

National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE) Results 2011-2012

Student Satisfaction

- » 86% of students would attend Southeastern again if they started over.
- » 86% of Southeastern students rate their educational experiences as good or excellent.
- » 78% of Southeastern students say that other students are friendly and supportive, 78% think faculty are available and helpful, and 58% think administrators are helpful and considerate.

Institutional Commitment to Student Learning and Success

- » 73% of students think Southeastern provides “quite a bit” of support for student academic success.
- » 78% rate the quality of academic advising at Southeastern as good or excellent.
- » 84% think Southeastern contributed “quite a bit” to their acquiring a broad general education and 75% think Southeastern contributed “quite a bit” to their acquiring job-related skills.

Student Interaction with Campus Faculty

- » 59% of Southeastern students often discuss grades or assignments with an instructor.
- » 45% of students often talk about career plans with a faculty member.
- » 66% often work harder than they thought they could to meet faculty’s expectations.

Active Learning Experiences

- » 71% of Southeastern students plan on participating in or have participated in community service or volunteer work.
- » 75% of Southeastern students plan on participating in or have participated in some type of hands-on experience (internship, practicum, clinical assignment, etc.).
- » 62% of Southeastern students often participate in class discussions.

Source: Spring 2012 NSSE