

We are pleased to announce the opening of ...

The Inn at Southeastern

Accommodating Southeastern's presidents since 1940, the residence at 408 $\frac{1}{2}$ W. Dakota Street is now a guest house! The Inn at Southeastern offers support for University programs by providing convenient housing for visiting scholars, artists and professionals. This four-bedroom Inn is completely furnished, contains all necessary linens, and has fully equipped kitchen facilities as well as a washer and dryer. The Inn may not be used for parties, banquets, receptions, or other social events.

ELIGIBILITY

Deans and Department Heads may now submit proposals to the Center for Faculty Excellence for housing a guest at the Inn. Guests to be considered include scholars, performers, lecturers, etc. and may be housed for a minimum of three nights or a maximum of one academic year depending on the objectives of the individual proposal. Exceptions involving university-wide impact may be considered. Housing also includes accommodations for the guest's family if needed.

APPLICATION

A complete application must include each item listed below.

- The Inn at Southeastern application form
- Description of the project (max of 1500 words)
- Curriculum vitae of the invited guest

The project description must include, but is not restricted to the following elements:

- Objectives of the project
- An outline of the plan for carrying out the project
- Description of the guests "contributions" to Southeastern (e.g., teaching, lectures, performances, etc.) during the residency
- Residence fees are determined on a case-by-case basis but may be waived under special circumstances. If you are requesting a fee waiver, please provide written justification.
- The significance of the project for Southeastern's faculty and students
- Expected products of the project (i.e., publications, lectures, exhibitions) and provisions for publicly disseminating the project results

Proposals will be considered on a first-come, first-serve basis and are dependent upon availability.

NOTE: The Inn at Southeastern is smoke-free and pet-free!
