

Leadership  Integrity  Values  Excellence

THE CODE

The Office of Student Conduct at Southeastern Louisiana University works with students to encourage honorable behavior to model the Code of Conduct. Live the Code is a campaign to recognize students, which uphold worthy characteristics as leadership, integrity, values, excellence, responsibility, citizenship, respect for self, peers, educators, and community.

Students are nominated by Administration, Faculty, Staff, or are recognized by an active student organizations' president. Only one Live the Code award will be recognized at the DSA Annual Convocation held in May.

Eligibility:

1. Sophomore status or above
2. Must be free of any infraction of the Code of Conduct
3. Considered in Good Disciplinary and Academic standing during the Fall 2012 and Spring 2013 semester.
4. Enrolled full-time (12 hrs or more)
5. Cumulative GPA of 3.0
6. Must be active in one or more extracurricular activities or organizations on campus and demonstrate leadership and involvement.
7. Has shown outstanding contributions in the community on and off-campus, going above the call of a traditional student.

Selection Process:

- ^ A committee of representatives from a variety of areas on campus will review the applications and make a selection based on the criteria above.
- ^ Selection is based on involvement in student organizations, committee appointments, honors, awards, and community service.
