying the sufficiency of the escrow established to pay the Insured Bonds in full on the maturity or redemption date (“Verification”), (ii) an escrow deposit agreement (which shall be acceptable in form and substance to the Bond Insurer), (iii) an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel to the effect that Insured Bonds are no longer “Outstanding” under the Indenture and (iv) a certificate of discharge of the Trustee with respect to the Insured Bonds; each Verification and defeasance opinion shall be acceptable in form and substance, and addressed, to the Authority, Trustee and Bond Insurer. The Bond Insurer shall be provided with final drafts of the above-referenced documentation not less than five business days prior to the funding of the escrow. Insured Bonds shall be deemed “Outstanding” under the Indenture unless and until they are in fact paid and retired or the above criteria are met.

(i) Amounts paid by the Bond Insurer under the Bond Insurance Policy shall not be deemed paid for purposes of the Indenture and the Insured Bonds relating to such payments shall remain Outstanding and continue to be due and owing until paid by the Authority in accordance with this Indenture. This Indenture shall not be discharged unless all amounts due or to become due to the Bond Insurer have been paid in full or duly provided for.

(j) Claims Upon Bond Insurance Policy and Payments by and to Bond Insurer.

If, on the third Business Day prior to the related scheduled interest payment date or principal payment date (“Payment Date”) there is not on deposit with the Trustee, after making all transfers and deposits required under this Indenture, moneys sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the Insured Bonds due on such Payment Date, the Trustee shall give notice to the Bond Insurer and to its designated agent (if any) (the “Insurer’s Fiscal Agent”) by telephone or teletype of the amount of such deficiency by 12:00 noon, New York City time, on such Business Day. If, on the second Business Day prior to the related Payment Date, there continues to be a deficiency in the amount available to pay the principal of and interest on the Insured Bonds due on such Payment Date, the Trustee shall make a claim under the Bond Insurance Policy and give notice to the Bond Insurer and the Insurer’s Fiscal Agent (if any) by telephone of the amount of such deficiency, and the allocation of such deficiency between the amount required to pay interest on the Insured Bonds and the amount required to pay principal of the Series 2017 Bonds, confirmed in writing to the Bond Insurer and the Insurer’s Fiscal Agent by 12:00 noon, New York City time, on such second Business Day by filling in the form of Notice of Claim and Certificate delivered with the Bond Insurance Policy.

The Trustee shall designate any portion of payment of principal on Insured Bonds paid by the Bond Insurer, whether by virtue of mandatory sinking fund redemption, maturity or other advancement of maturity, on its books as a reduction in the principal amount of Insured Bonds registered to the then current Bondholder, whether DTC or its nominee or otherwise, and shall issue a replacement Insured Bond to the Bond Insurer, registered in the name of Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp., in a principal amount equal to the amount of principal so paid (without regard to authorized denominations); provided that the Trustee’s failure to so designate any payment or issue any replacement Insured Bond shall have no effect on the amount of principal or interest payable by the Authority on any Insured Bond or the subrogation rights of the Bond Insurer.

The Trustee shall keep a complete and accurate record of all funds deposited by the Bond Insurer into the Policy Payments Account (defined below) and the allocation of such funds to payment of interest on and principal of any Insured Bond. The Bond Insurer shall have the right to inspect such records at reasonable times upon reasonable notice to the Trustee.

Upon payment of a claim under the Bond Insurance Policy, the Trustee shall establish a separate special purpose trust account for the benefit of owners of the Insured Bonds referred to herein as the “Policy Payments Account” and over which the Trustee shall have exclusive control and sole right of withdrawal. The Trustee shall receive any amount paid under the Bond Insurance Policy in trust on behalf of owners of the Insured Bonds and shall deposit any such amount in the Policy Payments Account and distribute such amount only for purposes of making the payments for which a claim was made. Such amounts shall be disbursed by the Trustee to owners of the Insured Bonds in the same manner as principal and interest payments are to be made with respect to the Insured Bonds under the sections hereof regarding payment of Insured Bonds. It shall not be necessary for such payments to be made by checks or wire transfers separate from the check or wire transfer used to pay debt service with other funds available to make such payments. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Authority agrees to pay to the Bond Insurer, solely from the Trust Estate, (i) a sum equal to the total of all amounts paid by the Bond Insurer under the Bond Insurance Policy (the “Insurer Advances”); and (ii) to the extent permitted by law, interest on such Insurer Advances from the date paid by the Bond Insurer until payment thereof in full, payable to the Bond Insurer at the Late Payment Rate per annum (collectively, the “Insurer Reimbursement Amounts”). “Late Payment Rate” means the lesser of (a) the greater of (i) the per annum rate of interest, publicly announced from time to time by JPMorgan Chase Bank at its principal office in The City of New York, as its prime or base lending rate (any change in such rate of interest to be effective on the date such change is announced by JPMorgan Chase Bank) plus 3%, and (ii) the then applicable highest rate of interest on the Insured Bonds and (b) the maximum rate permissible under applicable usury or similar laws limiting interest rates. The Late Payment Rate shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a year of 360 days. The Authority hereby covenants and agrees that the Insurer Reimbursement Amounts are secured by a lien on and pledge of the Trust Estate and payable from such Trust Estate on a parity with debt service due on the Insured Bonds.

Funds held in the Policy Payments Account shall not be invested by the Trustee and may not be applied to satisfy any costs, expenses or liabilities of the Trustee. Any funds remaining in the Policy Payments Account following a Payment Date shall promptly be remitted to the Bond Insurer.

(k) The Bond Insurer shall, to the extent it makes any payment of principal of or interest on the Insured Bonds, become subrogated to the rights of the recipients of such payments in accordance with the terms of the Bond Insurance Policy (which subrogation rights shall also include the rights of any such recipients in connection with any Insolvency Proceeding). Each obligation of the Authority to the Bond Insurer under the Bond Documents shall survive discharge or termination of such Bond Documents.

(l) The Authority shall pay or reimburse the Bond Insurer, solely from amounts paid by the Corporation from Additional Rentals paid by the Board pursuant to the Facilities Lease and to the extent permitted by law, any and all charges, fees, costs and expenses that the Bond Insurer may reasonably pay or incur in connection with (i) the administration, enforcement, defense or preservation of any rights or security in any Bond Document; (ii) the pursuit of any remedies under the Indenture or any other Bond Document or otherwise afforded by law or equity, (iii) any amendment, waiver or other action with respect to, or related to, the Indenture or any other Bond Document whether or not executed or completed, or (iv) any litigation or other dispute in connection with the Indenture or any other Bond Document or the transactions contemplated thereby, other than costs resulting from the failure of the Bond Insurer to honor its obligations under the Bond Insurance Policy. The Bond Insurer reserves the right to charge a reasonable fee as a condition to executing any amendment, waiver or consent proposed in respect of the Indenture or any other Bond Document.

(m) After payment of reasonable expenses of the Trustee, the application of funds realized upon default shall be applied to the payment of expenses of the Authority or rebate only after the payment of past due and current debt service on the Bonds and amounts required to restore each Debt Service Reserve Fund to its respective Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement.

(n) The Bond Insurer shall be entitled to pay principal or interest on the Insured Bonds that shall become Due for Payment but shall be unpaid by reason of Nonpayment by the Authority (as such terms are defined in the Bond Insurance Policy) and any amounts due on the Insured Bonds as a result of acceleration of the maturity thereof in accordance with the Indenture, whether or not the Bond Insurer has received a Notice of Nonpayment (as such terms are defined in the Bond Insurance Policy) or a claim upon the Bond Insurance Policy.

(o) The notice address of the Bond Insurer is: Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp., 1633 Broadway, New York, New York 10019, Attention: Managing Director – Surveillance, Re: Policy No. 218242-N (2017) and Policy No. [_____-N] (2019), Telephone: (212) 974-0100; Telecopier: (212) 339-3556. In each case in which notice or other communication refers to an Event of Default, then a copy of such notice or other communication shall also be sent to the attention of the General Counsel and shall be marked to indicate “URGENT MATERIAL ENCLOSED.”

(p) The Bond Insurer shall be provided with the following information by the Authority, the Corporation or the Trustee, as the case may be:

- (i) The fiscal year budget of the Board within thirty (30) days after adoption of such budget;
- (ii) Annual audits prepared by the Legislative Auditor of the State of Louisiana, within two hundred and ten (210) days of the completion of the Board’s fiscal year or such later date as may be extended with the approval of the Legislative Auditor of the State of Louisiana and the Bond Insurer, together with a certification of the Board stating that no Event of Default has occurred or is continuing under the Bond Documents;
- (iii) Notice of any draw upon the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund within two Business Days after knowledge thereof other than (i) withdrawals of amounts in excess of the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement or the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund and (ii) withdrawals in connection with a refunding of Insured Bonds;
- (iv) Notice of any default known to the Trustee, the Board or the Authority within five Business Days after knowledge thereof;
- (v) Prior notice of the advance refunding or redemption of any of the Series 2017 Bonds, including the principal amount, maturities and CUSIP numbers thereof;
- (vi) Notice of the resignation or removal of the Trustee and Bond Registrar and the appointment of, and acceptance of duties by, any successor thereto;
- (vii) Notice of the commencement of any Insolvency Proceeding;
- (viii) Notice of the making of any claim in connection with any Insolvency Proceeding seeking the avoidance as a preferential transfer of any payment of principal of, or interest on, the Insured Bonds;
- (ix) A full original transcript of all proceedings relating to the execution of any amendment, supplement, or waiver to the Bond Documents;
- (x) All reports, notices and correspondence to be delivered to Bondholders under the terms of the Bond Documents; and

(xi) Within thirty (30) days following any litigation or investigation that may have a material adverse effect on the Trust Estate, notice of such litigation or investigation.

In addition, to the extent that the Authority or the Corporation has entered into a continuing disclosure agreement, covenant or undertaking with respect to the Insured Bonds, all information furnished pursuant to such agreements shall also be provided to the Insurer, simultaneously with the furnishing of such information.

(q) The Bond Insurer shall have the right to receive such additional information as it may reasonably request.

(r) The Authority and the Corporation will permit the Bond Insurer to discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Authority and the Corporation or any information the Bond Insurer may reasonably request regarding the security for the Insured Bonds with appropriate officers of the Authority and the Corporation and will use commercially reasonable efforts to enable the Bond Insurer to have access to the facilities, books and records of the Authority and the Corporation on any business day upon reasonable prior notice.

(s) The Trustee shall notify the Bond Insurer of any known failure of the Authority, the Corporation and the Board to provide notices, certificates and other information under the Bond Documents.

(t) Notwithstanding satisfaction of the other conditions to the issuance of Additional Bonds set forth in Article V of the Indenture, no such issuance may occur unless each Debt Service Reserve Fund is fully funded at the respective Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement (including the proposed issue) upon the issuance of such Additional Bonds, in either case unless otherwise permitted by the Bond Insurer.

(u) In determining whether any amendment, consent, waiver or other action to be taken, or any failure to take action, under the Indenture would adversely affect the security for the Insured Bonds or the rights of the Bondholders, the Trustee shall consider the effect of any such amendment, consent, waiver, action or inaction as if there were no Bond Insurance Policy.

(v) No contract shall be entered into or any action taken by which the rights of the Bond Insurer or security for or sources of payment of the Insured Bonds may be impaired or prejudiced in any material respect except upon obtaining the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer.

Section 4.8 Replacement Fund. The Replacement Fund shall be maintained with the Trustee and used to fund the cost of replacing any worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable, or undesirable property, furniture, fixtures, or equipment placed upon or used in connection with the Facilities. Moneys in the Replacement Fund will also be transferred to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in such Accounts, together with money available therefor in the Surplus Fund, is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Bonds.

Section 4.9 Series 2013 Rebate Fund. Moneys deposited and held in the Series 2013 Rebate Fund shall be used to make all rebate payments owed to the United States under the Code, and shall not be subject to the pledge of this Indenture. The Corporation shall make the calculation(s) required by the Code and the Series 2013 Tax Regulatory Agreement and Arbitrage Certificate and shall direct the Trustee to make deposits to and make disbursements from the Series 2013 Rebate Fund that the Corporation determines are in accordance therewith. The Series 2013 Tax Regulatory Agreement and any provisions of this Indenture governing deposits to the Series 2013 Rebate Fund may be superseded or amended by the Corporation (except the requirement of annual calculations and deposits to the Series 2013 Rebate Fund, if required) if accompanied by an opinion of Bond Counsel addressed to the Corporation and the Trustee to the effect that the use of the new Series 2013 Tax Regulatory Agreement will not cause the interest on the Series 2013 Bonds to become includable in gross income of the recipient thereof for federal tax purposes.

Section 4.10 Series 2017 Rebate Fund. Moneys deposited and held in the Series 2017 Rebate Fund shall be used to make all rebate payments owed to the United States under the Code, and shall not be subject to the pledge of this Indenture. The Corporation shall make the calculation(s) required by the Code and the Series 2017 Tax Regulatory Agreement and Arbitrage Certificate and shall direct the Trustee to make deposits to and make disbursements from the Series 2017 Rebate Fund that the Corporation determines are in accordance therewith. The Series 2017 Tax Regulatory Agreement and any provisions of this Indenture governing deposits to the Series 2017 Rebate Fund may be superseded or amended by the Corporation (except the requirement of annual calculations and deposits to the Series 2017 Rebate Fund, if required) if accompanied by an opinion of Bond Counsel addressed to the Corporation and the Trustee to the effect that the use of the new Series 2017 Tax Regulatory Agreement will not cause the interest on the Series 2017 Bonds to become includable in gross income of the recipient thereof for federal tax purposes.

Section 4.11 Series 2019 Rebate Fund. Moneys deposited and held in the Series 2019 Rebate Fund shall be used to make all rebate payments owed to the United States under the Code, and shall not be subject to the pledge of this Indenture. The Corporation, at its own expense, shall make the calculation(s) required by the Code and the Series 2019 Tax Regulatory Agreement and Arbitrage Certificate and shall direct the Trustee to make deposits to and make disbursements from the Series 2019 Rebate Fund that the Corporation determines are in accordance therewith. The Series 2019 Tax Regulatory Agreement and any provisions of this Indenture governing deposits to the Series 2019 Rebate Fund may be superseded or amended by the Corporation (except the requirement of annual calculations and deposits to the Series 2019 Rebate Fund, if required) if accompanied by an opinion of Bond Counsel addressed to the Corporation and the Trustee to the effect that the use of the new Series 2019 Tax Regulatory Agreement will not cause the interest on the Series 2019 Bonds to become includable in gross income of the recipient thereof for federal tax purposes.

Section 4.12 Receipts Fund. There shall be deposited into the Receipts Fund all funds received from or paid on behalf of the Board under the Facilities Lease, including: (i) daily, all rents, charges, and other amounts, held in the deposit account maintained by the Management Company pursuant any Management Agreement; and (ii) all Housing Lawfully Available Funds from the Board used to make Base Rental Payments pursuant to the Facilities Lease. The Trustee will transfer the amount so deposited in the Receipts Fund to the Debt Service Fund without distinction or priority. Moneys on deposit in the Receipts Fund will be withdrawn by the Trustee in accordance with the requirements of this Indenture and ratably on a parity therewith and applied in the following priority:

(a) At such time as may be required by the Tax Regulatory Agreement but not less often than annually, to the Rebate Fund the amount required to be deposited thereunder;

(b) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, beginning on the twenty-fifth (25th) day of the month following the effective date of any Management Agreement, to the Operating Fund (as defined in the Management Agreement) maintained by the Management Company, an amount necessary to make the amount in the Operating Fund equal to the Operating Expenses for the next month as shown on the Operating Budget (as defined in the Management Agreement) for such month, as certified by the Management Company;

(c) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, into the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund, commencing February 25, 2019 an amount equal to one-sixth (1/6th) of the interest due and payable on such Bonds on the next February 1 and August 1 or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund will be sufficient to pay interest on such Bonds on such Interest Payment Date;

(d) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing February 25, 2019, into the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the principal of the Bonds payable on the next Principal Payment Date;

(e) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, any amounts due to the Bond Insurer for amounts due other than the reimbursement of principal of and interest on the respective Bonds insured by such Bond Insurer, which amounts are reimbursed under items (c) and (d) above;

(f) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month following any drawing on the Debt Service Reserve Fund in accordance with the provisions hereof, an amount equal to the lesser of (i) one twelfth (1/12th) of the amount necessary to cause the amount on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund to equal the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement within twelve (12) months or (ii) the excess of the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement over the amount on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund;

(g) Annually, beginning August 1, 2019, the Replacement Fund Annual Funding Requirement if required pursuant to Section 4.30 hereof; or such lesser annual amount as is permitted by the Board of Regents and approved by the Bond Insurer; in each case, as set forth in writing delivered in advance thereof to the Trustee; and, in the event that any funds shall have been withdrawn from the Replacement Fund to cure any deficiency in the Interest Account or the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund pursuant to Section 4.3(c), Section 4.4(c), and Section 4.5(c) of this Indenture, the amount of such withdrawal;

(h) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing the month following the effective date of any Management Agreement, an amount equal to the monthly Management Fee for the current Fiscal Year plus any Management Fee for any prior month that remains unpaid;

(i) Annually on August 1 of each year beginning August 1, 2019 any amounts remaining in the Receipts Fund after making all transfers required to be made on such date under Section 4.12(a) through (h) hereof shall be transferred to the Surplus Fund and applied as set forth in Section 4.18 of this Indenture.

Section 4.13 Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund. Moneys on deposit in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be maintained in an amount equal to the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, and shall be transferred, in accordance with the priority set out in Section 4.3(c) above, to the Interest Account or the Principal Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund in such amount as shall be necessary to remedy any deficiency therein (taking into account any amounts available therefor in the Surplus Fund and the Replacement Fund). Whenever the amount in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund, together with the amount in the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund, is sufficient to pay in full all outstanding Series 2013 Bonds in accordance with their terms, the funds on deposit in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund and shall be available to pay all outstanding Series 2013 Bonds in accordance with their terms. If the balance of the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund is greater than the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, all amounts in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund in excess of the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement shall be transferred to the Interest Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund. In no event shall moneys in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund be used to make payments of principal or interest on the Series 2017 Bonds or the Series 2019 Bonds and in no event shall the moneys in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund be used to make payments of principal and interest on the Series 2013 Bonds.

Section 4.14 Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund.

(a) Monies in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be maintained in an amount equal to the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Requirement. The Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement will initially be satisfied by the deposit of the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy with the Trustee. Monies in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be used solely for transfer to the Series 2017 Debt Service Fund in amounts required to prevent any default in the payment of the principal of and interest on the Series 2017 Bonds.

(b) Whenever the amount in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund, together with the amount in the Series 2017 Debt Service Fund is sufficient to pay in full all Outstanding Series 2017 Bonds in accordance with their terms (including principal or applicable premium and interest thereon), the funds on deposit in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Series 2017 Debt Service Fund and shall be available to pay all Outstanding Series 2017 Bonds. Prior to said transfer, all investments held in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be liquidated to the extent necessary in order to provide for the timely payment of principal and interest (or redemption premium) on the Series 2017 Bonds.

(c) In lieu of the required deposits or transfers to the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund or to provide for the removal of all or a portion of the amounts on deposit in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Authority may, with the prior written consent of the Series 2017 Bond Insurer, cause to be deposited into the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund a surety bond or an insurance policy satisfactory in form and substance to the Series 2017 Bond Insurer for the benefit of the holders of the Series 2017 Bonds or a letter of credit in an amount equal to (i) the difference between the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Requirement and the sums then on deposit in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund, if any, or (ii) the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Requirement. The surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit shall be payable (upon the giving of notice as required thereunder) on any due date on which monies will be required to be withdrawn from the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund and applied to the payment of principal of or interest on any Series 2017 Bonds when such withdrawal cannot be met by amounts on deposit in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund or provided from any other Fund under this Indenture. The insurer providing such surety bond or insurance policy shall be an insurer whose municipal bond insurance policies insuring the payment, when due, of the principal of and interest on municipal bond issues results in such issues being rated not lower than AA by S&P or Aa by Moody's. The letter of credit Authority shall be a bank or trust company that is rated not lower than AA by S&P or Aa by Moody's, and the letter of credit itself shall be rated not lower than AA by S&P or Aa by Moody's. If a disbursement is made pursuant to a surety bond, an insurance policy or a letter of credit provided pursuant to this subsection, The Authority shall be obligated either (i) to reinstate the maximum limits of such surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit or (ii) to deposit into the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund, funds in the amount of the disbursement made under such surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit, or a combination of such alternatives, as shall provide that the amount in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund equals the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Requirement. In connection with its obligation to provide for any reinstatement of amounts on deposit in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund to the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Requirement, the Authority may agree to provide the insurer or the Authority of such letter of credit a pledge of the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund to provide for such reinstatement provided, however, such obligation shall be subject and subordinate to the pledge created by this Indenture as security for the Series 2017 Bonds. Reimbursement of amounts paid by an insurer under a surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit, including interest thereon, shall be made on a monthly basis commencing in the first month following each draw and each such monthly payment shall be in an amount at least equal to 1/12 of the aggregate of such draw and the interest due thereon and shall be credited first to the principal due and then to interest due. In the event that the rating attributable to any insurer providing any surety bond or insurance policy (other than the Surety Provider) or any bank or trust company providing any letter of credit held as above provided in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall fall below that required as above provided, the Authority shall use its best efforts to replace, as soon as possible, such surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit with a surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit which shall be satisfactory to the Series 2017 Bond Insurer and meet the above provided requirements.

(d) In the event that the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund contains both cash and a surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit and a disbursement from the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund is required hereunder, the Trustee shall draw such disbursement first from cash on hand in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund until the cash is completely drawn down before making any draw on the surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit.

(e) In the event that the Trustee makes a disbursement from any surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Authority shall use any available funds first to reimburse the Authority of such surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit prior to using such funds to replenish the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund with any cash necessary to meet the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Requirement.

(f) In the event of the refunding of any Series 2017 Bonds, the Trustee shall, if the Authority so directs, withdraw from the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund all, or any portion of, the amounts accumulated therein with respect to the Series 2017 Bonds being refunded and deposit such amounts to be held for the payment of the principal or redemption premium, if applicable, and interest on the Series 2017 Bonds being refunded; provided that such withdrawal shall not be made unless (i) immediately thereafter the Series 2017 Bonds being refunded shall be deemed to have been paid pursuant to Article XII and (ii) the amount remaining in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund, after giving effect to the issuance of the refunding bonds and the disposition of the proceeds thereof, shall not be less than the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement.

Section 4.15 Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund.

(a) Monies in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be maintained in an amount equal to the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Requirement. The Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement will initially be satisfied by the deposit of the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy with the Trustee. Monies in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be used solely for transfer to the Series 2019 Debt Service Fund in amounts required to prevent any default in the payment of the principal of and interest on the Series 2019 Bonds.

(b) Whenever the amount in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund, together with the amount in the Series 2019 Debt Service Fund is sufficient to pay in full all Outstanding Series 2019 Bonds in accordance with their terms (including principal or applicable premium and interest thereon), the funds on deposit in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Series 2019 Debt Service Fund and shall be available to pay all Outstanding Series 2019 Bonds. Prior to said transfer, all investments held in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be liquidated to the extent necessary in order to provide for the timely payment of principal and interest (or redemption premium) on the Series 2019 Bonds.

(c) In lieu of the required deposits or transfers to the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund or to provide for the removal of all or a portion of the amounts on deposit in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Authority may, with the prior written consent of the Series 2019 Bond Insurer, cause to be deposited into the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund a surety bond or an insurance policy satisfactory in form and substance to the Series 2019 Bond Insurer for the benefit of the holders of the Series 2019 Bonds or a letter of credit in an amount equal to (i) the difference between the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Requirement and the sums then on deposit in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund, if any, or (ii) the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Requirement. The surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit shall be payable (upon the giving of notice as required thereunder) on any due date on which monies will be required to be withdrawn from the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund and applied to the payment of principal of or interest on any Series 2019 Bonds when such withdrawal cannot be met by amounts on deposit in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund or provided from any other Fund under this Indenture. The insurer providing such surety bond or insurance policy shall be an insurer whose municipal bond insurance policies insuring the payment, when due, of the principal of and interest on municipal bond issues results in such issues being rated not lower than AA by S&P or Aa by Moody's. The letter of credit Authority shall be a bank or trust company that is rated not lower than not lower than AA by S&P or Aa by Moody's, and the letter of credit itself shall be rated not lower than AA by S&P or Aa by Moody's. If a disbursement is made pursuant to a surety bond, an insurance policy or a letter of credit provided pursuant to this subsection, The Authority shall be obligated either (i) to reinstate the maximum limits of such surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit or (ii) to deposit into the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund, funds in the amount of the disbursement made under such surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit, or a combination of such alternatives, as shall provide that the amount in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund equals the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Requirement. In connection with its obligation to provide for any reinstatement of amounts on deposit in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund to the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Requirement, the Authority may agree to provide the insurer or the Authority of such letter of credit a pledge of the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund to provide for such reinstatement provided, however, such obligation shall be subject and subordinate to the pledge created by this Indenture as security for the Series 2019 Bonds. Reimbursement of amounts paid by an insurer under a surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit, including interest thereon, shall be made on a monthly basis commencing in the first month following each draw and each such monthly payment shall be in an amount at least equal to 1/12 of the aggregate of such draw and the interest due thereon and shall be credited first to the principal due and then to interest due. In the event that the rating attributable to any insurer providing any surety bond or insurance policy (other than the Surety Provider) or any bank or trust company providing any letter of credit held as above provided in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall fall below that required as above provided, the Authority shall use its best efforts to replace, as soon as possible, such surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit with a surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit which shall be satisfactory to the Series 2019 Bond Insurer and meet the above provided requirements.

(d) In the event that the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund contains both cash and a surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit and a disbursement from the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund is required hereunder, the Trustee shall draw such disbursement first from cash on hand in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund until the cash is completely drawn down before making any draw on the surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit.

(e) In the event that the Trustee makes a disbursement from any surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Authority shall use any available funds first to reimburse the Authority of such surety bond, insurance policy or letter of credit prior to using such funds to replenish the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund with any cash necessary to meet the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Requirement.

(f) In the event of the refunding of any Series 2019 Bonds, the Trustee shall, if the Authority so directs, withdraw from the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund all, or any portion of, the amounts accumulated therein with respect to the Series 2019 Bonds being refunded and deposit such amounts to be held for the payment of the principal or redemption premium, if applicable, and interest on the Series 2019 Bonds being refunded; provided that such withdrawal shall not be made unless (i) immediately thereafter the Series 2019 Bonds being refunded shall be deemed to have been paid pursuant to Article XII and (ii) the amount remaining in the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund, after giving effect to the issuance of the refunding bonds and the disposition of the proceeds thereof, shall not be less than the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement.

Section 4.16 Series 2017 and Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy Provisions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Indenture, the following provisions shall apply as long as the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy or the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy (for purposes of this section, collectively, the "Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy") is in effect:

(a) The Authority shall repay, or cause the Corporation to repay, any draws under the Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy and pay all related reasonable expenses incurred by the Bond Insurer (as such term is defined in Section 3.14 hereof) and shall pay interest thereon from the date of payment by the Bond Insurer at the Late Payment Rate. "Late Payment Rate" means the lesser of (x) the greater of (i) the per annum rate of interest, publicly announced from time to time by JPMorgan Chase Bank at its principal office in the City of New York, as its prime or base lending rate ("Prime Rate") (any change in such Prime Rate to be effective on the date such change is announced by JPMorgan Chase Bank) plus 3%, and (ii) the then applicable highest rate of interest on the Insured Bonds (as such term is defined in Section 3.14 hereof), as applicable, and (y) the maximum rate permissible under applicable usury or similar laws limiting interest rates. The Late Payment Rate shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a year of 360 days. In the event JPMorgan Chase Bank ceases to announce its Prime Rate publicly, Prime Rate shall be the publicly announced prime or base lending rate of such national bank as the Bond Insurer shall specify. If the interest provisions of this subparagraph (a) shall result in an effective rate of interest which, for any period, exceeds the limit of the usury or any other laws applicable to the indebtedness created herein, then all sums in excess of those lawfully collectible as interest for the period in question shall, without further agreement or notice between or by any party hereto, be applied as additional interest for any later periods of time when amounts are outstanding hereunder to the extent that interest otherwise due hereunder for such periods plus such additional interest would not exceed the limit of the usury or such other laws, and any excess shall be applied upon principal immediately upon receipt of such moneys by the Bond Insurer, with the same force and effect as if the Authority or the Corporation had specifically designated such extra sums to be so applied and the Bond Insurer had agreed to accept such extra payment(s) as additional interest for such later periods. In no event shall any agreed-to or actual exaction as consideration for the indebtedness created herein exceed the limits imposed or provided by the law applicable to this transaction for the use or detention of money or for forbearance in seeking its collection.

Repayment of draws and payment of expenses and accrued interest thereon at the Late Payment Rate (collectively, "Policy Costs") shall commence in the first month following each draw, and each such monthly payment shall be in an amount at least equal to 1/12 of the aggregate of Policy Costs related to such draw.

Amounts in respect of Policy Costs paid to the Bond Insurer shall be credited first to interest due, then to the expenses due and then to principal due. As and to the extent that payments are made to the Bond Insurer on account of principal due, the coverage under the Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy will be increased by a like amount, subject to the terms of the Reserve Policy. The obligation to pay Policy Costs shall be secured by a valid lien on all revenues and other collateral pledged as security for the Insured Bonds (subject only to the priority of payment provisions set forth under this Indenture).

All cash and investments in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Debt Service Fund for payment of debt service on the Series 2017 Bonds and the Series 2019 Bonds, as applicable, before any drawing may be made on the applicable Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy or any other credit facility credited to the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund in lieu of cash ("Credit Facility"). Payment of any Policy Costs shall be made prior to replenishment of any such cash amounts. Draws on all Credit Facilities (including the applicable Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy) on which there is available coverage shall be made on a pro-rata basis (calculated by reference to the coverage then available thereunder) after applying all available cash and investments in the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund. Payment of Policy Costs and reimbursement of amounts with respect to other Credit Facilities shall be made on a pro-rata basis prior to replenishment of any cash drawn from the Series 2017 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Series 2019 Debt Service Reserve Fund. For the avoidance of doubt, "available coverage" means the coverage then available for disbursement pursuant to the terms of the applicable alternative credit instrument without regard to the legal or financial ability or willingness of the provider of such instrument to honor a claim or draw thereon or the failure of such provider to honor any such claim or draw.

(b) If either the Authority or the Corporation shall fail to pay any Policy Costs in accordance with the requirements of subparagraph (a) hereof, the Bond Insurer shall be entitled to exercise any and all legal and equitable remedies available to it, including those provided under the Indenture other than (i) acceleration of the maturity of the Bonds or (ii) remedies which would adversely affect owners of the Bonds.

(c) The Indenture shall not be discharged until all Policy Costs owing to the Bond Insurer shall have been paid in full. The Authority's obligation to pay such amounts shall expressly survive payment in full of the Insured Bonds.

(d) The Authority shall include any Policy Costs then due and owing the Bond Insurer in the calculation of the additional bonds test and the rate covenant in the Bond Documents.

(e) The Trustee shall ascertain the necessity for a claim upon the Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (a) hereof and provide notice to the Bond Insurer in accordance with the terms of the Debt Service Reserve Fund Surety Policy at least three (3) Business Days prior to each date upon which interest or principal is due on the Insured Bonds.

Nothing in this Section 4.16 is intended to require or obligate nor shall anything herein be interpreted to require or obligate the Authority for any purpose or at any time whatsoever, to provide, apply or expend any funds coming into the hands of the Authority other than from the Trust Estate, which Trust Estate shall include without limitation payments under Section 6 of the Facilities Lease.

Section 4.17 Reserved.

Section 4.18 Surplus Fund. The Surplus Fund will continue to be maintained with the Trustee. Upon satisfaction of certain performance covenants contained in the Indenture, funds on deposit in the Surplus Fund at the end of any Fiscal Year may be transferred to the University. Until such transfer, moneys in the Surplus Fund will be available to be transferred to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in such Accounts is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Bonds.

Section 4.19 Series 2019 Current Refunding Fund. The Series 2019 Current Refunding Fund shall be maintained by the Trustee in trust and shall be used to receive the immediate transfer from the proceeds of the Series 2019 Bonds as provided in Section 4.2 hereof. Moneys in the Current Refunding Fund shall be used by the Trustee to redeem the Series 2004B Bonds on February __, 2019. Any amounts remaining in the Series 2019 Current Refunding Fund following redemption of the Series 2004B Bonds on February __, 2019 shall be deposited into the Interest Account of the Series 2019 Debt Service Fund.

Section 4.20 Investments.

(a) Moneys contained in the funds and accounts held by the Trustee under Section 4.1 of this Indenture shall be continuously invested and reinvested by the Trustee at the direction of the Corporation in Permitted Investments, to the extent practicable, that shall mature (or be readily convertible to cash) not later than the respective dates, as estimated by the Corporation, when the moneys in said Funds and Accounts shall be required for the purposes intended, and:

(i) No such investment shall be required to be made unless the cash at the time available therefor is at least equal to $1,000;

(ii) The Trustee shall be authorized, to the extent necessary to enable the Trustee to discharge or perform its obligations hereunder, at any one or more times to sell any part or all of the investments whenever it may, for any reason or purpose whatsoever, deem any such sale to be desirable;

(iii) Any income derived from and any profit or loss on any such investment of moneys on deposit in any such fund or account shall be credited or debited, as the case may be, to the respective fund or account in which earned except that if the balance of the Debt Service Reserve Fund is equal to or greater than the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, earnings in the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Interest Account of the appropriate Debt Service Fund;

(iv) No Permitted Investments in any fund or account may mature beyond the latest maturity date of any Bonds outstanding at the time such Permitted Investments are deposited. For the purposes of this section, the maturity date of repurchase agreements for obligations is the maturity date of such repurchase agreements and not the maturity date of the underlying obligation;

(v) Moneys in the Debt Service Reserve Fund may be invested only in Permitted Investments maturing or redeemable at the option of the holder not later than two (2) years from the date of purchase thereof; provided, however, if moneys in the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be invested in a guaranteed investment contract the Value of which is equal to the amount available to be withdrawn therefrom, such guaranteed investment contract may have a term of up to ten (10) years; and

(vi) No float forward or forward purchase agreement or other arrangement, agreement or financial product may be utilized in connection with the Debt Service Fund the Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Replacement Fund unless the Bond Insurer so permits and the terms thereof (including, without limitation, the parties thereto) are satisfactory to the Bond Insurer and, if satisfactory to the Bond Insurer, such agreements will constitute Permitted Investments.

(b) An Authorized Corporation Representative shall give to the Trustee directions respecting the investment of any money required to be invested hereunder, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article and Article V of the Agreement, and the Trustee shall then invest such money under this Section as so directed. The Trustee shall in no event have any liability for any loss resulting from the investment of moneys in accordance with the directions of the Authorized Corporation Representative. The Trustee shall furnish the Authority annually with a written copy and the Corporation with a written copy for the Board, on at least a monthly basis, of the types, amounts, yield and maturities of all such investments.

(c) All cash investments shall be valued by the Trustee as frequently as deemed necessary by the Trustee, but not less often than annually, at the market value thereof. Deficiencies in the amount on deposit in any fund or account resulting from a decline in market value shall be restored no later than the succeeding valuation date.

Section 4.21 Depository of Moneys and Security for Deposits. All of the funds and accounts established hereunder (except for the Rebate Fund) shall be special trust accounts held by the Trustee in trust for the benefit of the owners of the Bonds and shall not be subject to lien or attachment by any creditors of the Trustee, the Authority, the Corporation, or the Board. Uninvested sums in these funds and accounts shall be continually secured as are deposits of uninvested sinking funds of political subdivisions of the State or in the manner prescribed by Federal law for securing any Federal trust funds as may be prescribed from time to time by the Comptroller of the Currency.

Section 4.22 Arbitrage. Notwithstanding all the provisions hereof, the Authority or the Corporation shall not direct the investment of moneys in the various funds and accounts created hereunder in a manner that would result in the loss of exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for Federal income tax purposes or in such manner which would result in the Bonds becoming "arbitrage bonds" within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code.

Section 4.23 Payments from the Series 2017 Project Fund.

(a) Payment of the Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities shall be made from the proceeds of the Series 2017 Bonds deposited into the Series 2017 Project Fund; provided, however that interest earnings on the amounts deposited into the Series 2017 Project Fund shall be transferred semi-annually fifteen (15) days prior to each Interest Payment Date, to the corresponding account of the Series 2017 Debt Service Fund and used to make the next payment of interest on the Series 2017 Bonds. All payments from the Series 2017 Project Fund shall be subject to the provisions and restrictions set forth in this Article, and the Authority covenants that it will not cause or permit to be paid from the Series 2017 Project Fund any sums except in accordance with such provisions and restrictions.

(b) Moneys in the Series 2017 Project Fund shall be used to pay the Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities; provided that if an Event of Default under the Agreement or this Indenture has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall transfer moneys in the Series 2017 Project Fund to the appropriate account of the Series 2017 Debt Service Fund for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the Series 2017 Bonds.

Section 4.24 Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities. For the purpose of this Indenture, the Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities shall embrace such costs as are eligible costs within the purview of the Act and, with respect to the Series 2017 Bonds, the Code and, without intending thereby to limit or restrict any proper definition of such costs, shall include the following:

(a) obligations incurred by the Corporation for the benefit of the Board with respect to the lease of the Land and the design, acquisition, construction, demolition, and installation of the Series 2017 Facilities, for labor, materials, and services provided by contractors, builders, and others in connection with the demolition, construction, and equipping of the Series 2017 Facilities, machinery and equipment, necessary water and sewer lines and connections, utilities and landscaping, the restoration or relocation of any property damaged or destroyed in connection with such construction, the removal, demolition or relocation of any structures, and the clearing of lands and the reasonably allocable expenses of the Corporation with respect to the Series 2017 Facilities; the cost of acquiring by purchase, if deemed expedient, or leasing such Land, rights, rights of way, servitudes, easements, franchises, and other interests as may be deemed necessary or convenient by the Authorized Corporation Representative for the construction and equipping of the Series 2017 Facilities, the cost of options and partial payments thereon, the cost of demolishing or removing any buildings or structures on land so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved and the amount of any damages incident to or consequent upon the construction of the Series 2017 Facilities;

(c) interest on the Series 2017 Bonds prior to the establishment of the completion date of the Series 2017 Facilities pursuant to Section 3.7 of the Agreement, and the reasonable fees and expenses, including counsel fees, of the Trustee for its services prior to and during construction, and premiums on insurance, if any, in connection with the Series 2017 Facilities;

(d) the cost of borings and other preliminary investigations, if any, to determine foundation or other conditions, expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of constructing the Series 2017 Facilities and fees and expenses of engineers, architects, management consultants for making studies, surveys and estimates of cost and of revenues and other estimates, costs of environmental surveys, reports and remediation, and fees and expenses of engineers and architects for preparing plans and specifications and supervising construction as well as for the performance of all other duties of engineers and architects set forth herein in relation to the acquisition and construction of the Series 2017 Facilities and the issuance of the Series 2017 Bonds therefor;

(e) other items of expense not elsewhere in this Section specified incident to the lease of the Land and the demolition, design, construction, and equipping of the Series 2017 Facilities and the financing thereof, including professional fees, moving expenses, the acquisition of lands, property, rights, rights of way, easements, franchises, and interest in or relating to lands, including title insurance, cost of demand surveys, other surveys, and other expenses in connection with such acquisition, legal fees and expenses, and expenses of administration and overhead, all properly chargeable, in the opinion of the Authorized Corporation Representative, to the acquisition, demolition, construction, and equipping of the Series 2017 Facilities; and

(f) any obligation or expense heretofore or hereafter incurred or paid by the Corporation for or in connection with any of the foregoing purposes, including general legal fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Series 2017 Facilities.

Section 4.25 Requisitions from the Series 2017 Project Fund

(a) Payments from the Series 2017 Project Fund shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this Section. In connection with a payment from the Series 2017 Project Fund, there shall be filed with the Trustee a requisition, substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto and made a part hereof, signed by an Authorized Corporation Representative, stating:

- (i) the item number of each such payment;
- (ii) the name of the person, firm, or corporation to whom each such payment is due, or, if such payment has been made by the Corporation, that the Trustee is to reimburse the Corporation directly for such payment;
- (iii) the respective amounts to be paid;
- (iv) the purpose by general classification for which each obligation to be paid was incurred;
- (v) that obligations in the stated amounts have been incurred by the Corporation and are either (A) presently due and payable or (B) have been paid by the Corporation and that each item thereof is a proper charge against the Series 2017 Project Fund and has not been the subject of any prior requisition;
- (vi) that such requisition contains no item representing payment on account of any retainage to which the Corporation is entitled at the date of such requisition; and
- (vii) a certification that all work, materials, supplies, and equipment that are the subject of such requisition have been performed or delivered and are in accordance with the description of the Series 2017 Facilities referred to above.

(b) Upon receipt of each requisition, the Trustee shall pay the obligations set forth in such requisition out of the money in the Series 2017 Project Fund, and each such obligation shall be paid by check signed by one or more officers or employees of the Trustee designated for such purpose by the Trustee or by wire transfer or credit to an account of the Corporation held by the Trustee or in such other manner as may be agreed on by the Corporation and the Trustee. In making such payments the Trustee may rely upon such requisitions. If for any reason the Corporation should decide prior to the payment of any item in a requisition not to pay such item, it shall give written notice of such decision to the Trustee and thereupon the Trustee shall not make such payment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided in this Section, prior to payment of the first requisition, the Bondholders shall have received or shall have had an opportunity to review copies of a Memorandum of Ground Lease, a Memorandum of Facilities Lease, the Mortgage, and a UCC-1, each with stamped recordation information indicating that each document has been recorded in the mortgage, conveyance or clerk of court records of Tangipahoa Parish, as appropriate.

(c) The Trustee agrees to accept and act upon instructions or directions pursuant to this Indenture sent by unsecured e-mail, facsimile transmission or other similar unsecured or electronic methods, provided however, that (i) such originally executed instructions or directions shall be signed by a person as may be designated and authorized to sign for the Corporation or in the name of the Corporation, by an authorized representative of the Corporation, and (ii) the Corporation shall provide to the Trustee an incumbency certificate listing such designated persons, which incumbency certificate shall be amended whenever a person is to be added or deleted from the listing. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses, costs or expenses arising directly or indirectly from the Trustee's reliance upon and compliance with such instructions notwithstanding such instructions conflict with or are inconsistent with a subsequent written instruction.

Section 4.26 Reliance upon Requisitions. All requisitions and opinions received by the Trustee as conditions of payment from the Series 2017 Project Fund may be relied upon by the Trustee and shall be retained by the Trustee, subject at all reasonable times to examination by the Authority, the Board, and the Corporation.

Section 4.27 Completion of the Series 2017 Facilities and Disposition of the Series 2017 Project Fund Balance. When the construction and renovation of the Series 2017 Facilities shall have been completed, which fact shall be evidenced to the Trustee by a certificate of an Authorized Corporation Representative delivered to the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.7 of the Agreement, the balance in the Series 2017 Project Fund shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Series 2017 Debt Service Fund (subject to the provisions of Section 4.4 hereof) and applied to redeem the Series 2017 Bonds in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.4 hereof, or as a credit towards the next debt service payment on the Series 2017 Bonds, all in accordance with the written direction of an Authorized Corporation Representative.

Section 4.28 Amounts Remaining in Funds; Releases. It is agreed by the parties hereto that any amounts remaining in the Funds and Accounts existing pursuant to this Indenture upon the expiration or sooner cancellation or termination of the Agreement, as provided therein, after payment in full of all Bonds then outstanding under this Indenture (or provisions for the payment thereof having been made in accordance with Article XII of this Indenture), and the fees, charges, and expenses of the Authority, the Bond Insurer, and the Trustee and all other amounts required to be paid under the Agreement and under this Indenture, other than amounts payable as arbitrage rebate under Section 148(f) of the Code, shall belong to and be paid to the Board.

Section 4.29 Application of Insurance Proceeds; Condemnation Award

(a) If all or any portion of the Facilities is damaged or destroyed by a Casualty (as defined in the Facilities Lease), or is taken by Expropriation (as defined in the Facilities Lease) proceedings, the Board shall instruct the Corporation, as expeditiously as possible, to continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof, provided however, that the Corporation shall in no way be liable for any costs of the repair, restoration, or replacement of the Facilities in excess of the proceeds of any insurance or of any Expropriation award received because of such Casualty or Expropriation. The proceeds of any insurance, including the proceeds of any self-insurance through ORM, or of any Expropriation award or payment in lieu of Expropriation, received on account of any damage, destruction, or taking of all or any portion of the Facilities shall be delivered to the Trustee and held by the Trustee in a special account to be established upon receipt of any such funds and held by the Trustee in trust or in the case of self-insurance through ORM, as set forth in paragraph (b) below; and shall be made available for, and to the extent necessary be applied to, such restoration, repair, and replacement. Any amounts so held by the Trustee shall be disbursed to pay the costs of restoration, replacement, and repair of the Facilities with respect to which they are held, in each case promptly after receipt of a written request of the Corporation as advised by the Board stating that the amount to be disbursed pursuant to such request will be used to pay costs of replacing or repairing or restoring the Facilities and that no amount previously has been disbursed by the Trustee for payment of the costs to be so paid. In making such payments, the Trustee may conclusively rely upon such written requests and shall have no liability or responsibility to investigate any matter stated therein, or for any inaccuracy or misstatement therein. In no event shall the Trustee be responsible for the adequacy of the plans and specifications or construction contract relating to the replacement, restoration, or repair of the Facilities, or for the improper use of moneys properly disbursed pursuant to request made under this Section. Any proceeds remaining on deposit with Trustee following completion of the repairs, restoration, or replacement of the Facilities shall be paid by Trustee to the Corporation for the Board.

(b) In the event the University decides not to repair, restore or replace the Series 2004 Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation and including any portion of such payments attributable to the Board's interest) shall be paid to the Trustee and applied to the prepayment of the Series 2013 Bonds and the Series 2019 Bonds in accordance with the terms of this Indenture. In the event the University decides not to repair, restore, or replace the Series 2017 Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation) shall be paid to the Trustee and applied to the redemption of the Series 2017 Bonds on a pro rata basis in accordance with this Indenture.

(c) In the event that ORM insures the Facilities, the Board shall cause the Corporation to use the insurance proceeds received from ORM in accordance with Policy and Procedure Memorandum Number 10 (requiring invoices to be submitted to ORM for payment to vendors, or alternatively, production of invoices paid by the Board to ORM for reimbursement of vendor payments) to effect the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities.

Section 4.30 Application of Money in the Replacement Fund.

(a) The Trustee shall, in accordance with Section 4.12 hereof, deposit an amount equal to the Replacement Fund Annual Funding Requirement into the Replacement Fund, annually on each August 1. Alternatively and with respect to the Series 2017 Bonds only, this requirement shall be deemed to have been satisfied and no annual deposits shall be required under Section 4.12 hereof if the Board shall cause to be deposited with the Trustee a one-time deposit to the Replacement Fund in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the hard construction costs of the Series 2017 Facilities (not including professional services and fees) on August 1 of the first full Fiscal Year of operation of the Series 2017 Facilities. The amounts required to be deposited to the Replacement Fund hereunder may be reduced with the approval of the staff of the Board of Regents of the State of Louisiana, the Board and the Bond Insurer.

(b) All moneys in the Replacement Fund shall be held for the benefit of the Board through the Corporation, are not pledged under this Indenture and may be drawn on and used by the Corporation or the Board to (i) replace any worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable, or undesirable property, furniture, equipment, fixtures, and other property owned by the Board or the Corporation and located on the Facilities and (ii) maintain the Facilities and to make all alterations, repairs, restorations, and replacements to the Facilities as and when needed to preserve the Facilities in good working order, condition, and repair, each as required by the Facilities Lease. Withdrawals from the Replacement Fund for the purposes set forth above shall be made by the Trustee upon its receipt of a requisition from the Board or the Corporation substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C to this Indenture. Moneys in the Replacement Fund may also be drawn by the Trustee and transferred to the Debt Service Fund if amounts on deposit therein, together with amounts available therefor in the Surplus Fund, are insufficient to pay debt service on the Bonds on any Interest Payment Date or Principal Payment Date.

(c) Any moneys remaining in the Replacement Fund immediately prior to the time all of the Bonds are paid, or provision for their payment is made in accordance with Article XII of the Indenture, shall, at the option of the University, be used, together with amounts held in the Debt Service Reserve Fund to pay in full all outstanding Bonds in accordance with their terms or shall be paid to the University.

Section 4.31 Application of Money in the Surplus Fund.

(a) Funds on deposit in the Surplus Fund at the end of any Fiscal Year may be transferred to the University on the date described below if (i) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities was 1.10:1.00 or greater for such Fiscal Year as evidenced by the audited financial statements for such Fiscal Year and (ii) neither the Corporation or the Board are in default under the financing documents on the date of transfer to the University. Upon receipt of the audited financial statements for such Fiscal Year, provided that the above described conditions have been met, then at the written instruction of the Board Representative, the Trustee shall transfer all of the amounts in the Surplus Fund on the last day of the immediately preceding Fiscal Year to the University.

(b) To the extent that there are insufficient funds in the Receipts Fund to make any of the transfers to the various funds and accounts required under Section 4.8(a) through (j) hereof on the dates such transfers are required to be made, any amounts contained in the Surplus Fund shall be transferred to such funds and accounts, in the priority set forth in Section 4.8 hereof, to make up for such deficiency.

Section 4.32 Application of Moneys in the Rebate Fund. Moneys in the Rebate Fund shall be used to make any rebate payments required to be made to the United States under the Code. The Rebate Fund shall be held for the sole benefit of the United States of America and is not pledged under this Indenture. Moneys required to be paid to the United States shall be deposited in the Rebate Fund, as applicable, by the Board as Base Rental under the Facilities Lease as required thereby and by this Indenture.

ARTICLE V ADDITIONAL BONDS

Section 5.1 Additional Bonds.

(a) Additional Bonds may be issued in one or more series by the Authority at the request of the Corporation as advised by the Board under a supplement to this Indenture to pay all or part of the additional cost of the Facilities, so long as:

(i) No Event of Default under this Indenture has occurred and is then continuing and the Authority shall have approved the issuance of such additional bonds; and

(ii) There shall have been filed with the Trustee an opinion of an attorney or firm of attorneys generally recognized as having expertise in matters relating to municipal bonds to the effect that the exclusion from "gross income" for federal income tax purposes of the interest on the Bonds then outstanding under this Indenture shall not be adversely affected.

Such series of Additional Bonds shall be appropriately designated, shall be dated, shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding the maximum rate then permitted by law, shall be numbered, shall have such paying agents and shall have such maturities and redemption provisions, all as may be provided in the supplement to this Indenture or the separate indenture authorizing the issuance of such series of Additional Bonds. It is anticipated that Additional Bonds will be issued hereunder to finance phase three of the Facilities.

The written consent of the Bond Insurer shall not be required in connection with the issuance of such Additional Bonds, but the Bond Insurer shall have the right to review and approve the documentation prepared in connection with the issuance of such Additional Bonds to ensure that such documentation is as contemplated by this Indenture and does not adversely affect the rights of the Bond Insurer under this Indenture in a manner not contemplated hereby.

(b) Additional Bonds may be issued under this Indenture for any other purpose with the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer.

Section 5.2 Refunding. Refunding Bonds may be issued under and secured by a supplement to this Indenture for the purpose of providing funds for the refunding of the Bonds and Additional Bonds; provided that if Refunding Bonds are issued other than for the purpose of realizing interest savings, the Bond Insurer's consent in writing must be obtained prior to the issuance of such Additional Bonds and the execution of a Supplemental Indenture in accordance with Section 10.1(d) hereof.

Section 5.3 Additional Bonds and Refunding Bonds. The Bond Insurer shall receive copies of any disclosure documents circulated with respect to such Additional Bonds and Refunding Bonds.

ARTICLE VI COSTS OF ISSUANCE

Section 6.1 Payment of Costs of Issuance from Series 2019 Bond Proceeds Fund. There shall be paid into the Series 2019 Costs of Issuance Account in the Series 2019 Bond Proceeds Fund the amounts required to be so paid from Series 2019 Bond proceeds pursuant to Section 4.2 of this Indenture; and such amounts shall be applied to the payment of all items of expense, directly or indirectly payable or reimbursable and related to the authorization, sale and issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds including, but not limited to, publication costs, printing costs, costs of preparation and reproduction of documents, filing and recording fees, initial fees and charges of the Trustee, the Authority, or any other fiduciary, legal fees and charges, fees and disbursements of consultants and professionals and any other cost, charge or fee in connection with the original sale and issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds. Any additional costs of issuance shall be paid solely by the Corporation. The Trustee shall make payments from the Series 2019 Costs of Issuance Account upon receipt of statements from the parties entitled to be paid therefrom accompanied by a written request of the Authority directing the Trustee to pay such statements. Any amounts remaining in the Series 2019 Costs of Issuance Account after payment in full of all of the expenses and costs of issuance of the Series 2019 Bonds shall be transferred to the Interest Account of the Series 2019 Debt Service Fund.

ARTICLE VII ENFORCEMENT OF AGREEMENT AND FACILITIES LEASE

Section 7.1 Assignment of Agreement and Facilities Lease. The Authority has assigned all of its right, title, and interest in, to, and under the Agreement (except for rights relating to exculpation, indemnification, and payment of expenses thereunder), including the interest of the Authority in and to the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease assigned by the Corporation to the Authority thereunder (except for payments of Additional Rentals made under the Facilities Lease), to the Trustee as security for the Bonds and hereby agrees that the Agreement and the Facilities Lease may be enforced by the Trustee and/or the owners of the Bonds in accordance with the terms of the Facilities Lease and this Indenture. Notwithstanding such assignment, the Authority agrees to cause the Corporation to comply with the terms contained in the Agreement and the Facilities Lease and the rights of the Bondholders and the Trustee shall be governed by the provisions of this Indenture, the Agreement, and the Facilities Lease.

The Trustee may, and upon request of the Bond Insurer or a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding shall, subject to the provisions of Section 8.11 and Article IX hereof, strictly and promptly enforce the provisions of the Agreement, the Facilities Lease, and the Mortgage so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding under this Indenture. All rights of action (including the right to file proof of claims) to enforce the Agreement, the Facilities Lease, and the Mortgage under this Indenture or under any of the Bonds may be enforced by the Trustee without the possession of the Bonds and without their production in any trial or other proceeding relating thereto. Any such suit or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name as Trustee for the Bondholders without the necessity of joining as plaintiffs or defendants any of the Bondholders.

ARTICLE VIII EVENTS OF DEFAULT; REMEDIES

Section 8.1 No Extension of Time for Payment of Principal, Premium, or Interest. The Trustee shall not be authorized to extend the time for any payment of principal, premium or interest without the prior written consent of or authorization by the owner of the Bonds so affected.

(iv) A default shall occur under Section 21 of the Facilities Lease;

(v) If by action or inaction of the Authority, the Board, or the Corporation the interest on the Bonds shall become includable in gross income for Federal income tax purposes; or

(vi) Default by the Authority in the due and punctual performance of any other of the covenants, conditions, agreements, and provisions contained in the Bonds or in this Indenture on the part of the Authority to be performed, if such default shall continue for thirty (30) days after written notice specifying such default and requiring the same to be remedied shall have been given to the Authority, the Board, the Bond Insurer and the Corporation by the Trustee, which may give such notice in its discretion and shall give such notice at the written request of the owners of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding. Such default shall not become an Event of Default if said default be of the nature that (A) it cannot be corrected within the thirty (30) day period after receipt of notice, but the Authority (or the Corporation pursuant to the provisions of Section 8.14 of this Indenture) promptly shall institute and diligently pursue corrective action until such default is cured, (B) the Trustee shall determine that such default is not curable but such default does not affect the validity or enforceability of the Bonds, this Indenture, or the Agreement, an event of nonperformance shall not have occurred under the Agreement (other than as a result of the cross-default provisions), and such default does not impair the security or the obligations provided for or under the Bonds, this Indenture, or the Agreement and (C) the Bond Insurer shall have consented to such event not being an Event of Default.

(b) The word “default” as used herein means failure of performance when due, exclusive of any period of grace, if any, allowed to correct any such failure.

(c) For all purposes of this Article VIII (other than Section 8.13 hereof), the Bond Insurer shall be deemed to be the sole owner of the Bonds it has insured for so long as it has not failed to comply with its payment obligations under the Bond Insurance Policies, and the Bond Insurer shall be entitled to (i) notify the Trustee of the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder, (ii) request that the Trustee intervene in judicial proceedings that affect the Bonds or the security therefor, (iii) direct all remedies in the Event of Default, (iv) be recognized as the owner of each Bond which it insures for the purposes of exercising all rights and privileges available to Bondholders, (v) have the right to institute any suit, action, or proceeding at law or in equity under the same terms as a Bondholder in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture or each Bond for which it insures.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any acceleration of principal payments must be subject to the Bond Insurer’s prior written consent.

Section 8.3 Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Authority, the Trustee, and, subject to Sections 8.10 and 8.11, and all rights granted to the Bond Insurer under Article VIII of the Indenture, the Bondholders shall have all the rights and remedies as may be allowed by law, the Indenture, the Mortgage, or pursuant to the provisions of the Agreement and/or the Facilities Lease by virtue of their assignment hereunder, including but not limited to, acceleration of the maturity of all Bonds, or suit at law or in equity to enforce or enjoin the action or inaction of parties under the provisions of the Indenture, the Mortgage, the Agreement or the Facilities Lease.

Section 8.4 Acceleration; Annulment of Acceleration.

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default described in Section 8.2 of the Indenture, the Trustee may, and upon the written request of the Bond Insurer or the owners of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds shall, by notice in writing to the Authority, the Board, and the Corporation, declare the Bonds then outstanding immediately due and payable, and such Bonds shall become and be immediately due and payable, anything in such Bonds or in the Agreement or this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, and, subject to Article IX, the Trustee may exercise any remedies granted to it therein. In such event, there shall be due and payable on the Bonds an amount equal to the principal amount of all the Bonds then outstanding plus all interest accrued thereon and which will accrue thereon to the date of payment; and

(b) At any time after the principal of the Bonds shall have been so declared to be due and payable and before the entry of final judgment or decree in any suit, action, or proceeding instituted on account of such default, or before the completion of the enforcement of any other remedy under the Indenture, the Mortgage, the Agreement, or the Facilities Lease, the Trustee may annul such declaration and its consequences with respect to the Bonds if (i) moneys shall have been deposited in the Debt Service Fund sufficient to pay all matured installments of principal (other than principal due solely because of acceleration) and interest; (ii) moneys shall be available sufficient to pay the charges, compensation, expenses, disbursements, advances, and liabilities of the Authority and the Trustee; (iii) all other amounts then payable by the Authority or the Corporation the Indenture or the Agreement shall have been paid or a sum sufficient to pay the same shall have been deposited with the Trustee; and (iv) every Event of Default known to the Authority or the Trustee (other than a default in the payment of the principal of the Bonds due only because of such declaration) shall have been remedied to the satisfaction of the Authority and the Trustee. No such annulment shall extend to or affect any subsequent Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

(c) No waiver of any Event of Default shall be effective without the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer.

Section 8.5 Insufficiency in the Debt Service Fund; Application of Moneys.

(a) Anything in this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, if at any time the moneys in the Debt Service Fund shall not be sufficient to pay the interest on, premium, if any, or the principal of the Bonds, as applicable, as the same shall become due and payable (either by their terms or by acceleration of maturities), such moneys, together with any other moneys then available or thereafter becoming available for such purpose, whether through the exercise of the remedies provided for in this Article or otherwise, including, without limitation, moneys paid by the Corporation pursuant to the Mortgage, shall, subject to the provisions of Sections 9.2 and 9.4 hereof, be applied as follows:

(i) Unless the principal of all the Bonds shall have become or shall have been declared due and payable, all such moneys shall be applied:

FIRST, to the payment to the persons entitled thereto of all installments of interest then due and payable in the order in which such installments became due and payable and, if the amount available shall not be sufficient to pay any particular installment, then to the payment thereof, ratably, according to the amounts due on such installment, to the persons entitled thereto, without any discrimination or preference except as to any difference in the respective rates of interest specified in the Bonds, as applicable; then

SECOND, to the payment to the persons entitled thereto of the unpaid principal of any of the Bonds which shall have become due and payable (other than Bonds called for redemption for the payment of which moneys are held pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture) in the order of their due dates, with interest on the principal amount of such Bonds due and payable, and, if the amount available shall not be sufficient to pay in full the principal of the Bonds and their interest thereon, then to the payment thereof ratably, according to the amount of the interest due on such date, and next to the payment of the principal, ratably, according to the amount of such principal due on such date, to the persons entitled thereto without any discrimination or preference; and then

THIRD, to the payment of the interest on and the principal of the Bonds, to the purchase and retirement of Bonds and to the redemption of Bonds, all in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture.

(ii) If the principal of all the Bonds shall have become or shall have been declared due and payable, all such moneys shall be applied to the payment of the principal and interest then due and unpaid upon the Bonds, without preference or priority of principal over interest or of interest over principal, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, or of any Bond over any other Bond, ratably, according to the amounts due respectively for principal and interest, to the persons entitled thereto without any discrimination or preference; and

(iii) If the principal of all the Bonds shall have been declared due and payable and if such declaration shall thereafter have been rescinded and annulled, then, subject to the provisions of Section 8.4(b) above, in the event that the principal of all the Bonds shall later become or be declared due and payable, then all such moneys shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.4(a) above.

(b) Whenever money is to be applied by the Trustee pursuant to the provisions of this Section, such money shall be applied by the Trustee at such times and from time to time as the Trustee in its sole discretion shall determine, having due regard to the amount of such money available for application and the likelihood of additional money becoming available for application in the future; the deposit of such money or otherwise setting aside such money in trust for the proper purpose shall constitute proper application by the Trustee; and the Trustee shall incur no liability whatsoever to the Authority, to any Bondholder or to any other person for any delay in applying any such money, so long as the Trustee acts with reasonable diligence, having due regard to the circumstances, and ultimately applies the same in accordance with such provisions of this Indenture as may be applicable at the time of application by the Trustee. Whenever the Trustee shall exercise such discretion in applying such money, it shall fix the date (which shall be an Interest Payment Date unless the Trustee shall deem another date more suitable) upon which such application is to be made and upon such date interest on the amounts of principal to be paid on such date shall cease to accrue. The Trustee shall give such notice as it may deem appropriate of the fixing of any such date and shall not be required to make payment to the owner of any Bond shall be surrendered to the Trustee for appropriate endorsement or for cancellation if fully paid.

Section 8.6 Discontinuance of Proceedings. In case any proceeding taken by the Trustee on account of any Event of Default shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, then and in every such case the Authority, the Trustee and the Bondholders shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder, respectively, and all rights, remedies, powers and duties of the Trustee shall continue as though no proceeding had been taken.

Section 8.7 Appointment of Receiver. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, and upon filing of a suit or other commencement of judicial proceedings to enforce the rights of the Trustee and of the Bondholders under this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to the appointment of a receiver or keeper pending such proceedings, with such powers as the court making such appointment shall confer. Any expenses incurred in connection with such appointment shall be paid by the Corporation but only from the Trust Estate.

Section 8.8 Remedies Not Exclusive. No remedy by the terms of this Indenture conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or the Bondholders is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, but each and every remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given under this Indenture or existing at law or in equity on or after the date of adoption of this Indenture.

Section 8.9 Remedies Vested in Trustee. All rights of action under this Indenture, the Loan Agreement, the Mortgage, or under any of the Bonds may be enforced by the Trustee without possession of the Bonds and without their production in any trial or other proceeding relating thereto. Any suit or proceeding instituted by the Trustee may be brought in its name as Trustee without the necessity of joining as plaintiffs or defendants any owners of the Bonds.

Section 8.10 Majority of Bondholders Control Proceedings. Subject to Section 8.6, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, but subject to all rights granted to the Bond Insurer in this Indenture, the owners of at least a majority of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Bonds then outstanding shall have the right, at any time by an instrument or instruments in writing executed and delivered to the Trustee, to direct the method and place of conducting any proceeding to be taken in connection with the enforcement of the terms and conditions of this Indenture, provided the direction is in accordance with law and the provisions of this Indenture and, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, is not unduly prejudicial to the interest of Bondholders not joining in such direction, and provided further, that nothing in this Section shall impair the right of the Trustee in its discretion to take any other action under this Indenture which it may deem proper and which is not inconsistent with the direction by Bondholders.

Section 8.11 Individual Bondholder Action Restricted.

(a) No owner of any Bond shall have any right to institute any suit, action, or proceeding for the enforcement of this Indenture or for the execution of any trust hereunder or for any remedy under this Indenture unless an Event of Default has occurred (other than under Sections 8.2(a)(i) or 8.2(a)(ii)) hereof as to which the Trustee has actual notice, or as to which the Trustee has been notified in writing; and

(b) No one or more owners of Bonds shall have any right in any manner whatsoever to disturb or prejudice the security of this Indenture or to enforce any right hereunder except in the manner herein provided and then only for the equal benefit of the owners of all outstanding Bonds.

Section 8.12 Waiver and Non-Waiver of Event of Default. No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any owner of Bonds to exercise any right or power accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair the right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver of an Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every power and remedy given by this Article to the Trustee and to the owners of the Bonds, respectively, may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient.

Section 8.13 Notice of Defaults.

(a) Within thirty (30) days after the receipt of notice of an Event of Default or the occurrence of an Event of Default of which the Trustee is deemed to have notice, the Trustee shall (unless the Event of Default has already been cured) give written notice of the Event of Default to the owners of all Series 2013 Bonds, Series 2017 Bonds, and Series 2019 Bonds then outstanding in the manner provided in Section 13.8 of this Indenture, provided that, except in the case of a default in the payment of principal, redemption price, or interest on any of the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2017 Bonds, and the Series 2019 Bonds, the Trustee may withhold the notice to the Bondholders if, in its sole judgment, it determines that the withholding of notice is not detrimental to the best interest of the Bondholders.

(b) The Trustee shall immediately notify, in writing, the Authority, the Board, the Bond Insurer, and the Corporation of any Event of Default known to the Trustee.

Section 8.14 Opportunity of Corporation to Cure Certain Defaults. The Authority and the Trustee hereby grant the Corporation full authority on the account of the Board and/or the Authority to perform any covenant or obligation and to otherwise fulfill any condition the failure or non-performance of which is or is alleged to be a default under Section 8.2(a)(vi) of this Indenture, and the Trustee agrees that performance by the Corporation shall be deemed to be performance by the Board and/or the Authority.

ARTICLE IX CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 9.1 Acceptance of Trusts. The Trustee hereby represents and warrants to the Authority (for the benefit of the Board, the Corporation and the Bondholders as well as the Authority) that it is a state banking corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Alabama and that it is duly authorized under such laws to accept and execute trusts of the character herein set out. The Trustee accepts and agrees to execute the trusts imposed upon it by this Indenture, but only upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Article and subject to the provisions of this Indenture including the following express terms and conditions, to all of which the parties hereto and the respective Owners of the Bonds agree:

(a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default within the purview of Section 8.2, the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and the Trustee shall not be responsible for (x) the legality or enforceability of this Indenture (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Agreement (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Facilities Lease (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Tax Regulatory Agreement (except with respect to performance of its obligations thereunder), and any supplement thereto, the Bonds (except as to the authentication of the Bonds), or any instruments or documents related thereto (collectively, the "Transaction Documents") or (y) the legality, perfection, sufficiency or priority of the Trust Estate or any lien purported to be granted thereon under any of the aforesaid documents or otherwise. No implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee.

(b) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its negligence or willful misconduct, except that:

(i) in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Trustee, the Trustee may rely upon the authenticity of, and the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed in, and shall be protected fully from liability in relying or acting upon, any resolution, opinion of counsel, certificate, request, notice, consent, waiver, order, signature guaranty, notarial seal, stamp, acknowledgment, verification, appraisal, report or other paper or document believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed, affixed or presented by the proper party or parties; but in the case of any such certificates or opinions that by any provision hereby are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, as the case may be, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform to requirements of this Indenture;

(ii) in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Trustee, whenever the Trustee, or any of its agents, representatives, experts or counsel, shall consider it necessary or desirable that any matter be proved or established, such matter shall be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by a certificate executed by an Authorized Authority Representative or an Authorized Corporation Representative; provided, however, that the Trustee, or such agent, representative, expert or counsel may require, but is not obligated to require, such further and additional evidence and make such further investigation as it or they may consider reasonable;

(iii) the Trustee may consult with counsel and the advice or opinion of such counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or opinion of counsel;

(iv) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith and in accordance with any direction or request of the Bondholders;

(v) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by an officer or employee of the Trustee unless the Trustee is negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(vi) the Trustee shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Event of Default, except for the failure of the Corporation to make or cause to be made scheduled payments to the Trustee provided for in the Agreement, unless and until an officer of the Trustee who customarily handles corporate trusts and is assigned to supervise this Indenture shall have actual knowledge thereof or the Trustee shall have received written advice thereof from any Bondholder;

(vii) anything in any of the Transaction Documents to the contrary notwithstanding, whether or not an Event of Default shall have occurred, the Trustee shall not be under any obligation to take any action under this Indenture that may involve it in any expense or liability, the payment of which within a reasonable time is not, in its opinion, assured to it by the security afforded to it by the terms of this Indenture, unless it is requested in writing to do so by one or more owners of the Bonds outstanding hereunder and furnished, from time to time as it may require, with security and indemnity satisfactory to it;

(viii) the Trustee need not take any action or follow any direction from any one or more Bondholders if the Trustee shall be advised by counsel that the action or proceedings so directed may not lawfully be taken or would be prejudicial to Bondholders not parties to such direction, or the Trustee in good faith believes following such direction would involve the Trustee in personal liability;

(ix) in no event shall the Trustee be liable to any person for special, indirect, punitive, exemplary or consequential damages, lost profits or loss of business arising under or in connection with this Indenture, even if previously informed of the possibility of such damages and regardless of the form of action; and

(x) anything to the contrary in the Transaction Documents notwithstanding, the permissive right of the Trustee to do anything enumerated or set forth in any of the Transaction Documents shall not be construed as a duty, and the Trustee shall not be held responsible or liable for other than its negligence or willful misconduct.

(c) In case an Event of Default within the purview of Section 8.2 hereof has occurred and is continuing and the Trustee has or is deemed to have knowledge of the Event of Default pursuant to (b)(vi) above, subject to the provisions of this Article IX, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent man would exercise under the circumstances.

(d) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee, including without limitation Sections 9.3 and 9.4 hereof, shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 9.1. The Trustee also accepts, and agrees to do and perform, the duties and obligations imposed upon it by and under the Agreement, and the Facilities Lease, but only upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, the Facilities Lease, and this Indenture. The rights of the Trustee to do things enumerated in this Indenture shall not be construed as a duty.

Section 9.2 Trustee Entitled to Indemnity. The Trustee shall be under no obligation to institute any suit, or to take any remedial proceeding under this Indenture or under the Agreement, or to enter any appearance in or in any way defend against any suit, in which it may be made a defendant (except in the case of the Trustee's own negligence), or to take any steps in the execution of the trusts hereby created or in the enforcement of any rights and powers hereunder or under the Agreement or the Facilities Lease, until it shall be indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all costs and expenses, outlays and counsel fees and other reasonable disbursements, and against all liability; the Trustee may, nevertheless, begin suit, or appear in and defend suit, or do anything else in its judgment proper to be done by it as such Trustee, without indemnity, and in such case the Authority shall reimburse the Trustee from funds available therefor under the Agreement for all costs and expenses, outlays and counsel fees and other reasonable disbursements properly incurred in connection therewith. If the Authority shall fail to make reimbursement, the Trustee may reimburse itself from any moneys in its possession under the provisions of this Indenture and shall be entitled to a preference over any of the Bonds.

Section 9.3 Trustee Not Responsible for Insurance, Taxes, Execution of Indenture, Acts of the Authority or Application of Moneys Applied in Accordance with this Indenture.

(a) The Trustee shall not be under any obligation to effect or maintain insurance or to renew any policies of insurance or to inquire as to the sufficiency of any policies of insurance carried by the Board or to report, or make or file claims or proof of loss for, any loss or damage insured against or which may occur, or to keep itself informed or advised as to the payment of any taxes or assessments, or to require any such payment to be made. The Trustee shall have no responsibility in respect of the validity, sufficiency, due execution or acknowledgment of this Indenture or the validity or sufficiency of the security provided hereunder or in respect of the validity of the Bonds or the due execution or issuance thereof, except as to the authentication thereof.

(b) The Trustee shall not be under any obligation to see that any duties herein imposed upon any party other than itself, or any covenants herein contained on the part of any party other than itself to be performed, shall be done or performed, and the Trustee shall be under no obligation for failure to see that any such duties or covenants are so done or performed.

(c) The Trustee shall not be liable or responsible because of the failure of the Authority or of any of its employees or agents to make any collections or deposits or to perform any act herein required of the Authority or because of the loss of any moneys arising through the insolvency or the act or default or omission of any other depositary in which such moneys shall have been deposited under the provisions of this Indenture. The Trustee shall not be responsible for the application of any of the proceeds of the Bonds or any other moneys deposited with it and paid out, withdrawn or transferred hereunder if such application, payment, withdrawal or transfer shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture.

(d) The immunities and exemptions from liability of the Trustee hereunder shall extend to its directors, officers, employees and agents.

Section 9.4 Compensation. The Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for its ordinary services hereunder consistent with the results of the process by which the Trustee was selected and any extraordinary services rendered hereunder and to reimbursement for all expenses incurred in good faith hereunder, including the compensation, expenses and disbursements of such agents, representatives, experts and counsel as the Trustee may employ in connection with the exercise and performance of its powers and duties hereunder. Subject to the provisions of any contract relating to the compensation of the Trustee, the Authority shall cause the Board to pay to the Trustee as administrative expenses its reasonable fees and charges as Additional Rent in accordance with the Facilities Lease upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Authority shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Authority in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. If the Board shall fail to make any payment required by this Section, the Trustee may, but shall be under no obligation to, make such payment from any moneys in its possession under the provisions of this Indenture, and the Trustee shall be entitled to a preference therefor over any of the Bonds Outstanding hereunder.

Section 9.5 Trustee to Preserve Records. All records and files pertaining to the Corporation in the custody of the Trustee shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of the Authority, the Board, the Corporation and their agents and representatives.

Section 9.6 Trustee May be Bondholder. The Trustee and its directors, officers, employees, or agents may in good faith buy, sell, own, hold and deal in any of the Bonds issued under and secured by this Indenture, and may join in the capacity of a Bondholder in any action which any Bondholder may be entitled to take with like effect as if such institution were not the Trustee under this Indenture.

Section 9.7 Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals. The recitals, statements and representations contained herein and in the Bonds shall be taken and construed as made by and on the part of the Authority and not by the Trustee, and the Trustee shall not be under any responsibility for the correctness of the same.

Section 9.8 Trustee Responsible for Reinscription. The Trustee, as set forth in the Agreement, is required to reinscribe the Mortgage at such times as shall be necessary to preserve the lien thereof. Under the Loan Agreement, the Corporation has covenanted to cooperate with the Trustee with regard to the foregoing. The Trustee shall notify the Authority in the event that any continuation statement shall be required to be filed in order to keep current any financing statements or other filings with respect to security interests securing the Bonds.

Section 9.9 Trustee May Rely on Certificates. Subject to the provisions of Section 9.1(b), the Trustee shall be protected and shall incur no liability in acting or proceeding, or in not acting or not proceeding, in good faith, reasonably and in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, upon any resolution, order, notice, request, consent, waiver, certificate, statement, affidavit, requisition, bond or other paper or document which it shall in good faith reasonably believe to be genuine and to have been adopted or signed by the proper board or person or to have been prepared and furnished pursuant to any of the provisions of the Agreement or this Indenture, or upon the written opinion of any attorney, engineer, accountant or other expert believed by it to be qualified in relation to the subject matter, and the Trustee shall not be under any duty to make any investigation or inquiry as to any statements contained or matters referred to in any such instrument.

Section 9.10 Qualification of the Trustee. There shall at all times be a trustee hereunder which shall be a bank or trust company in good standing, duly authorized to exercise trust powers, subject to examination by federal or state authority, which is either (a) a bank or trust company, (b) a wholly-owned subsidiary of a bank or trust company, or (c) a wholly-owned subsidiary of a bank or holding company which has as a wholly-owned subsidiary a bank or trust company, in any case the holding company, bank or trust company having a combined capital, surplus and undivided profits of at least $30,000,000, or assets under management of at least $250,000,000, if there be such an institution willing, able and legally qualified to perform the duties of the Trustee hereunder on reasonable or customary terms. If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in this Article.

Section 9.11 Resignation and Removal of Trustee.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee, acceptable to the Bond Insurer, and otherwise appointed under Section 9.12 hereof and until notice of resignation or removal and appointment, as the case may be, shall have been provided to the Bond Insurer. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the appointment of any successor Trustee must be approved in writing by the Bond Insurer.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Authority, the Bond Insurer, the Board, the Corporation, and the Bondholders. If an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within thirty (30) days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the retiring Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) The Trustee may be removed for cause at any time by an instrument or instruments in writing to the Trustee, with copies to the Authority, the Bond Insurer, the Board, and the Corporation, signed by the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding, or by their attorneys, legal representatives, or agents and delivered to the Trustee, the Authority, the Board, and the Corporation (such instruments to be effective only when received by the Trustee). The Authority, at the direction of the Corporation, may also remove the Trustee, provided there is no event of default, at any time in the manner set forth in this Section 9.11(c). The Trustee may be removed for cause at any time at the request of the Bond Insurer.

(d) If at any time,

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 9.10 hereof and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Corporation for the Board or by any Bondholder, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then, in any such case, (1) the Authority, in its discretion and without obligation, may or the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, may remove the Trustee, or (2) any Bondholder may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor, but only, in each case, with the prior written approval of the Bond Insurer.

(e) If the Trustee shall be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Trustee for any cause other than resignation (it being understood that no vacancy may occur as a result of resignation since the Trustee may not resign unless a successor has been appointed) or if the Trustee tenders its resignation, the Authority with the approval of the Corporation, and the Board (whose consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) and the Bond Insurer shall promptly appoint a successor provided the Authority shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Authority in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. If, within one year after such resignation, removal or incapability, or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing executed by the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding, and delivered to the Corporation for the Board and the retiring Trustee, the successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede the successor Trustee appointed by the Authority. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Authority or the Bondholders and accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided, any Bondholder who has been a bona fide owner of a Bond for at least six (6) months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Authority shall give notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by mailing written notice of such event by first class mail, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Authority shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorney's fees) reasonably incurred by the Authority in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. Each notice shall include the name and address of the principal corporate trust office of the successor Trustee.

Section 9.12 Successor Trustee.

(a) Every successor Trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to its predecessor, and also to the Authority, the Bond Insurer, and the Corporation for the Board, an instrument in writing accepting such appointment hereunder, and thereupon such successor Trustee, without any further act, shall become fully vested with all the rights, immunities, powers, and trusts, and subject to all the duties and obligations, of its predecessors; but such predecessor shall, nevertheless, on the written request of its successor or of the Authority and upon payment of the expenses, charges, and other disbursements of such predecessor which are payable pursuant to the provisions of Section 9.4 hereof, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, immunities, powers, and trusts of such predecessor hereunder; and every predecessor Trustee shall deliver all property and moneys held by it hereunder to its successor, subject, nevertheless, to its preference, if any, provided for in Sections 9.2 and 9.4 hereof. Should any instrument in writing from the Authority be required by any successor Trustee for more fully and certainly vesting in such Trustee the rights, immunities, powers, and trusts hereby vested or intended to be vested in the predecessor Trustee any such instrument in writing shall and will be executed, acknowledged and delivered by the Authority upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Authority shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Authority in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue.

(b) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this Article, any bank or trust company having power to perform the duties and execute the trusts of this Indenture and otherwise qualified to act as Trustee hereunder with or into which the bank or trust company acting as Trustee may be merged or consolidated, or to which the corporate trust assets and corporate trust business of such bank or trust company may be sold, shall be deemed the successor of the Trustee.

Section 9.13 Co-Trustee.

(a) It is the purpose hereof that there shall be no violation of any law of any jurisdiction (including particularly the laws of the State) denying or restricting the right of banks or trust companies to transact business as trustee in such jurisdiction. It is recognized that in case of litigation hereunder and in particular in case of the enforcement of this Indenture upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, it may be necessary that the Trustee appoint an additional individual or institution as a separate Trustee or Co-Trustee. The following provisions of this Section are adapted to these ends.

(b) Upon the incapacity or lack of authority of the Trustee, by reason of any present or future law of any jurisdiction, to exercise any of the rights, powers and trusts herein granted to the Trustee or to hold title to the Trust Estate or to take any other action which may be necessary or desirable in connection therewith, each and every remedy, power, right, claim, demand, cause of action, immunity, estate, title, interest and lien expressed or intended to be exercised by or vested in or conveyed to the Trustee with respect thereto shall be exercisable by and vest in a separate Trustee or Co-Trustee appointed by the Trustee but only to the extent necessary to enable the separate Trustee or Co-Trustee to exercise such rights, powers and trusts, and every agreement and obligation necessary to the exercise thereof by such separate Trustee or Co-Trustee shall run to and be enforceable by either of them.

(c) Should any deed, conveyance or instrument in writing from the Authority be required by the separate Trustee or Co-Trustee so appointed by the Trustee in order to more fully and certainly vest in and confirm to him or it such properties, rights, powers, trusts, duties, and obligations, any and all such deeds, conveyances, and instruments shall, on request, be executed, acknowledged, and delivered by the Authority upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Authority shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Authority in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. In case any separate Trustee or Co-Trustee, or a successor to either, shall die, become incapable of acting, resign or be removed, all the estates, properties, rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations of such separate Trustee or Co-Trustee, so far as permitted by law, shall vest in and be exercised by the Trustee until the appointment of a new Trustee or successor to such separate Trustee or Co-Trustee.

Section 9.14 Disclosure Documents. The Trustee shall have no responsibility with respect to any information, statement, or recital in any official statement, offering memorandum or other disclosure material prepared or distributed with respect to the Bonds, except as provided in Section 13.13 herein.

ARTICLE X
SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

Section 10.1 Supplemental Indentures Not Requiring Consent of Bondholders. The Authority and the Trustee may, with the consent of the Bond Insurer but without the consent of, or notice to, any of the Bondholders, enter into an indenture or indentures supplemental to this Indenture as shall not be inconsistent with the terms and provisions hereof and in the opinion of the Trustee shall not materially and adversely affect the interest of the Bondholders for any one or more of the following purposes:

(a) To cure any ambiguity or formal defect or omission in this Indenture;

(b) To grant to or confer upon the Trustee for the benefit of the Bondholders any additional rights, remedies, powers or authority that may be lawfully granted to or conferred upon the Bondholders or the Trustee or either of them;

(c) To subject to the lien and pledge of this Indenture additional revenues, properties or collateral;

(d) To provide for the issuance of Additional Bonds in conformity with the provisions of Article V of this Indenture and to fix all details with respect thereto or to provide further conditions, limitations or restrictions on the issuance of Additional Bonds;

(e) To modify, amend or supplement this Indenture or any indenture supplemental hereto in such manner as to permit the qualification hereof or thereof under any federal statute hereafter in effect or under any state Blue Sky Law, and, in connection therewith, if they so determine, to add to this Indenture or any indenture supplemental hereto such other terms, conditions and provisions as may be permitted or required by any said federal statute or Blue Sky Law; provided, that any such indenture supplemental hereto referred to in this Section 10.1(e) shall not, in the judgment of the Trustee, which may rely on an opinion of counsel, be to the prejudice of the owners of the Bonds; or

(f) To provide any other modifications which, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, are not prejudicial to the interests of the Bondholders.

Section 10.2 Supplemental Indentures Requiring Consent of Bondholders. Anything contained in this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, except for indentures supplemental hereto authorized by Section 10.1 of this Indenture and subject to the terms and provisions contained in this Section 10.2, and not otherwise, the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding shall have the right from time to time, with the consent of the Bond Insurer, to consent to and approve the execution by the Authority and the Trustee of such other indenture or indentures supplemental hereto as shall be deemed necessary and desirable by the Authority for the purpose of modifying, altering, amending, adding to or rescinding, in any particular, any of the terms or provisions contained in this Indenture or in any indenture supplemental hereto; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 10.2 shall permit, or be construed as permitting, without the consent of the Bond Insurer and the owners of all the Bonds then outstanding (a) an extension of the stated maturity or scheduled sinking fund redemption or reduction in the principal amount or premium of, or reduction in the rate or extension of the time of payment of interest on, any Bonds, or (b) the creation of any lien on the Trust Estate or any part thereof pledged under this Indenture prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture, or (c) a reduction in the aforesaid aggregate outstanding principal amount of Bonds the owners of which are required to consent to any such indenture supplemental hereto. No such amendment shall modify the rights, duties or immunities of the Trustee without the written consent of the Trustee.

If at any time the Authority shall request the Trustee to enter into any such supplemental indenture for any of the purposes of this Section 10.2, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such supplemental indenture to be given to the Bondholders in the manner provided in Section 13.8 of this Indenture. Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed supplemental indenture and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee for inspection by all Bondholders. If, within ninety (90) days or such longer period as shall be prescribed by the Authority following the giving of such notice, the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds outstanding at the time of the execution of any such supplemental indenture shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as herein provided, no owner of any Bond shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof, or in any manner to question the propriety of the execution thereof, or to enjoin or restrain the Trustee or the Authority from executing the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions thereof. Upon the execution of any such supplemental indenture as in this Section 10.2 permitted and provided, this Indenture shall be and be deemed to be modified and amended in accordance therewith.

So long as no event of nonperformance under the Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

Section 10.3 Filing. Copies of any supplemental indenture shall be filed with the Trustee and delivered to the Authority and the Corporation for the Board.

Section 10.4 Reliance on Counsel. The Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Trustee, who may be counsel for the Authority, as conclusive evidence that any such proposed supplemental indenture complies with the provisions of this Article prior to joining in the execution of such supplemental indenture.

Section 10.5 Supplement Binding. Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to the provisions of this Article, this Indenture shall be deemed to be supplemented, modified and amended in accordance therewith, and the respective rights, duties and obligations under this Indenture of the Trustee, the Authority, the Corporation, the Board and the owners of Bonds then outstanding shall thereafter be determined, exercised and enforced hereunder, subject in all respects to such modification and amendment.

Section 10.6 Supplemental Agreement. The Authority and the Corporation, with the approval of the Board, the Bond Insurer and the Trustee in certain events, may consent to supplemental loan agreements for the purposes and in the manner provided in Article VIII of the Agreement and the Trustee agrees that it shall take the actions required of it as provided thereunder.

Section 10.7 Notice to Rating Agencies and Bond Insurer. No supplemental indenture shall be executed and delivered pursuant to Sections 10.1 or 10.2 hereof without prior written notice having been given by the Trustee, to the Bond Insurer and Standard & Poor's Ratings Group (Attention: Bond Insurance Administration) of the Trustee's intention to execute such supplemental indenture not less than fifteen (15) days in advance of the execution of said supplemental indenture. The Authority shall also furnish to the Bond Insurer a full transcript of all proceedings relative to the supplemental indenture.

ARTICLE XI COVENANTS OF AUTHORITY

Section 11.1 Payment of Principal, Premium, and Interest. The Authority covenants that it will promptly pay, or cause to be paid, the principal of, premium, if any, and the interest on every Bond at the places, on the dates and in the manner provided herein and in said Bonds according to the true intent and meaning thereof but solely from the revenues of the Trust Estate and not from any other fund or source. The Authority further covenants that it will faithfully perform at all times all of its covenants, undertakings and agreements contained in this Indenture, the Agreement or in any Bond executed, authenticated, and delivered hereunder or in any proceedings of the Authority pertaining thereto.

Section 11.2 Additional Security. The Authority covenants, whenever and so often as reasonably required to do so by the Trustee, promptly to execute and deliver or cause to be delivered all such other and further instruments, documents, or assurances, and to promptly do or cause to be done all such other further things, as may be necessary or reasonably required in order to further and more fully vest in the Trustee and the owners of the Bonds all rights, interest, powers, benefits, privileges, and advantages conferred or intended to be conferred upon them by this Indenture.

Section 11.3 Cure Title Defects. The Authority covenants to promptly, upon the request of the Trustee, from time to time, take or cause to be taken such action as may be necessary or proper to remedy or cure any material defect in or cloud upon the title to the Trust Estate or any part thereof, whether now existing or hereafter developing, and to prosecute all such suits, actions, and other proceedings as may be appropriate for such purpose and to indemnify and save the Trustee and every owner of Bonds, solely from the Trust Estate, harmless from all loss, cost, damage, and expense, including attorneys' fees, which they or either of them may ever incur by reason of any such defect, cloud, suit, action, or proceedings.

Section 11.4 Defend Against Actions. The Authority covenants to defend or cause to be defended every suit, action, or proceeding at any time brought against the Trustee or any owner of Bonds upon any claim arising out of the receipt, application or disbursement of any of the revenues of the Trust Estate or involving the Authority's, the Trustee's, or such Bondholders' rights under this Indenture or the Agreement and to indemnify and save harmless, solely from the Trust Estate, the Trustee and Bondholders against any and all liability claimed or asserted by any person whomsoever, arising out of such receipt, application, or disbursement of any such revenues; provided, however, that the Trustee or any owner of Bonds at its or his election may appear in and defend against any such suit, action, or proceeding; and notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof, this covenant shall continue and remain in full force and effect until all indebtedness, liabilities, obligations, and other sums secured hereby have been fully paid and satisfied, and this Indenture has been released of record and the lien hereof discharged.

Section 11.5 Non-Impairment of Security. The Authority covenants that so long as any of the Bonds issued pursuant to this Indenture are outstanding and unpaid, the Authority will not voluntarily consent to any amendment to the Agreement or otherwise take any action which will reduce the amount of moneys made available thereunder to the Trustee, or which will in any manner impair or adversely affect the rights of the Authority or the Trustee or the security provided by this Indenture to the owners from time to time of the Bonds.

Section 11.6 Authority's Obligation Limited.

(a) Nothing in the Agreement or this Indenture is intended to require or obligate nor shall anything therein be interpreted to require or obligate the Authority for any purpose or at any time whatsoever, to provide, apply, or expend any funds coming into the hands of the Authority other than from the Trust Estate.

(b) Any other term or provision in this Indenture or in the Agreement, the Mortgage, the Tax Regulatory Agreement, the Bond Purchase Agreement, the Bonds, or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding:

(i) Any and all obligations (including without limitation, fees, claims, demands, payments, damages, liabilities, penalties, assessments, and the like) of or imposed upon the Authority or its members, officers, agents, employees, representatives, advisors, or assigns, whether under this Indenture or any of the Agreement, the Mortgage, the Tax Regulatory Agreement, the Bond Purchase Agreement, the Bonds or elsewhere and whether arising out of or based upon a claim or claims of tort, contract, misrepresentation, or any other or additional legal theory or theories whatsoever (collectively, the "Obligations"), shall in all events

be absolutely limited obligations and liabilities, payable solely out of the following, if any, available at the time the Obligation in question is asserted:

(A) Bond Proceeds and investments therefrom; and

(B) Payments derived from the Bonds, this Indenture (including the Trust Estate to the extent provided in this Indenture), the Mortgage, and the Agreement (except the fees and expenses of the Authority and the Authority's right to indemnification under the Agreement as set forth therein); (the above provisions (A) and (B) being collectively referred to as the "Exclusive Sources of the Obligations").

(c) The Obligations shall not be deemed to constitute a debt or liability of the State or of any political subdivision thereof within the meaning of any State constitutional provision or statutory limitation and shall not constitute a pledge of the faith and credit of the State or of any political subdivision thereof, including the Authority, but shall be payable solely from and out of the Exclusive Sources of the Obligations and shall otherwise impose no liability whatsoever, primary or otherwise, upon the State or any political subdivision thereof, including the Authority, or any charge upon their general credit or taxing power.

(d) In no event shall any member, officer, agent, employee, representative, or advisor of the Authority, or any successor or assign of any such person or entity, be liable, personally or otherwise, for any Obligation.

(e) In no event shall this Indenture be construed as:

(i) depriving the Authority of any right or privilege; or

(ii) requiring the Authority or any member, officer, agent, employee, representative, or advisor of the Authority to take or omit to take, or to permit or suffer the taking of, any action by itself or anyone else; which deprivation or requirement would violate or result in the Authority's being in violation of the Act or any other applicable state or federal law.

Section 11.7 Immunity of Officers, Employees, and Members of the Authority. No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or premium or interest on any of the Bonds or for any claim based thereon or upon any obligation, covenant or agreement contained in this Indenture against any past, present or future officer, director, member, employee or agent of the Authority, and all such liability of any such officers, directors, members, employees, or agents except for criminal or intentional acts as such is hereby expressly waived and released as a condition of and consideration for the execution of this Indenture and the issuance of such Bonds. No covenant or agreement contained in the Bonds or in this Indenture shall be deemed to be the covenant or agreement of any incorporator, director, or officer of the Authority past, present, or future in his or her individual capacity, and neither members of the Authority nor any official executing the Bonds shall be liable personally on the Bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof. No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or premium or interest on any of the Bonds or for any claim based thereon or upon any obligation, covenant, or agreement contained in this Indenture against any past, present or future officer, director, member, employee, or agent of the Authority, and all such liability of any such officers, directors, members, employees, or agents as such is hereby expressly waived and released as a condition of and in consideration for the execution of this Indenture and the issuance of such Bonds.

Section 11.8 Role of the Authority. The Authority shall not be required to take any action not expressly provided for herein. The Authority shall have no obligation to review, control, or oversee the activities of Trustee in collecting any amounts payable pursuant to the Agreement or the Indenture, or the Mortgage, or in making any payments on the Bonds. Furthermore, the Authority shall not be obligated to take any action or execute any documents which might in its reasonable judgment involve it in any expense or liability unless it shall have been furnished with assurance of payment or reimbursement for any expense and with reasonable indemnity for liability of the Authority, its incorporators, directors, officers, and counsel.

Section 11.9 No Superior Pledge. Other than as provided in Article V hereof, the Authority shall grant no security interest or lien of any type in the Payments that is superior to the pledge set forth in Article II and shall issue no debt or obligation that is to be paid from the Payments prior to payment of principal of and interest on the Bonds and the other payments required hereunder. The Authority shall grant no security interest or lien or encumbrance of any type on the Payments that is on a parity with the pledge made by Article II.

ARTICLE XII DEFEASANCE

Section 12.1 Payment.

(a) When all of the Bonds shall have been paid and discharged, and there shall have been paid all fees and charges of the Trustee due or to become due through the date on which the last of the Bonds is retired, then this Indenture shall cease, terminate, and become null and void, and thereupon the Trustee shall release this Indenture including the cancellation and discharge of the lien hereof, and execute and deliver to the Authority such instruments in writing as shall be requisite to satisfy the lien hereof and, if necessary, to enter on the records such satisfaction and discharge and to re-convey to the Authority any property or interest therein or other rights hereby conveyed and such other instruments to evidence such release and discharge as may be reasonably required by the Authority, and the Trustee shall assign and deliver to the Authority any property at the time subject to the lien of this Indenture which may then be in its possession, except amounts in any Fund otherwise required to be paid by this Indenture and except such cash and investments as are held by the Trustee for the payment of interest and premium, if any, on and retirement of the Bonds.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligation of the Corporation to pay the fees and expenses of the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Indenture shall survive the defeasance of the Bonds, the discharge of this Indenture, and the termination of the Agreement.

Section 12.2 Provision for Payment. Any Bonds shall be deemed to have been paid and discharged within the meaning of Section 12.1, if the Trustee, or an escrow trustee, shall hold, in trust for and irrevocably committed thereto, moneys or Defeasance Obligations of such maturities and interest payment dates and bearing such interest as will, without further investment or reinvestment of either the principal amount thereof or the interest earnings therefrom (likewise to be held in trust and committed, except as hereinafter provided), be sufficient for the payment of such Bonds, at their maturity or redemption date, of the principal thereof, together with the redemption premium, if any, and interest accrued to the date of maturity or redemption, as the case may be, or if default in such payment shall have occurred on such date then to the date of the tender of such payment; provided, that if any Bonds are to be redeemed prior to the maturity thereof, notice of such redemption shall have been duly given or provisions satisfactory to the Trustee shall have been duly made for the giving of such notice. Any moneys held in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall be invested only in Defeasance Obligations the maturities or redemption dates and interest payment dates of which, at the option of the owner, shall coincide as nearly as practicable with, but not later than, the time or times at which said moneys will be required for the aforesaid purposes. Any income or interest earned by the moneys or Defeasance Obligations held under this Section shall, as determined by the Trustee or the escrow trustee, to the extent not required for the purposes of this Section, be paid to the Corporation for the Board as overpayment of Payments.

Section 12.3 Certifications. The Authority and the Corporation covenant and agree that they will furnish to the Trustee:

(a) Certificates or opinions made by officers of the Authority and the Corporation required by this Indenture stating that provisions of this Article relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been fulfilled; and

(b) An opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that the payment of the Bonds has been provided for in the manner set forth in this Indenture and the Agreement and that all obligations of the Authority and the Corporation with respect to the Bonds have been discharged and satisfied; and

(c) In the case of an advance refunding, a mathematical verification prepared by a nationally recognized law firm or firm of independent certified public accountants (or other verification agent satisfactory to the Trustee) that the moneys or Defeasance Obligations are sufficient to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds which are defeased.

Section 13.4 No Recourse on the Bonds. No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Bonds or for any claim based thereunder or under this Indenture against any trustee, director, officer, employee, or agent of the Authority or of the Trustee.

Section 13.5 Severability. If any clause, provision, or Section of this Indenture be held illegal or invalid by any court, the invalidity of such clause, provision, or Section shall not affect any of the remaining clauses, provisions, or Sections hereof and this Indenture shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal or invalid clause, provision or Section had not been contained herein. In case any agreement or obligation contained in this Indenture is held to be in violation of law, then such agreement or obligation shall be deemed

The Trustee shall have no responsibility for the failure of the Board to report any material event and shall have no responsibility as to any determination by the Board of whether any event would constitute material information for holders of the Bonds; provided, however, that the Trustee hereby agrees to notify the Board in writing on or before November 1 of each year, commencing November 1, 2019, of the Board's obligation to comply with the requirements of Section (b)(5)(i) of Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c2-12.

This Series 2013 Bond shall not be valid or become obligatory for any purpose or be entitled to any security or benefit under the Indenture until the certificate of authentication hereon shall have been signed by a duly authorized representative of the Trustee.

This Series 2013 Bond is one of the duly authorized issue of the Authority's Revenue Refunding Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2013 (the "Series 2013 Bonds"), issued under and secured by the Indenture (hereinafter defined) pursuant to which the Authority is issuing $40,910,000 aggregate principal amount of said revenue bonds on behalf of University Facilities, Inc., a nonprofit corporation (the "Corporation") for the purpose of: (i) refunding the Series 2004A Bonds (as hereinafter defined) and (ii) paying the costs of issuance of the Series 2013 Bonds.

Pursuant to the Original Indenture (as hereinafter defined), the Authority issued its $60,985,000 Revenue Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2004A (the "Series 2004A Bonds") for the purposes of financing the cost of acquiring immovable property and financing the development, design, construction and equipping of new student housing facilities (the "Facilities") for Southeastern Louisiana University (the "University") located on immovable property owned by, or subject to the supervision and management of the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System (the "Board") in the City of Hammond, Parish of Tangipahoa, Louisiana, which Facilities have been leased to the Board on behalf of the University.

The proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds have been loaned to the Corporation pursuant to a Loan and Assignment Agreement dated as of August 1, 2004 (the "Original Loan Agreement"), as supplemented and amended by a First Supplemental Loan and Assignment Agreement dated as of November 1, 2013 (the "Supplemental Loan Agreement" and, together with the Original Loan Agreement, the "Loan Agreement"), each between the Authority and the Corporation, for the foregoing purposes. The Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System (the "Board"), acting on behalf of the University, has leased the land upon which the Facilities are located on the campus of the University (the "Land") and the Facilities to the Corporation pursuant to a Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of August 1, 2004 (the "Original Ground Lease"), as supplemented and amended by the First Amendment to Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of March 1, 2007 (the "First Amendment to Ground Lease"), as supplemented and amended by a Second Amendment to Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of June 12, 2012 (the "Second Amendment to Ground Lease"), as further supplemented and amended by a Third Supplemental Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of November 1, 2013 (the "Third Supplemental Ground Lease" and, together with the Original Ground Lease, the First Amendment to Ground Lease and the Second Amendment to Ground Lease, the "Ground Lease") each by and between the Board and the Corporation, and has leased the Facilities from the Corporation pursuant to an Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of August 1, 2004 (the "Original Facilities Lease"), as supplemented and amended by a First Amendment to Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of March 1, 2007 (the "First Amendment to Facilities Lease"), as further supplemented and amended by a Second Amendment to Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of June 12, 2012 (the "Second Amendment to Facilities Lease"), as further supplemented and amended by a Third Supplemental Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of November 1, 2013 (the "Third Supplemental Facilities Lease" and, together with the Original Facilities Lease, the First Amendment to Facilities Lease and the Second Amendment to Facilities Lease, the "Facilities Lease") each by and between the Corporation and the Board.

The Series 2013 Bonds are issued pursuant to the laws of the State, particularly Chapter 10-D of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended (La. R.S. 33:4548.1 through 4548.16, inclusive) (the "LCDA Act"), Chapters 14 and 14-A of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended (the "Refunding Act" and, together with the LCDA Act, the "Act") and pursuant to a Trust Indenture dated August 1, 2004 (the "Original Indenture"), as supplemented and amended by a First Supplemental Trust Indenture dated as of November 1, 2013 (the "Supplemental Indenture" and, together with the Original Indenture, the "Indenture"), each between the Authority and the Trustee, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, and to which Indenture reference is hereby made for a more complete description of the assigned revenues constituting the Trust Estate, the nature and extent of the security, the terms and conditions under which the Series 2013 Bonds are issued and secured, the terms and conditions under which Additional Bonds may be issued and secured, the rights, duties and immunities of the Trustee and the rights of the registered owners of the Series 2013 Bonds. The registered owner of this Series 2013 Bond shall have no rights to enforce the provisions of the Indenture or to institute action to enforce the covenants therein, or to take any action with respect to any event of default under the Indenture, or to institute, appear in or defend any suit or other proceeding with respect thereto, except as provided in the Indenture, and by acceptance of this Series 2013 Bond, the owner hereof assents to all of the provisions of the Indenture and the Assignment (hereinafter defined). All terms not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Indenture.

The Series 2013 Bonds have been issued on a parity with the Series 2004B Bonds under the Indenture.

The Series 2013 Bonds are issuable as fully registered bonds without coupons, in Authorized Denominations, and shall be numbered from No. R-1 upwards. The Series 2013 Bonds are limited and special revenue obligations of the Authority and are payable solely from (i) payments received by the Authority from the Corporation pursuant to the Agreement (except however, the Authority's rights to exculpation, indemnification and payment of expenses by the Corporation under the Agreement) and (ii) all funds held by the Trustee under the Indenture and available for such payment, said payments and funds being herein referred to as the "Trust Estate." The Agreement, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, provides that the Corporation is unconditionally obligated to make payments, but solely from the Payments (as defined in the Agreement) in an aggregate amount sufficient, for the payment in full of the principal and interest of all Series 2013 Bonds issued and outstanding under the Indenture, to the date of payment thereof, and certain costs, expenses and charges of the Authority and the Trustee. The Agreement imposes upon the Corporation certain obligations respecting the use and operation of its Facilities and the maintenance and repair of said Facilities.

THE SERIES 2013 BONDS AND THE INTEREST THEREON ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE ISSUER PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE TRUST ESTATE. THE SERIES 2013 BONDS SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO CONSTITUTE A DEBT OR LIABILITY OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF WITHIN THE MEANING OF ANY STATE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION OR STATUTORY LIMITATION AND SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A PLEDGE OF THE FAITH AND CREDIT OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF, BUT SHALL BE PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE FUNDS PROVIDED FOR IN THE LOAN AGREEMENT AND THE INDENTURE. THE ISSUANCE OF THE SERIES 2013 BONDS SHALL NOT DIRECTLY, INDIRECTLY OR CONTINGENTLY OBLIGATE THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF TO LEVY ANY TAXES OR TO MAKE ANY APPROPRIATION OF THEIR PAYMENT. THE ISSUER HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

As long as any of the Series 2013 Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Series 2013 Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Series 2013 Bond or Series 2013 Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee, duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing, may, at the option of the registered owner thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of other Bonds in Authorized Denominations.

For every such exchange or transfer of Series 2013 Bonds, the Authority or the Trustee may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer, which sum or sums shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer. The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (a) any Series 2013 Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Series 2013 Bonds selected for redemption, or (b) any Series 2013 Bonds selected, called or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Series 2013 Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

REDEMPTION PROVISIONS

Optional Redemption

The Series 2013 Bonds maturing August 1, 2024 and thereafter are subject to redemption prior to maturity at the option of the Corporation, upon written direction to the Authority, on or after August 1, 2023 as a whole at any time, or in part on any Interest Payment Date, the maturity of said Bonds to be redeemed to be designated by the Corporation and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine, at the redemption price of 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the redemption date.

Mandatory Redemption

(i) If the Board shall purchase the Corporation’s leasehold interest in the Facilities pursuant to the Facilities Lease, the Series 2013 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole and shall be redeemed on the later of (a) August 1, 2014, or (b) the earliest practicable date, but not more than sixty (60) days, after such purchase, and in any event, at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, without premium.

(ii) The Series 2013 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole or in part (in Authorized Denominations) on the first Interest Payment Date at least thirty (30) days after the Trustee receives notice that any insurance proceeds or proceeds received as a result of Expropriation proceedings with respect to the Facilities will not be applied to the restoration, repair or reconstruction of the Facilities at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, without premium, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds, or Expropriation proceeds not used for restoration, repair or reconstruction. If the amount of any insurance proceeds or Expropriation proceeds to be applied in redemption of the Series 2013 Bonds is not an Authorized Denomination, the principal amount of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed pursuant to this subsection (b) shall be decreased to the next lower Authorized Denomination. The Series 2004 Bonds will be so redeemed in the following order: first, Auction Rate Bonds; second, Variable Rate Bonds, third, Series 2004C Bonds; fourth, Series 2004B Bonds that bear interest at a Fixed Rate; and fifth, the Series 2013 Bonds.

Mandatory Sinking Fund Redemption

The Series 2013 Bonds maturing on August 1, 2026 shall be subject to mandatory redemption and payment prior to maturity on August 1 in each of the years set forth below, at 100% of the principal amounts plus accrued interest to the redemption date, without premium, as follows:

Year	Principal Amount
2025	$ 4,295,000
2026*	170,000

*Final Maturity

If on any occasion less than all of the Series 2013 Bonds then outstanding shall be redeemed pursuant to the optional or mandatory redemption provisions described in the Indenture, then the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds so redeemed shall be considered to have satisfied a portion of the mandatory sinking fund redemptions required by the above tables. The principal amounts required by the tables above shall be adjusted downward in the amount of principal redeemed in chronological order beginning on the mandatory sinking fund redemption date immediately succeeding the date of such optional redemption.

Unless otherwise specified above, if less than all of the Series 2013 Bonds shall be called for redemption, the maturity of the Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed shall be designated by the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2013 Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Series 2013 Bond shall be called for redemption, a new Series 2013 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof shall be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

At least thirty (30) days before the redemption date of any Series 2013 Bonds redeemed other than by mandatory sinking fund redemption, the Trustee shall cause a notice of any such redemption, signed by an authorized officer of the Trustee to be mailed, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders of record owning Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed in whole or in part, at their addresses as they appear on the Bond Register, but any defect in such mailing of any such notice shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for such redemption. Each such notice shall set forth the date fixed for redemption, the redemption price to be paid and, if less than all of the Series 2013 Bonds then outstanding shall be called for redemption, the numbers of such Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed and, in the case of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. In case any Series 2013 Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state also that on or after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Series 2013 Bond, a new Series 2013 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Series 2013 Bond will be issued.

Modifications or alterations of the Indenture or any agreement supplemental thereto or of the Agreement or any agreement supplemental thereto may be made only to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the Indenture and the Agreement. So long as no event of nonperformance under the Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by the Constitution and laws of the State to exist, to have happened and to have been performed, precedent to and in the execution and delivery of the Indenture and the issuance of this Series 2013 Bond, do exist, have happened and have been performed in regular and due form as required by law.

The Series 2017 Bonds are issued pursuant to the laws of the State, particularly Chapter 10-D of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended (La. R.S. 33:4548.1 through 4548.16, inclusive) (the “Act”), and pursuant to a Trust Indenture dated August 1, 2004 (the “Original Indenture”), as supplemented and amended by a First Supplemental Trust Indenture dated as of November 1, 2013 (the “Supplemental Indenture”), as further supplemented and amended by a Second Supplemental Trust Indenture dated as of June 1, 2017 (the “Second Supplemental Indenture” and, together with the Original Indenture, and the Supplemental Indenture, the “Indenture”), each between the Authority and the Trustee, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, and to which Indenture reference is hereby made for a more complete description of the assigned revenues constituting the Trust Estate, the nature and extent of the security, the terms and conditions under which the Series 2017 Bonds are issued and secured, the terms and conditions under which Additional Bonds may be issued and secured, the rights, duties, and immunities of the Trustee and the rights of the registered owners of the Series 2017 Bonds. The registered owner of this Series 2017 Bond shall have no rights to enforce the provisions of the Second Supplemental Indenture or to institute action to enforce the covenants therein, or to take any action with respect to any event of default under the Second Supplemental Indenture, or to institute, appear in, or defend any suit or other proceeding with respect thereto, except as provided in the Second Supplemental Indenture, and by acceptance of this Series 2017 Bond, the owner hereof assents to all of the provisions of the Second Supplemental Indenture. All terms not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Second Supplemental Indenture.

The Series 2017 Bonds have been issued on a parity with the $15,000,000 Louisiana Local Government Environmental Facilities and Community Development Authority Revenue Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2004B and the $40,910,000 Louisiana Local Government Environmental Facilities and Community Development Authority Revenue Refunding Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2013 under the Indenture.

The Series 2017 Bonds are issuable as fully registered bonds without coupons, in Authorized Denominations, and shall be numbered from No. R-1 upwards. The Series 2017 Bonds are limited and special revenue obligations of the Authority and are payable solely from (i) payments received by the Authority from the Corporation pursuant to the Second Supplemental Agreement (except however, the Authority’s rights to exculpation, indemnification and payment of expenses by the Corporation under the Second Supplemental Agreement) and (ii) all funds held by the Trustee under the Second Supplemental Indenture and available for such payment, said payments and funds being herein referred to as the “Trust Estate.” The Second Supplemental Agreement, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, provides that the Corporation is unconditionally obligated to make payments, but solely from the Payments (as defined in the Second Supplemental Agreement) in an aggregate amount sufficient, for the payment in full of the principal and interest of all Series 2017 Bonds issued and outstanding under the Second Supplemental Indenture, to the date of payment thereof, and certain costs, expenses and charges of the Authority and the Trustee. The Second Supplemental Agreement imposes upon the Corporation certain obligations respecting the use and operation of its Facilities and the maintenance and repair of said Facilities.

THE SERIES 2017 BONDS AND THE INTEREST THEREON ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE AUTHORITY PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE TRUST ESTATE. THE SERIES 2017 BONDS SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO CONSTITUTE A DEBT OR LIABILITY OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF WITHIN THE MEANING OF ANY STATE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION OR STATUTORY LIMITATION AND SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A PLEDGE OF THE FAITH AND CREDIT OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF, BUT SHALL BE PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE FUNDS PROVIDED FOR IN THE SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL LOAN AGREEMENT AND THE SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE. THE ISSUANCE OF THE SERIES 2017 BONDS SHALL NOT DIRECTLY, INDIRECTLY OR CONTINGENTLY OBLIGATE THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF TO LEVY ANY TAXES OR TO MAKE ANY APPROPRIATION OF THEIR PAYMENT. THE AUTHORITY HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

As long as any of the Series 2017 Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Series 2017 Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Series 2017 Bond or Series 2017 Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee, duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing, may, at the option of the registered owner thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of other Bonds in Authorized Denominations.

For every such exchange or transfer of Series 2017 Bonds, the Authority or the Trustee may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee, or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer, which sum or sums shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer. The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (a) any Series 2017 Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Series 2017 Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Series 2017 Bonds selected for redemption, or (b) any Series 2017 Bonds selected, called or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Series 2017 Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

The Series 2017 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole or in part (in an integral multiple of $5,000) on the first Interest Payment Date at least thirty (30) days after the Trustee receives notice that any insurance proceeds, condemnation award or payment in lieu of condemnation with respect to the Series 2017 Facilities will not be applied to the restoration, repair, or reconstruction of the Series 2017 Facilities at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2017 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds, condemnation award, or payment in lieu of condemnation not used for restoration, repair, or reconstruction. If on any occasion less than all of the Series 2017 Bonds then outstanding shall be redeemed pursuant to the optional or mandatory sinking fund redemption provisions described in the Second Supplemental Indenture, then the principal amount of the Series 2017 Bonds so redeemed shall be considered to have satisfied a portion of the mandatory sinking fund redemptions required by the above tables. The principal amounts required by the tables above shall be adjusted downward in the amount of principal redeemed in chronological order beginning on the mandatory sinking fund redemption date immediately succeeding the date of such optional redemption.

Unless otherwise specified above, if less than all of the Series 2017 Bonds shall be called for redemption, the maturity of the Series 2017 Bonds to be redeemed shall be designated by the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2017 Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. Modifications or alterations of the Second Supplemental Indenture or any agreement supplemental thereto or of the Second Supplemental Agreement or any agreement supplemental thereto may be made only to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the Second Supplemental Indenture and the Second Supplemental Agreement. So long as no event of nonperformance under the Second Supplemental Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by the Constitution and laws of the State to exist, to have happened and to have been performed, precedent to and in the execution and delivery of the Second Supplemental Indenture and the issuance of this Series 2017 Bond, do exist, have happened, and have been performed in regular and due form as required by law.

This Series 2019 Bond is one of the duly authorized issue of the Authority's Revenue Refunding Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. The Authority issued its $15,000,000 Revenue Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2004B (the "Series 2004B Bonds") pursuant to that certain Trust Indenture dated as of August 1, 2004 for the purposes of financing the cost of acquiring immovable property and financing the development, design, construction and equipping of new student housing facilities (the "Facilities") for Southeastern Louisiana University (the "University") located on immovable property owned by, or subject to the supervision and management of the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System (the "Board") in the City of Hammond, Parish of Tangipahoa, Louisiana, which Facilities have been leased to the Board on behalf of the University.

The proceeds of the Series 2019 Bonds have been loaned to the Corporation pursuant to an Amended and Restated Loan and Assignment Agreement dated as of February 1, 2019 (the "Loan Agreement") between the Authority and the Corporation, for the foregoing purposes. The Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System (the "Board"), acting on behalf of the University, has leased the land upon which the Facilities are located on the campus of the University (the "Land") and the Facilities to the Corporation pursuant to an Amended and Restated Ground and Buildings Lease dated as of February 1, 2019 (the "Ground Lease"), by and between the Board and the Corporation, and has leased the Facilities from the Corporation pursuant to an Amended and Restated Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of dated as of February 1, 2019 (the "Facilities Lease") each by and between the Corporation and the Board.

The Series 2019 Bonds are issued pursuant to the laws of the State, particularly Chapter 10-D of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended (La. R.S. 33:4548.1 through 4548.16, inclusive) (the "LCDA Act"), Chapters 14 and 14-A of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended (the "Refunding Act" and, together with the LCDA Act, the "Act") and pursuant to an Amended and Restated Trust Indenture dated as of February 1, 2019 (the "Indenture"), between the Authority and the Trustee, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, and to which Indenture reference is hereby made for a more complete description of the assigned revenues constituting the Trust Estate, the nature and extent of the security, the terms and conditions under which the Series 2019 Bonds are issued and secured, the terms and conditions under which Additional Bonds may be issued and secured, the rights, duties and immunities of the Trustee and the rights of the registered owners of the Series 2019 Bonds. The registered owner of this Series 2019 Bond shall have no rights to enforce the provisions of the Indenture or to institute action to enforce the covenants therein, or to take any action with respect to any event of default under the Indenture, or to institute, appear in or defend any suit or other proceeding with respect thereto, except as provided in the Indenture, and by acceptance of this Series 2019 Bond, the owner hereof assents to all of the provisions of the Indenture and the Assignment (hereinafter defined). All terms not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Indenture.

The Series 2019 Bonds have been issued on a parity with the Authority's $40,910,000 Revenue Refunding Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2013 and its $35,465,000 Revenue Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2017.

The Series 2019 Bonds are issuable as fully registered bonds without coupons, in Authorized Denominations, and shall be numbered from No. R-1 upwards. The Series 2019 Bonds are limited and special revenue obligations of the Authority and are payable solely from (i) payments received by the Authority from the Corporation pursuant to the Agreement (except however, the Authority's rights to exculpation, indemnification and payment of expenses by the Corporation under the Agreement) and (ii) all funds held by the Trustee under the Indenture and available for such payment, said payments and funds being herein referred to as the "Trust Estate." The Agreement, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, provides that the Corporation is unconditionally obligated to make payments, but solely from the Payments (as defined in the Agreement) in an aggregate amount sufficient, for the payment in full of the principal and interest of all Series 2019 Bonds issued and outstanding under the Indenture, to the date of payment thereof, and certain costs, expenses and charges of the Authority and the Trustee. The Agreement imposes upon the Corporation certain obligations respecting the use and operation of its Facilities and the maintenance and repair of said Facilities.

THE SERIES 2019 BONDS AND THE INTEREST THEREON ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE ISSUER PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE TRUST ESTATE. THE SERIES 2019 BONDS SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO CONSTITUTE A DEBT OR LIABILITY OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF WITHIN THE MEANING OF ANY STATE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION OR STATUTORY LIMITATION AND SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A PLEDGE OF THE FAITH AND CREDIT OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF, BUT SHALL BE PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE FUNDS PROVIDED FOR IN THE LOAN AGREEMENT AND THE INDENTURE. THE ISSUANCE OF THE SERIES 2019 BONDS SHALL NOT DIRECTLY, INDIRECTLY OR CONTINGENTLY OBLIGATE THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF TO LEVY ANY TAXES OR TO MAKE ANY APPROPRIATION OF THEIR PAYMENT. THE ISSUER HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

As long as any of the Series 2019 Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Series 2019 Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Series 2019 Bond or Series 2019 Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee, duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing, may, at the option of the registered owner thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of other Bonds in Authorized Denominations.

For every such exchange or transfer of Series 2019 Bonds, the Authority or the Trustee may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer, which sum or sums shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer. The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (a) any Series 2019 Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Series 2019 Bonds selected for redemption, or (b) any Series 2019 Bonds selected, called or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Series 2019 Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

REDEMPTION PROVISIONS

Optional Redemption

The Series 2019 Bonds maturing August 1, 2029 and thereafter are subject to redemption prior to maturity at the option of the Corporation, upon written direction to the Authority, on or after February 1, 2029 as a whole at any time, or in part on any Interest Payment Date, the maturity of said Bonds to be redeemed to be designated by the Corporation and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine, at the redemption price of 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the redemption date.

Extraordinary Redemption

The Series 2019 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole or in part (in an integral multiple of $5,000) on the first Interest Payment Date at least thirty (30) days after the Trustee receives notice that any insurance proceeds, condemnation award or payment in lieu of condemnation with respect to the Series 2004 Facilities will not be applied to the restoration, repair, or reconstruction of the Series 2004 Facilities at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2019 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds, condemnation award, or payment in lieu of condemnation not used for restoration, repair, or reconstruction. If in part, the Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed shall be in the inverse order of their maturity and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine. If the amount of any insurance proceeds, condemnation award, or payment in lieu of condemnation to be applied in redemption of the Series 2019 Bonds is not an integral multiple of $5,000, the principal amount of Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed pursuant to this subparagraph (b) shall be decreased to the next lower multiple of $5,000.

Mandatory Sinking Fund Redemption.

Those Series 2019 Bonds maturing on August 1, 20__ shall be subject to mandatory sinking fund redemption and payment prior to maturity on August 1 in each of the years set forth below, at 100% of the principal amounts plus accrued interest to the redemption date, without premium, as follows:

Date	Principal
August 1	Amount

*Final Maturity.

If on any occasion less than all of the Series 2019 Bonds then outstanding shall be redeemed pursuant to the optional or mandatory redemption provisions described in the Indenture, then the principal amount of the Series 2019 Bonds so redeemed shall be considered to have satisfied a portion of the mandatory sinking fund redemptions required by the above tables. The principal amounts required by the tables above shall be adjusted downward in the amount of principal redeemed in chronological order beginning on the mandatory sinking fund redemption date immediately succeeding the date of such optional redemption.

Unless otherwise specified above, if less than all of the Series 2019 Bonds shall be called for redemption, the maturity of the Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed shall be designated by the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2019 Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Series 2019 Bond shall be called for redemption, a new Series 2019 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof shall be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

At least thirty (30) days before the redemption date of any Series 2019 Bonds redeemed other than by mandatory sinking fund redemption, the Trustee shall cause a notice of any such redemption, signed by an authorized officer of the Trustee to be mailed, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders of record owning Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed in whole or in part, at their addresses as they appear on the Bond Register, but any defect in such mailing of any such notice shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for such redemption. Each such notice shall set forth the date fixed for redemption, the redemption price to be paid and, if less than all of the Series 2019 Bonds then outstanding shall be called for redemption, the numbers of such Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed and, in the case of Series 2019 Bonds to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. In case any Series 2019 Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state also that on or after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Series 2019 Bond, a new Series 2019 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Series 2019 Bond will be issued.

Modifications or alterations of the Indenture or any agreement supplemental thereto or of the Agreement or any agreement supplemental thereto may be made only to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the Indenture and the Agreement. So long as no event of nonperformance under the Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by the Constitution and laws of the State to exist, to have happened and to have been performed, precedent to and in the execution and delivery of the Indenture and the issuance of this Series 2019 Bond, do exist, have happened and have been performed in regular and due form as required by law.

ARTICLE III
TERM, NATURE AND BENEFITS OF LOAN AGREEMENT;
CONSTRUCTION OF FACILITIES

Section 3.1 Term of Loan Agreement.

(a) The term of this Loan Agreement shall commence on the Closing Date for the Series 2019 Bonds, and shall terminate (unless discharged upon prepayment of all sums due hereunder by the Corporation prior thereto as hereinafter provided) on the date on which the Bonds and all other sums secured hereunder shall have been paid or provision for their payment shall have been made in accordance herewith provided, however, that the term of this Loan Agreement shall be extended through the date specified in any supplement to this Loan Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnification provisions of this Loan Agreement shall survive the termination thereof and the defeasance of the Bonds under the Indenture.

Section 3.2 Nature and Benefits.

(a) This Loan Agreement has been executed and delivered in part to induce concurrently herewith the purchase by others of the Bonds, and, accordingly, all covenants and agreements on the part of the Corporation and the Authority, as set forth therein and herein, are hereby declared to be for the benefit of the Trustee for the owners from time to time of the Bonds. The Corporation consents and agrees to the assignment by the Authority to the Trustee under the Indenture of all of the Authority's right, title, and interest (except for certain rights relating to exculpation, indemnification, and payment of expenses) in, to, and under this Loan Agreement, including the interest of the Authority in and to the Facilities Lease assigned by the Corporation to the Authority hereunder, and agrees that the provisions hereof may be enforced by the Trustee under the provisions of the Indenture. The Corporation agrees to do all things within its power in order to comply with and to enable the Authority to comply with all requirements and to fulfill and to enable the Authority to fulfill all covenants of the Indenture and the Bonds.

(b) This Loan Agreement is a limited obligation of the Corporation, payable solely from the Revenues, and this Loan Agreement shall remain in full force and effect until the Bonds and the interest therein have been fully paid or otherwise provided for or discharged.

Section 3.3 Construction, Improvement and Equipping of the Series 2017 Facilities. The Corporation shall lease the Land and construct and equip, or cause to be constructed and equipped, the Series 2017 Facilities with all reasonable dispatch and in accordance with the Facilities Documents, and shall take all action necessary to enforce the provisions of the Board Documents and the Facilities Documents.

Section 3.4 Revision of Facilities Documents.

(a) The Corporation may revise the Ground Lease, the Facilities Lease and the Mortgage (collectively, the "Facilities Documents") and the description of the Facilities in Exhibit A hereto from time to time (including, without limitation, the deletion or revision of any of the facilities included in the Facilities and/or the substitution therefor of other facilities) in accordance with the Ground Lease without the consent of the Authority, the Trustee, or the holders of the Bonds but with the consent of the Bond Insurer; provided, however, that no such revision shall impair the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for Federal income tax purposes. In the case of any change that would render materially inaccurate the description of the Facilities in Exhibit A hereto, there shall be delivered to the Trustee and the Authority a revised Exhibit A containing a description of the Facilities that reflects the change in the Facilities Documents, the accuracy of which shall have been certified by an Authorized Corporation Representative.

(b) Prior to effecting any change in or revision of the Facilities Documents, the Corporation shall deliver to the Authority evidence of all governmental or regulatory approvals required therefor.

Section 3.5 Disbursements from Project Fund. The money in the Series 2017 Project Fund shall be applied by the Trustee, and in connection therewith requisitions shall be presented by the Corporation signed by an Authorized Corporation Representative, for payment of the Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities in accordance with Article IV of the Indenture and Article III of this Loan Agreement, and pending such application such money shall be invested and reinvested in accordance with Article IV of the Indenture. The form of requisition for requisitions from the Series 2017 Project Fund is attached to the Indenture as Exhibit B.

Section 3.6 Completion of Payment of Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities.

(a) At such time as the Corporation has notice that the funds on deposit in the Series 2017 Project Fund, together with the investment earnings thereon, are insufficient to pay the completion Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities, the Corporation shall deliver to the Trustee and the Issuer written estimates by an architect and an Authorized Corporation Representative of the additional funds required to pay the completion Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities, and such additional information and data as may be reasonably requested by the Authority or the Trustee. The Corporation shall complete the construction and equipping of the Series 2017 Facilities and pay that portion of the completion Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities as may be in excess of the money available therefor in the Series 2017 Project Fund. The obligation of the Corporation to pay in full the completion Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities shall be a limited obligation of the Corporation payable solely from the Rentals.

(b) Upon the request of the Corporation, the Authority will use its best efforts to issue and sell, upon terms and at prices acceptable to the Authority and the Corporation, if required, one or more series of Additional Bonds for the purpose of financing the completion Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities; provided however, that the failure of the Authority to issue such bonds shall not relieve the Corporation of its obligation to provide the additional money required to pay the completion Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities. If after exhaustion of the money in the Series 2017 Project Fund the Corporation should pay any portion of the Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities, it shall not be entitled to any reimbursement therefor from the Authority or from the Trustee, and shall not be entitled to any abatement, diminution, or postponement of payments required to be made by it under this Second Supplemental Loan Agreement.

Section 3.7 Establishment of Completion Date. The date upon which the construction and equipping of each of the Series 2017 Facilities are substantially complete shall be evidenced to the Authority and the Trustee by delivery to the Issuer and the Trustee of a certificate signed by an Authorized Corporation Representative. The certificate shall set forth the respective Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities and state that, except for amounts not then due and payable, or the liability for the payment of which is being contested or disputed in good faith by the Corporation and adequate reserves for which are on hand, (a) the construction and equipping of the Series 2017 Facilities have been completed substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications as incorporated into the Contract and the respective Costs of the Series 2017 Facilities have been paid, and (b) all other facilities necessary in connection with the Series 2017 Facilities have been acquired, constructed and installed and all costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith have been paid. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such certificate shall state that it is given without prejudice to any rights against third parties that exist at the date of such certificate or which may subsequently come into being.

Section 3.8 No Warranty of Condition or Suitability. The Corporation acknowledges its full familiarity with the Facilities and that the Authority has no responsibility for the Facilities Documents. The Authority makes no representation or warranty, either express or implied, and offers no assurance that the proceeds of the Bonds will be sufficient to pay in full the Costs of the Facilities in accordance with the Facilities Documents.

(c) Each installment of the Payments payable by the Corporation hereunder shall be in an amount which, without regard to the payments required under Section 4.2(b)(iii) above, but including moneys in the Debt Service Fund then available, shall be designed to provide for the timely payment in full of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Corporation promises that it will pay the Payments from the Base Rental, at such times and in such amounts as to assure that no default in the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Bonds shall at any time occur.

(e) Whenever the Corporation shall fail to pay the full amount of any installment of Payments payable under Sections 4.2(b)(i) through 4.2(b)(iii) above by the day of the month in which such installment is due, the Trustee shall give immediate telephonic notice thereof, promptly confirmed in writing, to an Authorized Corporation Representative.

(f) The Corporation shall also cause the Board to promptly pay when due under the Facilities Lease all amounts of Additional Rental owed by the Board thereunder, including, but not limited to, all Default or Delay Rentals and Administrative Expenses (each as defined in the Facilities Lease) owed to the Corporation, the Issuer and/or the Trustee thereunder. Each installment of the Payments payable by the Corporation hereunder shall be in an amount which, without regard to the payments required under Section 4.2(b)(iii) above, but including moneys in the Debt Service Fund then available, shall be designed to provide for the timely payment in full of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds.

(b) The option to redeem the Bonds under Section 3.4(a) of the Indenture can be exercised only upon written direction of the Corporation to the Authority as long as the Facilities Lease is outstanding. To exercise such option, the Corporation shall give written notice to the Authority and the Trustee and shall specify therein the date of such prepayment, which prepayment date shall be not fewer than thirty (30) days from the date such notice is received by the Trustee. The Authority and the Trustee shall make all necessary arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the redemption of Bonds to be redeemed under the Indenture in accordance with the provisions thereof.

NON-ARBITRAGE

Section 5.1 Covenants as to Arbitrage.

(a) The Corporation hereby agrees to prepare and provide instructions to the Trustee as to the investment and reinvestment of moneys held as part of any fund or account relating to the Bonds. Any such moneys so held as part of any fund or account shall be invested or reinvested by the Trustee in Permitted Investments as specified in Section 4.12 of the Indenture. The Corporation hereby covenants that it will comply with the terms of the Tax Regulatory Agreement and that it will make such use of the proceeds of the Bonds and all other funds held by the Trustee under the Indenture, regulate the investment of such proceeds and other funds and take such other and further action as may be required so that the Bonds will not constitute arbitrage bonds under Section 148 of the Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder. The Corporation agrees that it will comply with the terms of any letter of instructions provided to it by nationally recognized bond counsel relating to compliance with the provisions of Section 148 of the Code.

(b) If the Corporation determines that it is necessary to restrict or limit the yield on the investment of any money paid to or held by the Trustee hereunder or under the Indenture in order to avoid classification of the Bonds as arbitrage bonds within the meaning of the Code, the Corporation may issue to the Trustee an instrument to such effect (along with appropriate written instructions), in which event the Trustee will take such action as is necessary to restrict or limit the yield on such moneys in accordance with such instrument and instructions.

(c) The Corporation agrees to provide, or to engage qualified attorneys or consultants to provide, instructions to the Authority and the Trustee regarding any actions necessary to insure that such moneys will not be used in a manner which will cause the Bonds to be "arbitrage bonds" within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code. The Corporation shall be responsible for engaging, at its expense, qualified attorneys or consultants to calculate rebate payments required by Section 148 of the Code.

(d) The Corporation has entered into the Tax Regulatory Agreement and agrees to timely comply with the requirements set forth therein. The Corporation shall cause copies of any calculations or filings which are required to be made pursuant to the Tax Regulatory Agreement to be delivered to the Authority within five (5) days of any such calculation or filing if requested.

misconduct and negligence on the part of the Authority or the Trustee or their respective officers, agents, employees, servants and trustees. The Corporation also covenants and agrees, at its expense, to pay and to indemnify and to save the foregoing harmless of, from and against, all costs, reasonable counsel fees, expenses and liabilities incurred in any action or proceeding brought by reason of any such claim or demand; and

(i) That it is an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific and educational purposes, and it shall not perform any act or enter into any agreement that shall adversely affect its ability to obtain such status as set forth in this Section.

Section 6.2 Covenants Regarding Operation and Maintenance by the Corporation of its Properties. The Corporation acknowledges and agrees that it shall pay during the term hereof all Payments and other sums required hereunder and shall cause the Board to pay, as Additional Rental under the Facilities Lease, all Operation and Maintenance Expenses. The Corporation also expressly covenants and agrees:

(a) That it shall cause the Board or the University to maintain or cause to be maintained the Facilities, and each and every portion thereof, including all additions and improvements and all facilities adjoining and/or appurtenant thereto, in good operating order and condition, reasonable and ordinary wear and tear alone excepted, and make all necessary repairs thereto, interior and exterior, structural and non-structural, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen and unforeseen, and otherwise to make all replacements, alterations, improvements and modifications to the Facilities necessary to ensure that the same at all times shall be suitable for the efficient operation thereof for the purpose intended;

(b) That the Authority, the Bond Insurer, the Trustee and their agents shall have the right to inspect the Facilities at any reasonable time in a manner that will not interfere unreasonably with the Corporation's use thereof; however, any right of access to any portion of the Facilities leased to the students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees, as defined in the Facilities Lease, shall be subject to their rights pursuant to the rental agreement and University policy;

(c) That it shall cause the Board to pay, as Additional Rental under the Facilities Lease, as the same respectively become due, all taxes and assessments, whether general or special, and governmental charges of any kind whatsoever that may at any time be lawfully assessed or levied against or with respect to the Facilities. The Corporation shall not allow any part of the Facilities to become and remain subjected to any mechanics', laborer's or materialmen's liens of record. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation may, at its own expense and in its own name, contest any such item of tax, assessment, liens or other governmental charge and, in the event of such contest, may permit the item so contested to remain unpaid during the period of such contest and any appeal therefrom unless the Authority or the Trustee shall notify the Corporation that, in the opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel by nonpayment of any such items the security afforded the Bonds pursuant to the terms of the Indenture or Loan Agreement will be materially endangered, in which event such taxes, assessments or charges shall be paid forthwith. The Authority will cooperate to the extent reasonably necessary with the Corporation in any such claim, defense or contest. In the event the Corporation fails to do so, the Authority or the Trustee may, but shall be under no obligation to, pay any such item and any amounts so advanced therefor by the Authority or the Trustee shall become an additional obligation of the Corporation to the one making the advancement, which amount the Corporation agrees to pay together with interest thereon at the rate of the Trustee's prime lending rate, but solely from the Revenues;

(d) That it shall comply promptly with all material provisions of present and future laws, ordinances, orders, rules, regulations and requirements of every duly constituted governmental authority or agency and all material orders, rules and regulations of any regulatory, licensing, insurance underwriting or rating organization or other body exercising similar functions. The Corporation shall likewise perform and comply with all duties and obligations of any kind imposed by law, covenant, condition, agreement or easement and the requirements of all policies of insurance at any time in force with respect to the Facilities;

(e) That it shall not use or allow the Facilities to be used or occupied for any unlawful purpose or in violation of any private covenant, restriction, condition, easement or agreement covering or affecting the use of the Facilities. The Corporation likewise shall not suffer any act to be done or any condition to exist in the Facilities or any article to be brought therein or thereon which may be dangerous, unless safeguarded as required by law, or which, under law, constitutes a nuisance, public or private, or which may make void or voidable any insurance then in force with respect thereto; and

(f) That it shall take all action, if any, that may be required to obtain such consents, exceptions, exemptions or approvals of governmental authorities as may be necessary to permit it to comply fully with all covenants, stipulations, obligations and agreements of the Corporation contained in this Loan Agreement.

Section 6.3 Covenant as to Encumbrances. The Corporation covenants that, so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding, it shall not hereafter alienate and shall not hereafter create or suffer to be created any assignment, pledge, mortgage, hypothecation or lien on the Facilities, the Land, the Facilities Lease, or any Base Rental under any circumstances, except for Permitted Encumbrances.

Section 6.4 Covenants, Representations, and Warranties Relating to Federal Income Taxation.

(a) The Corporation covenants that it shall make such use of the proceeds of the Bonds, regulate investment of proceeds thereof and take such other and further actions as may be required by the Code and applicable temporary, proposed and final Regulations and procedures, necessary to assure that interest on the Bonds is excludable from gross income for Federal income tax purposes. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing covenant, the Corporation hereby covenants, represents and warrants, as follows:

(i) The Corporation will not take, fail to take or permit the commission of any action within its control necessary to be taken in order that interest on the Bonds will continue to be excludable from gross income for Federal income tax purposes;

(ii) The Corporation will preserve its status as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or corresponding provisions of prior law and to not be determined to be a private foundation as defined in Section 509 of said Code; the Corporation shall not perform any act or enter into any agreement which shall adversely affect its ability to obtain such federal income tax status; the Corporation shall not perform any act, enter into any agreement or use or permit any property of the Corporation to be used in any manner (including any unrelated trade or business) that could adversely affect the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for Federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code; the Corporation shall not carry on or permit to be carried on in any property of the Corporation or permit any property of the Corporation to be used in or for any trade or business to the extent that such use of such property would adversely affect the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for Federal income tax purposes; and the Corporation is duly organized and existing as a non-profit corporation under the laws of the State and it will maintain, extend and renew its corporate existence under the laws of the State and will not do, suffer or permit any act or thing to be done whereby its right to transact its functions might or could be terminated or its activities restricted;

(iii) The Corporation will timely file a statement with the United States of America setting forth the information required pursuant to Section 149(e) of the Code;

(iv) The average term of the Bonds, calculated in proportion to the "issue price" (as defined in Section 1273 of the Code) of the bonds of each stated maturity of such Bonds, will not exceed 120% of the average reasonably expected economic life of the Facilities financed with the proceeds of the Bonds or the investment earnings thereon, weighted in proportion to the respective cost of each item comprising the Facilities financed with the proceeds of such Bonds. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the reasonably expected economic life of property shall be determined as of the later of (i) the date on which the Bonds were issued or (ii) the date on which such property was placed in service (or expected to be placed in service);

(v) The Corporation will not cause the Bonds to be treated as "federally guaranteed" obligations within the meaning of Section 149(b) of the Code (as may be modified in any applicable rules, rulings, policies, procedures, regulations or other official statements promulgated or proposed by the Department of the Treasury or the Internal Revenue Service with respect to "federally guaranteed" obligations described in Section 149(b) of the Code);

(vi) Based upon all facts and estimates now known or reasonably expected to be in existence on the date the Bonds are delivered, the Corporation reasonably expects that the proceeds of the Bonds will not be used in a manner that would cause the Bonds or any portion thereof to be an "arbitrage bond" within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code;

(vii) As provided in Article V hereof, the Corporation will monitor the yield on the investment of the proceeds of the Bonds and moneys pledged to the repayment of the Bonds, other than amounts not subject to yield restriction and will restrict the yield on such investments to the extent required by the Code or the Regulations;

(viii) The Corporation (or any "related person", within the meaning of the Code) shall not, pursuant to an arrangement, formal or informal, purchase the Bonds in an amount related to the principal amounts advanced to the Corporation pursuant to this Loan Agreement; and

(ix) The Corporation agrees to comply with all the terms and provisions of the Tax Regulatory Agreement executed in connection with the issuance and sale of the Bonds, and to perform the covenants and duties imposed on it contained therein.

(b) All officers, employees and agents of the Corporation are authorized and directed to provide certifications of facts and estimates that are material to the reasonable expectations of the Corporation as of the date the Bonds are delivered. In complying with the foregoing covenants, the Corporation may rely from time to time upon an opinion issued by nationally-recognized bond counsel to the effect that any action by the Corporation or reliance upon any interpretation of the Code or Regulations contained in such opinion will not cause interest on the Bonds to be includable in gross income for Federal income tax purposes under existing law.

Section 6.5 Information. The Corporation agrees, whenever reasonably requested by the Authority or the Trustee, to provide access to inspect, examine and make copies of any and all books, accounts and records of the Corporation and to provide and certify or cause to be provided and certified such information concerning the Properties, the Facilities, the Corporation, its finances, and other topics as the Authority or Trustee, as the case may be, considers necessary to enable counsel to the Authority or the Trustee, as the case may be, to issue its opinions and otherwise advise the Authority or the Trustee, as the case may be, as to the transaction or the legal capacity of the parties to enter into the same, or to enable it to make any reports required by law, governmental regulation or the Indenture. When any such information is provided by the Corporation pursuant to this Section 6.5 the Corporation shall provide such information to both the Authority and the Trustee.

Section 6.6 Source of Payments. The Corporation agrees to pay or cause to be paid the payments required by this Loan Agreement solely from the Base Rental in the manner and at the times provided by this Loan Agreement.

Section 6.7 Insurance. The Corporation shall cause the Board to maintain insurance covering such risks and in such amounts as is required by Section 9 of the Facilities Lease. Insurance proceeds, and condemnation awards shall be applied in accordance with the Indenture.

Section 6.8 Annual Reports.

A signed counterpart of its audited financial statements shall be furnished to the Authority and the Trustee, and a copy thereof shall be furnished by the Corporation to any Bondholder who requests the same in writing.

(b) Any independent accountant that audits and reports on the Corporation's financial statements or provides any certificate, report or opinion under the Indenture and this Loan Agreement shall be a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants.

Section 6.9 Merger or Consolidation.

(a) The Corporation shall not merge into, or consolidate with, one or more corporations, or allow one or more of such corporations to merge into it, or sell or convey all or substantially all of its assets to any person or entity or acquire all or substantially all of the assets of any person or entity (any such merger, consolidation, sale, conveyance or acquisition being referred to as a "Merger") unless it has obtained the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer and:

(i) Any successor corporation to the Corporation (including, without limitation, any purchaser of all or substantially all the Properties of the Corporation (the "Successor Corporation") is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America or a state thereof and shall execute and deliver to the Trustee an appropriate instrument, satisfactory to the Authority and the Trustee, containing the agreement of such successor corporation to assume, jointly and severally and in solido, the due and punctual payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on all obligations of the Corporation (including, without limitation, the Bonds) according to their tenor and the due and punctual performance and observance of all the covenants and conditions of the Indenture and this Loan Agreement to be kept and performed by the Corporation, accompanied by an opinion of counsel as to the validity and enforceability of such assumption (which counsel and opinion, including without limitation the scope, form, substance and other aspects thereof, are acceptable to the Authority, the Bond Insurer and the Trustee);

(ii) Immediately after such Merger, there would not be a default in the performance or observance of any covenant or condition of the Corporation Documents and the Bond Documents; and

(iii) There shall be delivered to the Authority, the Bond Insurer and the Trustee an opinion of Bond Counsel (which counsel and opinion, including without limitation the scope, form, substance and other aspects thereof, are acceptable to the Trustee) to the effect that under existing laws the consummation of such Merger, whether or not contemplated on the original date of delivery of the Bonds, would not adversely affect the validity of the Bonds or the exclusion otherwise available from gross income of interest on the Bonds for federal or state income tax purposes.

(b) In case of any such Merger and upon any such assumption by the Successor Corporation, the Successor Corporation shall succeed to and be substituted for its predecessor, with the same effect as if it had been named in the Indenture and this Loan Agreement as the Corporation.

Section 6.10 Revenue Transfer to Trustee. The Corporation hereby covenants:

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Loan Agreement, all Rentals pledged as security for the obligations of the Authority and/or the Corporation under the Indenture or Loan Agreement then on hand shall be transferred immediately to the Trustee, and all such revenues received thereafter shall immediately, upon receipt, be transferred to the Trustee, and held for application pursuant to the Indenture or the Loan Agreement solely to the payment obligations of the Authority and/or the Corporation under the Indenture or Loan Agreement and the payment of reasonable and necessary costs of operation of the Facilities.

(b) To execute all necessary documents in order to effect a filing and reinscription of all necessary financing statements in such a manner as will preserve the effect of the financing statements from the date of original filing thereof and will notify the Authority of such filing.

Section 6.11 Disposition of Assets. The Corporation covenants that, so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding, it shall not hereafter alienate and shall not hereafter create or suffer to be created, except for Permitted Liens, any assignment, pledge, hypothecation or lien on any Rentals or on the Facilities.

Section 6.12 Additional Corporation Representations.

(a) Each component of the Facilities is, or when acquired, will be located within the limits of the State of Louisiana.

(b) The Project is an "Authorized Project" under La. R.S. 33:4548.3(B) and the Corporation will operate the Project as an "Authorized Project" under La. R.S. 33:4548.3(B) for so long as the Bonds remains outstanding.

(c) All material information given by the Corporation to the Authority concerning the Project, the Corporation and the Board was and is on the date of execution of this Loan Agreement true and correct.

Section 6.13 Continuing Disclosure. The Board has provided a Continuing Disclosure Certificate and, upon request by the Authority, will cause the Trustee to deliver copies to the Authority of any information that the terms of the Continuing Disclosure Certificate require to be provided or filed within five (5) days of the provision or filing of such information as required by the Continuing Disclosure Certificate.

Section 6.14 Indemnity.

(a) The Corporation shall and agrees to indemnify and save the Authority, the Trustee, the Bond Insurer, and their respective directors, officers, members, and employees harmless against and from any and all liabilities, losses, damages, costs, penalties, fines, expenses, causes of action, suits, claims, demands, and judgments of any nature arising from, in connection with, or as a result of: (i) the leasing or operation of the Facilities, (ii) any breach or default on the part of the Corporation in the performance of any of its obligations under any of the Bond Documents, (iii) any act or negligence of the Corporation or of any of its agents, contractors, servants, employees, or licensees, (iv) any act or negligence of any assignee or lessee of the Corporation or of any agents, contractors, servants, employees, or licensees of any assignee or borrower of the Corporation, (v) the issuance or sale of the Bonds, (vi) any injury to or death of any person or damage to property in or upon the Facilities or resulting from or connected with the use, non-use, condition, or occupancy of the Facilities or any part of it, (vii) the violation of any agreement or condition of this Loan Agreement except by the Authority, (viii) the violation of any contract, agreement, or restriction by the Corporation relating to the Facilities, (ix) the violation of any law, ordinance, or regulation by the Corporation or its agents, contractors, employees, licensees, or assignees arising out of the ownership, occupancy, or use of the Facilities or any part of it, (x) the construction, acquisition, equipping, and installation of the Facilities or the failure to construct, acquire, equip, or install the Facilities, (xi) any act of the Corporation or any of its agents, contractors, or licensees, (xii) any statement or information concerning the Corporation, its officers and members, or the Facilities contained in any official statement or prospectus furnished to purchasers of any Bonds that is untrue or incorrect in any material respect and any omission from any final official statement or prospectus of any statement or information which should be contained in it for the purpose for which it is to be used or which is necessary to make the statements in it concerning the Corporation, its officers and members, or the Facilities not misleading in any material respect if the final official statement or prospectus is approved in writing by the Corporation, (xiii) failure to properly register or otherwise qualify the sale of the Bonds or failure to comply with any licensing or other law or regulation which would affect the manner in which or to whom the Bonds could be sold, (xiv) the carrying out by the Corporation of any of the transactions contemplated by the Loan Agreement, and (xv) any federal or state tax audit relating to the Facilities, the Corporation, or the application of the proceeds of the Bonds, provided, however, this indemnity shall not apply to any claims or damages arising solely from the willful misconduct, bad faith, or fraud of the Authority or the negligence, willful misconduct, or intentional misconduct of the other parties seeking indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify and save the Authority, the Bond Insurer, and the Trustee harmless from and against all costs and expenses incurred in or in connection with any such claim arising as described in the preceding sentence, or in connection with any action or proceeding brought thereon, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as provided in Section 10.4 hereof, and upon notice from the Authority, the Bond Insurer, or the Trustee, the Corporation shall defend them or any of them in any such action or proceeding.

(b) The Corporation agrees that it will indemnify and hold the Trustee harmless from any and all liability, cost, or expense incurred without negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee in the course of its duties, including any act, omission, delay, or refusal of the Trustee in reliance upon any signature, certificate, order, demand, instruction, request, notice, or other instrument or document of the Corporation believed by the Trustee to be valid, genuine, and sufficient.

(c) Notwithstanding the fact that it is the intention of the parties that the Authority, the Trustee, the Bond Insurer, and their directors, officers, members, and employees shall not incur pecuniary liability by reason of the terms of the Bond Documents or the undertakings required thereunder or by reason of (i) the issuance of the Bonds, (ii) the execution of the Bond Documents, (iii) the performance of any act required by the Bond Documents, (iv) the performance of any act requested by the Corporation, or (v) any other costs, fees, or expenses incurred by the Authority, the Bond Insurer, or the Trustee with respect to the Facilities or the financing thereof, including all claims, liabilities, or losses arising in connection with the violation of any statutes or regulations pertaining to the foregoing, nevertheless, if the Authority or the Trustee should incur any such pecuniary liability, then in such event the Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless the Authority, the Bond Insurer, and the Trustee against all claims by or on behalf of any Person arising out of the same and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such claim or in connection with any action or proceeding brought thereon, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, and upon notice from the Authority, the Bond Insurer, or the Trustee, the Corporation shall defend the Authority, the Bond Insurer, and the Trustee in any such action or proceeding.

(d) The indemnity contained in this Section 6.14 shall not apply to any (i) acts of willful misconduct, bad faith, or fraud of the Authority or any acts of negligence, willful misconduct, or intentional misconduct of the other parties seeking indemnification; (ii) any breach by the party seeking indemnification of its obligations under the Bond Documents; or (iii) with respect to the Authority and the Bond Insurer, any liability or claim arising out of or relating to any information furnished by the Authority or the Bond Insurer and included in the offering statement relating to the Series 2017 Bonds or any failure by the Authority to disclose information required to make the statements in the offering statement relating to the Authority or the Bond Insurer not misleading.

(e) Nothing contained in this Section 6.14 shall require the Corporation to indemnify the Authority, the Trustee, the Bond Insurer, or their officers, directors, members, or employees for any claim or liability that the Corporation was not given any opportunity to contest or for any settlement of any such action effected without the Corporation's consent (assuming such opportunity to contest or consent was available to the party seeking indemnification and was not waived in writing by the Corporation). The indemnity of the Authority, the Trustee, the Bond Insurer, and their officers, directors, members, and employees contained in this Section 6.14 shall survive the payment of the Bonds and the termination of this Loan Agreement.

(f) In addition, the Corporation agrees that if it initiates any action, suit, or other proceeding with respect to any claim, demand, or request for relief, whether judicial or administrative, in which the Authority or the Bond Insurer is named or joined as a party, the Corporation will pay to and reimburse to the Authority and the Bond Insurer the full amount of all reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Issuer or the Bond Insurer with respect to the Issuer's or the Bond Insurer's defense of or participation in such action, suit, or other proceeding.

Section 6.15 Debt Service Coverage Ratios. The Corporation shall or it shall cause the Board to maintain a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities as provided in Section 3(h) of the Facilities Lease, the provisions of which, including the applicable cure and default provisions, are incorporated herein by reference.

ARTICLE VII
ASSIGNMENT

Section 7.1 Assignment of this Loan Agreement.

(a) Without the written consent of the Bond Insurer, the rights of the Corporation under this Loan Agreement may be assigned as a whole or in part but no such assignment shall constitute a release of the Corporation from its obligations hereunder.

(b) Each transferee of the Corporation's interest in this Loan Agreement shall assume the obligations of the Corporation hereunder to the extent of the interest assigned, sold or leased, and the Corporation shall, not more than sixty (60) nor fewer than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of any such assignment or lease, furnish or cause to be furnished to the Authority, the Bond Insurer and the Trustee a true and complete copy of each such assignment or lease.

Section 7.2 Restrictions on Transfer of Authority's Rights. The Authority agrees that it will not during the term of this Loan Agreement sell, assign, transfer or convey its interests in this Loan Agreement except as provided in Section 7.3.

Section 7.3 Assignment by the Authority. It is understood, agreed and acknowledged that the Authority will assign to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture certain of its rights, title and interests in and to this Loan Agreement (reserving its rights, however, pursuant to sections of this Loan Agreement providing that notices, reports and other statements be given to the Authority and also reserving its rights to reimbursement and payment of costs and expenses under Section 9.5 hereof, its rights to indemnification under Section 6.1(d) hereof and its individual and corporate rights to exemption from liability under Section 10.12 hereof), including the interest of the Authority in and to the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease assigned by the Corporation to the Authority hereunder, and the Corporation hereby assents to such assignment and pledge.

ARTICLE VIII
SUPPLEMENTS AND AMENDMENTS

Section 8.1 Amendment to Loan Agreement without Consent. The Authority and the Corporation, with the consent of the Trustee with respect to Sections 8.1(d) and 8.1(e) hereof, with the consent of the Bond Insurer, except if such supplement or amendment is for the purpose of refunding Bonds in order to realize debt service savings in each subsequent year as specified in Section 5.2 of the Indenture, but without the consent of the owners of any of the Bonds Outstanding under the Indenture, may enter into supplements to the Loan Agreement that shall not be inconsistent with the terms and provisions hereof for any of the purposes heretofore specifically authorized in the Loan Agreement or the Indenture, and in addition thereto for the following purposes:

(a) To cure any ambiguity or formal defect, inconsistency or omission in this Loan Agreement or to clarify matters or questions arising hereunder;

(b) To add covenants and agreements for the purpose of further securing the obligations of the Corporation hereunder;

(c) To confirm as further assurance any mortgage or pledge of additional property, revenues, securities or funds;

(d) To conform the provisions of the Loan Agreement in connection with the provisions of any supplements or amendments to the Indenture entered into pursuant to the provisions of Section 10.1 thereof;

(e) To provide any other modifications which, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, are not prejudicial to the interests of the Bondholders; or

(f) to conform the covenants and provisions of the Corporation contained herein to any different financial statement presentation required by the Financial Accounting Standard Board that is different than the presentation required as of the date of issuance of the Bonds, so long as the effect of such conformed covenants and provisions is substantially identical to the effect of the covenants and provisions as in effect on the date of issuance of the Bonds.

Section 8.2 Amendment to Loan Agreement upon Approval of a Majority of Bondholders.

(a) The provisions of the Loan Agreement may be amended in any particular with the consent of the owners of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of Bonds then Outstanding and the written consent of the Bond Insurer; provided, however, that no such amendment may be adopted that decreases the percentage of owners of the Bonds required to approve an amendment, or that permits a change in the date of payment of the principal of or interest on any Bonds or of any redemption price thereof or the rate of interest thereon without the consent of the owners of all of the aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then Outstanding.

(b) If at any time the Authority and the Corporation shall request the Trustee to consent to a proposed amendment for any of the purposes of this Section 8.2, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such proposed amendment to be given in the manner required by the Indenture to redeem the Bonds. Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed amendment and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee for inspection by all Bondholders. If, within sixty (60) days or such longer period as shall be prescribed by the Authority following such notice, the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds outstanding at the time of the execution of any such proposed amendment shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as herein provided, no owner of any Bonds shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof, or in any manner to question the propriety of the execution thereof, or to enjoin or restrain the Trustee, the Corporation or the Authority from executing or approving the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions thereof. Upon the execution of any such proposed amendment as in this Section permitted and provided, this Loan Agreement shall be and be deemed to be modified and amended in accordance therewith.

Section 8.3 Amendments to Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease Not Requiring Owner Consent. Subject to the terms and provisions of Section 8.5 and 8.7 of this Loan Agreement, with the written consent of the Bond Insurer, except if such supplement or amendment is for the purpose of refunding Bonds in order to realize debt service savings in each subsequent year as specified in Section 5.2 of the Indenture, the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease may be amended or modified in any manner not inconsistent with the terms and provisions of the Loan Agreement, for any one or more of the following purposes: (1) to cure any ambiguity or formal defect or omission in the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease that does not have an adverse effect upon the interest of the Owners; (2) to grant or confer upon the Authority or the Trustee, for the benefit of the Owners, any additional rights, remedies, powers or authorities that lawfully may be granted to or conferred upon the Authority or the Trustee; (3) to more clearly identify the Facilities or to add to or subtract from the Facilities any property; (4) to amend or modify the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease in any manner specifically required or permitted by the terms thereof, including as may be necessary to maintain the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for federal income tax purposes; (5) to make any amendment or modification required as a condition to obtaining any rating by Moody's or S&P with respect to the Bonds; and (6) to amend or modify the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease in any other manner that, in the judgment of the Trustee, is not materially adverse to the interests of the owners of the Bonds and the Bond Insurer or the Trustee and that does not involve a change described in Section 8.5 hereof.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided herein, the consent of the Bond Insurer shall not be required in order to amend the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease solely to add additional property for the Facilities.

Section 8.4 Amendments to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease Requiring Owner Consent. Exclusive of amendments and modifications covered by Section 8.3 hereof, the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease may be amended or modified only as provided in Section 8.4 and 8.5 of this Loan Agreement. Subject to the terms and provisions contained in Section 8.5 of this Loan Agreement, the Authority and the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then Outstanding and the Bond Insurer, shall have the right, from time to time, anything contained in this Loan Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, to consent to and approve the amendment or modification of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease. If at any time there is a proposed amendment or modification to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such modification or amendment to be mailed to each of the owners of the Bonds at the address indicated on the registration books of the Trustee and the Bond Insurer. Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed amendment or modification and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal office of the Trustee for inspection by owners of all Outstanding Bonds. If, within sixty (60) days, or such longer period as shall be prescribed by the Authority, following the mailing of such notice, the owners of the requisite percentage in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Bonds at the time of the execution of any such amendment or modification shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as herein provided, no owner of any Outstanding Bond shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof; or to enjoin or restrain the parties thereto from executing the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions hereof.

Section 8.5 Consent Required Under Certain Circumstances for Amendment of Facilities Lease or Ground Lease. Nothing contained in Sections 8.3 and 8.4 of this Loan Agreement shall permit, or be construed as permitting, without the approval and consent of all of the owners of the Outstanding Bonds and the Bond Insurer, (a) a reduction in the amount of, or the extension of the time for, any payment of Base Rental due under the Facilities Lease or any amount due under the Bond Insurance Policy; or (b) the termination of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease prior to the expiration of their stated term, other than in accordance with the provisions thereof.

Section 8.6 Opinion Required for Amendment of Facilities Lease or Ground Lease. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, no amendment or modification of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease shall become effective unless and until the Trustee has been provided with an opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that such amendment or modification will not have an adverse effect upon the validity of the Bonds and to the effect that such amendment or modification will maintain the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for federal income tax purposes.

Section 8.7 Consent of the Board. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, an amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease under this Article VIII shall not become effective unless and until the Board shall have consented to the execution and delivery of such amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease, unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and no amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease shall without the prior written consent of the Board affect the date or amounts of payments required on the Bonds or required under the Facilities Lease.

Section 8.8 Filing. Copies of any such supplement or amendment to this Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease shall be filed with the Trustee and delivered to the Authority and the Corporation before such supplement or amendment may become effective.

Section 8.9 Reliance on Counsel. The Authority and the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon the opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Trustee, who may be counsel for the Authority, as conclusive evidence that any such proposed supplement or amendment to this Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease complies with the provisions of this Loan Agreement and the Indenture and that it is proper for the Authority and the Trustee under the provisions of this Article to execute or approve such supplement or amendment.

Section 8.10 Notice to Rating Agencies. No supplemental agreement or amendment to this Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease shall be executed and delivered pursuant hereto without prior written notice having been given by the Corporation to Standard & Poor's Ratings Group and Moody's, if any of the Bonds are rated by such Rating Agencies, of the Corporation's intention to execute such supplemental agreement or amendment thereof not fewer than fifteen (15) days in advance of the execution of said supplemental agreement or amendment. The Corporation shall provide the Bond Insurer a full transcript of all proceedings relative to said supplemental agreement or amendment.

ARTICLE IX

- (a) The Corporation shall default in the timely payment of any Payment pursuant to Article IV of this Loan Agreement.
- (b) An Event of Default shall exist under the Bond Documents, the Facilities Lease, or the Tax Regulatory Agreement.
- (c) The Corporation shall fail duly to perform, observe or comply with any other covenant, condition or agreement on its part under this Loan Agreement (other than a failure to make any payment required under this Loan Agreement), and such failure continues for a period of thirty (30) days after the date on which written notice of such failure, requiring the same to be remedied, shall have been given to the Corporation by the Trustee; provided, however, that if such performance, observation or compliance requires work to be done, action to be taken, or conditions to be remedied, which by their nature cannot reasonably be done, taken or remedied, as the case may be, within such thirty (30) day period, no Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred or to exist if, and so long as the Corporation shall commence such performance, observation or compliance within such period and shall diligently and continuously prosecute the same to completion.

(d) The entry of a decree or order by a court having jurisdiction in the premises adjudging the Corporation a bankrupt or insolvent, or approving as properly filed a petition seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition of or in respect of the Corporation under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable federal or state law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, custodian, assignee, or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Corporation or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days.

(e) The institution by the Corporation of proceedings to be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by it to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency against it, or the filing by it of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other similar applicable federal or state law, or the consent by it to the filing of any such petition or to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, custodian, assignee, trustee or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Corporation or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by it of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by it in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due.

Section 9.2 Remedies.

Whenever any Event of Default under Section 9.01 hereof shall have happened and be continuing, any one or more of the following remedial steps may be taken with the consent of the Bond Insurer and shall be taken at the direction of the Bond Insurer:

(a) The Issuer or the Trustee may declare all installments of Payments under Section 4.02 hereof to be immediately due and payable, whereupon the same shall become immediately due and payable;

(b) The Issuer or the Trustee may take whatever action at law or in equity may appear necessary or desirable to collect the Payments then due and thereafter to become due, or to enforce performance and observance of any obligation, agreement or covenant of the Corporation under this Agreement;

(c) The Issuer or the Trustee may have access to and inspect, examine and make copies of any and all books, accounts and records of the Corporation;

(d) The Issuer or the Trustee (or the owners of the Bonds in the circumstances permitted by the Indenture) may exercise any option and pursue any remedy provided by the Indenture; and/or

(e) The Trustee may foreclose the lien of the Mortgage.

Section 9.3 No Remedy Exclusive: Selective Enforcement. No remedy conferred upon or reserved to the Authority or the Trustee by this Loan Agreement is intended to be exclusive of any other available remedy or remedies, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given under this Loan Agreement and as now or hereafter existing at law or in equity. No delay or omission to exercise any right or power accruing upon any event of nonperformance shall impair any such right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver thereof, but any such right and power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient. In order to entitle the Authority or the Trustee to exercise any remedy reserved to it in this Article, it shall not be necessary to give any notice, other than such notice as may be herein expressly required. In the event the Authority or the Trustee shall elect to selectively and successively enforce its rights under this Loan Agreement, such action shall not be deemed a waiver or discharge of any other lien, encumbrance or security interest securing payment of the indebtedness secured hereby or thereby until such time that it shall have been paid in full all sums secured hereunder and thereunder. The foreclosure of any lien provided pursuant to this Loan Agreement without the simultaneous foreclosure of all such liens shall not merge the liens granted which are not foreclosed with any interest which the Authority or the Trustee might obtain as a result of such selective and successive foreclosure.

Section 9.4 Indenture Overriding. All of the provisions of this Article are subject to and subordinate to the rights and remedies of the Bond Insurers, the holders of the Bonds and the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture. The Authority shall have no power to waive any event of default hereunder, except with respect to indemnification and its administrative payments, without the consent of the Trustee and the Bond Insurer to such waiver.

Section 9.5 Loan Agreement to Pay Attorneys' Fees and Expenses. In any Event of Default, if the Authority or the Trustee employs attorneys or incurs other expenses for the collection of amounts payable hereunder or the enforcement of the performance or observance of any covenants or agreements on the part of the Corporation herein contained, whether or not such suit is commenced, the Corporation agrees that it will on demand therefor pay to the Authority or the Trustee the reasonable fees of such attorneys and such other reasonable expenses so incurred by the Authority or the Trustee.

Section 9.6 Authority and Corporation to Give Notice of Default. The Authority and the Corporation severally covenant that they will, at the expense of the Corporation, promptly give to the Trustee written notice of any Event of Default under this Loan Agreement of which they shall have actual knowledge or written notice, but the Authority shall not be liable (except as provided in Section 6.1(d) hereof) for failing to give such notice.

Section 9.7 Correlative Waivers. If an Event of Default under Section 8.2 of the Indenture shall be cured or waived and any remedial action by the Trustee rescinded, any correlative Default under this Loan Agreement shall be deemed to have been cured or waived.

ARTICLE X MISCELLANEOUS

The duties, obligations and responsibilities, if any, of the parties to this Loan Agreement with respect to third parties shall remain as imposed by law.

Section 10.12 Exculpatory Provision.

The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnified Party against any claim or liability based on the foregoing asserted by any other person.

(b) In case any action shall be brought against an Indemnified Party in respect of which indemnity may be sought against the Corporation, such Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Corporation in writing and the Corporation shall assume the defense thereof, including the employment of counsel of the Corporation's choice and the payment of all expenses. Such Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action and participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be paid by such Indemnified Party unless the employment of such counsel has been authorized by the Corporation. (b) the Authority shall not be under any obligation to perform any recordkeeping or to provide any legal service, it being understood that such services shall be performed or caused to be performed by the Trustee or the Corporation; and

In acting or in refraining from acting under this Loan Agreement, the Indenture, the Mortgage, the Continuing Disclosure Certificate, the Bond Purchase Agreement or the Tax Regulatory Agreement, the Authority may conclusively rely on the advice of its counsel.
