

ENGL 632
LIFE WRITING
Summer 2015
TTH 10:30 – 1:15

The seminar will survey some forms of life writing – autobiography and biography – along with major critical approaches to these genres. Since the readings will be concentrated in the eighteenth / nineteenth centuries and in the twentieth / twenty-first centuries, participants can elect to use the seminar to fulfill either a “B” or a “C” requirement, depending on choice of seminar project.
