

Human Relations

---

HUMAN RELATIONS (HURE)

604 [EPSY 604]. Group Process. Credit 3 hours. Prerequisite: CED 601, 603, and 605. Major approaches to group dynamics and counseling, including theoretical assumptions and basic principles and techniques, are covered. A weekly lab component is required.

608. Human Growth & Development. Credit 3 hours. Study of the emotional, physical, social, and intellectual factors of development across the lifespan.

625. Multicultural Counseling. Credit 3 hours. Prerequisite: CED 601, 603, and 605. This course is designed to help counselors maximize their effectiveness in today's pluralistic society by understanding: value systems and ways of life of culturally diverse groups; similarities and differences of various cultural groups; dynamics of multicultural interaction and communication; and processes of cultural transmissions in the "global village."

---

Updated 8 Apr 99.